The many friends of Ed Wagoner are glad to see him back at his chair in the Sanitary Barber Shop in Clanton. And, judging from the big healthy smile he wears, we would conclude that Ed also is glad to be back in the old home town. He has removed his family here from Montgomery and is living in the Gowan Addition, where he purchased the Claud Reynolds place recently.

REPORT RENDERED BY THE GRAND JURY

Sixteen True Bills Found for Law Violations—The New Court House Highly Praised.

COUNTY DEBT ITEMIZED.

State of Alabama, Chilton County:

To the Hon. Leon McCord, Judge Presiding of the Fall Term, 1919, of Chilton County Circuit Court:

We, the Grand Jury, duly empannelled, for the Fall Term, 1919, of the Circuit Court of said county, beg leave to submit to your honor the following report:

We have investigated 40 cases or more, and examined a great number of witnesses that have been brought before us, and diligently sought for violations of the criminal laws in this county, and as a result of our investigation we herewith return 16 true bills.

We are sorry to report that in our opinion the prohibition laws in the county are still being violated in many instances. We have called and caused to come before us a great number of witnesses endeavoring to find out who these violators are that they might be indicted and brought to trial. We have in all other violations of the Criminal Laws brought to our knowledge and in all cases where the evidence warranted and the good of the county would be subserved returned true bills.

We have investigated the books, bonds and officers of the various county officers and find the books neatly and properly kept so far as we could ascertain.

We hereto attach the report of the county treasury, marked "Exhibit A," as a part of these general presentments.

We desire to congratulate the county on our recently constructed court house. We think that it would be a credit to any County in the State. It shows a pride among our people that is very commendable. We desire to thank our commissioners and a few very public spirited men who gave so much of their time and their means to its achievement. And we suggest to those that have control of it to leave no effort undone to keep it the thing of beauty it now is.

We have examined the jail and find it in good condition and neatly kept. We congratulate the sheriff in the manner, neatness and cleanliness in which it is kept.

We find in jail five prisoners—3 whites and 2 colored. They inform us that they are sufficiently fed and comfortably cared for.

We have examined the County poor house and find twenty inmates—7 males and 13 females, all white. And from their appearance they are provided for and have every necessity that their condition would require. We find some repairs necessary for the building, in the way of fixing the roof, screens, windows, steps, floors, chimney and well; and suggest that addition of two or three mattresses for the beds.

We find the roads in the County in average condition, but not as good as they should be. We recommend and insist that the commissioners court carry out the road law implicitly. We believe that if they will do so our roads will be greatly improved.

We desire to thank your honor for the able charge you gave us which materially assisted us in our deliberations. We wish to thank our solicitor for the able and faithful assistance renderd us. Also to express our appreciation of the efficient work of our Sheriff and his deputies. And our bailiff for his faithful and courteous assistance.

Having concluded our labors, we ask that we be allowed to recess, subject to the call of the court.
Respectfully,
JESSE BAKER, W,J, ARMSTRONG
W. T. WHITE, Foreman.
Clerks.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS
By Clyde Foshee.

Athletic News.

The members of the football team, accompanied by some of the students motored to Columbiana and played Shelby High School a game of football.

Although we were out-classed in both weight and teamwork, as three of our backfield men were out and we had to play some green men. Leon Kemp, Joe Mullins and Pink Cooper starred for Chilton.

We have a game schedulled with Dallas High School at Plantersvillle Friday. We hope that some of the town people will go out and back up their team and encourage them instead of knocking them. Heretofore you have acted the part of "misers" and very few of you care anything about the boys—whether they win or not. Now I hope that all the town people will show more interest hereafter.

The Julia Tutwiler Literary Society gave a very enjoyable program Tuesday morning. The most interesting and instructive part of the program was a letter read by Mr. Thompson. It was a letter he wrote to his family while he was attending the University of Chicago.

Margaret Hester rendered a beautiful piano solo. Era Owens gave something of the life of Julia Tutwiler. Clara Millsap told the "Aim and Purpose of the Julia Tutwiler Society."

Willie Murphy and "Shortie" Sims cracked some good jokes.

Jokes.

Mr. Holmes: Harold, what is the color of a red poll cat.

Harold: (instantly) Black.

ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL CAMPAIGN OCT. 20 TO 28

The campaign for raising subscriptions to the Roosevelt Memorial fund, in Chilton County, has been placed in the charge of Sheriff H. A. Harris as county chairman. The purpose of the movement is to create a campaign for five million dollars to be raised in the United States for the purpose of erecting and maintaining suitable memorials to the honor of Col. Theodore Roosevelt. The necessary funds will be provided by a great national free-will gift, and the purpose of the campaign in Chilton County is to inform the individual subscriber as to how he may contribute what he may wish to toward the memorial to our great president who has passed to his reward. No pressure is to be brought to anyone in securing a subscription. It is a voluntary matter with those who wish to do Roosevelt the honor of contributing to his memorial with as much of their means as they may desire.

Mr. Harris is the chairman for this county, and has appointed a committeeman in each beat to assist in the campaign. Following is the list appointed:

In the next few days these committeemen will be furnished with literature explaining the campaign in details. And anyone in any beat who desires to contribute anything may do so through these men.

Remember the date of the campaign is from October 20 to 28th. There are many admirers and close followers of Col. Roosevelt in Chilton County, and it is expected that a good contribution will be made from this county to his memorial.

HE MAY EXPECT TO BE PRESIDENT OF WORLD

(From the Rochester (N.Y.) Democrat-Chronicle.)

Political observers in Washington are much more interested in President Wilson's political plans than are they in the avowed purpose of the swing around the circle. Some of the gossip in circulation there must be decidedly interesting to the average American citizen, who is more desirous of seeing the restoration of normal industrial and business conditions than he is of watching the President paint glowing pictures of an imaginary and illusory Utopia.

Two schools of thought have developed, one of which is firmly convinced that the President has been led by flatterers into believing that he can be elected for a third term, and thus shatter all precedents of the tenure of the presidential office and throw into the background the fame of every other president from Washington down.

The other school, which professes to be in possession of hints thrown out at Paris, believes that the President's zeal for ratification of the treaty exactly as he presented it to the Senate, regardless of the merits of the reservations and amendments suggested, can be explained only on one ground. Mr. Wilson has been inspired with the idea of rounding out his career by serving as president of the League of Nations; in other words of enjoying the high-sounding title, "president of the world."

REGISTER YOUR DOG BEFORE DECEMBER 1

After That Time They May Be Killed if they do not Wear Official Colar.

Circuit Clerk, M. D. Fohee, whose duty it is under the new law, to register all dogs, has been advised that time for registration of dogs has been extended from October 15 to December 1st.

The following is what the State Tax Commission w[illegible] [illegible]. Foshee in regard to the [illegible]:

"By r[illegible] the dog registration law [illegible] observe that same took [illegible] October 1st. and that owners of dogs not registering same by Oct. 15th become delinquent. In view of the fact that the supplies could not under any circumstances, be furnished within the time required for registration, we think you will agree with us that as a matter of common sense, and justice to those who own dogs, no steps should be taken in the matter of enforcement of the law until some time after the necessary supplies have been delivered to you. In line with this, we would suggest that action against delinquents be deferred until December 1st."

Circuit Clerk, 1 Jan 16

Just as soon as the necessary supplies arrive, Mr. Foshee will begin the registration of dogs, and he wishes it known among the people that all dogs must be registered in accordance with the state tax board by December 1. Otherwise, the dogs will be treated as provided in the laws published elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

WOMEN IN CALIFORNIA CHEER RESERVATIONS

Applaud Condemnation of League Provisions Inimical to American Honor.

More than a thousand women, representing the women leaders in professional, business and social life of San Francisco and Oakland, rose en masse at a luncheon recently given in honor of Senator Hiram Johnson, Republican, cheering and applauding his speech against the League of Nations. Senator Johnson referred to the peace treaty with its Shantung provision as a "blot on American honor," and said that the league of nations as now constituted would make America a party to perpetrating this and other wrongs.

In a discussion of the Shantung settlement he said: "The president talked to you concerning Shantung in a fashion which he has never used before. In Paris, to use his own words as related to us, the Shantung decision was 'shameful'. In Washington he described it as 'abominable and detestable'. The Shantung decision, when it reached San Francisco, was not only justifiable but justified by him. It was justified by him upon the theory that in the past China had been despoiled. What a strange mind it is that can describe the same act as 'shameful' and detestable in Washington and as justifiable and justified in San Francisco. And what a very strange mind it is that calmly and naively presents what it terms a former despoiling of China in justification of present robbery."

THE DEACON'S NON-ARRIVAL

A deacon in an Ohio Church was seriously ill. He was a popular man, so a bulletin was posted at the church regarding his condition. It read:

"1 o'clock—Deacon Jones very ill."
"2 o'clock—Deacon Jones worse."
"3 o'cock—Deacon Jones dead."

A traveling man read the bullletin and added:

"7 o'clock—Great excitement in heaven; Deacon Jones not yet arrived. The worst is feared."—The National News.

WE DIDN'T SEND WILSON TO THE PEACE CONFERENCE.

The League to Enforce Peace, in one of its misty squawks against the amendment to the League of Nations soulfully declares that "America sent her President to Versailles." America did nothing of the sort. America's president went to Versailles of his own will and determination when he ought to have stayed in Washington and 'tended his own business as he was elected to do. He went over the protests of the entire country, except a few Catholics who wanted him to get away so Pat Tumulty and the Knights of Columbus could take care of things in Washington as they wanted to.

Wilson simply appointed himself a group of rubber stamps, and went flying into the peace conference to do the biddings that Pope Benedict gave him when they were in secret conference in the Holy Room of the Vatican. He made great promises of things impossible, and supplemented his promises with dire threats of disaster to come to America if his quixotic ideas were not recognized.

The result was that he made a miserable mess of the whole thing. He went proclaiming himself the second Messiah, and came back with all Europe kicking him off their shores as a fake. Now he goes about trying to choke the American people on his miserable mess. The stuff he was dealing out to us was so stale and sickening that it even made him sick and he had to give up the job and go to bed.

WASTEFUL WOODROW

The real American who does not feel like cussing Woodrow Wilson is not healthy. He's aenemic and all run down at the patriotic heel. After breaking the record of extravagance and neglect of his duties at home Wilson rushes back to Washington from knee-bending to the British barons just long enough to present his expense bill to the tax-payers and then starts ostensibly on a tour to explain his League and Peace treaty, but in fact, for no other purpose than to cinch the presidency a third term. With wasteful Woodrow precedent is nothing but being president again is everything. With this nation about to go to war with the Greasers; with our spotless Stars and Stripes sullied by the spittle of Cactus-eating Mexican half-breeds; with Germany overflowing Mexico with her hired assassins, and Carranza breathing defiance to our demands for fair play to our citizens below the Rio Grande; with strikes tying up every industry and mobs running amuck with the firebrands of red Anarchy and the law-defying I.W.W.'s—the President now locks up his office, quits the job to which the people elected him under false pretense, gallops over the country dickering with Democrats and is nailing down delegates for the next national convention, and the blue dickens is to play and no pitch hot.

And of course, the fax payers, Republican as well as Democrats, as usual, pay the freight.

Mr. American Citizen, how much longer do you propose to stand for having a dictator make rubber-stamps of genuine Americans while you dig down into your jeans and cough up the cash to pay the fare of the man who "kept us out of war" while he campaigns for another term of his infernal insilence?—Yellow Jacket.

FARM TRACTOR COMING

The farm tractor is a coming power on the southern farm. It is at present already an established utility in the north and northwest. The machines are being built so as to combine several different uses for farm power development, such as pulling a gin, shelling corn, sawing wood, moving buildings, feed grinding, filling silos, threshing grain, and dozens of other uses. But the above named uses are aside from the main purpose of the tractor which is plowing. Just as the motor-driven vehicle has replaced the horse and the mule on our roads and streets, so will the same replace the horse and the mule on the farm, and the tractor is the machine that is going to bring about this change.

There are several companies in the United States making different kinds of tractors. One of the oldest and most successful of these is the Hart-Parr people of Charles City, Iowa. In fact, they claim to be the founders of the tractor industry. They have recently established headquarters for Alabama in Birmingham and are planning the establishment of an agency at every county seat in the state. Their representative has been in Clanton this week looking after the establishment of an agency here.

When our farmers have an opportunity to study the tractor at a short range, many of them will see the advantages of it and apply it to their farm uses.

PURE FOOD

Our pure food laws have three purposes:

1. To prevent the use of unwholesome material.
2. To prevent fraudulent substitution.
3. To inform the purchaser what she us buying.

Every doctor can help in making these purposes realized facts.

Most foods are labeled that the purchaser knows exactly what the product is, and can exercise judgment in the purchase of them. Some products are so well known to the housewife that from the class name under which they are sold she can tell the ingredients contained therein. With others, such as baking powder, all the ingredients are named on the label, and as a resullt the most healthful, economical and desirable kind can be selected.

There is one class of mixture, however, which are still bought blindly without knowledge of the ingredients. These are the so-called self-rising flours. Read the label on the package of self-rising flour and there is seldom found either the statement, "this package contains the following ingredients and none other," or any equivalent statement. One cannot determine upon the label either the quality of the flour or the nature of the other ingredients mixed therein.

The housewife is very particular as to the quality of the flour when she buys it unmixed, but can exercise no discretion in the purchase of self-rising flour because of the effect produced by the added chemicals.

In the selection of baking powder, the housewife is very particular; but in self-rising flour she takes whatever sefl-rising ingredients are handed her without asking questions and in an equal state of ignorance with the dealer who is selling to her, as to what these ingredients are.

It has been admitted by the manufacturer of acid phosphate that the phosphate used in self-rising flour frequently contains 25 per cent or over of calcium sulphate (gypsum). Physicians know the objections to introducing such an amount of unnecessary inedible material into the system.

The physician can do much toward the enactment of laws that will forbid the use of such material in the manufacture of self-rising flour and that will require a statement on self-rising flour of all the ingredients contained therein.

Such laws will protect the health and the pocketbook.

Keep Well

Do not allow the poisons of undigested food to accumulate in your bowels, where they are absorbed into your system. Indigestion, constipation, headache, bad blood, and numerous other troubles are bound to follow. Keep your system clean, as thousands of others do, by taking an occasional dose of the old, reliable, vegetable, family liver medicine.

Black-Draught

Mrs. W. F. Pickle, of Rising Fawn, Ga., writes: "We have used Thedford's Black-Draught as a family medicine. My mother-in-law could not take calomel as it seemed too strong for her, so she used Black-Draught as a mild laxative and liver regulator . . . We use it in the family and believe it is the best medicine for the liver made." Try it. Insist on the genuine—Thedford's. 25c a package. E-75

FINE TURNIP GREENS

The editor of the Union-Banner is greatly indebted to Mr. Albert Gore for a "mess" of fine turnip greens, which he brought us on Monday morning. They were the first we have seen, but in spite of the dry weather, they were fine. The turnips on them were big as your fist. They made a fine dinner, and we thank Mr. Goore most heartily for them. Mr. Gore says some people don't believe he has got any turnips, but he has. We are witnesses to that fact.

INFORMATION TO FARMERS—INTERESTING FACTS

STATE SHORT COURSE FOR CLUB BOYS AT AUBURN, ALA.

By L. N. Duncan, Supt. Junior and Home Economics Extension Work.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

At a convenient time during each summer the corn, pig, peanut and calf club boys from the several counties of the state are called together at Auburn for a course of special intensive training. Plans are being made now for this course for the present season.

The boys attending the Short Course receive a series of lectures and demonstrations each day along many lines of scientific agriculture. The lectures and demonstrations are given by our foremost leaders in agricultural work. Each night a series of lantern slides and moving pictures of educational value are shown the boys. During the school a number of speakers talk to the boys. The purpose of this is to enlarge the ideas of the farm boys, brosden their horizon and give them new inspiration, encouragement and hope.

This school is so organized and conducted as to give practical information, pleasure and recreation, encouragement and inspiration. In other words, we endeavor to touch every side of the lives of these farm boys and to make them fully realize the very great opportunities in farming when properly followed. We also endeavor to show them that farming is a noble profession where wealth, happiness and contentment may be found

In developing the wealth of our agricultural lands and our rural communities it is of prime importance to have leaders on the farms. The best source of leadership is the strong and vigorous young manhood now on the farms, and this should be developed. Such a school sends back to the farms in the several counties each year a large number of fine young men filled with a new desire to make the old farm what it should be They will be the centers for the radiation of new thought and ideals for the farming community.

The farm demonstration agent in each county has this matter in charge and arranges for the county delegation to attend this school. The business men of the county should rally to the support of the county agent and aid him in every way possible in making plans for carrying a number of boys to this State Short Course.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE

School teachers of Chilton County are urged to attend the County teachers institute which is to be held at the county high school building in Clanton next Monday and Tuesday. The time is short for informing all the teachers of the county, and Supt. Foshee is using every means at his command to inform them in the short time he has and impress them of the urgent necessity for their attendance in compliance with the requirements of the new State Educational Code of Laws.

The following letter has been sent to all the teachers by Mr. Foshee:

"Dear Teacher:

This is to give you official notice that the next Teachers Institute for Chilton County will be held in the county high school building at Clanton next Monday and Tuesday, Oct-20-21, beginning at 9 o'clock Monday morning.

In the school code, approved Sept. 27th, it is specifically stated that all teachers are required to attend the institute. I quote from the law as follows:

'Any teacher or supervisory officer who fails to attend an institute called in accordance with Section 1 of this article, shall forfeit his or her contract with the respective county or city board of education, as the case may be, and shall be ineligible to teach in the public schols of the state for a period of six months from the date of such delinquency, unless excused as provided in Section 3 of this article.'

Please notify your principal or assistants as the case may be, so that if they fail to receive their notice they will not miss the institute.

Mr. Clark of the Department of Education will pe present to dicuss the new laws, etc.

Yours very truly,
HOWARD L. FOSHEE,
Sounty Supt. Education."

It will be seen by the extract from the law as cited by the Supt., in his letter, makes it very urgent that all teachers attend the institute. Therefore, it is hoped that all teachers in the county will get information about it and be on hand at the proper time.

It is going to be a very important session as the new educational laws are to be taken up and explained by a competent person, from the state department. These laws are all new and it is very vital that all our teachers and educational workers be posted on the details of the same.

PURCHASING FEEDER STEERS

By K. G. Baker, Beef Cattle Specialist

There are several important points for men to consider who intend to buy feeder steers this fall to feed out for the market next spring. Every man who intends to feed out cattle should be sure that he has tough feeds, especially roughage, to finish the number of cattle that he buys. One of the most common, as well as the most serious mistakes, has been that of buying a number of cattle to fatten and have the supply of roughage give out before the cattle are ready for market. This forces the man to either sacrifice his cattle in a half fat condition, or to buy feeds at a price that will not permit of a profit.

As a rule, feeder cattle are cheaper on the market from September until Novembr, this bing the period in which the heavy run of grass cattle comes on the market. The profit derived from cattle feeding operations is governed largely by the following points: (1) Quality of cattle; (2) Condition; (3) Age; (4) Price.

By quality of cattle is meant the amount of beef blood which the animal has. You cannot afford to feed low grade cattle for a long period. When such cattle reach the point where they fail to put on gain economically, they will be forced on the market regardless of prevailing prices at that time; while if better bred stuff is fed, they may sometimes be carried along with a profit, until any temporary depression in the market has passed. You may expect a better gain per day and a better price for finish, on good quality steers than on common quality.

The condition of the cattle at the beginning of the feeding period will govern largely the cheapness of gains. Steers should be in a good, thrifty strong condition, but should not be fat, because steers that are in a good, thrifty condition will gain much more rapidly and cheaply than those that already carry a good deal of flesh.

Other important items are the age and weight of the cattle to be fed. It is conceded that it requires a much longer feeding period to fatten calves than it does to fattn three year old steers. If you intend to feed these cattle from 100 to 120 days, by all means buy two to three year old steers, as they will acquire the same degree of finish that calves would reach in 180 days. However, if the time devoted to the proposition is of no importance to you, you might make just as much profit on good calves as on older steers. Calves will require a much higher percentage of concentrated feeds in their rations than older cattle will require. So if you produce a large amount of rough feeds and are forced to buy concentrated feeds for your cattle, in most instances the older steers will return a larger profit. It requires more experience and skill to feed calves than it does to feed older cattle.

As to the place to buy cattle for feeding, of course the price should govern that. If you can buy cattle in your immediate vicinity as cheaply as you can buy them on the market, by all means buy them at the nearest place, remembering that cattle bought on the market at this season, should be grass cattle and at the time of weighing up to you usually carry a big shrinkage.

NOVEMBER ROLL CALL

To Establish Red Cross Community Welfare Work.

STATE CHAIRMEN AND QUOTAS FOR ALABAMA, LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPI.

New Orleans.—There will be two victories celebrated on Armistice Day, of 1919. First there will be the anniversary of the Germans' last "Kamerad," of course. Next, there will be at the same hour of the same day, the successful termination of the Third Red Cross Call which will be conducted, according to an announcement made Saturday at the headquarters of the Gulf Division here, from November 2 to 11.

The State Chairmen and the state quotas were also announced. For Alabama, Lloyd M. Hooper, of Selma, will head the drive. In Louisiana, Judge E. H. Randolph, of Shreveport, will mobilize the Red Cross forces. Thaddeus Lampton, of Jackson, is Chairmen for the State of Mississippi. The national goal is for $15,000,000, and 20,000,000 members. Alabama is asked for $73,060 and 84,150 members. The Louisiana quota is $130,000 and 149,600 members, and the Mississippi mark is $56,940 and 65,450 membership.

The campaign is to supply the American Red Cross with the men, women, and money needed not only to complete wartime activities of the Red Cross, but to establish in local communities the newly-formulated peace program of which work such as that now being done by the Red Cross in the stricken areas around Corpus Christi, is one branch.

Other branches of this peace-time program are the Home Service Department, which gives help and advice to the needy, works for better schools, playgrounds, recreation and social centers, and community clubs; a Nursing Department, whose aim it will be to provide a Public Health nurse in every Chapter, and to do emergency nursing in times of epidemics; a First Aid Department, to give training in emergency treatment; and a Department of Disaster Relief.

In addition to this peace program, the completion of the present war program includes the care and service to American soldiers in Russia, Germany and in France; the continuation of the disease fight which is being waged in Siberia, Poland and the Balkans; and contiued care, assistance and service to the 30,000 American soldiers still in military hospitals, and the several hundred thousand who have been discharged disabled.

One of the high lights of the campaign here in New Orleans will be the visit of Dr. Livingston Farrand, Chairman of the national central committee of the American Red Cross, will pay the Crescent City. Dr. Farrand will reach New Orleans on October 8, in the swing he is making about the country in the interests of the Roll Call, and will make an address here the same night. He will leave on the following morning for Jackson, where he will speak that evening. On the tenth Dr. Farrand will speak in Birmingham, Alabama.

Incidentally, there is one chapter in the American Red Cross which has already far exceeded its quota, despite the fact that the roll call will not be completed until the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, and that Chapter is Honolulu.

According to a telegraphic announcement from Washington headquarters immediately upon receipt of the campaign plans, the Hawaiian branch cabled a subscription of $75,000. This sum was much larger than the quota which would have been assigned the Honolulu Chapter.

ALL DAY SINGING SCHEDULED TO BE AT COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. J. M. Smith, the Secretary of the Chilton County Singing Convention, was in Clanton last Saturday, and informed The Union-Banner that arrangements have been completed for the holding of another big all day singing in the auditorium of the Chilton County High School. The date of the singing is fixed for the Third Sunday in November.

This occasion bids fair to be the biggest singing event that has taken place in Chilton County for a long time.

At the time the singing is to be held Prof. J. D. Patton will be teaching a singing school at Liberty Hill and Prof. H. M. Eagle will be teaching at Union Grove. Both these distinguished singers, together with their classes from their schools will be here. These among other prominent singers from all over the county, who will be here, assures us that this will be one of the very best of singings.

As the event is to be under the auspices of the Chilton County Singing Convention, it will elicit the interest of every singer and music lover in the county. And it is hoped that all will co-operate earnestly in making the day a highly successful one for the advancement of the cause of music in our county.

Mrs. H. B. Roper has gone to Macon, Ga., to visit relatives and friends.

WEST CHILTON

Having some welcome showers just now.

The autumn days with the sear and yellow leaf are on us again. Some one has said in the long ago, "The falling leaf is a whisper to man." The dying year with the quiet days and inanimate nature produces a sad thought in striking season soon to follow. What a picture of human life and destiny! This is the time of year when our Fathers would hold revival meetings. Ah, we suspect some readers' heart experiences a thrill as they think of those days in the sweet long ago, when youthful hearts would beat as one as they rehearsed the old old story.

Rev. Dunlap of Lawley has again been called to the pastorate of Macedonia Church.

Joseph E. Jones of Adamsville made a flying visit here Saturday.

Mr. Lon Brown is erecting a new residence just south of the bridge across Six Mile Creek on the Selma Road, where he will soon build a new mill.

H. H. Devenport and family of Randolph visited here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Crumbles, who has been spending some time with S. N. Waldrup returned to Selma last week.

Mr. A. J. Eshleman of Maryland will deliver a series of lectures at Waldrup's School House on October 22, morning and night. He is a young man of fine ability, a member of the International Bible Students Association.

Our people are smiling now over the thought that the quarantine on the cattle will soon be lifted from this part of the county.

Success to the Banner—long may it wave.

TIME TO WAKE UP

Had you thought about this being the vital time for Clanton to wake up and get after the Alabama Power Company if we expect any juice from the line that is being built from Lock 12 to Selma, Why can't we have a meeting of the public with the Town Council and Mayor, and get some line of action upon which to proceed in this most vital matter. Let's start to talking for this proposition. By so doing, we can hit on somebody tha twill help us out.

Attorney R. Nelson Brassell of Montgomery was in Clanton this week attending the Circuit Court.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

SUGAR SCARCE

They tell us there is a sugar famine on. If Clanton had the sugar that has been hauled away from here in the last twelve months and carried to the woods and made into wild cat whiskey, it would be enough to legitimately supply the Clanton trade for at least a year.

YOU NEED NOT SUFFER FROM CATARRH

But You Must Drive It Out of Your Blood.

Catarrh is annoying enough when it chokes up your nostrils and air passages, causing difficult breathing and other discomforts. Real danger comes when it reaches down into your lungs.

This is why you should at once realize the importance of the proper treatment, and lose no time experimenting with worthless remedies which touch only the surface. To be rid of Catarrh, you must drive the disease germs out of your blood.

Splendid results have been reported from the use of S. S. S., which completely routs from your blood the Catarrh germs, for which it is a perfect antidote.

WHEN DUTY IS HARD

Charles E. Hughes was urging a group of soldiers to keep up their war insurance polices.

"I know it's hard," he said. "Of the 4,000,000 policies written during the war over 3,000,000 have lapsed. This shouldn't be.

"Duty is always hard, boys. Yet we must do it. A little lad entered a general store the other day.

"Well, son, what do you want to buy today—candy?" said the keeper.

"You bet I do," said the urchin, "but I've got to buy soap."

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

In Serbia.

As far back as the first winter of the war, the Red Cross sent to Serbia a sanitary commission that effectively checked the scourge of typhus, but after the United States entered the conflict, the Red Cross was able, in August, 1917, to send a full commission that carried on extensive relief operations among the suffering refugees of the tortured nation. Hospitals were established, the refugees fed, clothed and given medical attention, the army supplied with much needed dental treatment, farm machinery, and seeds provided to help the Serbs redeem their land to productivity, and, not least, measures undertaken for the succor of the children. The terrible condition into which these helpless victims of the war had fallen is well portrayed by this photograph of a little Serbian girl wearing the rags and expression of hopeless dismay that were all she possessed when the Red Cross came.

The Red Cross workers made 11,828 personal visits to hospital patients; and in addition, $9,000 worth of comfort kits, cigarettes, etc., were distributed, and 883 men were helped financially, $5,000 having been used for that purpose.

VOLUME VIII. CLANTON, CHILTON COUNTY, ALA., OCTOBER 23, 1919 NUMBER 30.

DOINGS AT TEACHERS INSTITUTE THIS WEEK

OVER A HUNDRED TEACHERS OF THE COUNTY WERE IN ATTENDANCE.

The school teachers of Chilton County held a short but very interesting institute at the County High School building in Clanton Monday and Tuesday of this week. But the shortness of the session did not detract from the importance of the work done in the time consumed.

Under direction of Prof. Howard L. Fishee, the County superintendent, the new school laws of Alabama were taken up and much of the session was devoted to the discussion of those laws and their relations to the teachers and schools. The laws are new and it was very valuable for the teachers to go over them and study them in their different phases.

Aside from the local speakers the institute was given a special treat in the address of Mr. John B. Clark of the State Board of Education. Mr. Clark emphasized four things that never return to us, namely: the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life and the neglected opportunity. Much enthusiasm was arousad among the teachers by his masterful address. He also included in his speech some valuable remarks on "What the Teachers should be."

Another thing of note that was done at this session of the Institute was the dividing or placing of the various schools of the county into four different groups, with headquarters at Jemison, Maplesville, Verbena and at Clanton. On a Friday in each month the county superintendent will hold meetings at the above named places with all the teachers of each group for the purpose of doing reading circle work and professional study. The first book to be used in this work will be "The Rural Teacher and His Work." The dates of the first round of meetings are as follows: Jemison, November 7; Verbena, Nov. 14; Maplesville, Nov. 21; Clanton, Nov. 28.

The teachers at the Institute this week requested that The Union-Banner publish the compulsory attendance law for the benefit of the people. It is a good idea to do and we are glad to comply with their request. The attention of patrons and the public is hereby directed to the law as it appears elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

J. H. VINSON BRINGS BIGGEST AND UGLIEST POTATO YET

We offered a prize of a year's subscription for the biggest potato that was brought to us. And it now looks like Mr. John Vinson will take the prize, for he has not only brought the biggest yam but also the ugliest one. As he came along up the street with it first one and another were taking a look at it and some fellow dropped it and broke a big piece off of it. But when he got here there was enough of it to weigh eighteen and a quarter pounds.

We feel reasonably sure that this is the prize winner for the potato contest. But we will wait a while longer for somebody else who may hope to beat this one. If a bigger potato doesn't show up in a few days we will close the contest and award the prize to Mr. Vinson. Bring them in if you have got anything that will beat eighteen and a quarter.

FARMER WANTED

Would like to get in touch with a good farmer who would like to farm of lavles next year. Can furnish a 1 or 2-horse crop, and will guarantee anyone a fair deal. Have plenty of winter work to do. S. M. EDWARDS,

We thought since the dry weather hit this country that the potato prize would go to Mr. Alfred Baker with his eight pound specimen, but Mr. John Vinson has beat him by ten pounds Mr. Vinson must have kept his potato fed and watered to make it grow so big. And besides so big it is equally as ugly. It has a couple of cracks across one side in which you can hide a peck of ordinary potatoes.

MAY BE A SCRAMBLE IF WILSON DON'T RUN

Receptive Democrats Ready to Assume Crown Should their Leader Abdicate.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Based on the assumptions that President Wilson will not be a candidate for a third term, political gossip is rife in Washington and elsewhere concerning the various Democratic aspirants for the presidency. While it is quite true that the President's western trip led to much third term talk, it is assumed quite generally that, although he is improving from his recent illness according to latest bulletins, he will not under any circumstances care to plunge into an arduous political campaign next year.

Under such conditions Democratic politicians are turning their attention toward various candidates or receptive candidates who have been mentioned as aspiring to the presidential nomination in the event Mr. Wilson does not allow his name to be used. In the list are William G. McAdoo, Attorney General Palmer, Governor Cox of Ohio, Senator Owen of Oklahoma, Vice President Marshall, Secretary of War Baker, Senator Pomerene of Ohio, Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, Governor Smith of New York, and several others. Perhaps William J. Bryan ought not to be omitted. Former Speaker Champ Clark is looked upon as again aspiring to the nomination and there is mention of Senator Underwood of Alabama.

The gossip here is that Mr. McAdoo and his friends have been careful to get as good grip on the Democratic organization. The McAdoo influence is reputed to be dominant in the National Committee organization and there seems to be no doubt that Mr. McAdoo's friends have been posted about in this organization with considerable forethought. This is so far true that there is noticeable coolness on the part of some Democratic leaders to the plan of the National Committee to raise a monster campaign fund of between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000, there being a suspicion that it is to be used in a large degree to boost along the political fortunes of the former Secretary of the Treasury. Attorney General Palmer's friends are also credited with much activity, although it is conceded that unless the Attorney General makes more of a showing in his alleged war on the high cost of living than he has up to date he is likely find himself much handicapped. Altogether the signs are that it will not be long until the activities in behalf of each of a long list of Democratic possibilities become plainly discernible.

PERRY GLASS SENTENCED FOR TEN YEARS IN PEN.

The jury in the case of Perry Glass last week found him guilty of murder in the second degree and sentenced him to ten years in the penitentiary. This is the third time Glass has been tried in the courts of this county for the killing of Jim Can[illegible] out in Stumps Hills a couple [illegible] years ago. Ten years sentence is the lowest term a jury has yet given him.

The case of Arthur Hall, the negro boy charged with murder was not tried this time.

Y. M. C. A. SUPPER.

Cards have been sent out inviting a number of the representative citizens and business men of Clanton to be the guests of the Alabama State Committee Y. M. C. A., at a supper at the Exchange Hotel, Clanton, Thursday evening, October 23. Mr. W. M. Lee, the State Secretary, will be present to explain any criticism of the Y. M. C. A. and outline its home program in Alabama.

VALUABLE POINTS ABOUT PLANTING OF FALL OATS.

Suggestions From the Alaama Experiment Station at Auburn.

In many sections of Alabama there is an evident need of more feed. To meet this need, a fall planted crop of oats should be made, especially in those sections, where this crop does not frequently winter kill.

Varieties.

For fall seeding, plant Culberson, Appler, Bancroft, Cook, One-Hundred Bushel, Texas Red Rust Proof, Fulgham, etc. Of these varieties Culberson is the most resistant to winter killing. It is medium tall, ripens about the time of the ordinary Red Rust Proof, and has rather long beard. The Fulgham variety is a good winter oat, has not many beards, and resists cold very well. It's seed are bright yellow, and weigh about 36 pounds per bushel

Pla.iting.

The time to plant oats is the middle fall, not the late part of fall. The seed must have time to get up and establish a strong root system before the winter freezes come. They may be planted as early as the latter part of September, but for the central part of Alabama the best date seems to be about the middle of October. South of the middle section they might be planted later.

At the Alabama Experiment Station, the average yield of fall sown oats for a thirteen year period was 36.1 bushels per acre, while the average yield for February sowing for the same period was only 16.5 bushels. Fall plantings are earlier and more desirable in other ways, where the risk of winter-killing is not too hazardous.

Plant in the open furrow and thereby insure a crop.

Fertilizer.

Experiments show that oats well fertilized are able to withstand a great deal more cold than when they are poorly fertilized. On lands deficient in phosphoric acid, an application of 200 pounds of acid phosphate and a light dressing of barnyard manure or one hundred pounds of cottonseed meal distributed in drill or broadcast at planting time are suggested. When a good crop of summer legumes is plowed under for soil improvement, the nitrogenous fertilizer applied at planting may be omitted. 75 or 100 pounds of nitrate of soda per acre shoud be applied as a top dressing early in March.

Soils.

In selecting land for fall oats, don't pick out the poorest, but select that which will make 15 or 20 bushels of corn or more per acre. Good soils pay best.

The clay soils seem to heave from freezing more than the sandy or sandy loams, and therefore are more liable to winter-killing. Lands that are poorly drained are not safe for fall planting. Probably the safest type of soil is a well drained loam.

If the soil is soft, the seed may be planted without plowing; but, if it is hard or if it has a great deal of vegetable matter on it turn the soil and vegetable matter deeply, and make a good seed bed. Disking before plowing often makes possible better plowing with better seed bed.

REPUBLICAN TIDE IS SWEEPS TO VICTORY

BATTER DEMO. BREAKWATER

Washington, Oct. 21.—The recent special Congressional election in the seventh Alabama District, where the Republican candidate failed of election by only 408 votes, has served to reveal the desperate steps which the Democrats have had to take in [illegible]ection for many years to prevent the election of a Republican to Congress. Even after the most flagrant gerrymandering so recently as 1915, by which it was thought that the seventh district had been assured a safe Democratic maority of 3,500 votes, it was necessary, in the recent election to call upon the services of almost the entire Alabama delegation in Congress to stem the tide of Republicanism which is now so strong in that state, and which reduced this supposed majority of 3,500 to the threatening margin of only 408.

Prior to 1915, Congressional elections in this district had become uncomfortably close, and it was decided by the Democratic leaders that something must be done to remove the element of uncertainty which had come about through the growth of Republican sentiment. Consequently in that year the State was redistricted. Franklin and Winston counties, strongly Republican, were lopped off of the offending seventh district, and the Democratic county of Blount was added, and with these changes the district showed a normal majority of about 3,600. But this majority didn't hold up very well. It showed a constant inclination to decline, in favor of the Repubuicans, with the result within four years after the district had been "doctored up" by the Democrats, they were only able to muster a majority of 408 in one of the most hotly contested campaigns between the two parties that any State in the "Solid South" had ever seen.

The Democratic leaders in Alabama do not deny the peril which threatens them in this section. In a discussion of the recent election on the floor of the House a few days ago, Congressman Heflin, of Alabama, explained matters as follows:

"While the Democratic majority in the district is not always as large as we would like for it to be, the district is safely Democratic. I made twenty-one speeches in the district in the campaign just closed, and I enlightened the Republicans as best I could all over the district."

"If the district was safely Democratic," inquired Representative Smith, Republican of Idaho, "why was it necessary for the gentleman to make twenty-one speeches?"

HOW THE PEOPLE FEEL

I suggested months ago that if the Republicans would make a real fight in the interest of economy, honesty and common sense they could sweep the country. At Chicago, on the 12th of September, Senator Johnson handled President Wilson roughly, and a tremendous audience went wild. Cries of "impeach him!" were so numerous that they became an uproar; and millions who read of the proceedings at Chicago will thrill over those two words as they have not thrilled over any other short sentence uttered in recent years. The cheering also became an interruption, and there was the marching up and down the aisles which distinguishes an enthusiastic national convention. Sentor Johnson referred to the President's "celestial phrases," his desertion of beautiful promises and the enthusiasm was tremendous. The crowd was so great that overflow meetings were held in the streets, where the same enthusiasm was exhibited. And the great crowd collected in reponse to an announcement that the President was to be skinned. A blind man should be able to see that the President, with all his oratory, literary ability and college education, is tremendously unpopular. Practical, sensible people are disgusted because of Mr. Wilson's sentimentalism. Pretty phrases have got us into trouble and common sense is in open revolt. Gentlemen, talk of possibility that Mr. Wilson will be a candidate for a third term. I hope he will be; it will give me opportunity to bet he will receive a smaller vote than Greeley received.

Our old friend, J. H. Anderson of Calera was here this week at the Teachers Institute. Anderson is one of the old reliable school teachers.

"OUT OF THINE OWN MOUTH WILL I JUDGE THEE"

Shall partisan politics or patriotism be paramount? That is the question that must be decided by the Democrats of the Senate when they cast their votes on the league of nations. Some of the leaders have had the courage of their convictions, and have declared their position in unmistakable terms. Members of their party throughout the country should ponder their declarations, and ask themselves the question whether it is now or ever will be expedient to discard the principles upon which this nation was founded and that have guided its prosperity to the present day.

Senator Thomas of Colorado, one of the best minds in the Upper House has this to say: "I love the Democratic party; I have been a humble member of it since my majority; I have fought many of its battles and it has honored be far beyond my deserts; but in a matter of this importance, presenting problems not only of a national but of an international character, affecting American institutions and American destiny, fraught with possible benefits and equally possible evils which we can not wholly conjecture, I am obliged to follow the dictates of my own judgment and my own conscience, regardless of consequences to myself, to the Democratic or any other political organization."

Senator Shields of Tennessee is convinced that the leagoe in its present form would bring the United States into a foreign war within a year. "I would be glad," says Mr. Shields, "to contribute anything reasonable to abolish war and secure peace upon earth, but I can not sacrifice American sovereignty and the interest and lives of American people for that purpose."

Senator Walsh of Massachusetts: "I love the Democratic party. I have served it for 25 years. It has honored me beyond my humble deserts. But I am an American first, and I am not unmindful of the fact that I have a solemn oath to preserve the Constitution of my country. If choice must be made between a league of nations and the Constitution of the United States, I am first and last with the Constitution."

Senator Gore, the blind Democrat from Okla., has visited consistently to maintain the independence of his rountry from foreign intrigue, although to do so meant a separation from the majority of his party colleagues. "I desire, as far as possible" declares Senator Core, "to have the United States withdraw from European uolitics and European quarrels."

Senator Reed of Missouri has no hesitation in putting country above party. He has made scores of addresses throughout the Democratic South warning the people against the impending danger. These are the words he addressed to his colleagues in the Senate Chamber: "If a Republican President had brought the league of nations here; if Roosevelt had brought it here, there is not a Democrat who would not have been standing by my side fighting to the last ditch to rescue the country from the threatened danger, and all these eloquent voices would have been raised, and from your brains would have come those sparks of eloquent fire that would have set a conflagration in the very hearts of all Democrats in this country and brought them with burning haste to your side to save this country from so monstrous and so cruel a fate."

WILSON BEFORE ELECTION AND WILSON AFTERWARD

Before he was elected Mr. Wilson pledged himself to a program of pitiless publicity regarding public affairs. The ins and outs of doings at Washington were to be made as an open book laid before the eyes of all people. But after he has been president for three years we see that no administration ever equalled his for secrecy. With Pat Tumulty the arch traitor and K. of C. guarding the approaches to the White House, Mr. Wilson has juggled around the corner with the Catholics and betrayed all confidence of loyal Americans.

He assured the country that no legetimate business would be injured by his administration. And his tariff legislation paralyzed American industry until war orders restored trade. The war is all that saved Wilson's administration from an economic disaster.

He promised that merit should govern federal appointments. But the Civil Service law has been constantly violated under his administration. Why has Clanton been for the past twelve months without a postmaster. If merit was to govern Federal appointments why was not the man who made the highest percentage on the examination appointed to the position of postmaster? He proved his merit. The trouble is that Wilson's administration is prostituting the Civil Service to the petty whims of partisan politics. Thats the answer to Clanton's postmaster question and hundreds of others similar to it all over the country.

He promised that the rights of American citizens should be protected at home and abroad. While three hundred Americans have been murdered in cold blood in Mexico and nothing has been done.

His party in 1912 and 1916 promised to reduce the cost of living. But they seem to have provided the thing with wings that it might fly even higher than ever.

He promised to introduce economy into government affairs. But no other administration in history has been so lavishly extravagant and utterly inefficient. The government pay roll was made a hobby horse on which to ride the host of loyal Democrats who followed him for the sole purpose of getting an easy job and a pension.

Before the peace conference he promised open covenants openly arrived at. But when he went to Europe he became a party to negotiations unprecedently secret, and alliances mischieviously entangling. He went into secret conference with the Pope of Rome, to the disdain of all who glory in American freedom.

A VISIT TO NEW SALEM

We had the pleasure of a visit to New Salem last Sunday afternoon. And listened to some songs from the Sacred Harp and Christian Harmony. Mr. John Hays was there. We might call him the ring leader. But he was not all the one who sung. Squire Childress, Mr. Collins, Mr. Bussie, Mr. Maddox, and several others comprised the class, and they rendered plendid support for the leaders. Those who led lessons were Mr. Hays, Mr. Morris, and the two Jackson boys. Miss Era Sanders and her sisters were on hand and they added much to the spirit of the service.

Oscar Bean and the Editor could not agree as to which song was the best one. He contended for "I don't want to stay here long," and I insisted on "Oh Bear me away on your Snowy Wings." Uncle Tom didn't believe either of us were right. He preferred "The Fair Fields of Eden."

However, that may be, all those old songs are good. They prove their worth by their long life.

Our attention was directed to the splendid appearance of the New Salem Cemetery. It was the nicest and cleanest one we have seen for a long time. We can't hardly say that a cemetery is a good looking place. But that one at New Salem shows that the people believe in keeping things in order in that community. Other places would do well to take a lesson from that one.

MORE EVIDENCE OF GREAT RELIEF

Was Dizzy, Nervous, Back Was Lame, Stomach Full of Gas and Bowels Constipated. Gets Unusual Results.

Dreco does its curative work in a simple, straightforward way. It wastes little time getting all its energies to work, feeding the tired, worn-out nervous tract, filling the arteries with rich, new blood, and building up the body for its fight against disease. Read what Mr. T. B. Menefee of 114 South Cedar street, Mobile, Ala., says:

"For some time I have suffered with nervous pains in my back and limbs, especially the joints. It struck me first in the hips, then the knees got painful, then the shoulders and elbows. My back gave me a great deal of trouble, especially when I got up in the morning, and also when I would make a quick move or bend. I was also troubled with constipation, headaches, nervousness, so I did not sleep well, and my appetite was about all gone. I was attracted by the statements I read in the papers about what Dreco had done for so many other people, and decided to try it, with the result that by the time I had finished one-half of the first bottle my pains had left me and the stiffness was wearing away. I can now jump right out of bed without the slightest pain at all; can stoop about and climb stairs without any trouble. The constipation is entirely gone. I never have a headache, and my wife says I am about to eat her out of house and home, since my appetite has improved so.

"I feel perfectly well now, but my wife insists that I keep it up, so I am going to take another bottle just to 'make sure I'm well.'"

Statements like this from persons right here in our home town should do much to convince people of the true merits of Dreco. This remedy does not contain any mercury, potash or other harmful mineral, nor anything that affects the heart, but is composed of the juices of many different roots and herbs.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by

REYNOLDS SUGGESTS NOV. 11 AS HOG SALE DAY FOR CHILTON CO.

Editor Union-Banner:

There are so many new licenses, and as there will be additional fees after the first day of November, I will be glad if you will publish the new schedules, as follows:

Garage, Garage Repairing, Automobile filling Stations, Barber Shops, Coffin Dealers, Shot Gun, Riffle, Ammunition, Soft Drinks, Vulcanizing, Pressing Clubs, Saw Mill, Cigar Dealers, Lumber Yards.

These are some of the new subjects that will have to pay license in the county.

I have talked to several parties about setting some day to be known as hog sale day. It has been suggested that we fix Tuesday, November 11, and all that have hogs, bring them here that day. We should advertise in the state papers so as to get as many buyers here that day s possible.

If the people want to fix this date or any other day, I will help advertise and try and get some buyers here. I see other counties are doing this, and they are getting much better prices than we are. We ought to have several car loads here by this date.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

MIMS - McMURRY WEDDING IN JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA

On Tuesday, October 21st., at 8:00 p.m., Mr. Jadie R. Mims and Miss Charlotte Elizabeth McMurray were married at the home of the bride in Jacksonville, Florida. The only attendant of the bride was her sister, Miss Mary Margaret McMurray, as bridesmaid. The groom had as his best man his brother, Mr. Whitt Mims.

Miss McMurray was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. McMurray of Jacksonville, where she has lived for about ten years. She is a charming young lady, a graduate of Duval High School. Since leaving school she has been connected in business with the American National Insurance Company. Since her engagement the bride has been delightfully entertained by her society friends in her home city..

Mr. Mims will be remembered as the son of Mr. E. J. Mims, who lived three miles east of Clanton. He enlisted in the army in 1916, served on the Mexican Border, and was stationed at Fort McPherson, Camp Wheeler, Camp Jackson and Camp Mills, successively in 1917 and 1918. In the latter part of September, 1918, he sailed for France. He returned to the States in January, 1919. After his return to America he visited his friends and relatives in Atlanta and Birmingham, and spent a part of last January at his old home in Clanton. From Clanton he went on to Jacksonville, Fla., to take up business connections with the American Bakeries Co. He has been continually connected with these people in a business capacity since leaving Clanton in 1909, with the exception of the time spent in the service of his country.

Immediately after the marriage the young couple left for their wedding trip. They will visit Atlanta, Birmingham and other points in Alabama. They will be at home to their friends in Jacksonville, Fla., after November 1st.

Many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Mims in Clanton will learn of the marriage with much interest, and extend good wishes.

PITTS - REYNOLDS

Th following handsomely engraved invitations have been received by many friends:

"Mr. and Mrs. William Archie Reynolds request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter, Myrtle, to Mr. Percy McGraw Pitts, on Wednesday afternoon, November fifth, at half past five o'clock, at home, Clanton, Ala."

LINEN SHOWER FOR MISS MYRTLE REYNOLDS

One of the most delightful affairs of the season occurred Wednesday afternoon when Miss Willie Bell Sartor charmingly entertained at a Linen Shower in honor of Miss Myrtle Reynolds, a recent bride-elect.

The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Barney M. Roberts. The Misses Annie and Lessie Reynolds gracefully presided over the punch bowl. Upon arrival the guests were presented with the bride's book and each very thoughtfully wrote her favorite recipe, after which the honoree, gowned in an exquisite dress of yellew georgette with chenile and fur trimmings, was shown into the dining room artistically decorated for the occasion in the bride's colors of green and white. Here a clothes line had been stretched, hanging almost to the breaking point it offered to the delighted guest of honor linen to satisfy the most fastidious taste.

The hostess assisted the honoree in taking the gifts from the line and placing them in a huge clothes basket procured for the occasion.

Following an exciting contest a delicious ice course, where again pervaded the color motif of green and white, was served to seventy guests.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Johnson of Montgomery were the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Claude Reynolds, on Tuesday, enroute to Tuscaloosa where they will visit their second daughter, Mrs. H. E. Tarpley.

Mrs. R. E. Luckie and son Robert, spent Friday in Montgomery.

The many friends of Mr. Julius Reynolds will be glad to know that he is rapidly improving at St. Marys infirmary in Montgomery, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Clara Crumpton delightfully entertained about thirty guests at her home on Tuesday Evening, in honor of her sixteenth birthday. The guests arrived about 8:00 o'clock.

Miss Crumpton was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. Crumpton.

After an interesting contest the beautiful birthday cake was cut, the ring falling to Mr. Joe Higgins, thimble to Miss Inez Higgins, penny to Mr. Earl Henley and dime to Miss Clara Crumpton.

Games were enjoyed until a late hour after which a delicious course was served.

EMBROIDERY CLUB ENTERTAIN

Mrs. John VanDerveer delightfully entertained the members of the Embroidery Club at her home on Thursday afternoon.

SELECT SEED VELVET BEANS BEFORE FROST

Immature velvet beans like immature animals are unable to propogate by themselves. Velvet beans continue to grow and produce seed until frost kills them. Therefore, when frost kills the vegetative parts, there are many immature pods on the plants that will never reach maturity. However, when these immature pods and beans are subjected to freezing, thawing and drying for a few times they have the appearance of immature beans. The mature and immature beans are then harvested, stored, and thrashed together. The next season's crop planted from this lot of beans, results in a poor stand with a lot of weak plants that are not able to resist late cold and the attacks of disease.

The best and most convenient time to select seed velvet beans is during the last few days of October and the first few days of November. At this time cottonpicking and peanut harvesting are finished and corn harvesting can wait. One or two days during the period should be set aside for selecting and picking the seed velvet beans.

When going over the velvet bean fields to select seed for next year, mature beans are not the only things that should be looked for. There are many qualities of velvet bean plants that should be taken into consideration. If closely observed there might be discovered and isolated from the large acreage of beans, something altogether new. The Early Speckled velvet bean criginated from a field of the old late Speckled beans and was discovered almost accidentally.

When selecting seed beans look closely for early high yielding plants, free from disease. There are other qualities which the individual grower of velvet beans will take a fancy to and as the process continues the interest will increase. If you select and care for your own seed then you are sure of what you are planting and what you are going to get. While, if you buy your seed you take a chance of getting bad seed and going to the trouble of preparing and planting for nothing.

"OUT OF THINE OWN MOUTH WILL I JUDGE THEE"

Shall partisan politics or patriotism be paramount? That is the question that must be decided by the Democrats of the Senate when they cast their votes on the league of nations. Some of the leaders have had the courage of their convictions, and have declared their position in unmistakable terms. Members of their party throughout the country should ponder their declarations, and ask themselves the question whether it is now or ever will be expedient to discard the principles upon which this nation was founded and that have guided its prosperity to the present day.

NEGRO SHOT AT L. & N. CONDUCTOR FOUR TIMES

About 5:30 o'clock Monday evening as his freight train was stopped at Minooka Conductor Bazemore put a negro hobo off his train. When the negro landed on the ground he drew a 38 pistol and opened fire on the conductor. Four shots were fired, but luckily none of them hit the conductor.

Sheriff Gore was wired instantly, and when he and his deputy reached the scene shortly after dark they found the negro, whose name was given as Henry Watson, sitting beside a tool house. He stated that he was waiting for the next freight south. He was taken in charge by Sheriff Gore and placed in jail in Clanton.

TWO CONVICTS CARRIED TO STATE PENITENTIARY

Officer J. H. Oswald of the State Convict department came up Tuesday from Wetumpka to get two Chilton County convicts, who were sentenced in the Circuit Court last week. He carried them to the penitentiary at Wetumpka.

He carried back with him Andrew Howard under a sentence of 18 months far grand larceny, and Perry Glass under a sentence of ten years for the murder of Jim Compbell. Glass has given notice of an appeal from the verdict of the court, but requested that he be allowed to go to the penitentiary and begin his sentence while waiting for a hearing on his apepal.

FROM REV. DEASON

In a letter to the Union-Banner Rev. T. J. Deason has the following to say:

"The Chilton County Baptist Association is over again. We had a good session. A number of visitors from the Unity and other associations were with us. We were very glad to have them. We received two new churches into the association—Refuge and East View.

"The Fifth Sunday Meeting will be held with Shiloh, 8 miles south of Clanton, Nov. 29th and 30th. The brethren will take due notice and be governed accordingly."

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eubanks and children of Paducah, Ky., are visiting Mr. Eubanks' mother, Mrs. Jno. M. Robinson in Clanton.

Thoughts.

The eagle's a majestic bird,
And soars to dizzy heights,
Nor heeds the toiling world below
In his empyrean flights.

But when we chose the Eagle for
Our country's coin and seal,
Two bits would buy most anywhere
A fairly decent meal.

Still up and ever upward has
The cost of living gone
And bills of every household have Numerically grown.

And so be our nation's bird—
Most glorious post to fill.
"I dominate the pelican,
Because he's mostly bill."

What Is Rheumatism? Why Suffer from It?

Sufferers Should Realize That It Is a Blood Infection.

Doubtless like other sufferers, you have often asked yourself this question, which continues to remain unanswered.

Science has proven that Rheumatism is caused by a germ in your blood, and the only way to reach it is by a remedy which eliminates and removes these little pain demons. This explains why liniments and lotions can do no permanent good, for they cannot possibly reach these germs, which infest your blood by the millions.

S. S. S. has been successfully used for Rheumatism for more than fifty years. Try it to-day, and you will find you self at last on the right track to get rid of your Rheumatism. For treatment of your individual case address Chief Medical Adviser, Swift Specific Co., Dept. 43, Atlanta, Ga.

MR. J. S. JONES WRITES AGAIN

Cooper, Ala., Oct. 20, 1919.

Editor Union-Banner:

When the last letter of Mr. G. W. Edwards was published in The Union-Banner on October 2, I did not at first think it worth while to make any answer. And I do not yet believe it needs answering for he has not advanced anything that the people do not understand. I am quite sure that everybody looks upon Mr. Edwards in his true light. Everyone knows that he is a character that is always out of joint raising objections to everything and giving to no movement of interest to the welfare of the people the undivided support that would become one who seeks to better the welfare of the county. This has been his method of procedure for many years past, and we all know it to be true.

I do not now intend to try to make any answer to what Mr. Edwards has written. It does not need any answer. But I merely want to call the attention of the people to a few of his recent assertions in order that you may give them especial attention and more accurately place Mr. Edwards in the position which he actually occupies with reference to the county affairs.

In the first place you will have to admit that Mr. Edwards stands convicted of the charge that he voted a Democratic ticket in the election in 1908, for he has never denied or attempted to prove that he did not vote it. Now I leave it to the people of the county as to what blame is to be placed upon Mr. Edwards for voting as he did in 1908.

I want to call your attention to his own words about the 1910 election. He says in his letter of Oct. 2: "In 1910 I voted a Democratic ticket and helped defeat L. H. Reynolds; and the greatest regret of my life is that I did not do the same thing in 1916."

I ask you to come back with me and let's see what happened to Chilton county as a result of the 1910 election. When Judge Reynolds was defeated in 1910 Judge Deason and his ring came into power in our county. We all know it was there our county fell from grace financially. Our money was all squandered in one way and another, and a debt of thousands of dollars was placed upon us for the building of roads that were never built. Everybody knows that by the election of Deason in 1910 and the defeat of Judge Reynolds our county was financially ruined.

Yet, I would have you remember that Mr. Edwards says he had a part in bringing about his defeat of Judge Reynolds and the consequent disruption of our county financial affairs. In my mind no man could make a more fatal admission than to say that he was a party to the things that brought on our county the awful conditions that came with Judge Deason's administration.

But that is not all. Mr. Edwards makes bad matters the worse by saying that he has a great regret that he did not do the same thing again in 1916. Think of it people. A man as Mr. Edwards does, saying that he hepled ruin this county in 1910 by voting for Deason, and then adding that he would have delivered us over again to the same preying vultures in 1916. My candid opinion is that there is no justification for such a man in the minds of the people of Chilton county. We all know too well the results of the 1910 election; and when a man rises up and openly acknowledges that he had a part in bringing those things upon Chilton county,we know that he cannot be trusted in anything. Mr. Edwards was a traitor to the county in 1908; he was a traitor in 1910; he was a traitor in 1916; and for aught we know he is a traitor now. By his own acknowledgement of his past record he thwarts all the confidence of reliable men.

Mr. Edwards may hope to justify his treachery of the past years by bringing in his record and standing on such matters as the amendment, the bond issue, cow dipping, etc. I would remind you that at the time Mr. Edwards was helping stab the life out of Chilton county in 1910 and 1908 such questions as these had never been raised. And even after they did come up in later years, nothing that Mr. Edwards could have done in regard to them could have saved him from the condemnation he brings upon himself by his fatal admission that he helped put Deason in in 1910, and wished he could have put the same crowd back in again in 1916.

Now, I will leave Mr. Edwards to the just measure of the wrath that is his by virtue of his own crooked gets in the politics of Chilton county. I feel sure now that he will soon realize that he is buried never to rise again in the minds of the people. He has been a traitor so much that he can never master any further confidence with the people.

Respectfully,

J. S. JONES.

"THE HEART OF HUMANITY" IS STRONG LOVE-DRAMA

Ideal to Show Photoplay Teeming with Romance, on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 31, Nov. 1.

"The Heart of Humanity," Allan Houlbar's stupendous production, featuring Dorothy Phillips, is one of the season's biggest offerings.

With an appeal that strikes deep into the emotions, deeper perhaps, than anything that has ever been presented to the people of the civilized world in cinema productions, "The Heart of Humanity" is a picture that will live forever.

Proclaimed by press, public and the clergy in every city that it has been shown as the biggest production the screen has ever seen, the story is of love, love of man and wife, love of mother, love of child, and love of humanity.

"The Heart of Humanity" is beyond description, with mere words, but if you really want heart thrills and entertainment, if you want to see a love story that continues over two continents, if you want the chilly feeling down your spine that comes when you see a dog defending the honor of a woman when she is attacked by a Hunnish brute—then see "The Heart of Humanity."

Love forms the central theme of "The Heart of Humanity," and, as the title implies it is the story of all the living, breathing world. It is the story of the love that lives in a mother's heart of the love that dwells in the hearts of all sweethearts; of the love that exists in the hearts of all husbands and wives. It is the story of the grand passion which prompts humanity to do and dare for what is good and right, even to the extent of sacrificing life itself.

Dorothy Phillips, as Nannette, gives a marvelously intelligent interpretation of the stellar role. Surely, this talented young actress has traveled far since the days when she appeared in comedy roles. We venture the assertion that her work in this production justly entitles Miss Phillips to be regarded as o ne of the screen's foremost artists.

The widow Patricia, played by Margaret Mann is satisfying in every way. She represents every mother in the land and the manner in which she meets the heart wounds which are inflicted upon her will endear her to every man, woman and child who sees the production.

Its exclusive features make it "trouble-proof"

An Agreeable Surprise.

"About three years ago when I was suffering from a severe cold on my lungs and coughed most of the time night and day, I tried a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was surprised at the promptness with which it gave me relief," writes Mrs. James Brown, Clark Mills, N. The period of compulsory attendance shall commence at the beginning of the school, unless otherwise ordered by the county or city board of education, as the case may be, with the approval of the State board of Education.

Section 4. That in any case where the court before which any prosecution is brought for the violation of the provision of this article shall, at the inquiry find it a fact that the parents, guardian or other person having control of the child or children, is unable to provide necessary books and clothes in order that the child or children may attend school in compliance with law, such parents or guardian, or other person having the control of the child or children, shall be discharged, and such child or children shall be turned over to the Juvenile Court, or to the State Child Welfare Department to be dealt with as a dependent child.

Section 5. The County Board of Education shall arrange the county exclusive of the city into one or more attendance districts, and said board shall appoint an attendance officer for every district created, who shall reside in the district, and who shall hold his office at the will of the county board of education, and the board of education of each city of two thousand or more inbahitants, according to the last or any succeeding federal census, shall appoint one or more attendance officers to serve at the pleasure of appointed board, provided, this article shall be so interpreted as to make it possible for city and county boards of education boards of revenue and courts of county commissioners to jointly employ any person or persons to carry out the provisions of this Article and such additional duties as may be assigned them by such board or governing bodies, in connection with the Juvenile Court of the county or the state child welfare department.

At the end of the fifth day of the opening of the school, the principal teacher shall report to the county superintendent of education, who in turn shall report to the attendance officer of the attendance district, the names and addresses of all persons between the ages of eight and sixteen years, who have not enrolled in said school, and thereafter throughout the compulsory attendance period, the principal teacher of each school shall report at least weekly the names and addresses of all pupils between the ages of eight and sixteen years, who are absent and whose absence are not satisfactorily explained by the parents, guardian or other person having control of the child.

Section 7. It shall be the duty of the attendance officer to investigate all cases of non-enrollment and non-attendance reported to him in accordance with Section 6 of this article. In all cases investigated where no valid reason for non-enrollment or non-attendance is found, it shall be the duty of the attendance officer to give written notice to the parents, guardian or other person having control of the child, and in the event of the absence of the parent, guardian or other peron having control of the child, from his or her usual place of residence, the attendance officer shall leave a copy of the notice with some person over twelve years of age residing at the usual place of residence, with instructions to hand such notice to such parent, guardian or other person having control of such child, which notice shall require the attendance of said child at the school within three days from day of said notice.

All fines collected shall be paid into the county or city treasury, as the case may be, and it is hereby made the duty of the city attorney in their respective cities, and of all county and circuit solicitors, for their respective counties and districts to prosecute all complaints filed and actions brought under this Article.

Section 10. Every teacher employed in the schools giving instructions to pupils within the compulsory attendance age, shall, after October 1st, 1920, hold a teacher's certificate issued by the State Department of Education. Every teacher in a public school is hereby required before receiving each month's salary, to make a report to the county superintendent of education, or to the city superintendent of schools, as the case may be showing the names and addresses of all pupils who have been truant or otherwise irregular in attendance during the previous month, and stating the reason for such truancy or irregular attendance. All such information shall in turn be brought to the notice of the attendance officer by the county superintendent or by the city superintendent of schools, as the case may be, and the same shall be investigated by the said officer.

Section 11. In case any pupil has become habitually truant or because of irregular attendance or misconduct has become a menace to the best interest of the school which he is attending or should attend, then, it shall be the duty of the attendance officer to report such facts and conditions to the parent, guardian, or other person having control of such child, shall be held liable under the provisions of this Article for the regular attendance and good conduct of such child, unless such parents, guardian or other person having control of such child shall state in writing to the attendance officer that he or she is unable to control such child, whereupon such attendance officer shall proceed against such incorrigibile pupil as a disorderly person before a court of competent jurisdiction, and said child upon conviction may be sentenced, if a white boy to the Alabama Boys Industrial School; or if a white girl, to the State Training School for Girls; if a negro boy, to the Alabama Reform School for Juvenile negro law-breakers; or a negro girl to such custodian institution in the State as the Judge may designate and for such time as the court may decide; provided, that the maintenance of such child in the institution shall be paid as the law provides for the maintenance of such as are committed to the aforesaid institution. And in all cases where the child is so committed it shall be placed in charge of some suitable person designated by the court and conveyed under his directions to the designated institution, and the actual necessary expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the board of county commissioners or the county board of revenue; provided that a woman shall always be sent to accompany a girl to be committed.

Section 12. The attendance officer whose appointment is by this article provided for, shall keep an accurate record of all notices served all cases prosecuted, and all other services performed, and shall make an annual report of the same to the county board of education or to the city board of education by whom he is employed. The attendance officers who are employed by the county or city board of education shall be paid by the respective boards of education, such salaries as may be required to secure efficient service. Said attendance officer shall be paid as other employees of the county or city board of education are paid, but no attendance officer shall receive any compensation under the provisions of this act until he shall have filed such reports as are required by the State Board of Education and by the board of education of the county or city employing him.

Section 13. In order that the provisions of this Article may be more definitely enforced, the county superintendent of education or the city superintendent of schools as the case may be, shall not later than ten days before compulsory attendance term is to begin, furnish to each principal teacher of every school under his jurisdiction a list of the children between the age of eight and sixteen years, who should attend the school or schools under the charge of said principal teacher, giving the name, date of birth, age, sex, race, the name and address of parents, guardian, or other person in parental relationship; provided in the case of pupils living in cities the street and house number shall be given and in the case of all other pupils the estimated distance from the school house by the nearest traveled road shall be given.

Section 14. The information required under Section 13 shall be prepared by the county superintendent of education with the assistance of the attendance officer for the even number of years, from the census booklet in file in his office. In the odd number years, the list shall be prepared by the county superintendent of education with the assistance of the attendance officers, by collecting and supplementing the lists prepared and furnished the preceding years. To this end, the county superintendent of education shall make use of the information contained in teachers' registers, and such additional information as he may require from school trustees. In the case of the city superintendent of schools, the list shall be prepared by the even number of year from the duplicate census booklet in his possession. In the odd number years he shall prepare it, making use of the information contained in teachers' register, and such additional information as he may require from the attendance officer.

Section 15. In all public schools conducted under this act, twenty days with five days each week shall constitute a school month, and a school day, not less than six hours of actual teaching, exclusive of all recess or intermision periods, unless otherwise ordered by a county board or city board in authority.

THE UNION-BANNER

VOLUME VIII. CLANTON, CHILTON COUNTY, ALA., OCT. 30, 1919. NUMBER 31.

U. S. SENATOR MILES POINDEXTER MAKES BID FOR PRESIDENCY

PLACES HIS PLATFORM BEFORE THE PEOPLE IN A WAY NEVER DONE BY A MAN BEFORE.

To the People of the United States:

This government was founded on the principles that no special class should control it;

The absolute security of every man under the law in his person and property;

The safeguarding of the general welfare of our people by keeping the government at all times under their own control, both as against any special class at home, and as against any foreign power or combintion of powers;

And the active use by the government, in the sphere of its action, of the full powers of the nation to protect every citizen, of whatever station he may be, both at home or in a foreign land, or on the sea, from unlawful injury to his person or his property by any individual or special class, or by any foreign power.

Every necessary agency of the government should be used to give complete protection to the lives and lawful rights of American citizens in Mexico; and the international duties we have assumed as to that country, by reason of our proximity, and as incidental to the Monroe Doctrine, at once, should be performed. The setsing out and withdrawing, without definite purpose or result, of military expeditions to Vera Cruz and other portions of Mexico, also as at Archangel and other portions of the world are criminal in their reckless disregard of life and national treasure expended without the possibility of any benefits whatever.

Alien slackers, who renounced their "first papers" of naturalization in order to escape military service, should be denied citizenship in the future, and should be deported without delay to the several foreign countries from which they came to the United States, in order that the opportunities they enjoy may be left for loyal citizens and soldiers.

Revolutionary communism by whatever name it may be called, must be met and put down wherever it appears, as subversive of liberty. There can be no compromise with anarchy.

The attempt of certain radical labor leaders to coerce Congress to enact legislation proposed by them, if successful, would be government by a class, as in Russia, and not "by the people," as in the United States. The threat to tie up transportation until the railroads are nationalized and delivered to the control of the employees, is successful, would be government by terror, for a special class.

The effort of certain radical leaders of labor organizations to secure control of the police force of the various cities of the country, if successful, would give to a small special class absolute control of officers of the law. It would give a certain class control of the enforcement of the law, and of governmental agencies established to preserve the peace. Its success would mean the abdication of the government in favor of a class, and the immediate establishment of dictatorship. It should not be open to debate or negotiation.

This nation cannot be ruled by capital, and it cannot be ruled by labor. Both capital and labor must be subject to the rule of the people. The government must be supreme.

The just claims of labor should be recognized and every oportunity possible should be given to laboring men and their families for comfort and happiness. The laboring man, above all others, is benefited by the preservation of law and order, the security of life, person, and property against violence and arbitrary rule. But the effort of any labor leader to put labor in control of the government, by means of industrial blockade, economic pressure, intimidation of violence, or so-called direct action, cannot be tolerated, any more than such an effort on the part of combined capital would be tolerated. Either would violate the cardinal principles of free government.

Communism is inconsistent with the vested right of a laborer to the wages of his labor. The right to work, to join or not to join a union, and to accumulate, or to use as one see fit and to transmit to his children the wages of his work, is an essential part of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

These esential elements of liberty are menaced by revolutionary doctrines. This revolutionary movement is international in its scope and purpose. It has received powerful encouragement from the administration. Many of its advocates have occupied high places in the government. Instead of encouraging a class dictatorship it is the business of the government to preserve the ordered liberty of the people, and to protect by every means in its power the institutions on which it is founded. Defenders and advocates of those who have been convicted by due process of law of crimes of violence, committed in pursuance of a revolutionary and communistic program, should be dismissed from government service.

The process of making a supreme sacrifice of America, and of "joining our fortunes with the fortunes of men everywhere" should be stopped. The opposite and ancient policy of our fathers must be restored,—of saving instead of sacrificing our great institutions, and of promoting in evey honorable way the interests of our people. The process of internationalizing our fortunes must be reversed and the separate interests of this nation, with due regard for the rights of others, must be cherished again.

America, in her mighty separate station which the fathers gave her, leader and champion of the new world, the friend of the old, must preserve her sovereign independence, as the one secure seat and refuge of genuine liberty.

Extravagancies produced by war, and governmental waste, must give way to a wise economy. Direct taxes upon industry and consumption ought to be reduced and supplemented by increased duties upon imports, and surplus revenues derived therefrom should be expended in a liberal extension of land reclamation and international improvement.

Radio communication between the United States and the rest of the world should be under American control; and full co-operation by the Navy Department towards that end should be assured.

An ample merchant marine under the American flag is esesntial to national prosperity. The merchant service and the fisheries afford a training school for seamen; and every facility for the development of these great essentials of national defense should be provided.

I favor an extensive system of national roads—built on approved engineering prinpicles created with a view to military defense as well as civil and commercial use, co-ordinate with existing highways so as to form a nationala s well as local system.

Peace with Germany should be declared at once.

The peace treaty should be stripped of the extraneous incumbrances that have been placed upon it; and which have so long delayed it, and the permanent burdens which it is proposed to place upon the United States in the conduct of European affairs should be at once rejected.

Every American soldier, except those engaged in diplomatic or other peaceful service, should be at once withdrawn from Europe and the continent of Asia; and the work of recruiting and transporting military forces of the United States for service in Siberia and Germany, and the plans being made for sending an American army to Turkey should be at once suppressed. The resources of our people and the activities of their government should be devoted to their own interests instead of to those of foreign nations.

The proposal which has been recently presented to the American people that the United States should become a trustee for the world should be denounced as destructive of liberty and ruinous to the American people, as well as injurious to the peace and safety of the world.

The formal proposal recently laid before the Senate, by which in the case of future emergencies, the American people cannot increase their army and navy without the unanimous consent and permission of a combination of foreign powers would violate the Constitution and surrender the sovereignty of the nation. It should be denounced as treasonable.

The Monroe Doctrine should be reestablished in its full vigor; and the participation which it is proposed to give Europe in the control of American affairs should be denied.

Should a future exigency in European affairs again arise of such proportions as to menace the interests of the United States, the American people must be entirely free to determine for themselves in their own generation the extent and manner in which they shall intervene.

The recent assumption by certain officials of our government of jurisdiction of the settlement of foreign controversies, which are of but remote concern to us, has engendered racial animosities against the United States. We should cease officious meddling with other people's affairs. The ancient American doctrine of confining our participation in governmental matters to the American continent, while we stand as a friendly neutral to all nations with which we are at peace, should be restored.

The ancient policy under which we have enjoyed peace and prosperity, and attained greatness, with honest friendship and intimate social and commercial intercourse with the rest of the world, should be re-established.

The war being over, our people should be allowed to enjoy the peace which their victory won.

There is no "royal road" to happiness, either in governmental or personal affairs. Success must come from struggle and "eternal vigilence." It is a mistake to assume that a remedy can be found for all the illls of mankind. Certain fundamental truths of government have been evolved by experience and are fixed as the foundations of our institutions. To them we must adhere, and working upon that basis, in a healthy evolution, and not by revolution, we can adapt our laws and administration to the needs of the people as conditions develop; cleaving to the ancient principles of the Constitution. By so doing we shall preserve for ourselves and our posterity that happy state which we have attained among the nations of the earth.

I stand upon these principles, and shall make an active campaign for the nomination by the Republican Party for the office of President of the United States in order to present these issues to the people, and to attempt, if successful, to assist in reetablihing these principles in our domestic and foreign policy.

Respectfully,
MILES POINDEXTER.

DEAD SHOULD BE RETURNED

Representative Bland Insists Bodies of Soldiers be Brought Back.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Contending that the American soldiers who fell in France should be returned to this country for final burial, Representative Bland of Indiana has introduced a bill for the appointment of a Commission to remove the bodies of soldiers and marines to the United States.

An Agreeable Surprise.

"About three years ago when I was suffering from a severe cold on my lungs and coughed most of the time night and day, I tried a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was surprised at the promptness with which it gave me relief," writes Mrs. James Brown, Clark Mills, N. Y. Many another has been surprised and pleased with the prompt relief affirded by this remedy.

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE OBSERVED NOVEMBER 11

"The schools of Alabama are preparing for the observance of a new day—Armistice Day, November 11. At that time, it is contemplated that every school and every patron and friends of education, shall do his part; first, in participating in the program that will prove a fitting tribute to the sacrifices of our soldiers and sailors; and second, in guaranteeing that every county raise its quota for the memorial fund to be used in erecting a building that will fittingly commemorate their brave deeds, said Superintendent of Education, Spright Dowell.

Every county superintendent and every city superintendent in the State has pledged his personal interest and effort; every teacher has agreed to heartily co-operate; the boys and the girls in many sections are already enthusiastic; numerous inquiries are coming to the department daily for literature, and from all indications, the State will experience a patriotic outburst on that day, the like of which has not been seen since November 11, 1918.

These are two unanswerable reasons for the observance properly of the day this year: First, the schools have been given the place of honor—the leading place in the raising of the quotas of the counties for the erection of the Memorial Building; second, the task in hand is worthy of the best efforts of our entire citizenship.

There have been numerous drives, perhaps all of them worthy, but there has never been a drive which should appeal so strongly to every loyal Alabamian as this, and on the appointed day there ought to be in every schoolhouse in Alabama a community gathering in which the deepest meanings of patriotism and the war will be recited, and appreciated, and along with which all come an individual offering for the perpetuation in lasting form of the glorious deeds of the war in which Alabama played such a leading and conspicuous part.

The program prepared for observance of Armistice Day in the schools will be distributed in time for the schools to make necessary preparations for its presentation.

WEST CHILTON

Beautiful autumnal days—time of the harvest home. "Daylight Saving law" gone.

Cattle dippnig done—people are smiling.

Rev. Gothard filled his appointment Sunday at Union Springs.

Eddie Atchison looked happy Sunday, as he motored north.

Mrs. Charles Howard and Miss Larkin of Thorsby have the school at Freeman. We congratulate the community in securing such efficient teachers, Mrs. Howard having previously taught here. She is one of the best this community ever had.

As per announcement in the Banner, Mr. Eshleman of Maryland reached here on the 22nd inst., and delivered two of the most beautiful lectures we ever heard. His eloquence, diction and rhetoric were just fine; his Biblical knowledge seemed the acme of perfection. He made no attempt at oratory, yet his graceful and easy flow of language held his hearers as if spell bound. His subjects were "The Lord's Prayer" and "The True Church." It was a rare treat to hear him. He closed his lectures with a forceful allusion to the approaching kingdom—the beautiful day,—the restitution of every thing—the desire of all nations. He left on No. 19 for Montgomery.

With much success to the Banner and its many readers, will close.

Charley Cox, who is building power lines for the Alabama Power Company in north Alabama, is at home for a few days this week. He is stationed at Guntersville now.

BAPTISTS PART IN 100 YEARS OF ALABAMA HISTORY

Dr. Charley Stakeley, pator of the First Baptist Church of Montgomery, will deliver a centennial address at the annual Baptist convention which will be held in Birmingham, November 11-14. His subjects will be "Baptists' part in 100 years of Alabama History." The centennial also will be observed by many other churches and organizations holding their state meetings within the present year.

Captain William T. Shehan, editor of the Montgomery Advertiser, will deliver the centennial address before the Presbyterian Synod at its annual session in Montgomery November 11-14. This address will be an interesting feature of the luncheon to the Synod to be given by the pastor and congregation at the First Presbyterian church at noon November 14.

Hon. Oliver D. Street, of Guntersville, will deliver the centenary address before the Masonic Grand Lodge which convenes at Montgomery early in December, when he will review the century's progress of the order.

On Alabama Day, December 14, a stone will be unveiled at Tuscaloosa, marking the site of the old state capital, now the Central Female College. Dr. Thomas M. Owen will deliver the centennial address and Colonel. Thos. C. McCorvey, dean of the academic faculty of the University, will read an original centennial poem.

Patriotic societies of Selma and citizens of Dallas County, have made all necessary arrangements for the placing of a stone upon the site of the first permanent capital, at Cahaba, though the date for the ceremony of unveiling has not yet been announced. The stone marking the territorial capital at St. Stephens will be erected at "Lover's Leap" overlooking the river at few hundred yards from where the ancient capital building stood. Plans for marking the colonial site at Mobile, the temporary capital at Huntsville and the present capital at Montgomery, are said to be well under way.

Under the direction of the Alabama centennial commission, three tentative programs have been prepared for use in the schools. One of these is a pageant for pupils of the senior grades, another is designed for pupils in the elementary grades, and the third is a general program of songs and recitations for the use of the entire schools in celebrating Alabama Day.

The world's biggest amusement institution, Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Shows Combined, is to exhibit afternoon and night at Montgomery, Thursday, November 13.

The consolidation of the world's greatest shows and the greatest show on earth, in one circus of colossal size, constitutes the amusement surprise of the country. Nothing to approach this gigantic, new circus has ever before toured America. It has been formed by merging the pick and the cream of all that was biggest and best in the two famous shows. It would be folly to attempt to enumerate its many wonders. Some idea of the enormous scale upon which features are presented may be had when it is stated that a quarter of a million pounds of elephants take part in a single act; in other words—six times as many of the big-eared giants than have ever been seen in one maintent exhibition. All else to be seen is in proportion. The arenic stars embrace all the world's foremost circus performers. There are three hours of novelties and big sensational acts. The menagerie is far and away the most colossal ever traveled. For instance—a herd of eight giraffes are exhibited in place of the two or three shown in the past. The great tournament which opens the main-tent program, is the most magnificent thing in pageantry yet produced in America. Hundreds upon hundreds of gorgeously costumed odd characters and beautiful horses take part in it. The morning street parade is the longest and most brilliant ever given anywhere. It is a stupendous super-circus that baffles any descpirtion.

POLITICAL TREND IS STRONGLY TOWARD REPUBLICAN PARTY

All Signs Point Unerringly to Popular Indorsement When Votes are Cast.

WITH FAST FALLING IN LINE

Democratic Strongholds in Many Sections of Country, Now Turning to Safer Policies.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Having won a notable victory in Kentucky thru the election of a Republican to Congress to fill a Democratic vacancy, and having thoroughly alarmed the Democrats by reducing their majority in the seventh Alabama District from 3,600 to 400, the Republican leaders are now confidently awaiting the outcome of the various state elections which are scheduled for November.

Perhaps, the greatest interest centers in the Kentucky situation. The election in the Blue Grass state occurs on November 4, and there is every indication that the state will be placed firmly in the Republican column through the election of the entire Republican ticket. There are ample facts to justify this claim. The first conclusive indication of the rapid growth of Republicanism in Kentucky was the election of King Swope to Congress from a district long under the control of the Democrats. Recently there have been developments which have proved beyond a question that the election of Swope was not merely a political accident, but was in fact the foreshadowing of statewide success for the Republican ticket. Recent dispatches from Louisville, one of the most important centers of the state, show that for the first time in the hisory of he party, the Republicans have succeeded in registering a majority of the voters of that city. It is estimated that 5,000 more voters have registered in Louisville for the forthcoming elections as Republicans than ever before, and that this means that Louisville is safely in the Republican column.

Other reports as to the manner in which the contending gubernatorial candidates are being received are taken as indicative of the result next month.

On October 11, Governor Black, the Democratic candidate, appeared in Vandring, Ky., and his audience consisted of only twenty-six citizens, although his apeparance had been widely advertised. On the same date Edwin P. Morrow, the Republican candidate appeared in Hopkinsville, and was greeted by an audience of 5,000, while hundreds of others were unable to crowd into the hall. Many incidents similar to this and the fact that a large majority of the returning Kentucky soldiers are registering as Republicans, have led Representative Langley, one of the Republican Congressmen from Kentucky, to wire to Republican leaders in Washington, that the Morrow ticket will sweep the state.

Governor Coolidge's re-election in Massachusetts by a substantial majority is assured.

The Republican are also confident of success in New Jersey. In that State it is reported that while the Democrats have come through a bitter factional fight with a great many sore heads, there is no such situation with regard to the Republicans. They are absolutely united, and are making a sturdy campaign on a platform of a thorough business administration of the state's afairs, similar to the Edge administration. It is believed that this is what New Jersey wants and the Republican managers are pinning their faith upon it. International affairs are not an issue in New Jersey for the simple reason that Republicans and Democrats alike are against the League of Nations as constituted in the original covenant.

Although the Republicans in Washington are extremely hopeful of the results in November, they believe that the victories then achieved will give conclusive proof to the country that the present political trend is decidedly Republican, and that this trend will manifest itself even more pointedly with the approach of the Presidential campaign of next year.

OF INTEREST TO FARM READERS

BULL ASSOCIATIONS GROWING POPULAR.

By W. H. Eaton, Assistant Dairy Husbandman.

Prepared by Extension Service. Auburn, Ala.

Within the past ninety days twelve high class, purebred, dairy bulls have been brought in to Alabama for use in co-operative associatons. These bulls are in associations located in Hale, Dallas, Macon and Lee counties. Definite steps have been taken within the past month for the organization of six new associations in the counties of Madison, Coosa, Tallapoosa, Talladega and Baldwin.

The association plan appeals to the farmer with one cow as well as to the dairyman with a large herd. Co-operative bull associations are formed by farmers for the joint ownership, use, and exchange of purebred bulls. The purchase price and cost of maintenance are distributed according to the number of cows owned by each, thereby giving the farmer an opportunity to build up his herd at a minimum expense. The organization also helps its members to market dairy stock and dairy products, to fight contagious diseases of cattle intelligently, and in other ways assist in improving the dairy industry.

The bull association does not give something for nothing, but with an outlay of $10.00 can furnish a share in five purebred bulls. These bulls can not increase the production of the cows in a herd, but they can double the production of their daughters. The daughters of association bulls and grade cows can never be registered, but in all other respects they may be the equal of pure breds.

For plans of organization, communicate with your county agent or the office of Dairy Extension, Auburn, Alabama.

GET SEED POTATOES NOW.

Throughout Maine and other northern potato producing States, harvest is now on full blast. As the northern potato crop is below normal, both in acreage and yield, specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture recommend that the southern planters stock up immediately on seed potatoes for next spring's plantings.

IT CAN BE DONE RIGHT HERE IN CLANTON, ALA.

If there is something going wrong inside of you now you don't have to go off some place to have yourself looked into. Dr. Gragg has got the wherewithall to do the job in the form of a thoroughly modern and up-to-date X-Ray machine; and he also knows how to operate it too.

By special invitation the editor went down to the doctor's office last week and witnessed the making of an X-Ray picture from start to finish. It is a most interesting, scientific process, and is being done every day right here just as well as it can be done in any city.

Clanton and Chilton County should be proud of Dr. Gragg's spirit. By doing that kind of work here he saves many people lots of expense that they would otherwise have to incur in going away for X-Ray work.

Mr. W. Q. Childress and his daughter were visitors to The Union-Banner office on Wednesday. Mr. Childress informed us that his wife died last Friday after an illness that extended over a period of thirty odd years. The deceased lady leaves only Mr. Childress and the one daughter.

Many people are interested in forcing lettuce for the home for winter use. This can easily be done if the following directions are carefully carried out.

You should first select a place for a cold frame, facing the South or Southeast. It should be rather elevated so as to have protectiton in case of heavy rains and afford good drainage. The frames should be made by using 12" boards on the back and 8" boards on the front, making the bed from 4 ft to 6 ft. wide. If the standard sash are to be used, the frame should be six feet wide and some multiple of three in length, as the standard sash is 3 ft. x 6 ft. Sash are rather expensive and a cheap grade of cloth may be used as a substitute. This cloth should be stretched on a frame and placed over the bed at nights and on cold days.

The soil should be rather rich, composed of about two parts of sandy loam and one part of well rotted leaf mold or barnyard manure, mixed thoroughly and finely pulverized.

The rows should be 8" apart and the plants should be 8" apart in the rows to produce the best quality of head lettuce. It is not necessary to transplant lettuce as good results have been obtained by sowing the seed in drills and thinning to the desired distance.

The best varieties to use are Hanson and Big Boston, the first being preferred as it produces the curly leaf and a rather compact head.

In case the season is dry at the time the seed is sown, the beds should be watered each day to insure a good stand. As soon as the plants have produced the third leaf, they should be thinned. They should be cultivated closely and kept clean of weeds.

In case the disease, known as "dampening off," occurs the plants should be dusted about the base with equal parts of lime and sulphur and the bed should be allowed to become comparatively dry. This disease is recognized by the young plantlets tumbling over and, when examined appear to be rotted off at the surface of the ground.

Another disease that gives trouble is known as the "lettuce drop," which occurs about the time the plant is nearly mature, when all the leaves appear to have dropped to the ground and when examined it is found that the roots have all dried and rotted. There is no cure for this trouble but it may be prevented by watering the plants between the rows and not allowing them to become wet about the base of the stem.

Lettuce sown in October should be ready for eating by mid-winter. In case the plants do not grow as rapidly as you would like, you will find it desirable to water about once in two weeks with a solution of nitrate of soda, made by disolving one ounce of nitrate of soda in a gallon of water, applying this to an area of about three by six feet. Not more than two or three applications should be made during a growing season.

It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allys the inflamation which causes practically all stomach liver nd intestinl ailments, including appendicitis. HARVESTING AND STORING THE SWEET POTATO CROP.

By J. C. C. Price, Associate Horticulturist.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

It is essential that much attention be given to harvesting and storing sweet potatoes as it is a valuable crop. The potatoes should be allowed to mature in order to produce a maximum yield and to develop high quality. It is also difficult to cure a potato which has not thoroughly matured. If a potato is broken and the surface turns white and dries in a few minutes, the crop is ready to dig.

The old custom of waiting until frost kills the vines should not be followed as it is almost impossible to keep potatoes when the vines have been killed by frost and they are also dangerous for food. By referring to the annual killing frosts one can readily judge when he should get his potatoes out of the ground. The average killing frost for Alabama is about November 10th. This varies according to latitude, however.

In getting the potatoes out of the ground one should be careful not to bruise or cut them as any bruised or cut places make them more difficult to keep. It will be much easier to dig the potatoes if the vines are first removed, and this is easiest done by using a six foot McCormack hay rake, letting the mule walk between two rows and cleaning the vines from two rows at a time. A good digging implement should be used. The old method of using scooter plows or small turning plows should be abandoned and a large potato digger with pronged mould board should be used. If the above digger cannot be obtained one may get fairlly good results by using a good sized middle buster running deeply under the rows. In dry, hard ground sometimes the digging is made easier by first barring off the rows with a turning plow.

When the potatoes are turned out they should be picked up and placed in layers on the ridges so as to dry, making the soil easier to remove as often when the ground is wet it clings to them badly. Baskets lined with old sacks should be used in picking up the tubers, as when handled in this manner they are not so badly bruised. Careful sorting should be done in the field, all broken or badly bruised potatoes being left behind and only the good ones taken to the storage house.

If a storage house is used for storing the potatoes, the fire in the house should be started so as to thoroughlly dry it and raise the temperature to about ninety degrees with the doors, windows and ventilators open.

If you have more than one variety of potatoes to place in the storage house the juicy, or Yam type, potatoes should be dug first as they require more curing. If you have all of one variety the bins should be filled uniformly around each day as those in the bottom of the bin cure slower than those on the top.

All the time that curing is going on the temperature should be kept up, as stated above, with the doors and windows open. With a little experience it is easy to determine when the potatoes are properly cured. The skin will have a dry, spongy feeling, with the cut or bruised places well calloused.

When the potatoes are cured, the temperature should not be lowered immediately but gradually, extending over a period of about two days. If the temperature is lowered immediately and the house closed it will cause a sweating which is liable to start mould or rot. The curing period usually last eight or ten days. After the potatoes are well cured the temperature is lowered to fifty or sixty degrees and it should be maintained at this temperature, if possible, throughout the year. At no time should the temperature be allowed to drop below forty-five degrees and it is better if it is kept above fifty. The house ought to be visited frequently after the curing period and if the temperature is too low, raise it by opening the house on a bright, warm day or lighting an oil stove and letting it run for a few hours. The house should be ventilated or opened up at least once a week, that is if the weather permits. On cloudy, cold days it is better to keep the house closed and open only on bright, sunny days.

Many people claim not to be able to build storage houses or that they may have such small quantities that they do not feel justified in building a house. Quanities from a few to twenty-five bushels may be cured in their dwelling house by first drying the potatoe in the sun for ten days to two weeks and then carefully packing them into small boxes that have been lined with paper and setting them one on top of the other in the store room. In case of freezing weather, a small oil stove may be used to keep the store room sufficiently warm.

People desiring further information on this subject may write the Department of Horticulture, Auburn, Alabama, for Bulletin 197.

The C. C. H. S. foot ball team will play the Dallas County High School Team on the Clanton ground Friday afternoon. Come out and root for our home team.

RED CROSS GIVES FULL ACCOUNTING

War Council Tells How Millions Contributed by Public Were Used For Relief.

BIG TASK IS DESCRIBED

In Twenty Months $154,000,000 Was Spent Overseas and $119,000,000 in the United States.

Washington, (Special.)—Through a complete report of the work of the American Red Cross in the war by Chairman Henry P. Davison, on behalf of the war council, the organization on the eve of its annual enrollment of members during the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11, has rendered an accounting of the many millions given it by the American people to help our fighting men and our allies. The statement is, in part, as follows:

"The war council of the American Red Cross is now prepared to make a complete accounting to the American people of money contributed and expended, as well as the work done by the American Red Cross during the period in which the war council was in control of its affairs. The war council was appointed May 19, 1919, and went out of existence February 28, 1919.

"It was the practice of the war council to give complete publicity to its policies and finances, but it is only now that a picture of the war period as a whole can be presented. It is the feeling of the war council that a report in this summarized form should be made directly to the public which provided the money and gave the effort which made the American Red Cross a success.

"A statement of the American Red Cross effort and finances since the war council relinquished its control will be made to the public through the executive committee, and it is important, therefore, that the fact that this report covers the period only until March 1, should be carefully noted."

Following are certain round figures covering American Red Cross participation in the war, as revealed by the war council's report:

Of the $400,000,000 in money and supplies, contributed to the American Red Cross during the twenty months the war council was in existence, $263,000,000 was alloted to national headquarters, while $137,000,000 went to the chapters to finance their activities. Expenditures in the twenty months totalled $273,000,000, divided as follows: By national headquarters in France, $57,000,000; elsewhere overseas, $64,000,000; in the United States, $48,000,000; by chapters in the United States, $43,000,000; cost of chapter-produced articles distributed in France, $25,000,000, elsewhere overseas, $8,000,000; in the United States, $28,000,000, making total expenditures in France, $82,000,000, elsewhere overseas, $72,000,000; in the United States, $119,000,000.

SENATOR POINDEXTER ANNOUNCES FOR PRESIDENCY.

For the first time in American political history a man of high standing in public life has announced himself as a candidate for the nomination for the presidency of our country, and has placed before the people of the country a statement of the principles he supports. This was done by Senator Miles Poindexter, of the State of Washington, whose anouncement was given to the press a few days ago.

With due appreciation of this innovation, because it gives the people of the country ample opportunity to study and discuss the issues and the man presenting them, we have secured from Senator Poindexter copies of his platform, and are publishing same in this issue of The Union-Banner.

We hope other aspirants for either the Republican or Democratic nomination will pursue a similar course. Because government of the people, for the people and by the people, will be promoted by early and full discussion of the principles, official records and qualifications of men who are probable nominees for the highest public service.

It is our hope that there will be a frank and friendly discussion of the views of all active or tentative candidates—frank in the sense that Republicans will not hesitate to differ from those to whom they are personally friendly; and friendly in the sense that every effort will be made not to arouse animosities, but to nourish a spirit which will unify the party when the nominations have been made.

We refer our readers to Mr. Poindexter's platform in this paper. We want you to read and study it. We think the people should be glad that the time is coming when we shall all know what a man is before we fall in for him as our President. That is where we have suffered sorely in the past—by having men whom we did not know, nominated and elected to our highest office.

For this reason we commend the political innovation inaugurated by Senator Poindexter in announcing eight months before the national convention his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination, accompanied by a frank and exhaustive statement of his political views. We believe that he is to be congratulated upon his courage, frankness and his thorough Americanism in an able and modest presentation of his views upon pending public questions.

THERE'S A REASON.

The election of the Democratic nominee at the special election held in the Seventh Congresional District of Alabama was heralded by the administration press as "clear cut victory, with the League of Nations as the issue." In the light of complete returns the Seventh Alabama District has been dropped by Democrats as it were a hot potato. There's a reason.

Representative Fess, chairman of the Republican National Congressional Committee, explains the why of the dropping. In 1915 that district was reshaped with a view to making it more comfortable for Democratic candidates. Two Republican counties, Franklin and Winston, were placed elsewhere, while Blount County, very strongly Democratic, was put in their place. As a result the Democratic maority in 1916 was 3,633. At the special election recently held the democratic majority was 406. The Democratic National Committee, according to Mr. Fess, placed its own man in charge of the campaign; five of the Alabama delegation in Congress as well as speakers from other Southern states, were sent into the district, and every effort was made to roll up a normal majority for the democratic nominee, which was to be heralded as a notable victory for the league.

The heralding came off all right, but the expected Democratic majority did not. With that dwindled from 3,663 to 406, there has been a let-up on heralding—and also of talk a bout the Seventh Alabama in administration and league circles—N. Y. Herald.

Some Facts About Clanton Which We Ought to be Ashamed to Admit

The community problem, or the town problem, is an inexhaustible source of thought for the mind that is given to the custom of meditating and pondering upon the same. However good we may think our town is there are some things about it that we are constrained to hold as more or less detrimental. And however bad we may have the town and its people calculated, there are always some redeeming virtues. Every bitter has its sweet and every rose its thorn.

We don't know how it would seem to live in a place where there were more roses than thorns. And we don't believe you know either. On the other hand most of us have had the visible experience of life in places where the bitter out-weighed the sweet.

It is not to be suggested or even supposed that anyone person could exercise the power to convert all the thorns in Clanton into roses; nor is anyone individual responsible for the existence of all the thorns. We do not expect ever to see this town, nor any other town on earth, shed all its bad qualities and turn into Utopia. But it is reasonable and right to hope and strive that we might attain that happy medium wherein it might be said of our town that the good and evil are proportionate. Now by good and evil we do not mean literally piety and crime as would be defined by the laws of morality. We mean the broader application as would be included in the term good of the community—moral, commercial, educational and religious progress. By our use of the opposite term we mean those stale reactionary unprogressive, out of date methods and ideas that some of us still labor under.

There are many things we might do and not do that would make Clanton a better place to live in. We ought to believe in ourselves and our town and our fellow townsmen. We ought to boost instead of knock.

Why, if a stranger should come into our town and ask some of our citizens if we have a high school here they would say no; and if they did say yes, they would not say whether it is a good school, a bad school, or neither good nor bad. They would not take the trouble to inform the stranger who the Principal is or where he could be found. It may sound unbelievable, but there are people right here in Clanton who are guilty of having done this very thing. Why they do it we do not propose to tell you.

And if our strange visitor should be one of those spiritually dejected looking characters, inquiring for a church at which he might attend the Sunday morning service, he could very easily find someone who could tell him there are a couple of churches here, but he would most surely be also infarmed that in the opinion of his informant neither one of them is worth attending. The pastors of the churches would be held up as worthless and the whole church business a farce. The result is that the stranger goes on in his evil mood and by the time he gets to the next town he is ready to plunder somebody's house; or maybe he knocks somebody in the head and commits robbery on the way.

How much better would it be for Clanton and those who come here from other places if we could meet the stranger on a Sunday morning, tell him what fine churches and what fine preachers we have and carry him out to one of the worshiping places with us. Of course he wouldn't be very highly impressed with our church houses but we could show him that we have the right spirit (if we had it ourselves.)

A few weeks ago when the Bonds Brothers came here to promote the sale of a certain farm near Clanton they inquired if there was a town band here. They always have bands at their sales to make a merry time for the visitors. Somebody here (we wish we knew who) told Mr. Bonds there was no band in Clanton. He said: "They tried to get up one here a while back but fell through like they fall through with everything in Clanton. The leader was no good, the boys did not take any interest and there was nothing to it."

Now can you imagine a man in Clanton telling a stranger such a thing as that, in the face of the fact that the Clanton Boy Scouts have had a band organized and practicing regularly for over six months? They played at the barbecue here July 4th, they have played on the streets and at the picture show numbers of times. What is the matter with a citizen who will tell such things as that fellow did about the band? We don't know what is the matter with him, but we do know that what is the matter with Clanton is that we have got too many people here like him. Those are the thorns we spoke about.

It is humilitating to our boys to have people right here in town show so little interest in the valuable piece of work they are striving hard to accomplish. And besides it add to Clanton's disfavor in the eye of the world.

If a fellow out in the country gets down with appendicitis and his own friends rush to Clanton to get a doctor, some city-wise guy meets him and promptly assures him that there is not a doctor in town that is capable of treating that ailment and succeeds in convincing him that said afflicted person must be carried to some doctor in Birmingham or elsewhere, or else he will die. You could find few who are ready to praise our doctors for the lives they have saved. It is always a cussing they get because somebody died.

If Mr. Comer comes along looking for a place to locate one of his cotton factories, some Clanton sage "shoos" at the idea and says it would never do because if we had a factory here our children would have to go to school with the tallow-faced children of the cotton mill people. The result is that Mr. Comer does just what any sensible man would do—builds his mill some place where the people appreciate the value of such an industry.

If the Alabama Power Company comes along and proffers to supply us with juice from Lock 12 about the first fellow they meet tells them that there aint no use to come here. He says, "Why, aint nothin doing here for the power business. That fellow Alvie Wade has been tryin it for years and has bout starved his wife and chillun to death dependin on it, when there's nothin to it. Nobody hardly uses the stuff and them that does use it don't pay for it. The town won't pay for its street lights and part of the time they don't have none." The result is that the Alabama Power Company goes on to Selma with its line, and the high powered juice passes Clanton up at forty to nothing.

A big lumberman comes along and wants to locate his mill here to cut the millions of yellow pines that cover the hills of the eastern part of the county. But he runs across one or two of the town grouchers and gets their story of the place. He inquires of some land owner about a location. The landowner says to himself: "Now is my time to make a killing. That guy is rich. His firm has got money to burn. I will grab my stake from him and be fixed up for the rest of my days." But Mr. saw mill man is not such a fool as he was calculated. The result is that he puts his mill up at Lomax, and all that Clanton ever gets out of it is a couple of telephone wires coming here to connect on to the Bell system.

A man comes to town to buy an article and fails to find it at the first store he inquires in. He asks the merchant where he can find it, and here is about what he is told: "You might find that down at so-and-so's store, but I want to tell you confidentially, you better mind how you fool around down there. The clerks ain't honest. They will short-change you. They have got shot in their scales and chalk in their flour. My advice to you would be to stay away from there. Just wait a few days and I will have in some of the things you want." The result is that the customer goes back home and sends the kids over to the neighbors to borrow the Sawbuck and Co. catalog. He sits down and looks up what he wants. He finds it and also many other things he had never thought about. Ever afterward that man's money goes via mail order route and skips Clanton clear light, except the three cents that Grover Harris gets for writing the money order.

A promoter of some kind hits the town and needs some means of advertising his business. The first leisurely person he meets he naturally inquires where the newspaper office is and is told: "Well, we've got a couple of 'em here, but one of 'em shut up long ago cause nobody would read the thing, and tother one aint no count. They don't print nuthin but lies and politics and everybody is quittin it too." The result is that said promoter, needing advertising matter in two days, remembers a friend in the city who can do that and sends it down to him in time for his needs. And so, there goes the order out of Clanton and when Saturday night comes the boss at the print shop has not got that ten dollars to pay the devil off with. And when the first of the month comes he has not got it to pay his grocery bill with. And something else is connected with this incident too. On Thursday night after supper that same leisurely person, who has our thanks for talking so nice about our newspaper stalks across the street to the neighbor's house "to borrow your Banner if you are through with it."

D. Norris of Marbury, Vice-President of the Coosa County Mica Co., was in Clanton Monday. Mr. Norris says his company is getting well organized for operations in the mining and manufacture of mica. They have mines near Dadeville, Alla.

THE HEART OF HUMANITY IS A STRONG LOVE DRAMA

Ideal Theatre to Show Photo---Play Teeming with Romance, on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 31st and Nov. 1st.

"The Heart of Humanity," Allan Houlbar's stupendous production, featuring Dorothy Phillips, is one of the season's biggest offerings.

With an appeal that strikes deep into the emotions, deeper, perhaps, than anything that has ever been presented to the people of the civilized world in cinema productions, "The Heart of Humanity" is a picture that will live forever.

Proclaimed by press, public and the clergy in every city that is has been shown, as the biggest production the screen has ever seen, the story is of love, love of man and wife, love of mother, love of child and love of humanity.

"The Heart of Humanity" is beyond description, with mere words, but if you really want heart thrills and entertainment if you want to see a love story that continues over two continents, if you want the chilly feeling down your spine that comes when you see a dog defending the honor of a woman when she is attacked by Hunnish brutes, then see "The Heart of Humanity."

Love forms the central theme of "The Heart of Humanity," and as the title implies it is the story of all the living, breathing world. It is the story of the love that lives in a mother's heart, of the love that dwells in the hearts of all sweethearts; of the love that exists in the hearts of all husbands and wives. It is the story of the grand passion which prompts humanity to do and dare for what is good and right, even to the extent of sacfiricing life itself.

Dorothy Phillips, as Nannette, gives a marvelously intelligent interpretation of the stellar role. Surely, this talented young actress has traveled far since the days when she appeared in comedy roles. We venture the assertion that her work in this production justly entitles Miss Phillips to be regarded as one of the screen's foremost artists.

The widow, Patricia, played by Margaret Mann is satisfying in every way. She represents every mother in the land and the manner in which she meets the heart wounds which are inflicted upon her will endear her to every woman, man and child who sees the reproduction.

FIVE AUTO ACCIDENTS IN CLANTON IN LAST WEEK

Last Saturday must have been the record day for automobile accidents in Clanton. We have recorded four happening here. Fortunately none of them resulted seriously, but some of them were very dangerous.

The first one we noticed was the little girl of Joe Baker driving a car, ran into another car in front of Taylor's store on Main Street. No material damage was done to the cars, and no one was hurt.

The next one on the list was Monroe Wyatt with his Ford and Elmer Harris on a bicycle, engaging in some kind of a mix-up. The damage in this case was not much. The bicycle seems to have got the worst of the deal, as the Ford got on top of it, no one being hurt.

About the most dangerous accident was when a Ford driven by Allen Mims hit Sheriff Gore and came very near resulting in something serious. It occurred in front of the post office. When the car struck Mr. Gore, he caught on to it in some way and kept himself from falling under the machine. He hung on to the side of the car and was carried several feet before it was stopped. Luckily, no one was seriously hurt, but the escape was mighty narrow.

Next thing was a car driven by Mr. Claud Baker, went wild and came very near running right through the plate glass front of Upchurch Drug Store. He was driving down Main Street when he lost control of the car and it turned right across the side walk and landed against the corner wall of the Drug Store. No one was hurt; slight damage done to the car.

On Sunday Frank Callen was cranking a car and it flew off the handle. He kept on cranking and cranked himself in the face. The result was a couple of teeth knocked out.

Tuesday Mr. W. M. Poole was slightly hurt when he was caught between two cars at the garage and mashed most too hard to be very pleasant.

This is an unusual number of accidents for such a short time, and is due to a lot of carelessness on the part of somebody. There ought to be more care exercised in the manipulation of cars here on Saturdays when the streets are crowded.

THOUGHT MY LIVER WAS ON STRIKE

Head Was Giddy; Spots Danced Before My Eyes; Breath Foul; Was Tired and Drowsy. Dreco Wiped It Out.

"I have suffered for quite a while with sluggish liver; at times I would get so dizzy I would have to stop and sit down; spots would dance before my eyes; I had headaches and a bad taste in my mouth; my appetite became poor, and my food did not digest nor give me strength; my stomach was often sour, while gas and bloating caused me much uneasiness. The pains often extended around to my back and limbs so that it was an effort to keep on with my work," says Mr. W. T. Burton of 1001 Lambert Ave., Mobile, Ala.

"There was so much talk about and praise being given Decro I decided to try it. The first bottle proved to me it was a good medicine, as it soothed my stomach and relieved the gas-forming. I continued the treatment, and never have a dizzy spell nor see the spots before my eyes; my bowels act regular; my appetite is fine, and the food digests and gives me strength. I don't have any more pains in my back or limbs, and haven't had a headache in a long time. Dreco is a good medicine, and I gladly add my words of praise for it."

Dreco acts on the liver in a smooth, gentle manner, gradually working off the excess bile day by day. It is neither strong nor harsh, and does not excite the muscles of the bowels, as strong cathartics do. It tones up the digestive organs and relieves gas on the stomach; puts an end to constipation; increases the appetite; gives strength to weak kidneys; restores tired nerves, and induces sound sleep. Dreco is a great blood purifier and system cleanser.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by

UPCHURCH DRUG CO., Clanton.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

Not only allays distress in advance but assures a speedy recovery for the mother. It renders the broad, flat abdominal muscles pliant as they readily yield to nature's demand for expansion. As a result the nerves are not drawn upon with that peculiar wrenching strain. Mother's Friend is used externally.

Why Suffer?

Mrs. J. A. Cox, of Alderson, W. Va., writes: "My daughter . . . suffered terribly. She could not turn in bed . . . the doctors gave her up, and we brought her home to die. She had suffered so much at . . . time. Having heard of Cardui, we got it for her."

CARDUI

HEALTH BONDS TO FIGHT THE PLAGUE

The Alabama Anti-Tuberculosis Campaigners Plan for Big Christmas Seal Sale.

GENERAL STEINER CHAIRMAN

Assurances of Support Beeing Received From All Over the State.

Birmingham, Ala.—"Buy a bond" will again be a slogan in Alabama this fall. Instead of Liberty Bonds you will be asked to buy "Health Bonds," which, along with the Red Cross Christmas Seals, will be sold in the interest of the fight against the Great White Plague—tuberculosis.

"Health bonds," and Christmas Seals are expected to bring in a fund of $200,000 with which to combat the ravages of tuberculosis.

A $5 "health bond" will be equivalent to 500 Red Cross Christmas Seals a $10 bond to a 1,000 seals, and so on in denominations of $25, $50 and $100.

"Monthly health coupons," which buyers may clip from their bonds, indicate some of the ways in which contributions will be used, among which are the maintenance of local anti-tuberculosis association, tuberculosis sanatoria, care of tuberculous soldiers, open air schools, preventoriums and children's camps, vocational training for cured and arrested cases, research work and tuberculosis surveys, tuberculosis clinics, tuberculosis visiting nurses, annual physical examinations, a modern health crusade and health education.

Gen. Steiner Heads Campaign

The Alabama organization for the sale of seals and bonds has been completed under the leadership of Gen. R. E. Steiner of Montgomery, general chairman of the campaign. Oscar Wells is state treasurer. Dr. George H. Denny of the university first vice chairman, Mrs. W. P. McAdory, second vice-chairman, Dr. George Eaves, campaign secretary, and P. B. Warner state campaign director.

Assurances of support on the part of various organizations have been received at campaign headquarters here. Charles T. Abrams, secretary of the Alabama Travelers' Protective association, has pledged the assistance of every member of the T. P. A. and of the United Commercial Travelers. Charles Pfiester, secretary of Magic City Camp No. 4, Woodmen of the World, declared recently that the 1,000 members of that organization here would help the cause. Dr. T. W. Palmer, president of the Alabama Girls' Technical Institute at Montevallo, has pledged the support of that institution and many similar assurances have been received from individuals and organizations.

Judge James Parrish of Montgomery has accepted the position of chairman in that county. The Fayette County organization will consist of Judge J. Alex Smith, chairman; R. L. Reeves, superintendent of schools, vice-chairman; and Turner A. Wilson, publicity director. In Lamar County, Judge J. T. Maddox will serve as chairman, G. S. Smith, superintendent of schools, vice-chairman, and L. C. Wright, publicity director.

150,000 DIE EVERY YEAR

Red Cross Christmas Seals Will Help Fight Plague.

Birmingham, Ala.—Doing its part in the greatest health educational campaign this country has ever known in an effort to check the increase of tuberculosis, the Alabama Anti-tuberculosis League calls upon people in every section of the state this year to help the cause by buying Red Cross Christmas seals and "health bonds."

There are 1000 local organizations in the movement, every one of them working with the National association in New York to combat the disease at every angle.

Tuberculosis has maintained its steady drain on the country in spite of the efforts of the National Tuberculosis Association and the allied local organizations, but next year, with the funds obtained from the Seal sale, it is planned to enlarge the scope of the fight in every way.

150,000 Die Every Year.

According to the announcement made by the National Tuberculosis Association, 150,000 persons are killed each year by the disease. Of this number 12,000 are children. It was also stated that $500,000,000 is wasted annually by the ravages of the disease.

There are, each year, more than 1,000,000 cases of tuberculosis reported throughout the country. That there are actually more victims is certain, however, for it is believed that state and city boards of health do not receive reports of anywhere near the number of cases in their jurisdiction.

NOT SICK AND NOT WELL

In The Peculiar Situation Described, ZIRON Iron Tonic Is Found Helpful.

It often happens that the organs of your body do not function properly, for some reason or other. There is nothing really wrong, and you are not sick. But certainly you are not well, either.

If you are in such a condition, read what Mr. Wm. M. Bass, Rt. 1, Crossville, Ala., did, and try Ziron Iron Tonic, as he did. Mr. Bass says:

"I am nearly always pretty well and strong and do not need much medicine excepting for headaches. But, recently when I had not been feeling very well for a while, I knew I needed some sort of medicine to make me all right.

I took Ziron and it made me strong and well again."

Ziron puts iron into the blood, and, by doing this, may prevent a serious attack of illness, which you are liable to "catch" at any time if your system is weakened or your condition below par.

Ziron has well proven its value as a tonic. Try it when you feel the least bit out of sorts, not quite as good as usual, tired and weary.

Your druggist sells Ziron on a money-back guarantee. ZN 10

The Greatest Gift.

A woman's heart is a wonderful thing
It is made of molten gold.
It is is staunch and true
As the heavens blue,
And the love there never grows old.
Within this heart is an endless world
Of felt but unseen things—
They live and grow,
That we may know—
That love is the king of kings.

A woman's heart is a safety vault,
Where you deposit life, your whole
She turns the key
That none may see,
And guards it with her soul.
This same heart is an endless thing,
It grows and expands with years.
'Tit tender and strong,
Forging the wrongs
That brings the bitter tears.

A woman's heart is the greatest gift
God ever gave to man.
'Tis his strength, his life,
Through sunshine and strife,
His soul is in her hands.
I would rather have a woman's heart
Than all the world and its gold;
For 'tis staunch and true
As the heavens are blue,
And the love that never grows old.
—Mary E. Barnett.

THORSBY ITEMS

Among those from Thorsby attending the Teachers Institute held in Clanton Monday and Tuesday of last week were Miss May Stoddard, Miss Bertha Littleton, Mrs. Hattie Gerald, Miss Stella McCain, Mrs. Chas. Howard and Mr. Cowan Woodham.

Mr. W. A. McClain and family recently moved to Whistler, Ala., much to the regret of their many friends in and around Thorsby.

The boy scouts of Thorsby seem to be living up to their promise to do kind deeds in a very beautiful way. Aided by the generous grocers, and led by Mr. Davenport, Scoutmaster, they recently visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher laden with a generous supply of groceries. Mrs. Thatcher has been sick for a long while and a few weeks ago suffered a severe burn from which she is slowly recovering. Mr. Thatcher, too, is in poor health, and this gift from the grocers and boy scouts was a very welcome and much appreciated one.

The Bank of Thorsby was organized here last Wednesday in the Town Council hall, by the election of a Board of Directors consisting of Mr. S. M. Pate, President; Chas. E. Lucas, Vice-President; J. R. Martin, G. L. Foshee, Felix Eiland. Messrs Martin, Foshee and Eiland are the Loan Committee. The question of a permanent cashier is not yet settled. Arrangements are being made for the vacating of the building formerly built for the Union State Bank and now occupied by the Thorsby post office, and the new bank will occupy this building. It is expected that the bank will be in operation within a few weeks.

BOY SCOUTS BAND PUT UP DELIGHTFUL CONCERT

We feel like the Boy Scouts Band is due a great measure of praise for the splendid success of their first public concert which was given at the court house in Clanton last Thursday night. They indeed surprised their audience with their fine music. We have heard numbers of people say that they never dreamed that those boys could play so well.

We do not like to tell the unpleasant side of the occasion, but it is such a prominent feature with the band in Clanton that we can't avoid mentioning it at least. The part that we refer to as unpleasant is not any fault of the boys in the band. It is the fault of the people of Clanton. The people here do not show the proper appreciation for the efforts the boys have made to give Clanton a band. We ought to feel kindly toward the boys and encourage them in every possible way. But there are a few people here who show any measure of pride for the band. The boys have been knocked more than they have been praised. But thanks to their grit they have succeeded in spite of the impediments that have been placed in their way.

They demonstrated their success by the way they rendered their concert program last Thursday night.

We hope the next time anybody from another town comes to Clanton and asks if we have a town band, somebidy will have home pride enough to refer the inquirer to the Boy Scouts Band.

David Vines has at last got out of Uncle Sam's Navy and showed up in Clanton. His many friends here are mighty glad to behold his smiling face once more, and to grasp his friendly "paw." Before entering the Navy Dave was mail carrier on Route 5 from Clanton, and will soon resume his duties there again.

California Firm for Safeguarding U.S. in Covenant

TREMENDOUS SENTIMENT FOR AMERICANIZATION OF THE TREATY DISCLOSED.

WRONG IMPRESSION CREATED

Naturally Respectful Greeting Given President Did not Mean Endorsement.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Private dispatches from California make it very plain that there is tremendous sentiment in that State in favor of the Americanization of the covenant for the league of nations. It is quite evident that Senator Johnson's speeches assailing the present form of the covenant are strongly endorsed on the Pacific Coast, and that many folks have gained a wrong impression about sentiment there simply because the President on his recent trip was well received.

John Francis Neylan, publisher of the San Francisco Call, sent this telegram to the Senate Press Gallery:

"San Francisco, Oct. 2—Johnson has had most wonderful home-coming ever accorded any one in California. In Palace Hotel court, where Wilson spoke, Johnson addressed a luncheon today. There was the wildest demonstration in the history of the Palace. At the Coliseum tonight 14,000 persons were in the building and thousands were turned away. When Johnson appeared, pandemonium reigned for a period of sixteen minutes."

The following telegram was addressed to Senator McCormick by Mr. Alexander McCabe, Insurance Commissioner of California:

"San Francisco, Oct. 2—This has been a great day here. Noon meeting at the Palace Hotel gave Johnson a far better reception than Wilson had, and in the best speech he has made he won them completely. He had personal triumph tonight at the Coliseum, holding 2,200 more than the Auditorium where Wilson spoke. Johnson received the greatest demonstration ever accorded any man in San Francisco. Any result Wilson accomplished in northern California is really of advantage to us now, as it accentuates Johnson's mastery of the situation in taking it away from him today."

TWO BOYS CAPTURE A WILD CAT STILL IN OPERATION

The following is the story of how two boys, Brown Woolley, age 17, and J. C. Woolley, age 15, captured a wild cat still lat week.

The boys had taken a wagon out into the woods to get a load of pine. As they passed up through the bushes alongside the branch they saw a small smoke rising near by. When they investigated the cause of the smoke they found that it was a whiskey still running at full blast, with a gallon jug sitting under the spout catching the fire water as it emerged drop by drop from the worm. It is believed that the operators were frightened away by the approach of the boys, and when they fled they left the outfit running.

The boys loaded up the outfit on their wagon and carried it to the house. The sheriff's office was notified and Deputy Culp went down to take charge of the situation. It was a genuine copper still of the box type.

The Woolley boys are the sons of Mr. J. C. C. Woolley, a mail carrier of Stanton. They are to be commended for the way they handled the situation.

THE SCHOOL CARNIVAL

The Grammar School Carnival has proven to be a success. Very fortunate in getting a clean up-to-date carnival. It is recreation for the old and a jolly good time ofr the young. The D. M. Atwood Show is what they represented, and more. We compliment the Royal Italian Band and we thank them for their daily concerts which they have rendered for the town's people.

The Midway of Shows are splendid. The merry-go-round is magnificent with its thousand lights makes one think themselves in a fairy land.

Mr. Atwood has been very careful in selecting his assembly of show and show folks. They are clean to the core. You can take the ladies and children and receive every courtesy possible from the show folks. Let all come out and make it one big success for the benefit of our Grammar School.

A very successful box supper was held at the Shoults School west of Maplesville Saturday night. The amount raised was one hundred thirty five dollars ($135.00). This will be used for improving the school house and for equipments.

HOG SALE DAY FOR CHILTON COUNTY WILL BE NOV. 25

Some half a dozen of leading Clanton business men have agreed to coordinate their efforts in establishing a hog sale day for Clanton and Chilton County, and we feel sure that the event will bring us the full measure of success here that has marked the advent of the movement in many other counties in Alabama. The plan is being backed by Judge Reynolds, J. D. Collins, C. F. Jones, J. N. Dennis and J. C. Jones. The date of the first sale has been set for Tuesday, November 25th, and on that day an organization will be completed for making the plan a permanent one for the county.

Hog raisers in Chilton County now should welcome the coming of the plan here. It means a system of marketing hogs that makes it possible for the little man who raises few hogs to get a market for what he does raise that is just as advantageous to him as the market which is the privilege of the man who sells hogs on a big scale.

The following schedule gives some idea as to how the hogs will be graded and put on the market here.

No. 1—Smooth, clean hog, weighing 175 pounds and up.

No. 2—Smooth clean hog, 140 and up to 175.

No. 3—Smooth clean hog weighing 100 pounds and up to 140.

Roughs—sows and stags are classed roughs. Piggy sows are classed roughs and docked 40 pounds. Heavy stags are docked 70 pounds; light stags are docked 40 pounds. Piggy gilts are graded one class back of the grade in which they weigh.

Skips—Aged thin sows or barrows or undersized sows in poor condition of flesh.

Anyone desiring any further information about this sale day can communicate with either of the above named gentlemen, who will answer any questions regarding the matter.

RESIDENCE LOTS IN CLANTON FOR SALE CHEAP.

We have now for sale 7½ acres of land, the old Middleton property, near the Clanton Grammar School, which is suitable for residence property. The same will be divided up into lots and sold. You can get a lot any size for cash or credit. It would be wise for you to buy one of these lots cheap now and later build on it for an ideal place to live. If interested, see either F. B. SCHOOLS OF STATE WILL CELEBRATE ARMISTICE NOV. 11.

State Superintendent of Education Spright Dowell is sending out programs for the observance of Armistice Day, Nov. 11 in all of the schools of the State. These pamphlets, ten thousand in number, will be distributed through the County Superintendents of Education and will be apportioned to the different schools in proportion to the number of teachers and pupils therein.

In some of the counties Armistice Day will be observed as a holiday, and in all of them it will be the occasion of a drive for funds for the Alabama Memorial Building wherein the theachers and pupils are expected to raise sufficient funds to complete the quotas in their respective counties.

Superintendent Dowell has received assurance that the Armistice Day program in the schools will be carried out with a good will. Patrons of the schools will be invited to attend the exercises on that day, and it is largely from the patrons and friends of the schools that the funds are expected to be raised.

The program is simple in form and patriotic in tone, consisting of songs, recitations and readings, that may be presented by the pupils of various grades with very little preparation or rehearsal.

At its initial meeting the State Board of Education created by an Act of the Legislature at its recent session, expressly urged all County Boards of Educataion, County and City Superintendents of Education and school trustees to assist in the campaign for funds which will be used to construct at the state capitol a building which will stand as a perpetual memorial to all Alabamians who have served their people and their state; particularly those who who were in the army, navy, or marine corps during the war with Germany.

Alabama's memorial campaign started in the spring of this year and its completion was deferred, as originally planned, until the schools be in session in the fall and until farmers might have an opportunity to harvest their crops.

Bob Bean of Collins Chapel was here Wednesday on business.

Republicans Pleased at Results in the South

CORRIDOR OPENING UP WHICH IT IS BELIEVED WILL BE A SPLIT IN THE OLD "SOLID SOUTH."

Washington, October 1—Republican leaders in the House have expressed the deepest satisfaction over the remarkable campaign recently waged by the Republican candidate in the seventh Alabama Congressional district, which resulted in the election of his Democratic opponent by only a few hundred votes. Together with the recent election of an additional Republican member of Congress from Kentucky in a normally Democratic district, the result in Alabama is taken to indicate that there is a sturdy "corridor" of Republican strength extending from Kentucky through Tennessee and Alabama to the Gulf, and that the day is not far distant when Republicanism will predominate in that zone.

SOME INTERESTING FIGURES ON COTTON PRODUCTION

Mr. J. D. Collins has just completed a demonstration test of cotton growing and the use of fertilizers that brings out some interesting figures and facts. He employed three pieces of land, each containing one-tenth of an acre, and worked them all the same.

Piece No. one was without fertilizer; No. two was with fertilizer, at the rate of 200 pounds per acre; No. 3 with 40 pounds of nitrate of soda and 145 pounds of 16 per cent phosphate.

Piece No. 1 made 13 pounds seed cotton; No. 2 made 41 pounds and No. 3 made 51 pounds. This cotton sold at 15c per pound.

The cotton on piece No. 1 brought $1.95; piece No. 2, $6.15, which leaves less fertilizer $5.30. On piece No. 3, the cotton brought $7.65, which leaves less fertilizer $7.18.

On one acre of No. 2 with 200 lbs. of soda alone per acre, would have yielded a profit of $44.50, and on an acre of No. 3, where 40 pounds of 7 per cent cotton seed meal and 40 pounds of nitrate of soda and 175 pounds of 16 per cent acid phosphate would have yielded a profit of $52.30.

MADAME GERTTA

Madame Gertta has amused the people of Clanton the same as she has throughout the United States, Mexico and Canada, at all the large fairs and exhibitions. The Madame has proven that she controls a master mind. She prophesied within 3 days of the U. S. entering the World War; then she astonished the public of New York and held them spellbound when she prophecied in three days of the end, and both were correct. She has made a study of the human mind and has helped many and many out of trouble.

Then the most interesting of all astrology is where she makes things clear and you must give her credit for being clever.

Madame Gertta was born under a veil the same as Madame Christian, the famous Swedish clavoyant knows all and sees all; reads your life like an open book, from the cradle to the grave. She is demonstrating with the D. M. Atwood Shows, for the remaining three days of this week.

Mr. Emmett C. Powell is moving his family to Tuscaloosa, where he has accepted a position with the mechanical department of The Tuscaloosa News as linotype operator.

ROOSEVELT ELECTED.

Lieut.-Col. Theodore Roosevelt began his career in the political world on Nov. 4, when he was elected as a member of the general assembly of New York State. This was likewise the way his famous father began his unparalleled record in American politics. Roosevelt was greatly elated over his victory over his Democratic opponent, and also because of the fact that he became the father of a son on the day he was elected.

QUARANTINE TO BE LIFTED IN CHILTON DECEMBER THE FIRST

The cattle dipping season in Chilton county under the Federal regulations for eradicating ticks has been completed for this season, and we learn that the quarantine will be lifted on the first of December. All the vat inspectors have been discharged except H. O. Bean, W. A. Barnett and Mr. Deramus.

There are yet thirteen herds of cattle in the county that have some few ticks, and which will remain under quarantine strictly, until the ticks are removed by additional dipping next season. These quarantine herds cannot be moved about over the county under any circumstances unless they be dipped, and proceed immediately from the vat to wherever they are being carried.

Anyone moving any cattle in the county or out of it, must get a permit from one of the remaining inspectors, Bean, Earnett or DeRamus Everybody is urged to exercise judicious care in the matter of handling cattle in order to prevent having to dip again next season. The line men bordering on other counties should be very careful in regard to cattle coming into the county from places thate are undr quarantine.

The proper precautions used now in the handling of cattle will save the county the trouble of dipping again next year. Everyone should be very careful and keep in intimate touch with the inspectors in all matters concerning the management and handling of cattle. See them and know that what you are going to do is permissible before you go ahead and do something that is wrong.

THORSBY ITEMS

Prof. and Mrs. Chas. M. Williams, and little daughter, Martha, motored down from Calera last Tuesday and spent a few hours visiting friends in Thorsby. Prof. Williams has been reelected to the Principalship of the Calera School, and reports that the school there is doing fine. There is a large attendance and a good school spirit.

There was much excitement in our usually quiet litle city on Monday, of this week, occasioned by the alighting of an airplane. It seems that the aviators were loooking for Clanton as a landmark and did not notice the place as they flew over it. They were on their way from Kansas City to Alexander City. Both of the men had been in the aviation service during the war, and one of them had lost an arm. The plane they were flying had been used by the government during the war and had been given the aviator who had lost his arm, as a reward for bravery in service. A large crowd gathered in the field near the home of Mr. Carlson to see the machine. Mr. Sam Goddard was among the number, and he was recognized by one of the men as an old neighbor and friend during Mr. Godadrd's residence in Nebraska. This goes to show that the world is not as big as it looks to be at times.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Goddard left on Monday night for a visit of several months with relatsives and friends in Ohio.

The Ladies Guild entertained with a Hallowe'en Social on last Friday evening at Bates Hall. There were various kinds of Booths and each one proved to be a popular resort. Perhaps the most popular of all was the fortune teller's booth around which the boys and girls gathered eagerly, each one anxious to know his or her future destiny. Judging from the smiling faces of those emerging from the booth one would think there is a happy future before the youths of Thorsby.

The Ladies Guild is a strong ally of the Institute both in a financial and a social way. This is the second entertainment they have given for the school since the opening in September.

Miss Helen C. Jenkins returned on Saturday evening from Grand Rapids Michigan, where she has been for the past ten days attending the National Council of Congregational Churches.

Miss Mary Goddard of Somerville, Mass., recently came to Thorsby Institute, and will give her services this year as a voluntary teacher. Miss Goddard has had many years experience in public school work in her own state.

Mrs. A. K. Horn spent last Monday and Tuesday in Montgomery.

It is learned that Mr. A. Franzen, who has been for some time visiting his sister in Portland, Oregon is sick in a hospital there. He would very much appreciate hearing from any of his friends in Thorsby. Address any communication to him in care of his sister, Mrs. Miller, 199 Monroe St., Portland, Oregon.

Mr. John C. Page and wife of Clanton, motored up to Thorsby Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Foss in the afternoon. Mr. Page is the Cashier of the First National Bank of Clanton.

Rev. and Mrs. James Davenport were happily surprised a few days ago when a few of their friends presented them with a set of silverware.

Republicans Win Election In the State of Kentucky

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4—Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, to-day was elected Governor of the State of Kentucky, over James D. Black, Democrat, by a majority estimated from fifteen to twenty thousand. Haynes Carter, personal manager for Governor Black, in a statement, conceded Black's defeat by eight to ten thousand votes.

Unofficial returns from eastern Kentucky, where it was expected that the Democratic nominee would cut the normal Republican majorities, showed Morrow holding his own and in some cases exceeding figures in the gubernatorial election four years ago.

In the west end of the state there was a considerable falling off of democratic normal majorities, while in Jefferson county, which includes the city of Louisville, the Republican candidate not only overturned a majority of 4063 for Stanley, Democrat four years ago, but turned it into a Republican victory by approximately 9,000 votes.

Figures on the two constitutional amendments were belated, but seemed to indicate that the state-wide prohibition amendment had carried by a large majority.

The issues in the campaign were local, the Democrataic platform pledging "an honest administration at Frankfort," the state capital, and the Republicans promising a "house cleaning."

During the campaign Governor Black made speeches favoring the League of Nations. Mr. Morrow was silent on the subject, but his managers in published statements, asserted that he opposed it.

Circuit Clerk, 1 Jan 16

EVERGREEN

Editor Union-Banner:

May I step in a moment and chat with you? Thanks.

Why, where's our good grandma and all our good old mothers now-a-days? Are they all sitting back and letting time and tide drift together?

O, wake up mothers and let me sit on the foot stool at your knees while I take your tired thin hands in mine and talk with you.

With you, sweet mothers, rest our future happiness as well as in the past.

Mothers, you all stood by us in the great conflict of the world war, and by your patient and loving toil kept the "Home Fires Burning," and administered to the needs of our dear heroes.

It was you who prayed for them by day and by night. 'Twas you who smiled through tears as you saw the boys marching away to unknown conflicts and turmoil, and never once complained even though your hearts seemed crushed.

Some of you have seen loved ones return to your arms. Some of you have a loved one across the briny deep sleeping calmly awaiting his Father's command on High. And your heart mourns for him; but cheer up sweet mother. His life was sacficed in a noble cause. He never shirked his duty; and why should we?

Sweet mothers, the conflict is over and our boys are again in the land of their fathers and freedom. Now lets don't be found napping. Our work has just begun.

Look around you. What do you see? Why a band of gay boys and girls romping gaily, with never a thought for anything but fun and play. See them? Yes. Then behold your future care. Mother, is your boy growing up to be a man you'll be proud of—one you wont hang your head in shame for when he is pointed out as your son? His life, his future is in your hands.

Mother, do you know your girl? Where is she—the darling of your heart? Will you be proud to fold her in your arms when she grows up and say, "my child, I am proud of you."

Are you asking God in your daily prayers to help you to set the example before them that they may some day call you blesed—that they may be proud to say, "I owe my life to my mo ther. To me, mother is the sweetest word in the language. In her face I can see the image of Jesus, because He was kind and loving, and on your faces I trace the lines of care and pain of a broken heart. Jesus wept when his people wept, and you weep when your children weep.

BACK ACHED ALL THE TIMF SAYS WELL KNOWN MAN

Kidneys Did Not Act Freely, And Rheumatism Attacked Him—Tells How Dreco, the Herbal Remedy, Gave Quick Relief.

To all who are troubled with the twisting, dragging pains of rheumatism, or the distressing, painful symptoms of kidney disorders, here is a message from a fellow-sufferer that will carry its own lesson.

This is what Mr. W. I. Morgan, foreman Woodstock Cotton Mills, Anniston, Ala., says:

"For a number of years I have suffered from rheumatism and awful pains in my back and limbs. Sometimes it seemed I could not keep at work for those terrible pains. My appetite fell off, I didn't sleep well, and was bothered with constipation very much. Recently my joints and hands began to swell up and were very painful, and my muscles ached. I had about decided that I couldn't ever get straight again, as everything I had tried failed. A friend asked me one day why I didn't give Dreco a trial, as it was working wonders with many people. I bought a bottle, and it helped so much I got the second, and it is truly wonderful the good it has done me. The swelling is all gone and the pains have left me. My appetite has returned; I sleep sound, and am entirely relieved of constipation. Dreco has surely helped me when other things have failed, and I don't hesitate to speak a good word for it."

Dreco is a combination of juices and extracts of many different roots, herbs, barks and berries, which act directly upon the liver, kidneys, bladder, stomach and blood, and banishes from the system many ailments, such as rheumatism, catarrh, biliousness, nervousness, headaches, loss of appetite, indigestion, gas on the stomach, eczema, skin eruptions, gout, epilepsy and constipation, when given a fair trial.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by

UPCHURCH DRUG CO., Clanton.

A FRENCH MOTHER.

(By Maj. Quimby Melton, 3rd. Bat., 325 Inf. 82nd Div. A. E. F.)

All night long the boys in khaki passed my door,
(The war is done; the victory's won.)
And soon they'll land upon their native shores.
My "garcon" was a soldier too;
He proudly wore the poilu blue—
He's gone!
He gave his all that right, not might should last;
He gladly went; his life was spent
That France might right the wrongs from out the past.
'Twas hard to see him go away;
It seems I still can hear him say:
"For France!"
O, mothers of the land across the sea!
Your sons were brave and many gave
Their lives that France might still be free.
Our boys are gone; their courage lives
And all the world proud homage gives
Our boys!
And if your son should not return to you,
Be not dismayed for he was laid
To rest with mine who wore the poilu blue.
They answered and they paid the price; tis good.
They fought and died as true men should,
For God!

BRILLIANT AND BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE OF MISS MYRTLE REYNOLDS AND MR. PERCY M. PITTS OF COLUMBIANA HERE.

The handsome colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds was crowded on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 5, with friends and relatives eager to witness the brilliant and beautiful service uniting Miss Myrtle Reynolds of Clanton and Mr. Percy McGraw Pitts of Columbiana in marriage.

The altar which served as an attractive back-ground was of stately palms, southern smilax and a profusion of white chrysanthemums.

Here and there beautiful vases and baskets of white chrysanthemums stood.

Preceding the entrance of the bridal party an excellent musical program was rendered by Miss Daisy Gillis, piano, and Mr. Sidney Lanier Gibson of Verbena, violin. Miss Willie Belle Sartor sang sweetly, "All for You." Mr. Raymond Cox of Gadsden sang, "At Dawning," and "Because." Mr. Cox possesses a wonderful voice. He received his vocal training in New York City.

As the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Gillis, was heard, the bridal party entered. First came the bride's maid, Miss Annie Reynolds, who was lovely in a dress of toupe poilet with picture hat and accessories to match, carrying yellow chrysanthemums. She was met at the stairs by Raymond Cox.

Next came the matron of honor, Mrs. Grady Reynolds wearing a beautiful gown of bronze silk jersey with bronze shoes, and hat of bronze velvet and cream plumes. She carried yellow chrysanthemums. The maid of honor came wearing brown poilet with brown beaver hat and accessories. She too carried yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom and his best man, Mr. Jack Pitts, followed.

The lovely little flower girl, Jane Roberts, entered next, wearing dainty frock of white crepe de chine with green and white tulle bows. She scattered rose petals in her path as she entered in before the handsome bride, who was never more beautiful than in her wedding suit of toupe devyn with mole skin andl fur trimmings, smart hat and accessories to match. She carried brides roses and lillies of the valley. She came in on the arm of her father, Hon. W. A. Reynolds, who gave her in marriage.

The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. E. C. Maye of the First Methodist Church. Following the ceremony a reception was given in honor of this popular bride where hundreds of friends awaited with congratulations.

The dining room was beautifully decorated in ferns and white chrysanthemums. The table was a scene of beauty with white satin ribbons strung from chandelier to each corner of the table, tied with large green tulle bows. The bride's cake stood in center and was banked in ferns and white roses.

At each end of the table stood beautiful silver candelabras burning white candles.

Mrs. Claude Reynolds and Mrs. R. E. Luckie served punch from a beautifully decorated punch bowl.

The attractive music pupils of the bride who served cream and cake of green and white were Misses Bertie L. Teel, Mary Upchurch, and Marjorie Alred.

Mrs. Mary L. VanDerveer gracefully presided over the bride' book.

The briide presented her matron of honor, bride's maid and maid of honor with beautiful gold cuff pins.

The mother of the bride was gowned in black satin with cluny lace and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Pitts, the mother of the groom wore black satin and blue trimmings and a corsage of palma violets.

Mrs. Mary Lane VanDerveer was lovely in black silk tricolett. Mrs. Claude Reynolds was beautifully dressed in navy blue satin. Mrs. R. E. Luckie wore a stunning frock of brown jersey. Miss Willie Belle Sartor's dress was of toupe silk jersey.

The bride and groom left on the south-bound train at six o'clock for New Orleans, Mobile, and Biloxi.

They will return to Lafayette, Ala., on Nov. 12, where the bride will play the wedding march at the marriage of her brother, Mr. Reuben Reynolds to Miss Julia Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. Pitts will make their home in Columbiana, where the groom is engaged in the practice of law.

The many beautiful gifts received prove the popularity of both bride and groom.

This Means You.

When you get up with a bad taste in your month, a dull tired feeling, no relish for food and are constipated you may know that you need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only cause an agreeable movement of the bowels, but cleanse and invigorate the stomach and improve the digestion.

EMBROIDERY CLUB.

Mrs. Tom Woods was the gracious hostess on last Thursday afternoon when she entertained the Embroidery Club.

After the business hour a social hour was enjoyed and a tempting salad course was served.

The following members were present: Mrs. W. M. Wyatt, Mrs. Grady Broadhead, Mrs. John VanDerveer, Mrs. Phillip Horn, Mrs. Lawrence F. Gerald, Mrs. Alva Wade, Mrs. J. P. Hayes, Mrs. Eric Hart, Mrs. Splawn, Mrs. Upchurch, and Mrs. Heard.

Mr. Lawrence F. Gerald spent last Wednesday in Montgomery attending to legal business.

Miss Alice Stanfield of Montgomery spent last Thursday with friends in Clanton.

Irregular bowel movements lead to chronic constipation and a constipated habit fills the sypstem with impurities. HERBINE is a great bowel regulator. It purifies the system, vitalizes the blood and puts the digestive organs in fine vigorous condition. Sold by Upchurch Drug Company.

Mrs. T. A. Evans of West Blocton arrived Monday for the Pitts-Reynolds wedding.

Mr. Rollin Reynolds and Miss Lucile Reynolds of Birmingham are in Clanton for the Pitts-Reynolds wedding.

Mrs. H. M. Simpson spent Friday last week in Montgomery.

Miss Mary Key of Maplesville spent the last week-end with friends in Clanton.

Constipation.

Most laxatives and cathartics afford only temporary relief and should be used only for that purpose. When you want permanent relief take Chamberlain's Tablets and be careful to observe the directions with each package. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

Mrs. Martin Ringleburg of Birmingham was the guest of Mrs. L. C. Reynolds last Sunday.

Mrs. W. M. Wyatt will entertain the Embroidery Club on Thursday afternoon at her home from four to six o'clock.

NOTED SPEAKER FOR RED CROSS

HON. J. FRED JOHNSON, Jr.

Hon. J. Fred Johnson, Jr., is a brilliant young attorney, prominent citizen and a chivalrous soldier of Florence, Alabama. When President Wilson issued the call for soldiers to volunteer in the World's War, Mr. Johnson was among the first to offer his efficient services to his country.

He has seen several months of actual service overseas, and after the armistice he was with the Army of Occupation in Germany. Although he has been returned to America only a few weeks, yet he gladly volunteers his services as a Red Cross speaker for the Third Roll Call. He is one of the most forceful and effective speakers we will have an opportunity to hear.

He delivered an address on the Red Cross Drive and the Peace Program of the Red Cross at the County High School in Clanton Tuesday.

FARM FACTS & FEATURES

If the pigs are to be healthy and vigorous with the capacity for making the greatest growth and the best use of theeir feed, they must come from the right kind of parent stock. The sows and gilts to be bred should be the best obtainable.

Big bone and lots of size in every respect are especially important. The largest litters and the fastest growing pigs usually come from the larger sows. The sows should also have rugged constitutional vigor as shown by a broad forehead, a deep and full chest, and noticeable fullness just back of the shoulders and fore legs. The shoulders should be smooth and compact, back well arched and deeply muscled, the loin and hips smooth and well muscled and the hams capable of heavy development. The shoulders, back and hindquarters should be the same width. The sides should be free from wrinkles and the legs strong and upstanding.

The influence of the boar on the capacity of the pigs to make profitable feeders is equal to that of all the sows combined, and more if he is pure bred and an outstanding individual and the sows are grades or cross-breds. The right kind of boar should add two to five dollars to the value of each hog that goes to market as compared with an ordinary boar.

No boar should be used unless he is pure bred, has great size and shows a bold expression and strong masculinity about the head. In other respects the points suggested for the selection of sows hold good for the boar, except that coarseness about the head and heavier shoulders in the boar are less objectionable than in the sows.

Sows bred November 10 will farrow about March 1, which is a desirable time. From November 10 to December 15 is probably the best breeding date for the spring litters.

The sows that are to produce spring litters should be kept well nourished throughout the winter, but not excessively fat. An abundance of exercise and green feed are very important. A field of rye or oats or a good patch of rape for their use will prove very valuable. A half pound of tankage or fish meal or a half gallon of skim milk or butter milk each day for two months before farrowing will greatly improve any ration of grains and pasture and will practically insure a strong and vigorous litter and a sow with a normal appetite and no tendency to eat chickens or pigs.

CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING OF HOGS

By M. H. Pearson, Assistant Marketing Specialist.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

As the heavy season for porkers begins in October and continues for the following five or six months, hog raisers should begin to think seriously of the conditions that confront them in the marketing of their hogs.

In the several sales already made the unusually large number of light hogs and roughs leaves the impression that due to the scarcity of feed this fall many farmers have allowed pigs to accumulate on them in numbers too great for the supply of feed necessary to put them in marketable shape. The packers are trying to induce the farmers to keep these light, thin hogs until they have been sufficiently fitted for the market and one packing company has given instructions to its buyers to make a spread of $3.00 per hundred for the No. 2 hogs, running from 135 to 165 pounds, under the No. 1 hogs, running 165 pounds and up. They are also making a $2.00 difference in the two and three grade, thus making a No. 3 sell $5.00 per hundred less than the No. 1.

This difference seems great and it makes the opportunity for the feeders great. The writer has already received several inquires for feeder hogs and one concern has asked for 200 car loads, showing that there is a heavy demand for feeders.

In the past three years, hundreds of cars of feeders have been moved from Alabama and Georgia and fed out in the middle west at large profit. If these buyers can freight our feeder hogs to the middle west, feed them out and make large profits, it would seem that this operation could be carried on right here in our own state at still a greater profit.

The real profit from porkers comes from the well finished, smooth hog weighing 165 pounds and up, and to this end we should work, even if some of the feed must be purchased.

The old question of peanut fed hogs is beginning to be heard and the difference in price is already being felt which has a great tendency to make our light hogs, especially, sell too low.

The last three cooperative sales held in the State ran 75 to 80 per cent No. 2, and No. 3 roughs, which is an unusually high proportion of unfinished hogs. Approximately half of the per centage could have been fed 30 days longer and made tops which would have brought from $2.00 to $3.00 per hundred more.

Indications point to the fact that thin, rough hogs will be disappointing to the owners this season and every effort possible should be made to properly finish them in order to receive their full value.

Commissioner D. H. Gentry was in Clanton the first of this week.

FERTILIZER FOR SMALL GRAINS

By D. J. Burleson, Agronomist for Extension.

The small grains, wheat, oats, barley and rye belong to the grass family, and like all other grasses, make heavy demands on nitrogen in the soil. These plants can not take any nitrogen from the air, as the legume plants do, but must rely on the soil and the fertilizer used for their supply of this element. On most soils it pays to use for small grains commercial fertilizer containing a good supply of nitrogen. Phosphoric acid is second to nitrogen in importance as a fertilizer for small grains.

The first choice of nitrogenous fertilizers is nitrate of soda which should be applied as a top dressing early in March, or just before the plants are ready to make their most rapid growth. About 100 pounds per acre is an average application. Experiments at Auburn and elsewhere prove that one pound of nitrogen in nitrate of soda is more effective as a fertilizer for small grains and corn than a pound of nitrogen in cottonseed meal or other common fertilizers.

Acid phosphate is one of the best sources of phosphoric acid for small grains. This fertilizer should be applied before sowing the grain or at the same time, if a grain drill is used. It is usually advisable to use from 200 to 300 pounds per acre.

STORE COTTON—STOP GREAT LOSS.

Cotton raisers are losing annually an average of $36,000,000 from weather damage to bales left in the open. That estimate is regarded as conservative, for every bale exposed to weather soon loses enough "pick ings" to represent at least $2.50, and instances of much greater loss to individual bales are not infrequent. An instance that is not a great distance from typical concerns a bale that was exposed to the weather for six months, losing 76 pounds at 23 cents, or $17.48. The United States Department of Agriculture, through its Bureau of Markets, is urging southern farmers to stotre theeir cotton and stop this waste. It calls attention to the warehouse licensed and bonded under the United States warehouse act, says that they furnish best receipts—good for cash at any bank, cheaper insurance, and better service. The department does not confine its recommendations to bonded warehouses. Before general use of private warehouses will do much to stop the loss.

AL AND PIM VISIT CLANTON

W. Paul Pim, cartoonist, and Al Harris, feature writer, both of the Birmingham Ledger, drifted into the Union-Banner office on Tuesday and said howdy to the bunch. There is always a close fellowship between news paper men, perhaps due to the mutual sensation of a gnawing appetite and a desire to tap a keg rather than a typewriter, so an acquaintance was struck after the first preliminaries.

As Ledger readers in this section know, these two are making a tour of the state, the former sketching the things of interest in the various towns and the other writing them, which appear in the magazine section of their Sunday paper. The title of their Clanton story will be, "Al and Pim visit Clanton." They have already done several of the smaller cities in the state and are receiving invitations from the chambers of commerce, Rotarians and other organizations of many places to be their guests.

Pim and Al do nothing except boost. When it comes to the dark spots, as they express it, they wear blinders and look the other way. This pair have been working together for some time and are well known in southern newspaper circles. Their training and vocation have taught them to look for the sunshine spots, and they stated that they were not hard to find in Clanton. "We were surprised at the size of the place," said Pim. "It has all the finger prints of a thriving metropolis, and with the illimitable facilities that Nature has placed around it, Clanton should become one of the greatest commercial centers in Alabama."

"Ahem!" joined in Al, at the same time in true reportorial style borrowing a cigarette from his companion.

Pim was formerly feature illustrator on the Cleveland Plain Dealer, and has been copied by all the leading dailies of the country. At present he is on the staff of the Cartoons Magazine and his work appears quite often in the Literary Digest, which is the highest compliment that can be paid an artist in America. Every Sunday he runs a strip in the Ledger entitled "Seeing Birmingham with Pim," and this is one of the most interesting features of the many used by the greatest southern daily.

Al Harris returned a short while ago from France, where he served with the Eighty-Second Division in all its operations, including the St. Mihil and Meuse-Argonne offensives, Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne offensives. and after the signing of the armistice he sold numerous war stories to the greater American magazines. He came to Birmingham from the Atlanta Constitution, which paper claims to have mothered more successful writers than any other southern paper. Harris has had several offers from New York dailies, but states that he is a southener by birth and intend to make or lose his reputation in the south. On the editorial page of the Ledger he conducts a daily column under the head "The Walrus Says," and it has caused the editors all over the state to bring their scissors into play.

The people of this county want to be on the lookout for the next Sunday issue of the Ledger. It will be a hum-dinger, and besides Al and Pim will visit Clanton in it.

We have just found out what is the best way in the world to run a man out of Clanton—elect him to the office of mayor. It worked on both Pink and Stanfield. Who wants to go next?

Get the Birmingham Ledger next Sunday and see what Al and Pim found out about Clanton while they were here Tuesday. Al is a feature writer of wide prominence, and we are sure he made some notes while here that will look interesting when he gets them whipped into shape. As for Pim, everybody knows what funny pictures he draws. You will find some of Clanton characters in cartoons in the Ledger next Sunday. Pim got the line on some of them while here. You will enjoy seeing Clanton as Al and Pim saw it when they went up on the ferris wheel.

Do you know that three counties in Alabama are solidly Republican? And they are not northern counties altogether either. They are Shelby and Chilton—half way between Birmingham and Montgomery, and Winston. Also in Franklin they make them sit up and take notice. Now with five others over in the Republican column it begins to look mighty good. None of the present generation are carpet baggers, neither are they negro-equality folks. They are of what is known as the "lilly-white" variety. Most of us born and raised in the south and who love southern customs and traditions just as well as J. Tom Heflin does. No disgrace to be a Republican these days.—Collinsville Courier.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children.

Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Redon, Ga., phoned to J. M. Floyd, the merchant there, for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said she hal then bought a bottle of it at his store recently and that it was doing her children so much good that she wanted to keep up the treatment. You will find nothing better for coughs and colds in children or for yourself. It keeps the cough loose, expiration easy and soon frees the system from the cold.

HUN FIGHTER NOW FIGHTING PLAGUE

LIEUT. BOWERS, WINNER OF CROIX DE GUERRE, WORKS FOR RED CROSS CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE.

WARS ON INSIDIOUS FOE

Tuberculosis Kills More People Every Year Than The Germans Did in War, He Points Out.

Birmingham.—Lieutenant Lloyd G. Bowers, noted Birmingham soldier, who has returned to private life as an attorney, has been appointed chairman of the Jefferson county committee for the Red Cross Christmas seal sale.

After having won the French croix de guerre, the American distinguished service cross and a series of citations and the diploma and medal of the Aero Club of America, Mr. Bowers says he would rather win decorations for fighting tuberculosis than for helping to down the Hun.

While serving in the balloon corps, attached to the French army and later to the American first corps. Mr.

LIEUT. LLOYD G. BOWERS.

Bowers was cited for valor in a series of operations. He was decorated by French and American commanders for having remained at his post in observation balloons while under fire, and for other exploits.

"There is another important war to be fought now," said Mr. Bowers. "Tuberculosis is a more insidious enemy than was the Hun. It kills 150,000 a year in America—far more than the Germans killed of our fighting men.

"The Red Cross Christmas seal campaign this year is to be a campaign of education as well as of fund raising. Every town and hamlet of the state is to be reached, and we want to have Jefferson county, especially, 100 per cent informed as to the ravages of the white plague. This county may be freed of tuberculosis if enough Red Cross seals and health bonds are sold this December.

"Our backs are against the wall. The war has brought so many new cases that we can't overlook the responsibility we have of stamping out this menace when we have the opportunity."

"T. B." GOT DARE-DEVIL

RODMAN LAW DEFIED DEATH IN HIS STUNTS, BUT HE FELL A VICTIM TO TUBERCULOSIS.

Birmingham.—Rodman Law, professional daredevil, whose death defying "stunts" amazed and thrilled thousands upon thousands of people, died recently of tuberculosis. During his professional career Law threw dice with death, time and again. He leaped from fast moving airplanes at dizzy altitudes, trusting that his parachute would function perfectly.

Perhaps his most spectacular feat was his "skyrocket stunt." He caused to be made a giant skyrocket with a special compartment for himself. It was his plan to have himself shot into the air and to make the descent with a parachute. Something was amiss in the construction of the rocket for it failed to gain sufficient altitude, and he was seriously injured. He soon recovered and continued his thrilling work.

It is the irony of fate that Law, after surviving many accidents and taking the most desperate chances, should succumb to tuberculosis. His death from the disease lends emphasis to the fact that tuberculosis is the greatest menace the United States faces today. The lurking tuberculosis germs succeeded where the most dangerous of "stunts" failed. Law died in a sanatorium in Greenville, S. C.

The National Tuberculosis Association and its one thousand affiliated organizations have launched upon a nation-wide campaign to reduce the appalling death rate from the disease in the United States. Each year one hundred and fifty thousand people die in this country from tuberculosis. The affiliated organizations seek a fund of more than $6,500,000 to carry on the work through 1920. The money will be raised through the annual December sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals. The Alabama Association must raise $200,000 to carry on its work next year.

Mrs. Grady Broadhead and Hal have been visiting relatives at Randolph for a few days.

Mrs. Esther Lee Kicker, 29 years old, wife of Sergt. C. N. Kicker of the Birmingham Police force, died at an infirmary in Birmingham Monday night at 11 o'clock, after an illness of several months. Her case was a puzzle to physicians, and a number of specialists who saw her were unable to place the exact cause of her illness and consequent death.

The body was sent to Jemison on Wednesday where funeral services and interment took place.

Mrs. Kicker is survived by her husband and two children, C. N. Jr., and William Walter; parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shaw, 3221 North 27th Street, Birmingham; two sisters, Miss Ora Shaw and Mrs. Cobb of Jemison; two brothers, William and Vernon Shaw.

The deceased was born and raised near Jemison, and will be remembered here as the popular and efficient clerk in the county tax office for three years prior to her marriage to Mr. Kicker.

Mr. Kicker is likewise a Chilton County man, and he has a large number of friends here who extend sympathy in his sad hour of grief.

OATS FOR WINTER GRAZING.

By J. F. Duggar, Director, Experiment Station.

Prepared by Extension Service, Auburn, Ala.

While oats are less reliable than rye for winter grazing they should be used for this purpose, especially in view of the expected high price of feeds during the coming winter.

Winter grazing obtained from oats should ordinarily be considered as a secondary object, the principal object being the production of grain. Both objects can easily be accomplished by sowing the seed early, preferably in September. One Alabama farmer and dairyman regularly cultivated oats in his bottom land cotton fields at the last cultivation in August. Oats sown early are more apt to pass through the winter without serious damage than those sown as late as November. Oats sown very early should be grazed in time to prevent their reaching the booting stage during cold weather.

PROCLAMATION

STATE OF ALABAMA,
Executive Department.

Whereas, the Legislature of Alabama at its regular session in the year 1919 has ordered a special election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held on the first Monday after the expiration of three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session.

And whereas, notice of such election together with the proposed amendment is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor:

Now Therefore, I, Thomas E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that the election to be held, as ordered by the Legislature in said regular session on the first Monday after the expiration of three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session of the Legislature at which said amendment was proposed and said election ordered will be held on, to-wit, the 29th day of December, 1919, for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama in the manner, form and places required by law upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, to-wit:

The municipalities of Tuscumbia, Sheffield, Hurtsboro, Russellville, Lanett, Demopolis, Pell City, Heflin, Columbiana, Carrollton, Opelika, Fairhope, Pine Hill, Scottsboro, Stevenson, Ashland, Brewton, Pollard, Flomaton, Atmore, Inglenook, Tuskegee, Aliceville, Gordo, Reform, Livingston, Camden, Monroeville, Phoenix and Girard, Birmingham, Bessemer, Florence, Huntsville, Selma, Fairfield, Anniston, Athens, Jacksonville, Auburn, Carbon Hill, and LaFayette, in the State of Alabama, shall have the power and right to levy and collect a tax of one-half of one per centum in any one year on property situated therein, based on the valuation of such property as assessed for state taxation for the tax year ending on the 30th day of September next succeeding the levy; provided, that for the purpose of paying bonds issued and outstanding at the time of the adoption of this amendment and the interest thereon, and for the purpose of paying bonds which may be issued after the adoption of this amendment and the interest thereon, an additional tax of one-half of one per centum may be levied and collected by said corporations; provided further, that a majority of the qualified electors of any of said municipal corporations voting at an election called for that purpose may vote a special tax not to exceed one-half of one per centum in any one year for any special purpose or purposes, which tax shall be used only for the purpose or purposes for which same is levied and collected, provided, however, that the total tax to be levied by any of said municipal corporations shall not exceed one and one-half (1½) per centum in any one year. Provided, further, that the adoption of this amendment shall in no wise affect, limit, modify, abridge or impair the power, authority or right of either of said municipal corporations, to levy and collect the special school taxes, now or hereafter vested in or conferred upon them, or any of them under the Constitution or any amendment thereto; including the power of said city of Selma to levy and collect the taxes for schools and school purposes vested in and conferred upon said city of Selma by the amendment to the Constitution of Alabama adopted thereto at the general election held in November, 1916, and which was submitted under law number 315, General Laws 1915, page 337. Each election held under the provisions hereof shall be ordered, held, canvassed and may be contested in the same manner as is or may be provided by the law applicable to the municipal corporations for elections to authorize the issuance of municipal bonds. The ballots used at such election shall contain the words: "For..... excess rate of taxation for the year (or years) .....," and "Against..... excess rate of taxation for the year (or years) .....". The rate of taxation proposed in excess of the rate of one (1) per centum to be shown in the blank space provided therefor and the year or years in which the proposed rate is to apply to be shown in the blank space provided therefor; and in the event different excess rates are proposed for different years the words mentioned shall be repeated as often as may be necessary to show separately the different rates proposed to be applied to the respective years. And the voter shall record his choice, whether for or against the excess rate or rates shown by placing a cross mark before or after the words expressing his choice. Nothing herein contained shall in any wise change or affect the rights of any holder of bonds of said municipal corporations heretofore issued. Elections to authorize the levy of such special tax may be held as often as ordered by the governing body of the municipality but when a proposition is submitted to the electors to levy a special tax for a specific purpose, and if such proposition is defeated no second election for the same purpose shall be held in one year thereafter.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed at the Capitol in the City of Montgomery ono this 29th day of October, 1919. THOS. E. KILBY,

Dog Law Explained

A letter to Mr. M. D. Foshee, from the State Board of Equalization will probably give some light on the late law regarding dogs:

Hon. M. D. Foshee,
Clerk Circuit Court,
Clanton, Ala.

We are in receipt of your letter of the 23rd inst., in regard to the dog registration law. In reply we beg to advise:

First, that the law providing for the registration of dogs makes it unlawful to keep or harbor on the premises any dog on which the registration fee has not been paid.

Second, We do not think it is the intention of the law that dogs shall be included in property assessments.

STATE TAX COMMISION.

P.S.—As soon as I receive the blanks I will put a notice in the paper. I will also send blank applications to each of the towns in the county so that anyone that does not want to come to Clanton to register their dogs can get a blank at the closest town, or they can write me and I will mail them one. They can fill out the blank and send it with the registration fee which is $1.25 for a male and $2.25 for a female and I send them their receipt together with the tag.

REPUBLICANS PREDICT GREAT 1920 VICTORY

Congressional Committee Has Selected Officers and Plans Campaign.

Washington, Oct. 3—At a meeting of the Republican Congressional Committee, Representative S. D. Fess of Ohio was re-elected Chairman. Representative Julius Kahn of California was chosen first vice-chairman; Representative Will R. Wood of Indiana; and Representative Edward H. Watson of New Hampshire, was re-elected secretary.

Commenting on the fact that the Republicans in 1918 won the House with Mr. Fess as chairman, Representative Kahn said: "Under the leadership of the present chairman the Republicans of the House achieved a glorious victory in 1918. I have no doubt that under thesame quality of leadership, 1920 will bring a still greater victory."

Good feeling marked the meeting of the Committee and the choice of Mr. Fess to succeed himself was unanimous. Utmost confidence was expressed in the 1920 outcome. At the same time the disposition of the Committee was to make a vigorous campaign.

The committee on Women's Political Organizations was chosen. It consists of Majority Leader Frank W. Mondell, and Representative Young of North Dakota, Ramseyer of Iowa, and Watson of New Hampshire.

IMPATIENTLY AWAIT GREAT NEW CIRCUS

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows Arouse Keen Interest Here.

"Circus Day," the big holiday for which young and old impatiently wait at this particular season promises to eclipse all other events of the calendar year at Montgomery, Thursday, November 13.

It would seem as though everybody in this locality were planning to attend. The very name of the great new circus—Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined—has been sufficient to arouse far more interest than has ever before been shown in the coming of any amusement enterprise. And word from the Ringling Brothers, who are the directors of this gigantic super circus, is to the effect that those who attend the performances will witness the greatest program ever presented in America. This is likewise true of the mammoth street parade, which will positively take place showday morning the mammouth menagerie and all else connected with this biggest of all amusement institutions. The famous showmen have made complete survey of both the great circuses and merged the finest and best of each into one. Hundreds upon hundreds of performers will appear in the gigantic main tent. There will be scores upon scores of the cleverest dumb actors. A gorgeously costumed pageant, of stupendous size, will open the program. Great companies of characters, representing the best loved stories of fable and nursery, will appear. There will be splendid and many groups of beautiful horses in jewelled trappings The army of clowns exceed all past records for fun and numbers. All contribute to the biggest circus in history.

Only a Cold.

DISASTER RELIEF PLAN PERFECTED

American Red Cross to Provide Local Help.

Committees Soon To Be Appointed in Many Communities.

Do you belong to the Disaster Relief Committee in your town?

If you do, or if you are appointed, it means that you are considered brave, considerate, even-tempered and strong. To be appointed to this committee is one of the highest honors that the American Red Cross can bestow upon you; for the Disaster Relief Committee, recently explained by Harry L. Hopkins, director of Civilian Relief, Gulf Division, American Red Cross is the great body of straight-thinking, quick-acting dependable persons organized in each community to meet disasters which arise, be they flood, fire, famine, explosion, shipwreck, or earthquake.

In the thirty eight years since the American Red Cross was first organized in 1881, it has participated in 180 disaster relief expeditions at home and abroad and has expended or directed the expenditure of twelve and a half million dollars. This covers the period up to June 1st, 1919, the end of the fiscal year.

America averages a dozen disasters a year. Latest statistics compiled by the Gulf Division, American Red Cross, show twelve disasters, and the Red Cross gave relief in every one!

In this immediate territory there were grave disasters in recent years—the Gulf States storm in 1906, the Mississippi cyclone in 1907, the Mississippi flood in 1912 and the second flood in 1914. Then there was another flood at Natchez in 1916, and more floods and the boll weevil menace in Alabama in 1917. In fact, 1917 was a bad year for disasters in the South, for during the summer the tornadoes at Village Springs and Carbon Hill and New Hope, Alabama, brought about much suffering. Everybody in this vicinity remembers the Lake Charles, Louisiana storm in 1918, in which the Gulf Division Red Cross furnished such great aid, and at which time Harry L. Hopkins, director of civilian relief, went to Lake Charles and directed the erection of the tent city. A total of $23,000 was expended in this disaster alone. And in 1919 the Corpus Christi, Texas, storm was robbed of much of its horror through the prompt action of the Red Cross.

Of these ten disasters in the Gulf Division in recent years, the Red Cross has given supplies and spent money to the extent of approximately $108,000.

ROBBERS IN CLANTON

Robbers, acting presumably on the theory that everybody in Clanton was at the street fair Saturday night, took advantage of the occasion to pull off some dirty work around town in places.

A number of homes were entered and several things taken from different places.

The home of Burns Goodgame was looted and a suit of clothes and cap and pair of shoes stollen, together with a hand bag of ladies clothing. On Sunday morning the hand bag was found in a field near the house. It had been cut open and the contents strewn over the ground. It was supposed that the thieves did not want the ladies clothing and therefore abandoned the hand bag when they discovered what it contained.

Where the hand bag was left the man also left his old worn out coat, supposedly putting on the coat he had stolen at the house.

Robbers entered the home of Hugh Thompson the same night and stole a pair of shoes. The home of Clem Giles and Joe Grooms was also visited by the unknown parties, but we learn that nothing was missed there.

U. S. "PACK-HORSE OF EUROPE"

Senator Gronna is right in saying that our adoption of the league of nations covenant would make the United States the pack-horse of nations of Europe. And a nation that would willingly assume such a humiliating position would merit application of the name of a pack animal in less repute than the horse.

WORK, LABOR'S BEST "DISPLAY"

It has been announced in Washington that 40,000 members of the American Federation of Labor will march in Washington as labor's greatest display" in the national capital. The greatest "display" labor can make at this time is to go to work and work like it has never worked before. In hard, continued work rests the country's only salvation through increased production.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Joe Ben Downs, Reporter.

On last Tuesday, armistice day, there was a general strike among the pupils for a holiday, but only 10 or 15 had the nerve to "play hookie."

On Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock, there will be a program in the high school auditorium, in behalf of the armistice day. The public is cordially invted.

Prof. Thompson had a birthday this week. Can you guess his age, Judging from his looks, we would say he is about thirty; judging by his much learning and dignified air, we would say,—well, we just won't say.

Everybody loves Mythology. Everyone in order to enjoy classic reading, should know a great deal of Mythology. Few people have the good fortune of getting mythological stories without any effect on their part. The students of the C.CH..S. are extremely fortunate in having one or more of these old stories told to them, in a most interesting and entertaining manner on every Friday morning. There are few or no high schools that can boast of a principal who knows more Mythology than Mr. Thompson.

The Junior Red Cross was organized last week, and we are going to try to make this school 100 per cent.

Lanier Literary Society.

At the last meeting of the Lanier Literary Society a debate, "Resolved that the Navy is of more benefit to a nataion than an army." The affirmative was represented by Leon Evans and Leon Kemp; the negative by Cecil Armstrong and Johnnie Plier. The judges decided in favor of the negatives.

Several selections of music of interest were given.

The Lanieran Journal was read also and some up-to-date jokes were rendered.

The society is going to have some very good speakers if debates continue, also, there are some very good musicians and cartoonists in our society.

Athletic News.

The Chilton County High Football team met the Wetumpka "Aggies" and played a very interesting game. Both sides were well matched and it seemed that neither side would score, but on account of a fumble by Chilton three fourths of a minute before the game was over Wetumpka covered the ball and scored the last seconds of the game.

The Athletic Association for Girls at the C. C. H. S. is planning its coming basket ball season with much eagerness. Games are being scheduled with Plantersville, Pratville and several other rival schools. Dates of these games will be arranged later.

The varsity for this year is Gertrude Rockett, center; Myrtle Roberts, center guard; Margaret Hester and Edna Daniells, forwards; Jewel Popwell and Zebie Robinson, guards; Substitute forward Louise Connatser; substitute guards, Ara Evans and Zennye Robinson.

Junior News.

Some of the Juniors are preparing to write a debate on whether Macbeth was more wicked tha Lady Macbeth. The best two on each side will be read in chapel at the meeting of the Literary Societies, Tuesday morning.

Tuesday evening the Juniors sent a basket of grapes to Mr. Holmes, who has been absent from school a week on account of an operation. We are glad to hear that he is getting along all right and will probably be able to return in a week or so.

Sophomore News.

The Sophomore class sent Mr. Holmes a nice box of fruit Friday. We received a letter from him Monday, saying he hoped to be with us next Monday.

Freshman News.

A very large bunch of pretty flowers were sent to Mr. Holmes last week and we are hoping to have him back with us again soon.

The class had 71 enrolled, but there are now 73, two new pupils having enrolled this week—R. V. Watson and John Dorminey. John was a former member of the Rainbow Division in France. This class now has three members of the A. E. F. and one who didn't get overseas. We have the best record in school this point.

Tuesday morning the Freshman boys who were formerly in the army made interesting talks about the time of the signing of the armistice and how they felt at the time.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parrish of West Clanton regret very much to learn of their moving away. Mr. Parrish has accepted a position with the Alabama Power Co., at Lock 12 and has gone to take up his work. Mrs. Parrish will remain here some two or three weeks yet.

RED CROSS FUNDS FOR HOME USE

LION'S SHARE IS TO STAY IN CHAPTER TREASURIES.

To Be Used for Health, Nursing, First Aid, Disaster Relief.

New Orleans.—Here is a message for every man, woman and child in Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi. The message comes straight from Homer W. Borst, manager for the Gulf Division of the American Red Cross of that organization's third annual Roll Call, which is now in progress, and which is to reach its successful conclusion on Armistice Day—the first anniversary of the close of the greatest war of all times:

"First of all are the financial needs of national headquarters. On September 30 the Red Cross national treasury contained 14,500,000 dollars; $15,000,000 more than that is needed for the honorable completion of work abroad. It is true that on February 28 a much larger sum was available, but this sum has been used since then in the absolutely necessary relief measures which the Red Cross was compelled to institute at the withdrawal of the armies from the allied countries of Central Europe, and also in the assistance given to the thousands of wounded soldiers in American army hospitals.

"During the period of four months after January 1, 1919, the expenditures by the Red Cross for these purposes were the largest in the history of the organization.

"The next need which the Red Cross is preparing to meet, as enthusiastically as any need during the war, is the home need, the need for Red Cross service to the people of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. Under the banner of the Red Cross, which has never known defeat in any field, the people of the Gulf Division are going out to win greater happiness and better civic life and health.

"It is fitting that the campaign ends on Armistice Day. That is the anniversary of our defeat of a great and dangerous foreign enemy. It is the beginning of a renewed fight, and an ultimately victorious fight against internal enemies no less formidable, and no less entitled to be laid low. Those enemies are poverty, ill health and ignorance. The victory means health, happiness and public welfare. The Red Cross Call is humanity on the march."

One-half of every membership dollar remains right at home to perform these local tasks. Also the larger part of all cash contributions will be employed in whatever local welfare work the chapters decide upon.

IRONIC ECONOMY

Here is an ironic display of economy. While Secretary of war Baker was purchasing a ham at the Democratic Co-operative store and carrying it out under his arm, the War Dpartment was also selling the town of Nitro, West Virginia, at a loss to the government of approximately $60,000,000.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children.

Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Redon, Ga., phoned to J. M. Floyd, the merchant there, for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and said she hal then bought a bottle of it at his store recently and that it was doing her children so much good that she wanted to keep up the treatment. You will find nothing better for coughs and colds in children or for yourself. It keeps the cough loose, expiration easy and soon frees the system from the cold.

RED CROSS OFFICE IS ESTABLISHED HERE

Miss Alee Stewart, Experienced in Red Cross Work, has Charge of Affairs in County.

The pleasing announcement is made this week th[illegible] a local office of the American [illegible] Cross Society has been establi[illegible] for Chilton County in Clant[illegible] Miss Alee Stewart, a well-kn[illegible] Clanton young lady is in charg[illegible] the office, and will look after [illegible] activities of the society in this county.

There are many lines of work that the Red Cross will take up through this local office. One main thing in particular will be the rendering of assistance to returned soldiers or their families in any matters relating to their service with the army, their insurance, allotments, or in fact anything about which the soldier or his fomily might need to communicate with the War or Navy Departments of the government. This service will be absolutely free to those who desire it, as Miss Stewart is paid to do the work by the Red Cross society.

The Home Service Department of the Society will manifest itself thru the local office here in several ways. Principal among those things which will come under the surveilance of the Department right now is the assistance of the people of the county in putting their children in school. If there are any children in the county who cannot attend school on account of not having sufficient clothing and books, they will be provided with these necessaries and promptly placed in school and kept there thru the funds of the Red Cross, if report is made of their cases to the local office.

These things mentioned above are only a few of the very good works that will be looked after by the Red Cross. The office of the Society is in the Johnson Building over Kemp's store. Anyone desiring any information about the work of the Red Cross or needing the assitance of the Society will be given a prompt and courteous hearing if they will call on Miss Stewart at the office. You are also urgently requested to call at the office and pay up your membership for another year if you have not already attended to that important part of the work.

THE STONEWALL OF REALISM

If American labor refuses to produce for American consumption, it will find that there are German factories working over-time producing commodoties which will be offered in the American market with the aid of the Wilson-Underwood free trade tariff law.

By AL HARRIS

Perhaps the most lasting impression of Clanton is that the place is ambitious. There is an atmosphere of industry of commercial buoyancy that reaches out and touches the visitor on the shoulder, yet at the same time he realizes this is not altogether a product of the town itself, but a partial reflection of a rich and abundant environment. That is Chilton County. Clanton is really the heart through which many arteries force a continuoous and invariable flow of agricultural wealth.

When one leaves the train at Clanton the first sound that reaches the ear is that of buzzing lumber mills, unceasing and the monotonous whine of saws announces on unlimited supply. Chilton County is one of the greatest lumber-producing regions in Alabama. After the trees are felled in the forests and cut in the saw mills they are hauled to Clanton for the finishing touches. That is the reason for these numerous planing mills. A dozen or more freight cars are always on the sidetracks waiting to be loaded, while an equal number are moved daily.

Chilton County has always been famous for the quality of its timber, yet, even though the demand and price have trebled during the past few years the people have taken pains to conserve the supply; consequently this county is not facing the problem that so many have already been forced to consider. Every effort that might alleviate unnecessary waste has been made, and the business men are now in position to appreciate the plausibility of their action along these lines.

Many states of the Union have been required to cease almost entirely the cutting of trees on account of the enormous lots that were not utilized, but left to decay; this is also true in some counties in Alabama; but Chilton is in a position to continue the lumber trade for years to come, without fear of a shortage in the natural growth. Of course, there is a reason for this: The lumbermen have plotted their areas along systematic lines, observing the advice offered by government authorities, and by the time one section was practically cleared of available lumber another was ready for the cutters. So Chilton can modestly assume the credit for her advantage in this particular trade.

The backbone of Chilton County is its cotton production. This county does not claim to be the best in the state when it comes to the growth of the "precious fiber," but nevertheless, the output compares favorably with that of others. As is customary in the south, the farmers depend on this article for livelihood and branch out in experimental ventures with the assurance of safety.

However, Chilton is fast becoming the county of diversification in Alabama. More corn, more grain is being raised than ever before, and it is being thrown into the market at a surprisingly large price in comparison to cotton. Another article that is fast becoming popular in the agricultural section is velvet beans. The farmers state that there is little difficulty in raising this plant, while it has also been discovered that they are easily marketable and can be sold at a good profit.

Chilton is Peanut Center of State.

Chilton is recognized to be a peanut center in this state, and this year the largest crop yet has been planted and indications are that it will be a successful harvest. Alabama peanuts are widely known throughout the country for their splendid size and delicacy of flavor, and many are considering seriously the proposition of devoting their entire acreage and time to the growing of the lowly but popular "goober." They say that the plant is one of the least susceptible to sporadic weather conditions and should prove a profitable investment.

If Chilton had the equipment—and according to several of the most influential citizens they soon will have—enough sugar cane is grown in the county to produce a large sugar supply, and in view of the likely shortage of the future it is believed that men of means will advance the project in the county. The cane itself is of a very high grade class, being large and extraordinarily sweet, which is an advantage to be considered. Much of this supply at present, as is also the sorghum crop, is being used in the manufacture of syrup, and each season hundreds of barrels are shipped to wholesale houses and individuals in different sections of the country.

When one talks to citizens of Clanton and Chilton County they seem to take pride, as they should, in the number of men and boys who answered the nation's call during the late war. There is hardly a family that didn't at least send one representative to the colors, while others sent all within the ane limits.

County has Long Honor Roll.

J. Bice, formerly county treasurer, had five sons in uniform, all of whom saw active service in the battle lines in France. All of them returned and are living happily in Chilton County. By name they are: Stoughton, Clarence, Chester, Jay and Grover Bice. There are numbers of instances in the war record of America where this many sons entered the army, but the cases are rare where all of them were afforded the opportunity of going overseas.

The following is a complete list of the Chilton County boys who offered their lives for their country: Robert Kirkland, Clanton; Porter M. Plier, Clanton; Alonzo S. Shirley, Clanton; Edward S. Stewart, Clanton; Waymon Young, Clanton; Thomas Boswell, Cooper; John M. Collum, Jemison; Obie J. Lewis, Jemison; Edward C. Sims, Jemison; Enoch Smith, Jemison; Rufus C. Calloway, Maplesville; Ernest C. Edwards, Maplesville; Perry S. Edwards, Maplesville; Nicholas A. Minor, Maplesville; William J. Boatfield, Mt. Creek; Hilary H. Huggins, Mt. Creek; Bill Boykin, Riderville; George P. Mattison, Riderville; Walter Caton, Thorsby; Corb Driver, Verbena; William R. Plott, Verbena; Jim Wyatt, Dollar; John M. Burnette, Billingsley; John Robert Roper, Clanton; Alvin Jones, Clanton; Arnold M'Dowell, Clanton; Leon Popwell, Clanton; Otis Hutson, Mt Creek; Warren Franklin, Clanton; John Thomas Wyatt, Clanton.

The business section of Clanton is attractively arranged and no town in the state can boast of more modern assortment of buildings. They are, at least the majority of them, built of red brick, and will retain their beauty for many years to come. Streets are wide and afford ample space for the busy traffic. Some of the department and drug stores are very citified; that is, they equal in variety and stock to those of Birmingham, and Clanton has a motto that seems to be generally accepted: "Trade at home."

Big Hog Sale Day on Nov. 25.

Now the coming industry in Chilton is hog-raising. One merchant stated that in 1914 he received 1,000 pounds of meat weekly, while in 1916 he was using the home supply exclusively, and at present carloads of hog meat are shipped weekly from Clanton to packers and dealers in all partts of the country. That in itself tells the story. The farmers have learned that hog-raising is profitable, as well as more interesting than the routine labor required in the production of a regular crop, and many of them are devoting their efforts entirely to it. In most instances fine stock is a specialty, and the farmers are seeking to regulate their crop to such a veriety of agricultural productions that it will not be necessary to use imported foodstuffs in raising of animal. The waste land of the county is being used as grazing territory for the hogs and those now engaged in the work state that this is essential to success. This alone gives the county an added asset.

Chilton is adopting a system in the sale of hogs which has been in practice in several Alabama counties for some time; but which will be introduced there for the first time on November 25. The plan is this: The farmers bring their hogs into Clanton on that day, where they are graded and classified by experts, and then they are sold in carload lots and shipped away. The purpose of this is to be of benefit to the small producer. It is pointed out that the farmer who raises only a few head each year is unable to reach the market with his product, and after the transaction have a reasonable profit. In this way that opportunity is extended to him. Those in charge of hog-sale day in Chilton County this year are: L. H. Reynolds, J. D. Collins, C. F. Jones, J. C. Jones and J. N. Dennis.

One of the first places Pim and I visited was the office of The Union-Banner, the official newspaper of the county. We were greeted by W. M. Wyatt, editor and general manager. Of course, when newspaper men get together one of the first topics mentioned is politics. Mr. Wyatt announced that he was a Republican.

"What, a republican in Alabama?" I asked. "I never heard of such a thing."

"Then you've got lots to learn," laughed Mr. Wyatt, "for this county is republican all the time." Just then Pim called him to one side and evidently showed him a card of some kind; for after that Mr. Wyatt seemed far more attentive to Pim than he did to me. Without any definite knowledge on the situation I suspect that it was a case of "birds of a feather flock together," or some suitable phrase of that kind would be applicable.

The Union-Banner is one of the most up-to-date weeklies in this neck of the woods. Mr. Wyatt stated that the circulation is all that could be desired, and at times he is literally flooded with advertising matter. News columns from different parts of the county are a good feature of the paper, and Mr. Wyatt claims the livest set of correspondents ever corralled by a weekly in Alabama. "They are always on their toes," he said, "and by their co-operation we always have a plenty of live news for our readers."

Mr. Wyatt said that his three favorite pastimes were boosting The Union-Banner, campaigning for the republican candidates and fishing. Although he didn't say it in so many words, it seems that the last mentioned is his favorite diversion.

Youngest Boy Scout Band in the Country.

Clanton rightly holds the distinction of having the youngest Boy Scout band in the United States. The word "band" is not to be mistaken for club or patrol; but this is a real music-dispensing organization, with horns and drums an' everything. The members vary in ages from 9 to 13 years, and are well trained musicians. They play classical band music, as well as rag-time music, in the most delightful manner. The leader, Kenneth Smith, is only 13 years old, yet his musical ability has attracted the attention of all who have heard him.

The boy scouts have two patrols in Clanton, with W. O. Rich as scoutmaster, and the youngsters are very enthusiastic in the work. "We are following all the rules and regulations as laid down by headquarters," said Mr. Rich, "and the boys are receiving much instruction that will be of service to them later on, beside furnishing wholesome amusement while doing this."

The famous Mahan Wagon Brake is manufactured in Clanton. This is specially designed to be of service to lumbermen and trucksters. When the output was first placed on the market several years ago the demands caused the originators immediately to set up a larger plant. Since that time the business has grown by leaps and bounds. The company now is under the general managership of J. A. Mahan.

One of the most interesting characters Pim and I met was Sam'l Scott, who told us that since the organization of The Birmingham Ledger he has not missed a single issue. So we felt at home without further comment and listened to his quaintly-told story of the history of the paper. "I am a strict Scotch Presbyterian, and some way didn't like to see The Ledger enter the Sunday field," he said, "although I know they did the right thing from their viewpoint. I never read a paper on Sunday at all."

"But you read the Sunday Ledger?" I asked.

He smiled, "Yes, on Monday morning."

"I expect that I am one of the few persons who has not missed a single issue," continued Mr. Scott. "Once I went to Texas and on another occasion to Virginia. Each time I had The Ledger follow me. It is really a part of my existence now—and a very pleasant one."

Those people in Clanton must be given credit for ingenuity. For the past week the Atwood shows have been there; but they were not permitted to enter the town until local arrangements were made. Usually a show enters a place and leaves with several thousand dollars of the hard-earned money, with nothing in the possession of the citizens to show for their visit; but this time the city school mathered the affair, so to speak, and received 20 per cent of all the profits. This money will be used in improving the school grounds and facilities. When one comes to think of it no better means of raising funds could be devised. The school is a wide-awake institution and never passes an opportunity to better its own interests.

Chilton has Excellent County High School.

The Chilton County High School is located in Clanton, and students from all parts of the county are in attendance. The train schedules are convenient for transportation of the pupils. Each morning 100 or more reach the school by this method. C. V. Thompson is superintendent, and reports that this is one of the most successful year in the history of the county. The building is practically new. One of the features of its location is that the athletic fields are afforded. The county has supplied numerous articles for games, such as basketball and football, and outdoor sports are stressed.

As are the majority of the county schools in the state, the institution is encouraging vocational education and Mr. Thompson states that it has proven a wonderful advantage in training the pupils.

Clanton has two churches—Methodist and Baptist, and plans are under way to build new houses of worship for both. This was planned previously to the war, but in the abnormal period the minds of the people were diverted to other things. However, several of the members predicted that before the end of the year definite plans will have been made for the erection of two churches, erected after latest designs.

The new Chilton County Court House which cost in the neighborhood of $70,000, is one of the prettiest buildings in the state. It is built of red brick and the architecture is quite striking. The old familiar dome is missing, but its absence rather adds than detracts from the structure. It is located on Main Street in Clanton and is one of the first sights that greets the eye of the arriving stranger.

Within the next few weeks a new bank will be opened in Clanton, to be known as the First National Bank. Some of the strongest financial interests in the state are supporting it, which might be taken that it is going to bid to much of the business in this section. The president has not been elected; John C. Page will be cashier. The other bank in Clanton is the Peoples Savings Bank, with A. T. Callen as president and John Thomas cashier. It is an old established organization in Chilton County and numbers its friends by the hundreds.

Clanton has two up-to-date hotels both located in new buildings and catering only to the best class of trade. The Wilson hotel, under the management of P. D. Wilson, is known throughout the state for its ability to make the traveling man feels at home, and the Exchange is a new-comer, having opened two months ago, and is fast gaining a reputation with the public. W. J. Armstrong is manager.

Clanton has the council form of government, and the citizens state that it has proven most satisfactory. Pim and I wanted to meet J. W. Stanfield, the mayor, but he happened to be out of town, and the pleasure was not afforded us.

"Smiling Judge" Has Many Friends.

Judge L. H. Reynolds is known in Clanton as the "smiling Judge." Regardless of how busy he may be he always has time to talk with his friends, and several of the men about town told us that he had more than any other in the county. There is no reason to doubt this, for Judge Reynolds is altogether congenial and is recognized to be one of the ablest judges that ever occupied the bench in Chilton County.

C. F. Jones president of the Jones Hardware Company, is pointed to by the citizenry as the official booster of Clanton. He never overlooks a bet when his home town is concerned. However, it would be wrong to place Mr. Jones in a booster's club all by himself. Clanton is a town of boosters. They know that they have the qualities that make greatness and are straining to not only establish their thriving little metropolis on the map but to cause it to cast a ray of light on all parts of the map.

"Watch our smoke," said J. D. Collins, county tax collector.

And there is plenty of fire under that smoke in Clanton!

WEST CHILTON

"The melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year."

Look over West Chilton in various directions, and you will note clouds of dark smoke slowly ascending above the Horizon, that means syrup making is on.

Thomas Waldrup of Illinois is visiting his relatives here while the great coal strike is on.

Mr. Warren Brantley of Columbus, Ga., is spending some time here.

Dewey Pate is now with his Brother at Adams.

Mr. Dave Wood Freeman of Thorsby is in this locality making syrup.

Mr. Ed Smitherman of Adams visited here Sunday.

Rev. Waldrup was carried to Birmingham recently for treatment; latest report is that he is doing well.

A box supper at Freeman Wednesday night netted a nice sum for the school improvements. Early every morning it is interesting to see on every road groups of children on their way to school. How different from what it once was. Just an occasional short school, often in the hot summer months. What is this multitude of children enroute to school for? To prepare to take the places of father and mother. Then what a work for the teacher to train them to be real men and women, to meet the ideals and environments of the new world. The old world is gone—is ended. In entering the new age Chilton County may well feel proud of her many public spirited men and women—noble people, self-sacrificing, worthy of all honor. Among them we call to mind T. J. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Vickers, D. H. Gentry, J. W. Sorrell, Mrs. Charles Howard, W. M. Wyatt, J. W. Moore, J. M. Mims, J. N. Gentry, S. M. Adams, Miss Etha Nix, W. C. Edler, J. H. Martin, W. H. Gillespie, Miss Della Williams, J. W. Hays, J. B. Northcutt and scores of others of equal importance.

M. C. ALLGOOD UNANIMOUSLY ELECTED PRESIDENT AMERICAN COTTON ASS'N ISSUES RINGING CALL TO ALABAMIANS

Calls On Every Man and Woman Who Loves the South to Rally to the Support of the American Cotton Association With Moral Backing and Financial Support.

M. C. ALLGOOD.

War on low priced cotton and starvation wages has been declared by the American Cotton Association, and every man in Dixie is now called upon to volunteer his services.

Low priced cotton brings hard times and hard times stagnates industry and business of every kind, so it makes no difference what you are engaged in doing; if you live in the Southland and cotton sells for six or eight cents it will depress your business. This organization is backed by the bankers, merchants and farmers, and we are fighting for our rights the same as our fathers fought in the sixties, and I urge every man in Alabama that loves his State, that likes prosperity, that wants to help safeguard the future, to investigate this organization and join it.

Fifty years ago the South had no cotton mills, and the only thing that could be done with cotton was to sell it to New England or English spinners. The North gave the negroes their political freedom, but it immediately enslaved them as also enslaved the white men, women and children of the South by low priced cotton. The American Cotton Association stands unalterably opposed to low priced cotton and the enslavement of those who produce it.

Every school district in the Southern States is going to be organized. One million organized Southern men can and will control cotton. Will you not be one of the defenders of the South?

Most respectfully,
M. C. ALLGOOD, President.

DECLARATION OF OBJECT, PURPOSE AND POLICIES

AMERICAN COTTON ASSOCIATION SET FORTH IN CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

The objects and purposes of this Association shall be:

1. To protect the interests of the cotton producer and to improve his condition.

2. To promote economic regulation of cotton production to the end that supply shall be so adjusted to demand that the producer shall at no time be required to sell his product at less than a fair and reasonable profit.

3. To promote intelligent diversification of crops, and to develop markets for such crops, other than cotton, as may be profitably raised.

4. To improve and enlarge presently existing warehousing facilities to the end that the producer may carry his crop, or such part as he may desire, at the minimum of expense and physical damage and at the maximum of security and financiability.

5. To broaden the markets for raw cotton and to enlarge the uses for cotton and cotton goods.

6. To improve and increase transportation and distribiution facilities.

7. To collect information as to both domestic and foreign consumption of cotton, the state of trade, the extent of acreage, supply and condition of crop, and all other information of practical interest to the cotton industry, and to disseminate the results through the several sub-organizations to every member of every community, together with directions as to the course to be pursued in order to secure the best results in view of the facts disclosed.

8. To do all and singularly whatsoever may be conducive to the stability and profitableness of the cotton producing industry.

CHARTER MEMBER ENROLLMENT OF A. C. A. BEGINS

JUDGE DRIVER OF LAFAYETTE FIRST TO ENROLL IN ALABAMA DIVISION. PROUD OF DISTINCTION.

A. J. Driver, ex-probate judge of Chambers county, a large cotton planter of east Alabama, has the distinction of being the first to enroll as a charter member of the Alabama Division of the American Cotton Association.

The membership dues in the organization are fixed at 25 cents per bale for the crop of 1919 and will be 10 cents per bale for subsequent crops. Bankers, merchants and manufacturing firms are required to pay a membership fee of 25 cents on each thousand dollars invested in their business, which, like that of the farmer, pays dues until January 1st, 1921, and thereafter their dues will be fixed at 10 cents on the thousand dollars invested.

There are to be issued a limited number of Charter Memberships, which cost $100 and pays all dues until January 1, 1923. It was the latter form of membership Judge Driver took. The Judge was much pleased witih his certificate, which, by the way, is handsomely engraved and has the appearance of a United States Gold Bond of one hundred dollars valuation. Members who are taking them are having them framed and displayed in a conspicuous place in their offices. Large banking houses and manufacturing firms are taking this class of membership for two reasons, first, it is cheaper than paying the percentage on capital for the period covered, and second, they are in possession of a handsome document which when framed and displayed readily identifies them with this great movement for the uplift of all classes in the Southland

COULDN'T WALK TWO BLOCKS

Wonderful Recovery of Real Estate Man From Rheumatism After Taking Sulferro-Sol, "The Wonder Medicine."

"In the interests of my friends and mankind generally," writes Mr. James H. Stephens, Jacksonville, Fla., "I wish to state how much I have been benefited by Sulferro-Sol. For several years prior to 1915, I had suffered with stomach trouble, rheumatism and other complaints, being reduced in weight from 165 lbs. to 139 lbs., and so weak I could not walk two blocks without being exhausted. While on a visit to Mr. Stanley Stanton Stephens in September, 1915, at Ramer, Ala., he introduced your medicine. I took it and soon my troubles left me, my appetite became good. Being able to eat solid foods, I commenced to regain my weight, and on 15th of August, 1916, I tipped the scale at 166 lbs. Now, and for two years, I can walk from my home, 1714 Liberty street, to my office, 54 Buckman Building, one and one-quarter miles, without fatigue; notwithstanding the fact that I am seventy-six years young."

This is one of hundreds of letters that have been written in praise of Sulferro-Sol, Nature's medicine that has done so much good in the world. Take it for Rheumatism, Indigestion, Eczema or any other nerve or blood disease. You will not be disappointed. Druggists sell it.

CLANTON NEEDS A MORE SYSTEMATIC GOVERNMENT

Clanton needs so many different things that it seems a waste of time to start out to name them. And besides that it is no use for us to tell you what the town needs when you know what it needs as well as we do. But we will take a chance on one thing right here. We have got to fill up this space with something.

But what we set out to tell you is that Clanton needs a more active, systematic, business-like city government. We don't know why the present town officials do not do better than they do; but we expect them to tell us why after they see this. Then we will tell you what they say is the matter. Now, if they are doing the best they can under the circumstances, all right for them. But the circumstances ought to be altered so they can give us a better system of town government.

We admit right here though that the whole trouble is not with the town officials. The people of the town as a whole have their own share of responsibility in the mess. We laymen citizens do not take the proper pride in the affairs of the town. If we did that might change the circumtances that are holding the officers down in the proper administration of affairs. There never was a place in the world nor a time more in need of a thorough revival of the spirit of town pride than in Clanton this good day of our Lord. We must be shaken out of our lethargy. The way we are permitting things to lag here is a shame and a disgrace.

Why do we do it: None of us are so busy making money that we have no time for improving our town. Here is what is the matter. We just simply don't care enough about the town to give it any thought. We are sleepy, I tell you. Some day we shall awaken to the folly of our neglect. Then we will repent with long faces, but the opportunity will be spent.

We could go on indefinitely with a long string of things that we ought to do and ought not to do. That would be all right if we were Prof. Johnson talking to his school kids. But it does not fit this occasion in which we are engaged. This is written to warn the grown people of Clanton, the papas and the mammas, of the danger that lurks in our delusive attitude. Those who read this are as old and older than the writer, and know as welll as I what is the matter with our town.

Can't we go into the secrets of ourselves and find out where we have fallen short as citizens of our town, and come out with a firm determintion to revive our spirit of pride and make a town which Al and Pim will not be forced to lie about when they come here to give us a boost?

LAWLESSNESS DEFEATED IN MASS., BUT FIGHT STILL ON

The fight against lawlessness and disorder has been won in Massachusetts by the re-election of Governor Coolidge by a plurality of 125,000. The good people of the Bay State who stood so loyally by the man who stood loyally by them, are to be commended and congratulated. But this is no time to make commendation and congratulation an occasion for delay and diversion. The fight is still on in every section of the United States. The forces of lawlessness and disorder are organized and aggressive. They seen to have abundant financial resources at their command and their aggressiveness sets an eaxmple for advocates of a better cause.

Unfortunately, the advocates of law and order have not in all states and communities leaders courageous and able. Too frequently men in position of leadership wait until the battle has been fought and then align themselves with the winner. They dislike the burden, the inconvenience and the dangers of the fight, and lack the courage to cast their lot with the rank and file of civic righteousness until they find out whether righteousness is popular. There are thousands of public men in America today who believe in the right of any man to take employment in any legitimate industry without first paying tribute to a labor union, but who lack the courage to declare that conviction to all the world. They are of the "gumshoe," "pusy foot" style of politician as useless to a progressive nation as a camp follower to an army.

But Governor Coolidge is not alone, although his company may be relatively small. Here and there through out the land are men who take sides as soon as the issue is drawn, without waiting to find out which side is most popular. There were 39 Republican Senators who did not put their ears to the ground before declaring for Americanism as against internationalism. There was in their action the same character of decisiveness manifested by Patrick Henry when he exclaimed, "I care not what course others may pursue, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death." Because those 39 Senators will back their words with their votes, the independence of the United States will be preserved to this generation and to all posterity.

The fight and the victory in Massachusetts are but incidents in the great battle that is in progress all over the United States for the upholding of government by law—the preservation of the Constitution, the enforcement of statutes and the protection of the individual in his right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Bolshevism has now been checked but not defeated. Men who have catered to bolshevism still hold positions of power in the nation. They continue to shake first the fist and then the finger. They are as uncertain and undependable now as ever. If the good people of America want this nation preserved as a truly representative government, they must rally to the support of men who take a prompt and clearly defined stand on the side of law and order—on the side of Americanism and constitutional government—relegating to realms of the forgotten those men, of whatever party, who strive to be all things to all men, ready to compromise with principle or sell the American birthright for a mess of pottage.

"AL AND PIM VISIT CLANTON"

Did you see the Birmingham Ledger last Sunday? If you don't read the Ledger every day, you are missing the best thing that Alabama offers in the way of a daily newspaper. We don't agree with lots of things the Ledger says editorially, politically, etc but we do grant that they are an honest bunch of good fellows and mean well; but they publish a good newspaper after all.

Now, back to the last Sunday's paper. If you did not see that one you missed a treat. You know we told you last week that Al and Pim of The Ledger staff had visited Clanton and would write the town up in the Sunday paper. Well, they fixed us up good and proper all right. They found out many good things about our town that lots of us fellows who live right here don't know about.

By special permission of Mr. Quimby Melton, the General Manager of the Ledger, we have secured Pim's pictures of Clanton, and have copied Al's story along with it in this issue of the Union-Banner. You will like what they said about us.

In this connection we might say that there are some dark spots in Clanton which Al and Pim did not see. They said they did not want to see them, so we didn't insist. But we are going to get a fellow who can drow pictures to come here and paint the dark spots. His pictures along with an appropriate write-up will appear in The Union-Banner next week.

Loook over the "sunny side" this week with Al and Pim. Next week you can see the other side of the picture if you get the Union-Banner.

SOLDIER GRAVES NEGLECTED

Chief Justice McCoy of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia has appeared before the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House in a hearing on the Bland bill to return our soldier dead, and criticized the War Department for alleged neglect of graves in France. Justice McCoy lost a son overseas, and has but recently returned from a trip to the battle areas, during which he located and provided for the private care of his son's grave. His comments, therefore, are based on personal observation of conditions as they actually exist.

GEOGRAPHY AND SOUND BODIES

Government statistics show that in only eleven states of the Union the average number of men passing the physical examination for admission to the army during the recent war reached 70 per cent. These eleven states were North and South Kakota, Minnesota, Wyoming, Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas and New Mexico. The states in the next highest class, showing a per cent of between 65 and 69, inclusive, are Montana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Missouri, Maryland, North Carolina, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, and Louisiana.

HOG SALE DAY HERE ON NOVEMBER 25TH

Our readers, and the public of Chilton County in general, are admonished not to forget the hog sale day which is to be in Clanton on the 25th of this month. Those behind the movement are very enthusiastic for the success of the occasion, and we must not fail to recognize that the bigger the success of the sale, the bigger the benefit that will come to the people of the county thereby.

If you have got more hogs than you are going to need for your own use, it will pay you to get in touch with Mr. J. D. Collins or Judge Reynolds and find out about this wholesale sale day and be ready with your hogs to get in on the advantages that will be offered you. Don't be one of those to leave your hogs at home and come down here to see how the other fellow comes out before you are willing to try it. If you do you will be the loser, and will also be sorry of it later on.

The hog sale day is the only plan whereby the small hog raisers in this county can ever hope to get the advantage of market privileges that are worth while to them. Everybody get behind this thing now and boost for Chilton County hogs on November 25. It will be the first chapter of tremendous future for hog raising in our county. Don't fail to have your name recorded on the pages of this first chapter.

WOULD DISCOURAGE UNLAWFUL DEFICITS.

During the discussion of the budget bill in the House, Congressman Graham of Pennsylvania was the author of an amendment that, if it remains in the bill, will do much to discharge the vicious and unlawful deficits in which every department is continually involving itself. "The comptroller general," reads Mr. Graham's amendment, "shall specially report to the congress every expenditure or contract made by any head of a department in any way in excess of the appropriation to such department and in violation of law." Having had its attention specifically called to each deficit congress can then pass it by if it deems proper, or take other appropriate action.

NO MANDATES WANTED

The Senate has indicated a desire to possess itself of the report of Gen. Harbord against the proposal of a United States mandate for Armenia. Although it is said that Col. House assured the foreign ministers of England and France that Armenia would be taken over by this country, it is becoming increasingly evident that the project will not be sanctinned by the Senate.

CUMMINS REPORTS R. R. BILL

Washington, Nov. 5.—(Special correspondence)—Senator Cummins, the Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee, has reported the railroad bill showing the results of the careful consideration that his committee has bestowed upon it. It has been placed on the Senate calendar where it will remain until after the final disposition of the peace treaty. Mr. Cummins declares however, that the measure will be enacted before adjournment of the present session of Congress. If it should not be, he said the Senate would be justly subject to "the condemnation of every fair-minded man in America."

L. P. MARTIN WRITES FROM DORA, ALA., TO HIS MOTHER

Dora, Ala., Oct. 29, 1919.

Mrs. B. N. Martin, Jemison, Ala.

Dear mother and all:

Wonder how you all are getting along by this time. Fine I hope. This leaves us all well expect the children all have bad colds. Well, I guess you will be somewhat surprised about me when you have finished reading this letter.

You know, I told you when you were over here that I was a saved man and was prepared to die; so you will remember that I have told you many times that I was called to preach, but for the fact that I was drinking all the time of course you paid it no attention. But I will truthfully tell you that I have been fighting against the call of the ministry for five long years of my ife, and I was ashamed to confess it; and on last Sunday I felt the call so strong that I had to surrender to it. There was no peace on earth for me until I did it and I saw it. I considered that I had fought against it long enough. You know God says that if you are ashamed of Him He will likewise be ashamed of you. So there is nothing left for me to do in this world but to put forth all my efforts I can to be a soul winner for Christ.

I know that this will be quite a shock to the people down there, but as I wrote in my letter to the Union-Banner, that will make no difference with me, what anybody on earth says or thinks about me. Because of the fact that my future life will prove to the world as well as God what I am.

I am to be licensed and ordained into the ministry next Sunday by the Dora Baptist Church, and by the grace of God I expect to go forth in the discharge of my duties so long as I am permitted to live in the world. I well know that the responsibility that will rest upon me will be great; but I don't feel like it will be as bad as the burden was trying to get away from my duties. God kept saying to me day and night: "You know I have been merciful unto you and have saved you. Now, what are you going to do for me?" And then he said unto me: "You have been a leader for the Devil and now if you don't work in the vineyard for me I will chastise you and you know that God doesn't lie." I wish it could be that you and papa could be here Sunday with me. I know that there is not a man in the world that feels any better today than I do.

If you cannot come Sunday, write me soon and tell me all the news. I expect to come down there before long, and when I come I will want some appointments down there, so I can try to build up in the Kingdom of God some of the things that I have torn down. Hoping to see you or hear from you soon, I am,

Your son,
L. P. MARTIN.

CAN'T REMEMBER WHEN I'VE FELT QUITE SO WELL

Am Full of Energy and Vitality; Have Fine Appetite; Sleep Sound; Constipation Overcome; Stomach Right Again, Since Taking Dreco.

When a person has been half sick, feeling dull, tired and "no account," then gets a medicine that puts new energy and vim into his every-day life, he feels like letting others know about it. That's how this man feels. He is Mr. D. T. Carter of 405 Pine street, Anniston, Ala.

"For years I've suffered awful pains in my back from deranged kidneys. Sometimes I'd have to get up five or six times during the night. I also had headaches and was badly constipated, and my food seemed to ferment in my stomach and form sour gas, which caused much uneasiness and distress. I was very dizzy at times and had about lost my appetite. I had tried many different medicines, but none helped me, and I'd given up all hope of ever getting well again. I heard so much about Dreco I bought a bottle, and right from the start it did me good. It soothed my stomach and stopped the gas; put a stop to the constipation and headaches, also the dizziness, and my appetite got better every day. The pains in my back and kidneys have been entirely relieved, and now I go to bed and sleep all night long, and never have to get up during the night as I formerly did."

Dreco is made of the juices and extracts of many herbal plants, which act on the kidneys, liver, bladder, stomach and blood, and corrects many troubles, such as gas on the stomach, constipation, weakness, poor appetite, nervousness, headaches, biliousness, catarrh, rheumatism, and such blood disorders as eczema, pimples, blotches, boils and eruptions. The first bottle usually shows splendid results, and a full treatment brings permanent results.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by

STATE OF ALABAMA,
Executive Department.

Whereas, the Legislature of Alabama at its regular session in the year 1919 has ordered a special election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held on the first Monday after the expiration of three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session.

And whereas, notice of such election together with the proposed amendment is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor:

Now Therefore, I, Thomas E. The municipalities of Tuscumbia, Sheffield, Hurtsboro, Russellville, Lanett, Demopolis, Pell City, Heflin, Columbiana, Carrollton, Opelika, Fairhope, Pine Hill, Scottsboro, Stevenson, Ashland, Brewton, Pollard, Flomaton, Atmore, Inglenook, Tuskegee, Aliceville, Gordo, Reform, Livingston, Camden, Monroeville, Phoenix and Girard, Birmingham, Bessemer, Florence, Huntsville, Selma, Fairfield, Anniston, Athens, Jacksonville, Auburn, Carbon Hill, and LaFayette, in the State of Alabama, shall have the power and right to levy and collect a tax of one-half of one per centum in any one year on property situated therein, based on the valuation of such property as assessed for state taxation for the tax year ending on the 30th day of September next succeeding the levy; provided, that for the purpose of paying bonds issued and outstanding at the time of the adoption of this amendment and the interest thereon, and for the purpose of paying bonds which may be issued after the adoption of this amendment and the interest thereon, an additional tax of one-half of one per centum may be levied and collected by said corporations; provided further, that a majority of the qualified electors of any of said municipal corporations voting at an election called for that purpose may vote a special tax not to exceed one-half of one per centum in any one year for any special purpose or purposes, which tax shall be used only for the purpose or purposes for which same is levied and collected, provided, however, that the total tax to be levied by any of said municipal corporations shall not exceed one and one-half (1½) per centum in any one year. Each election held under the provisions hereof shall be ordered, held, canvassed and may be contested in the same manner as is or may be provided by the law applicable to the municipal corporations for elections to authorize the issuance of municipal bonds. The ballots used at such election shall contain the words: "For..... excess rate of taxation for the year (or years) .....;" and "Against..... excess rate of taxation for the year (or years) .....". The rate of taxation proposed in excess of the rate of one (1) per centum to be shown in the blank space provided therefor and the year or years in which the proposed rate is to apply to be shown in the blank space provided therefor; and in the event different excess rates are proposed for different years the words mentioned shall be repeated as often as may be necessary to show separately the different rates proposed to be applied to the respective years. And the voter shall record his choice, whether for or against the excess rate or rates shown by placing a cross mark before or after the words expressing his choice. And whereas, notice of such election together with the proposed amendment is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor:

Now Therefore, I, Thomas E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that the election to be held, as ordered by the Legislature in said regular session on the first Monday after the expiration of three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session of the Legislature at which said amendment was proposed and said election ordered will be held on, to-wit, the 29th day of December, 1919, for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama in the manner, form and places required by law upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, to-wit:

The municipalities of Tuscumbia, Sheffield, Hurtsboro, Russellville, Lanett, Demopolis, Pell City, Heflin, Columbiana, Carrollton, Opelika, Fairhope, Pine Hill, Scottsboro, Stevenson, Ashland, Brewton, Pollard, Flomaton, Atmore, Inglenook, Tuskegee, Aliceville, Gordo, Reform, Livingston, Camden, Monroeville, Phoenix and Girard, Birmingham, Bessemer, Florence, Huntsville, Selma, Fairfield, Anniston, Athens, Jacksonville, Auburn, Carbon Hill, and LaFayette, in the State of Alabama, shall have the power and right to levy and collect a tax of one-half of one per centum in any one year on property situated therein, based on the valuation of such property as assessed for state taxation for the tax year ending on the 30th day of September next succeeding the levy; provided, that for the purpose of paying bonds issued and outstanding at the time of the adoption of this amendment and the interest thereon, and for the purpose of paying bonds which may be issued after the adoption of this amendment and the interest thereon, an additional tax of one-half of one per centum may be levied and collected by said corporations; provided further, that a majority of the qualified electors of any of said municipal corporations voting at an election called for that purpose may vote a special tax not to exceed one-half of one per centum in any one year for any special purpose or purposes, which tax shall be used only for the purpose or purposes for which same is levied and collected, provided, however, that the total tax to be levied by any of said municipal corporations shall not exceed one and one-half (1½) per centum in any one year. Provided, further, that the adoption of this amendment shall in no wise affect, limit, modify, abridge or impair the power, authority or right of either of said municipal corporations, to levy and collect the special school taxes, now or hereafter vested in or conferred upon them, or any of them under the Constitution or any amendment thereto; including the power of said city of Selma to levy and collect the taxes for schools and school purposes vested in and conferred upon said city of Selma by the amendment to the Constitution of Alabama adopted thereto, at the general election held in November, 1916, and which was submitted under law number 315, General Laws 1915, page 337. Clanton, Ala., Oct. 30, 1919
The People of Chilton County, Friends:

In accordance with the requirements of the new law, I respectfully submit the following report, in behalf of the County Board of Education, of the condition and progress of the Public Schools of Chilton County for the year ending Sept. 30, 1919. For the wise counsel, hearty support and cordial co-operation which you have given the County Board and also the County Superintendent, and for the unfailing interest and zeal shown by you in promoting the welfare of our schools, we are profoundly grateful.

Most respectfully yours,
HOWARD L. FOSHEE,
County Supt. Education.

The educational year under review reveals much activity and some progress. Public education is a living, growing organism, and no one realizes more than the present Superintendent how the conditions and tendencies of to-day owe their origin to those who have gone before. At the very outset of my administration I desire to state that any seeming uplift that might come to educational affairs and interests during my term of office would be largely a continuation and development of the plans and policies of my predecessors.

The satisfactory conditions still remain, but in extenuation thereof, let it be said that educational progress in Chilton County is impeded much more by the need of funds than by a lagging public sentiment or a lack of effort on the part of those engaged in educational work.

Our entire school system is re-organized under the new Code and we hope that a decided improvement will be shown in our educational work as soon as the new laws can be properly enforced.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOLS.

One of the most significant features of the new school Code is the provision for Junior High Schools. Under this law we hope to establish in the most populous communities of the County Junior High Schoolos carrying pupils through the Ninth Grade.

The Junior High Schools can only be made a success through consolidation. Everyone knows that the one-teacher school with its over-crowded work is not the type of institution that can best do the work it already has, and to make any further requirement of it is only to aggravate the tragedy of the situation. In the abandonment of the little one-room school, except in sparsely settled and isolated districts, the wisely located cosolidated schools, and in the making of these schools the center of a new community life, lies probably the only satisfactory solution we shall ever find for our rural problems. To expect consolidation to be voluntarily effected is to expect the impossible but under the new law the County Board is given the necessary power to consolidate schools and transport pupils at public expense.

The smallest school that can make any adequate response to the demands of country life is the three-teacher school with a principal who is skilled in agriculture and manual arts, with one assistant versed in domestic science and art, and another who excels in literature, drawing and music, all of whom must be skilled in teaching. This school should have a room for each teacher, with a workshop, a kitchen, and an auditorium to accommodate all general community meetings. It should be situated on not less than five acres of land, preferably more, with ample provisions for play ground, shade trees, flowers, the school garden and demonstration plants. In order to enable the teacher to integrate himself into the life of the community the year round there should be a teacher's cottage for the use of the principal, and he in turn should board his assistants. These reforms would make the school truly educational and would place them and the communities they serve in the right relationship.

TAXATION

The several lines of improvement including better teachers, longer terms, better attendance, better buildings, better equipment, better organization, better administration, better supervision, all depend upon the willingness and authority of the tax payers to finance the same. The one-mill county tax has not been available during this year, as last year ended the six-year period for which it was voted. This was the cause of the school term being six months instead of seven as last year. The three-mill tax was voted for a period of three years but will be available only for the term of 1919-20, unless voted next spring. If we expect to maintain even as good schools as we have at present we must vote these county taxes again.

Without the county taxes the schools would necessarily have to go back under the old plan of supplementing the teachers salaries and this is very unsatisfactory as we all know. Even now some communities have to supplement as other wages are so high that teachers cannot be employed for what the county can pay. The Board has been criticised for this fact, but the people should remember that all wages have practically doubled in the past few years and the teachers have given up their profession to go into work which is more renumerative.

ENUMERATION, ENROLLMENT AND ATTENDANCE.

According to the biennial census of 1918 there are in Chilton County 6,228 white children of school age, and 1,407 colored children of school age, a total of 7,635 children.

The enrollment for the year 1918-19 was 2,531 white males, 2,510 white females or a total of 5,041 whites which is almost 81 per cent. of the total enumeration. There were 470 colored males and 512 colored females, a total of 982 colored children enrolled during the past year, or an enrolment of 70 per cent. of the number enumerated in attendance at the colored schools. This makes a total enrollment for both races of 6,023 pupils or a total enrollment of almost 79 per cent. of the total enumeration.

I feel that this enrollment is quite encouraging when we consider that the compulsory law was not enforced last year on account of the epidemic of influenza, and also the fact that some of the schools did not run at all on account of the scarcity of teachers. The above figures do not include those pupils doing high school work in rural communities, the County High School or the Thorsby Institute.

The attendance for the year was very low but the fact that the schools were closed several weeks accounts largely for the low average attendance. The boys averaged 68 days, the girls 74 days while the colored boys averaged 56 days and the colored girls 59 days. This does not include the attendance in High School.

TEACHERS.

The number of white male teachers employed was 45, white females 72, or a total of 117 white teachers; colored males 8, colored females 12, or a total of 20 colored teachers, making a total of 137 teachers employed in the county.

Of the white teachers 12 were Life Grade, 20 First Grade, 43 Second Grade and 42 Third Grade. Colored teachers, 2 Second Grade and 18 Third Grade.

SCHOOL TERM.

The school term was six months, but as stated before the schools were closed a part of the time on account of the flu and some did not secure teachers in time to run the full six months, so the average length of the white schools was 108 days. That of the colored schools 70 days.

SCHOOL LIBRARIES

The white schools report 41 libraries having a total of 2,147 volumes valued at $1,414. The colored schools report three libraries having a total of 118 volumes valued at $32. In addition to this there were 67 white teachers doing the prescribed reading of the Alabama Teachers Reading Circle.

SCHOOLHOUSES.

There are 73 white schoolhouses in the county and of these 30 are deeded to the State, 40 to the District in which located and three are of private ownership.

There are 18 colored schoolhouses 11 being deeded to the District and 7 of private ownesrship. The white schoolhouses are valued at $57,650 and the colored at $6,400, or a total value of $64,050. The desks and other furniture of the white schools are valued at $9,011 and the colored at $250, or a total of $9,261. In addition to this there is $455 worth of teaching equipment in the white schools and $103 worth in the colored schools.

The white schools have 1,248 double desks, 596 single desks and seatings, not including patent desks, of 3,461. The colored schools have 10 single desks and seatings for 300 pupils.

The County Superintendent made 112 visits to the white schools and 10 visits to the colored schools during the year.

TEACHERS' SALARIES.

The total salaries paid white male teachers $15,591.25, white female teachers $20,989.70; colored male teachers $1,298, colored female teachers, $1,559, or a total paid teachers of $39,436.95. The average yearly salary paid white male teachers was $339.50, white females $202.60, colored males $266.66, and colored females $155.90.

FINANCIAL REPORT.

The receipts were as follows: Balance from previous year $2,567.50, State Funds $22,599.60, Poll Tax $1,990.50, County Three Mill Tax $17,316.22, Dog Tax $487.50, Bonus $3,000, making a total of $47,961.32.

The expenditures for teachers' salaries, County Board and County Superintendent were $38,640.77. Leaving a balance of $9,320.55. This is a rather large balance but the cause is very evident as a large number of the schools failed to run six months last year and are entitled to that extra time this year which will require a considerable portion of this balance. Then the fact that a balance had accumulated was the ground the County Board had in granting an increase of $5 per month to the teachers this time.

CONCLUSIONS.

In conclusion I wish to ask your support and co-operation in making the schools during the coming year the best we have ever had. In changing from the old law to the new will require some time but we ask your help in changing our school system to conform to the new requirements. Also I am expecting you to carry both the three mill and county one-mill taxes at the polls next spring.

Respectfully submitted,
HOWARD L. FOSHEE,
County Supt. Education.

THE IMPULSE.

It seems to me I'd like to go
Where bells don't ring nor whistles blow;
Nor clocks don't strike, nor gongs don't sound—
And I'd have stillness all around.

Not real stillness, but the trees'
Low whisperings, or the hum of bees;
Or brook's faint babbling over stones
In strangely softly tangled tones.

Or maybe a cricket or katydid,
Or the songs of birds in hedges hid;
Or just some such sweet sound as these,
To fill a tired heart with ease.

If 'tweren't for sight and sound and smell,
I'd like the city pretty well;
But when it comes to getting rest,
I like the country lots the best.

Sometimes it seems to me I must
Just quit the city's din and dust;
And get out where the sky is blue.
And say, how does it seem to you?
—Eugene Field.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prine, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child...I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time...

I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. ——about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles...After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved...before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. E 74

VOLUME VIII. CLANTON, CHILTON COUNTY, ALA., NOV. 20, 1919. NUMBER 34

ISSUANCE OF LICENSE TO STATE TEACHERS

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 14. 1919.

VISITS POPWELL SCHOOL

Dear Editor:—

Please allow me space in your paper to mention a pleasure I had recently in visiting Popwell School, located about 10 miles west of Clanton.

First, it was a pleasure to me to visit this school, because I was born and reared within about one mile of it and therefore, I, as all other country boys did in the winter months, went to and from school here. But for the past eight years, I have been away and had no opportunity of visiting the school of my boyhood.

Some thought that on account of an epidemic of whooping cough and a few other things, the program would be a failure, but all seating and all standing space was filled. The students, under the efficient management of Miss Pearl Durbin, had very prettily decorated the building for the occasion. Several lunch boxes had been prepared by the students to be auctioned off.

Rev. W. S. Cox was the principal speaker of the evening, and after quite an interesting speech on "Armistice Day," the students, assisted by the audience, sung "America."

The boxes were then sold, which amounted to $25.15, which went as a contribution to the memorial fund.

The loyal patrons of that community are helping the school to raise enough money to furnish the school with desks. This is a splendid move, and they are co-operating well in the enterprise.

I believe the patrons of Popwell School, with their capable teacher, are striving to and will have their school equal to any school in the county.

MAPPING OUT PROGRAMME FOR ALABAMA

COLONEL R. M. MIXSON, OF WILLISTON, S. C., ENTHUSIASTIC WORKER IN INTEREST OF AMERICAN COTTON ASSOCIATION.

Colonel R. M. Mixson, of Williston, S. C., a prominent farmer and an enthusiastic worker in the interest of the American Cotton Association, is in Alabama now assisting in the organization of the Aabama Division.

Col. Mixson has been spending the last few days at the headquarters of the State organization in Montgomery, mapping out in Alabama a program for a state-wide movement to complete the organization. When seen at headquarters, Saturday, Colonel Mixson said:

"For sixty years, when the farmer wanted to buy anything from the dealer, he would not even ask the price, for he was buying on credit; therefore no matter what the price, he had to pay it. And after working all the year to produce cotton with which to pay his debt he would carry the cotton to market, and with his sample in one hand and hat in the other, in a very timid way, ask "What will you give me for it?" No matter what the price was, he had to take it, for the merchant to whom he was talking held a lein over his crop and a bill of sale over his stock. He was helpless—the merchant priced his goods, which was right, and fixed any kind of an old price on his debtor—cotton—with which to pay it, which was all wrong. This custom grew until the farmer forgot that he had any rights.

"Even today, cotton in the country towns is not sold by grade, but by "how cheap can I get it?" The buyer buys it at a grade below its true grade, making the difference as an extra profit. He flings any old line to the farmer, gives him any kind of dope, slaps him on the back and swears that he is the farmer's best friend. This has been a practice for years. Then, are you surprised at the consternation which is beginning to reign among the cotton buyers and spinners whey they find that the farmers are beginning to organize and intend fixing a price on their cotton, covering cost of production and a fair profit?

"Through the American Cotton Association they are enabled to say to the man who would take his cotton for less than it is worth: "No Sir, my price if fixed—my cotton is in a good warehouse; when you want it at my price you can have it, but not a pound until you do."

"No old antiquated arguments—no amount of bulldozing will work. You must change your line. Positions are changed; the farmer is on the hill, the buyer and spinner way down in the valley.

"You can't bring the farmer across with any old price; you must do the climbing now, for with the weapon of organization, with a warehouse certificate, giving weight, grade and staple, he stands guard and not a bale of his cotton will be moved out of the warehouse until he receives a fair price for it."

Business Men Of The South.

—Every business and professional man in Alabama, every banker, every merchant, is vitally interested in the success of the cotton producer.

—Do you remember back in 1892 to 1894? When cotton went down to 4 cents a pound?

—Certainly you will recall how difficult it was for you—banker, merchant, doctor, dentist, whatever you may be—to make both ends meet—how your living problem grew to proportions which made solution seem impossible.

—There were those among you who did not know how they could meet the grocery bill.

—So, your own future, your own success, your most vital interests are wrapped up in the well-being of the cotton producer.

—As he succeeds, so in large degree is your success measured.

—It is up to you—it is your duty—if for personal and selfish reasons alone, to join The American Cotton Association, and lend what assistance you can to that organization which proposes to emancipate the cotton producer, to emancipate you, to emancipate the the business South.

—The opportunity for that emancipation is at hand in The American Cotton Association.

PRESIDENT WILSON WILL PUT PEACE TREATY IN HIS POCKET

Senator Hitchcock, the guy that "totes tales" between President Wilson and the senate, went over the other day and related to his master how Lodge was butchering up the sacred document with his reservation resolutions. And he comes back to the Senate with the information that the action that is being taken in that body is very unsaisfactory to Mr. Wilson.

"I will put the peace treaty in my pocket, if it is made to contain the Lodge resolutions," he told Senator Hitchcock in a conference at the White House.

The president has read and considered the Lodge reservations, "Senator Hitchcock said, "and he considers them a nullification of the treaty and utterly impossible."

"Did the president tell you what course he would pursue in the event the Lodge reservations are accepted by the Senate?" Hitchcock was asked. "The president will pocket the treaty," was the reply.

We have always thought that the best thing that could be done with the treaty and league of nations would be to consign the whole thing to the waste basket and then put basket and all in the fire. But it will be just as well if the senate will rub it into Wilson so hard that he will then come to the Senate and get the thing and carry it with him into oblivion. For he is going into oblivion as fast as human flesh and blood ever went. And it is but fitting that his pet dream accompany him into that land from whose bourne no traveler returns.

We think the Senate is to be congratulated for the way they have held their own in opposition to the Wilson's schemes to sell this country into international bondage through the adoption of the League of Nations.

TO SAVE CHILDREN FROM THE PLAGUE

Red Cross Christmas Seals Will Help Provide Outdoor Schooling.

HOT ROOMS ARE DANGEROUS

Anti-Tuberculosis League Wants To Give The Kiddies a Chance.

Birmingham, Ala.—Every child who is threatened with consumption has a right to the privilege of attending an open-air school, says the Alabama Anti-Tuberculosis League, and to make this possible is one of the aims of the Red Cross Christmas Seal sale this season.

Infection in childhood is one of the common phenomena of the dread disease. To save the infected child and build up its resistance against the plague, it is necessary that the child be kept in the open air. Hot, stuffy, over-heated and poorly ventilated school rooms are one of the handicaps to be overcome in this important phase of the crusade against tuberculosis. When schooling is provided under expert hygienic guidance, the little patient responds rapidly to treatment.

An open-air school on Red Mountain, near Birmingham, where tubercular children of Jefferson County may be given this sort of treatment, is being planned. The children's department work of the county will be centralized in this open-air school, which will cost about $9,000. Actual construction is awaiting the completion of plans.

"Every county in Alabama ought to have similar advantages for its tubercular children," said Dr. George Eaves, general secretary of the Red Cross Christmas Seal campaign, "and this is one of the purposes to which money raised by the sale of seals and 'health bonds' will be devoted. Early or suspected cases of tuberculosis among children ought to be given treatment of this kind.

"All money will be spent in the county where it is given.

What Jefferson Does.

"In recognition of progressive thought along these lines, all new schools being erected in Jefferson County have 'open window' rooms, which are capable of being ventilated without ruinous drafts to endanger the health of the children. Windows in the new school houses will swing on pivots and may be adjusted to regulate the circulation of fresh air into the room.

"If parents could be prevailed upon to dress their children to stand the open air while at school, instead of the excessive heat of the old-time school rooms, a great forward step would be taken. However, the trend of the times is to recognize the importance of hygienic regulation in schools. It is only necessary that the campaign of education be vigorously pushed.

"This is just one of the many sides of the war on the White Plague. Saving helpless children is just a small part of the great work of mercy which the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals makes possible in Alabama.

"This year we will sell 'health bonds' as well as Seals. Those who desire to help the cause to that extent may purchase $5, $10, $25, and $100 bonds, which are the equivalent, respectively of 500, 1,000, 2,500, 5,000 and 10,000 penny seals.

TUBERCULAR SOLDIERS

Birmingham, Ala.—The rejected or returned soldier suffering from tuberculosis is one of the chief factors which renders the state health problem acute, says the Alabama Anti-Tuberculosis League, under whose auspices the Red Cross Christmas Seal campaign will be carried forward in December. This organization derives most of its revenue from the annual sale of Christmas Seals, and more than $200,000 will be necessary this year to meet the tuberculosis situation in the state. After the sale of Christmas Seals and "Health Bonds," representing the equivalent of penny seals in the sums of $5, $10, $25, and $50, there will be no further solicitation for this cause until Christmas, 1920.

Figures compiled from reports of experts show that for every 1,000 men called to the service in the United States during the war, 24 had tuberculosis.

Tabulation of draft figures showed that 69,000 men were rejected because of this disease when they underwent medical examinations. Over 23,000 were turned back to civilian life from the camps and cantonments. In actual service in the army, including those now in the hospitals, the number of tuberculosis cases amounted approximately to 15,000. There were about 500 deaths from tuberculosis, in our armed forces in France.

The service the Tuberculosis association renders to the discharged or rejected men suffering from tuberculosis is an important item in the national movement for better health.

"THOSE WHO ARE NOT FOR ME ARE AGAINST ME."

Once more President Wilson stands self-convicted. In his telegram to Governor Coolidge he said: "I congratulate you upon your election as a victory for law and order. When that is the issue all Americans stand together."

That was the issue all through the campaign, but Woodrow Wilson maintained his usual attitude of watchful waiting. From his lips there came no word—from his pen there came no line—to encourage those loyal Americans who were in the death grapple with lawlessness. When that was the issue, he was not standing with Governor Coolidge to any perceptible degree. It is appropriate to quote the words of one who said, "Those who are not for me are against me."

Law and order was truly the issue, but when that was the issue, Woodrow Wilson was signing a message vetoing a bill for the enforcement of a law already upon the statute books by virtue of an act of Congress bearing his signature. He was expressly on the side of lawlessness and disorder in the enforcement of the prohibition law, and silent as the tomb all through the campaign to defeat Governor Coolidge; but after the victory had been won, he came forth with his effulgent congratulations to those who had borne the battle and won the victory without either his active or inferential assistance.

A few months ago Woodrow Wilson announced that "politics is adjourned" because, during the war, all Americans must stand together. Within a few weeks thereafter he issued his notorious proclamation asking for the election of a Democratic Congress notwithstanding the fact that Republicans had given more earnest support to war measures than had the Democrats. That demonstration of unparalleled partisanship justified the belief, in the absence of an expression made by him that in the Massachusetts contest he favored the election of the Democratic candidate. His silence left room for no other inference for his latest political utterance had been one of party appeal.

The logical conclusions from his congratulatory telegram are manifest. First, if it be true, as he says, that law and order was the issue, and, when that is the issue, all Americans stand together, then the 193,000 Democrats who voted for Long are not good Americans. Second, if Americans stand together when such a vital issue is presented, he himself was lacking in true Americanism when he failed to take his stand openly and actively in support of Coolidge.

His illness can be no excuse, for a man able to write messages to labor conferences, to the striking miners, and to a congress that had passed a bill that met his disapproval, was certainly well enough to indicate, by a dozen words, at least, his earnest desire that all Democrats denomstrate their Americanism by arraying themselves with the exponents of law and order. We repeat, President Wilson once more stands self-convicted.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs meets this year in Huntsville, November 18 to 24. Miss Gillis, our music teacher, left Tuesday afternoon to appear in concert program Thursday evening. We are certainly fortunate to have a music teacher who is so widely known and so thoroughly competent.

ONE VICTORY WON—ANOTHER IN SIGHT.

It is well that the fight on the peace treaty and the league of nations comes to an end as the struggle for independence from the domination from a small minority of our citizens begins. By concentrating their strength against the un-American league the patriots of the country have saved the United States from the dangers of foreign alliances and the control of a foreign council. By gathering their forces again they will be able to resist successfully the concerted attack by the foes of law and order that seek to destroy our government from within.

NO GROUND FOR COMPLAINT

The American Federation of Labor contends that the Lever Act should not be applied to labor organizatioons because when that law was in process of enactment somebody said that it was not intended so to apply it. The Federation would do well to bear in mind that we have duly appointed judges whose business it is to construe the laws passed by Congress. They cannot permit their decisions to be influenced by what somebody says was the intent of the framers of the statute. The law there for the court to administer as it is written, and there is no just ground for the complaint of Mr. Gompers and his lieutenants.

NO SWEAT, NO SWEET

According to the Federal Food Board Administration for New York City, the end of the New York dock strike releases 50,000 tons of sugar to the refiners, which can be put thru the refining pricess in 24 hours, and thus break the sugar famine. However, people will remember who was responsible for the famine already suffered. It was a case of no sweat, no sweet.

APPLY THE LAW

The Lever act provides penalties of two years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine for violations precisely like those of which Mr. Lewis and the other mine workers of America are guilty. The application of such punishments to those gentlemen would have a beneficial effect upon the labor situation in general.

The Democrats won in the election of a Governor of New Jerey, but they are all ashamed of it. The fellow that they elected says he is goingto make New Jersey flow with beer and whiskey like the Lord told the Israelites the land of Canaan was flowing with milk and honey. The Democrats are even now saying that the victory was not a victory of the Democratic party, but of the brewery and distillery interests. They should have added that the Catholics had a part in the mess too. To see the Democratic donkey deny her own children is not surprising after the many other curious stunts they have pulled off in the recent months.

The Montgomery Journal inquires what is the matter with the Democrats that they are losing out in the elections thtis fall. We rise to inforom Journal that there is nothing more the matter with the Democrats now than ever before. But the people have learned that they cannot be trusted in the administration of affairs of state and nation. Therefore they are voting to turn the Dems out and put in safe and sane government built on the reliable principles of the Republican party. That is the difference, buddy.

In the last regular election in the Oklahoma City Congressional District Mr. J. B. Thompson, Democrat, was elected by 5,000 majarity over his Republican opponent. Mr. Thompson died, and the other day in the special election of a man to fill his unexpired term, Mr. J. W. Herald, a Republican, defeated his Democratic opponent by 1,200 majority. This may cause some of the Democratic spell-binders to stop again and inquire what is the matter with the Democratic party.

WHAT NEGROES ARE DOING IN CLANTON

(By Robert Colley, Principal Clanton Colored School.)

My object in asking for a space in this paper to write up the news of the colored people of Clanton, is to stimulate more interest a mong our colored population in The Union-Banner. It is a fact that a man takes more interest in a thing in which he is represented. It is for this principle why a few large corporataions of this country sell stocks to their employees. The result is that the men take more interest in the concern and work in every respect to promote the interest of such companies.

I notice that most of our reading colored people subscribe to papers away from here. I do not want to convey the idea that we should not subscribe to other papers than our local one, for as reading people, it takes much news to do us; but I do contend that the paper of our town home town ought to be well patronized by the residents. It is a fact that we live here, our busines interest is here and our best white friends are here, and to them we generally look for help in times of need. This is an age of co-operation. Many times, for example, a merchant in Clanton advertises goods as cheap as another in Birmingham or Montgomery, but by not taking the local paper the purchaser goes to the above named places and trade. The result is that the purchaser, after paying his railroad fare, buys the goods for nearly twice the proce advertised.

We have a fine colored population in this place, who take an active interest in educational and religious work and desire the help and co-operation of the white people, but have no medium to bring their work before them. We also have some colored business men as A. L. Sewell of the Boston Shoe Co., Gus Wright, Josh McDaniel and Deacon Brown and Callie Cooper, who would like for the colored people of Lomax and other surrounding towns to read this paper and know where to find them when they come to Clanton.

I guarantee the management of this paper that if the important news among the colored people is published weekly, the subscription among them will be doubled in a few weeks.

On last Sunday the writer attended the second Anniversary Service at Friendship Church, under the pastorate of Rev. L. S. Steinback. Dr. W. T. Bibb preached a strong and able sermon. Excellent papers were read on the growth of the church and the duty of the members to the pastor, by Prof. K. N. Draper, and Miss Mattie Lee Dickinson respectively.

The trustees of the colored school have purchased the hall at the rear of the Court House for the purpose of erecting a first class colored city school building

Dr. Lewis E. Sorrell has located at Jemison for the practice of medicine. He is the son of Mr. J. W. Sorrell and has recently been discharged from the medical corps of the army, at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma. The young doctor has many friends in Chilton County, and we predict for him a splendid success in his practice of medicine. He possesses all the qualities a man needs to make good as a doctor.

We notice there was a great applause on the Republican side of the House of Representatives when Mr. King read into the record a portion of Tom Watson's speech on the League of Nations, entitled "A word of Warning from the Democratic South." Do you wonder why there was not applause also on the Democratic side? If you do, we invite you to read the portion of Tom's speech which is printed in this week's issue of the Union-Banner. Then we think you can see why the Democrats did not cheer when Mr. King read it.

The Harbor of Life.

Some dream of a land that is fairer than this,
And picture a realm in the sky;
But the beauty surrounding them down here they miss,

As they search for splendors on high.
Leave death for the dead; there are songs to be sung;
There are joys to be born out of strife.
The world is the place where all hearts should be young;
The earth is the harbor of life.

There are goals to be reached, there are deeds to be done;
There are joys for our children to know,
There are battles with evil and hate to be won
That the world with contentment may be glow.

And the mission of man from the time of his birth
To the day that his spirit shall soar,
Is to make for the living a happier earth
Than ever it has been before.

We can change not the realm that is promised for all,
Nor comfort the souls of the dead;
But here we can lighten the burdens that fall
And level the bathways we tread.
We can make of this earth a more beautiful place,
To life many charms we can give;
We can fill it with laughter and music and grace,—
We can make it a pleasure to live.

Let us toil while we may for the splendor of earth;
Let's brighten the days with our song.
Let us fill the dark corner with sunshine and mirth
And banish oppression and wrong;

Let us dream not so much of the heaven afar
That the beauty about us we miss;
Our duty lies here, where at present we are,—
Let us make a good world out of this.

—Edgar A. Guest.

Because baking powder plays such a vital part in the preparation of food in your home. If it isn't good it can ruin a great amount of good material. Therefore the baking powder we recommend must be good —soo good that we won't have the slightest chance of displeasing a customer.

"THOSE WHO ARE NOT FOR ME ARE AGAINST ME."

Once more President Wilson stands self-convicted. In his telegram to Governor Coolidge he said: "I congratulate you upon your election as a victory for law and order. When that is the issue all Americans stand together."

That was the issue all through the campaign, but Woodrow Wilson maintained his usual attitude of watchful waiting. From his lips there came no word from his pen there came no line to encourage those loyal Americans who were in the death grapple with lawlessness. When that was the issue, he was not standing with Governor Coolidge to any perceptible degree. It is appropriate to quote the words of one who said, "Those who are not for me are against me."

Law and order was truly the issue, but when that was the issue, Woodrow Wilson was signing a message vetoing a bill for the enforcement of a law already upon the statute books by virtue of an act of Congress bearing his signature. He was expressly on the side of lawlessness and disorder in the enforcement of the prohibition law, and silent as the tomb all through the campaign to defeat Governor Coolidge; but after the victory had been won, he came forth with his effulgent congratulations to those who had borne the battle and won the victory without either his active or inferential assistance.

A few months ago Woodrow Wilson announced that "politics is adjourned" because, during the war, all Americans must stand together. Within a few weeks thereafter he issued his notorious proclamation asking for the election of a Democratic Congress notwithstanding the fact that Republicans had given more earnest support to war measures than had the Democrats. That demonstration of unparalleled partisanship justified the belief, in the absence of an expression made by him that in the Massachusetts contest he favored the election of the Democratic candidate. His silence left room for no other inference for his latest political utterance had been one of party appeal.

The logical conclusions from his congratulatory telegram are manifest. First, if it be true, as he says, that law and order was the issue, and, when that is the issue, all Americans stand together, then the 193,000 Democrats who voted for Long are not good Americans. Second, if Americans stand together when such a vital issue is presented, he himself was lacking in true Americanism when he failed to take his stand openly and actively in support of Coolidge.

His illness can be no excuse, for a man able to write messages to labor conferences, to the striking miners, and to a congress that had passed a bill that met his disapproval, was certainly well enough to indicate, by a dozen words, at least, his earnest desire that all Democrats denomstrate their Americanism by arraying themselves with the exponents of law and order. We repeat, President Wilson once more stands self-convicted.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs meets this year in Huntsville, November 18 to 24. Miss Gillis, our music teacher, left Tuesday afternoon to appear in concert program Thursday evening. We are certainly fortunate to have a music teacher who is so widely known and so thoroughly competent.

ONE VICTORY WON—ANOTHER IN SIGHT.

It is well that the fight on the peace treaty and the league of nations comes to an end as the struggle for independence from the domination from a small minority of our citizens begins. By concentrating their strength against the un-American league the patriots of the country have saved the United States from the dangers of foreign alliances and the control of a foreign council. By gathering their forces again they will be able to resist successfully the concerted attack by the foes of law and order that seek to destroy our government from within.

NO GROUND FOR COMPLAINT

The American Federation of Labor contends that the Lever Act should not be applied to labor organizations because when that law was in process of enactment somebody said that it was not intended so to apply it. The Federation would do well to bear in mind that we have duly appointed judges whose business it is to construe the laws passed by Congress. They cannot permit their decisions to be influenced by what somebody says was the intent of the framers of the statute. The law there for the court to administer as it is written, and there is no just ground for the complaint of Mr. Gompers and his lieutenants.

NO SWEAT, NO SWEET

According to the Federal Food Board Administration for New York City, the end of the New York dock strike releases 50,000 tons of sugar to the refiners, which can be put thru the refining prices in 24 hours, and thus break the sugar famine. However, people will remember who was responsible for the famine already suffered. It was a case of no sweat, no sweet.

APPLY THE LAW

The Lever act provides penalties of two years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine for violations precisely like those of which Mr. Lewis and the other mine workers of America are guilty. The application of such punishments to those gentlemen would have a beneficial effect upon the labor situation in general.

The Democrats won in the election of a Governor of New Jerey, but they are all ashamed of it. The fellow that they elected says he is goingto make New Jersey flow with beer and whiskey like the Lord told the Israelites the land of Canaan was flowing with milk and honey. The Democrats are even now saying that the victory was not a victory of the Democratic party, but of the brewery and distillery interests. They should have added that the Catholics had a part in the mess too. To see the Democratic donkey deny her own children is not surprising after the many other curious stunts they have pulled off in the recent months.

The Montgomery Journal inquires what is the matter with the Democrats that they are losing out in the elections thtis fall. We rise to inforom Journal that there is nothing more the matter with the Democrats now than ever before. But the people have learned that they cannot be trusted in the administration of affairs of state and nation. Therefore they are voting to turn the Dems out and put in safe and sane government built on the reliable principles of the Republican party. That is the difference, buddy.

In the last regular election in the Oklahoma City Congressional District Mr. J. B. Thompson, Democrat, was elected by 5,000 majarity over his Republican opponent. Mr. Thompson died, and the other day in the special election of a man to fill his unexpired term, Mr. J. W. Herald, a Republican, defeated his Democratic opponent by 1,200 majority. This may cause some of the Democratic spell-binders to stop again and inquire what is the matter with the Democratic party.

WHAT NEGROES ARE DOING IN CLANTON

(By Robert Colley, Principal Clanton Colored School.)

My object in asking for a space in this paper to write up the news of the colored people of Clanton, is to stimulate more interest a mong our colored population in The Union-Banner. It is a fact that a man takes more interest in a thing in which he is represented. It is for this principle why a few large corporataions of this country sell stocks to their employees. The result is that the men take more interest in the concern and work in every respect to promote the interest of such companies.

I notice that most of our reading colored people subscribe to papers away from here. I do not want to convey the idea that we should not subscribe to other papers than our local one, for as reading people, it takes much news to do us; but I do contend that the paper of our own home town ought to be well patronized by the residents. It is a fact that we live here, our busines interest is here and our best white friends are here, and to them we generally look for help in times of need. This is an age of co-operation. Many times, for example, a merchant in Clanton advertises goods as cheap as another in Birmingham or Montgomery, but by not taking the local paper the purchaser goes to the above named places and trade. The result is that the purchaser, after paying his railroad fare, buys the goods for nearly twice the price advertised.

We have a fine colored population in this place, who take an active interest in educational and religious work and desire the help and co-operation of the white people, but have no medium to bring their work before them. We also have some colored business men as A. L. Sewell of the Bostoy Shoe Co., Gus Wright, Josh McDaniel and Deacon Brown and Callie Cooper, who would like for the colored people of Lomax and other surrounding towns to read this paper and know where to find them when they come to Clanton.

I guarantee the management of this paper that if the important news among the colored people is published weekly, the subscription among them will be doubled in a few weeks.

On last Sunday the writer attended the second Anniversary Service at Friendship Church, under the pastorate of Rev. L. S. Steinback. Dr. W. T. Bibb preached a strong and able sermon. Excellent papers were read on the growth of the church and the duty of the members to the pastor, by Prof. K. N. Draper, and Miss Mattie Lee Dickinson respectively.

The trustees of the colored school have purchased the hall at the rear of the Court House for the purpose of erecting a first class colored city school building.

When buying land, you need an abstract that you may know if there are unpaid mortgages, judgments or other liens affecting the title of the land.

When selling land, the buyer will require an abstract.

The Clanton Abstract Company is owned by F. B. Collier, and is not connected with the Chilton County Abstract Company nor with Mr. M. D. Foshee.

The Harbor of Life.

Some dream of a land that is fairer than this,
And picture a realm in the sky;
But the beauty surrounding them down here they miss,

As they search for splendors on high.
Leave death for the dead; there are songs to be sung;
There are joys to be born out of strife.
The world is the place where all hearts should be young;
The earth is the harbor of life.

There are goals to be reached, there are deeds to be done;
There are joys for our children to know,
There are battles with evil and hate to be won
That the world with contentment may be glow.

And the mission of man from the time of his birth
To the day that his spirit shall soar,
Is to make for the living a happier earth
Than ever it has been before.

We can change not the realm that is promised for all,
Nor comfort the souls of the dead;
But here we can lighten the burdens that fall
And level the bathways we tread.
We can make of this earth a more beautiful place,
To life many charms we can give;
We can fill it with laughter and music and grace,—
We can make it a pleasure to live.

Let us toil while we may for the splendor of earth;
Let's brighten the days with our song.
Let us fill the dark corner with sunshine and mirth
And banish oppression and wrong;

Let us dream not so much of the heaven afar
That the beauty about us we miss;
Our duty lies here, where at present we are,—
Let us make a good world out of this.

—Edgar A. Guest.

YOUR CATARRH MAY LEAD TO CONSUMPTION

Dangerous to Use Treatment for Only Temporary Relief.

There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and other distasteful features.

The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path. Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, atomizers, jellies and other local applications.

S. S. S. has proven a most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh because it goes direct to its source. Get a bottle today, begin the only logical treatment that gives real results. For free medical advice write Medical Director, 47 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Head and shoulders above the crowd stands Thomas A. Edison!

"Head and shoulders" above the crowd of ordinary phonographs and "talking machines" stands Edison's great contribution to the world's enjoyment—

THE NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

No product can be bigger than the brain that evolves it. No other brain in the world today has the inventive ability of Edison's. That fact alone is sufficient proof of the absolute superiority of the Amberola.

But the Amberola can quickly and easily prove its own superiority. Its tone—oh, what a revelation, compared to metallic "talking machines" and shrill-sounding phonographs! None but Edison could work that miracle of tone.

Then the Amberol Records, made for the Amberola alone! They are practically unbreakable and everlasting—what a contrast to the costly fragileness of other phonograph records.

And for range of music—the widest in the world—all the best, all the greatest, all the latest. An endless feast of fascinating melody.

Yet the biggest surprise of all is the price! This wonder phonograph costs less than inferior competitors! There is not a single draw-back to your owning an Amberola right now!

Don't listen to the claims of other manufacturers—listen to their machines. Then come in and compare the matchless tone of the Amberola. Edison's wizardry will win you every time.

We'll expect you in today—now don't forget.

FREE Trial Offer

We will place an Amberola in your home for 3 Days' Trial, which will not put you under the slightest obligation or expense. Come here, select an Amberola and a number of records and we'll send them to your home. At the end of 3 days, if you do not want the Amberola, we'll call and take it away. If you do want it, we'll arrange terms of payment to suit you.

The autocratic action of our government in these proceedings is of such a nature that it staggers the human mind, reads the proclamation of the American Federation of Labor indorsing the coal strike. COULD TALK FOR HOURS ABOUT IT

Declares Change is Marvelous Since Taking Dreco, the Great Root and Herb Remedy. Relieved Stomach and Liver Troubles, Also Constipation.

"Honestly, I thought I had the worst liver and stomach in the State," says Mrs. Fannie E. Norris of Route 5, Montgomery, Ala.

"It seemed like there was a big lump in my throat; my bowels were constipated, so I had to take something every night. I often had sick headache, and my liver was lazy. Pains in the small of my back and in my limbs caused me much suffering, and it seemed I could not sleep.

"I have been taking Dreco now for some time, and it sure has brought a change in my condition. My food digests as well as it ever did in my life, without any gas at all. I never have a headache nor pain in my back, and I lie down at night and go right off into a restful sleep. Dreco has done me a lot of good, and I could talk for hours about the good it did me, and then not tell half."

Many people are daily testing the merits of Dreco in cases of gastritis, pains in back and limbs, catarrh, headaches, rheumatism, constipation and general debility. It increases the appetite, soothes tired nerves, arouses sluggish liver and kidneys, and drives the impurities from the blood. Being made of juices of roots, herbs, barks and berries, it does not contain any mercury, potash, or other harmful minerals.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by

A WORD OF WARNING FROM THE DEM SOUTH

Extract From Speech of Tom Watson on the League of Nations.

(Printed in the Congressional Record September 22, 1919.)

In the league the great charter is engulfed, the sovereignty of the people disappears, and a universal monarchy is at last established.

The council of the league will absorb within itself judicial power, legislative power, and executive power.

It will be a supreme court of the world, a supreme legislature of the world, a supreme executive of the world.

It will evolve its own army, its own treasury, its own system of finance, its own civil service.

It will have in its hands both the purse and the sword, and nowhere on earth will there be a power to veto its measures or resist its usurpations.

It will be another Venetian council of ten, meeting in secret and despotically ruling not one small State but every State.

It pretends to assimilate the yellow race, the brown race, the black race, and the white race.

It pretends to harmonize democracy with imperialism, the kings with the republics.

It pretends to reconcile the Buddhist with the Confucianist, the Mohammedan with the Christian.

It pretends to make a seamless garment out of 33 variegated pieces.

It pretends to expect international melody out of 33 discordant national notes.

If its real purpose is to put an end to just such disorder as the American colonists created, and the French created, and the South Americans created when they broke the yoke of tyrannical kings, then the league will be a uccess.

If the real purpose is to create an international guaranty and collection agency for the great bankers and the bondholders of indebted nations, then the league will be a success.

If the real purpose is to permanently fasten the yoke of the conquerors upon Egypt, Asia Minor, Africa, India, Oceanica, and the greater part of China, then the league will be a success.

The president of the United States had no authority to make a new government for this country—but so far as his signature and official conduct could commit you to it he has done so.

Sworn to defend, protect, and preserve your supreme law, he has usurped the authority to make a new law which your supreme law must obey, which your government must obey, and which the people must obey.

He, your agent, sells you into foreign bondage.

He, the representative of your government, signs away your government into subordination to foreign governments.

The president admits that we will lose our independence in the league. Therefore, he himelf admits that he went to France and surrendered the very thing that our soldier boys fought and died to maintain.The martyrs of the Revolutionary War died in vain; the 50,000 martyrs of the Great War of 1914 died in vain. One man has betrayed everything that the martyrs won!

The president says he will appeal to the country against the Senators who are battling to save our constitutional liberties and our national independence. An appeal to the nation is just what the country wants.

The country wants just such an appeal to it as Washington and Madison made in 1778, when they asked authority to amend the articles of the old confederation.

The country wants such an appeal as was made when the present constitution was referred to the States for discussion and ratification.

The country wants an appeal to it similar to those made when each of the amendments were adopted by the votes of the people.

Give the people a chance to vote on this league!

The question can't be settled by speeches; it must go to the polls!

The president says he will appeal to the country by making 50 speeches.

Dadburn his 50 speeches!

The whole world is sick and tired of his everlasting speeches.

What the people want is a fair chance to make some speeches themselves.

They've been bulldozed and gagged so long that they have an accumulated surplus of speeches to dispose of.

Plague on the eternal flow of presidential rhetoric!

We want to vote!

Why is President Wilson afraid To refer this change of government to the people whose vital interests are involved?

Let him divide the questions, because they are two different propositions.

Let him separate the league from the treaty!

The two have no business together.

It was an artifice, and a very dishonest one, to so entangle the peace treaty with the league that they can hardly be separated except by the men who entangled them.

Let the treaty stand on its merits in the Senate, and let the league go before the people as a separate proposition.

What objection can be urged?

They may say a popular vote would delay the treaty; but one answer to this is that our government went very swiftly into the war, on a congressional resolution; and if it wants to it can quickly come out in the same way.

Besides, American independence, which cost a war of seven years, ought not to be surrendered as hurriedly as though it were never worth the Revolutionary struggle.

It is high time the voters of this Republic were allowed to take hand in their governmental affairs.

We have never had an administration whose methods were so full of secrecy, duplicity, favoritism for the lords of special privilege.

No other administration ever showed such a fixed purpose to shut out the people from knowledge of what was going on behind the scenes, and to shut them off from any real influence over the policies of the government.

The people are not told that they shall have no chance to vote on the league, no right to self-determination and no opportunity to effectively antagonize the men who propose to tranfer our independence to a supreme council seated in Europe.

Already Wilson has bound us to keep an army on the Rhine for 15 years. Already he has sent America to the Danube. Already he has sent an army into Silesia and another into Siberia.

Already President Wilson is spreading the American army over Europe and into Asia.

In the name of the Creator that made us, when and where is this Wilsonian madness to stop?

Never before in the history of the human race has any one man arrogated to himself the right to revolutionize the government of a people, unless he came as a foreign conqueror with a sword in his hand.

It is an amazing thing, a monstrous thing, an almost incredible thing, that a president of the United States appoint himself a minister to a European conference, should leave the country and be gone seven months, should secretly spend a hundred million dollars of the people's money while secretly juggling with foreign politicians, and should then come home bringing what he calls a peace treaty, but which is in reality another government to be imposed upon his people.

It is the most astounding betrayal of trust history records.

Suppose President Wilson should tell you that during his private conference with the kings and the capitalists of Europe he became convinced that the American colonists made a huge mistake when they fought to free themselves from European control.

Suppose he should tell you that his Tory kinsfolk in England were right in opposing our Whig kinsfolk in America!

Suppose he should say that we must undo what our Revolutionary forefathers did, surrender to foreign control the government they established and renounce the principles for which they sacrificed their lives!

Suppose he should declare that the most drastic and conclusive evidence of our sudden change of heart on this subject would be to make a public bonfire of the Declaration of Independence!

Suppose that he should declare that the most emphatic proof we can offer Europe of the fact that we have repudiated the time-honored policy of our government would be to let the British ambassador publicly burn Geo. Washington's Farewell Address at the foot of the Washington Monument!

Should he say such things as these he would create a tempest in indignation throughout this Union, and his impeachment would be demanded.

But his deeds since his second election can not be translated into any other words.

What he has done is immensely more than equivalent to the destruction of the documents which contain the Declaration and of the Farewell Address.

He has signed away independence itself; he has signed away the Americanism of the Farewell Address; he has surrendered what our forefathers gained under the shadow of a European crown.

We, the people, are the sovereigns. We, the people, wear the crown.

That crown shall pass down to every generation untarnished and as bright and radiant with every gem of Anglo-Saxon liberty.

We can read our title clear to the light of the Revolutionary fires we can feed our fires.

Usurpers have moved our landmarks, seized upon field after field that our ancestors; but by the God that gave us liberty we will drive out the traitors and regain full possession of our God-bought inheritance.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Joe Ben Downs, Reporter.

Miss Gillis returned last Friday from Huntsville where she appeared on the concert program of the Federation of Womens Clubs.

We are glad to announce to the public that Mr. Holmes is practically well and has returned to teach his classes.

The Julia Tutwiler Literary Society rendered a very nice program at the chapel hour last Tuesday.

We are proud to say the school has at least one great man—Mr. Leon Evans. He has invented a new rule in Geometry.

Freshman Class News.

Miss Preston: Reedie, what is the difference between "this," "these," "that" and "those?"

Reedie: You use "this" and "these" when you-ve got it and "that" and "those" when you ain't got it.

Miss Preston: Ely Daniel, give me the imperative mood for the verb "love."

Ely: I love you.

Prof. Thompson: Since you Freshmen have been so good during the afternoon I will tell you a story about the wood-chopper.

Raymond: Tell us about something else; I am tired of hearing about the Kaiser.

When the soldiers went to get subscriptions to the memorial fund Cecil Armstrong asked a stranger if he would contribute something and the man pledged $5.00. Cecil said, "God bless you and may your business prosper."

Don't anyone tell Cecil that this man was an undertaker.

We were glad to have Mr. Holmes back with us Monday, but Tuesday we learned that he was sick again and could not teach. We hope that he will soon be in condition to teach again.

Lanierian Society News.

Last Tuesday morning the Society gave some interesting selections, among them were a reading by Edeth Robinson, also a good talk on "Education and the Necessity of it," by Ely Daniels.

Leon Evans gave a talk on why he thought the peace treaty would be ratified.

Miss Dora Edwards made a very fine talk on "The adventures of a hairpin in France and the C.C.H.S."

Several musical selections were rendered.

Junior Class News.

On Monday morning some very interesting debates were given to prove that Macbeth was more wicked than Lady Macbeth. Both sides had some very good points, but Miss Preston has refused to give her judgment until all of the papers were graded.

Before long, we are going to try to give some plays for the school and the public.

We can't tell you whether the Juniors will enjoy staying out 2 days this week or not. "There's a Reason"

Last Friday the Junior Class, at the third period in the morning, was quiet for the first time since the beginning of school, due to the signing of the armistice between the members of the class and Prof. Thompson.

DR. MAYE CLOSES YEAR AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Next Sunday, Nov. 30, will be the closing of this conference year with the Methodist people of Alabama. Rev. E. C. Maye of the Clanton Charge will preach at the church here at eleven a.m., and 7, p.m. A very cordial invitation is extended to all the people of every denomination, and their friends to come to these services and worship together.

This will be the proper time for the people of Clanton to show their love and appreciation for this valuable man and servant of God, who has so gloriously served our town and community for two years past.

Dr. Maye leaves for the Alabama Conference on December 1st, and The Banner believes that it can truthfully say that it is the unanimous prayer of the Clanton people that Dr. Maye be returned to this city in 1920. Now let our citizens and particularly the members of his church get busy and get him back here at any cost. We need such men among us, and we cannot afford to let one get away when we already have him and know what he is as we know Dr. Maye. We might get another just as good, but we do not want to make a change and risk the chance.

Clanton people owe it to the spiritual welfare of the town and community to see that Dr. Maye comes back to us. Let us get busy now. Go to the Methodist Church next Sunday and show him that you appreciate him and assure him that you are going to do all you can to get the Conference to send him back to our city.

"GRANNY" WILSON DEAD

Dr. E. C. Maye went to Mt. Nebo Monday to conduct the funeral of "Granny" Wilson, who died Sunday at the ripe age of 82. The good old lady was one of the pioneer citizens of Chilton County. She had been a member of Mt. Nebo Church over half a century. Her family connections reach out in various directions touching several of the most prominent people of the western part of the county.

Mr. J. D. Collins states to us that the hog sale here Tuesday was a success in spite of the very unfavorable weather. A car load of hogs were sold at a good price. All who were participants in the sale were well pleased. The hog growers association for Chilton County was organized, and other sales will be held here in the near future.

MT. PLEASANT

Now is quite a busy time for farmers. Everywhere you turn you see work going on—some gathering crops and some making syrup and other preparing to sow their grain crop.

School is moving along fine with Miss Lessie Reynolds as principal and Miss Irene Jones assistant. The box supper Friday night was a splendid success, bringing in all $37.10. The cake alone brought $22.50, and right here we must stop to thank Mrs. T. A. Curry, who baked the cake free of charge. When looking for the loyal and patriotic you will always find her in the front ranks. We also wish to thank W. A. Reynolds, who spent more than any other individual on the cake and boxes.

Jack Dozier and family of Elmore have just returned from a visit to W. A. Dozier's.

Mrs. Eula Belle Culver is visiting friends in Birmingham.

Quite a number from here attended the singing at Clanton Sunday.

Curtis Kelley of Birmingham is here visiting his mother who is real sick.

Mrs. Julia Oden is visiting Mrs. Jane Milford near Liberty Hill.

John Askins and wife recently visited at G. H. Massey's.

Milton Cotton and family spent Sunday with Willie Nix.

There is quite a good deal of moving in and out—more than usual.

We are expecting a report from the Editor's fishing trip.

The Ledger's write up of Clanton by Al and Pim, which was reproduced by the Union-Banner, was quite a treat to its readers.

A NATIONAL BANK

Government Supervision Means Much.

Year by year the government's supervision of National Banks is becoming more rigid and the qualifications of the examiners is reaching a higher efficiency.

The Comptroller of the Currency, Mr. Williams, is knocking at the door of Congress and asking still greater powers in the administration of his trusts. He is determined to safeguard the people's money deposited in National Banks. The word NATIONAL shall be and is a synonym of safety.

Many banks are saved every year by the timely warning and halt called in mismanagement by the National Bank Examiner.

Having fully decided on a National Bank as a depository, select the one that offers ample facilities and good service. You are respectfully invited to call and see us.

Ybur attention is directed to Section 44, Revenue Act 1919, as follows:

"It is the duty of every person in every election precinct to attend in person before the assessor on the first day of the appointment in the precinct of the taxpayer's residence, and then and there render to the assessor under oath a full and complete list of all property of which he was the owner, or in which he had any interest whatever, or of which he was trustee or agent on the first day of October of that year, and to enter upon such paper the amount of fire insurance carried upon any of the property listed. The land and improvements thereon must be separately listed. On failure of the taxpayer for thirty days after demand or notice by the tax assessor, to furnish a sufficient description of his real estate, said tax assessor shall secure uch description by a survey of property by the county surveyor or otherwise and the reasonable expenses incident thereto shall be added as costs to the taxes assessed against such taxpayer."

Accurate descriptions will be insisted upon by this Commission. All descriptions returned that do not clearly and completely describe the property must be rejected and a survey made of the property, all in accordance with Section 44, as above set out.

KILBY GOING TO 'T. B.' CONFERENCE

ALABAMA GOVERNOR TO JOIN OTHER SOUTHERN EXECUTIVES IN PARLEY ON PLAGUE SUBJECT.

IS A SIGNIFICANT STEP

Official Action Taken For First Time In History of Fight on Tuberculosis.

Montgomery, Ala.—One of the most important health conferences in the history of the United States will take place in Chattanooga, Tenn., on November 29th, when eight Governors of as many southern states will meet with tuberculosis experts from the National Tuberculosis Association in an effort to cut the tuberculosis death rate in the south and to endorse the Red Cross Christmas Seal sale. This is the first time in the history of the organized fight on tuberculosis that such official action, which promises such far reaching results, has been taken.

The conference was called by Governor A. H. Roberts, of Tennessee, who urged upon the Chief Executives of the neighboring states the extreme necessity of concerted action if the alarming prevalence of tuberculosis all over the country is to be checked to any appreciable extent.

Attending the conference will be Gov. C. H. Brough, of Arkansas; Gov. T. E. Kilby, of Alabama; Gov. Hugh Dorsey, of Georgia; Gov. R. G. Pleasant, of Louisiana; Gov. R. M. Cooper, of South Carolina; Gov. A. H. Roberts, of Tennessee; Gov. James D. Black, of Kentucky, and Gov. T. J. Bilbo, of Mississippi.

The stage is now being set for the widest possible discussion of every phase of the tuberculosis problem and the most approved methods of dealing with the situation. All available data, based upon the findings of the country's geratest experts, will be placed before the Governors for their consideration.

The Governors will also endorse the Red Cross Christmas Seal sale which will extend from December 1st to December 10th, and in which it is planned to raise $200,000 in Alabame. They will consider plans to assure the success of the seal sale in their respective states. The sale is sponsored by the National Tuberculosis Association and its one thousand allied organizations which are located in every state in the Union. More than 650,000,000 seals must be sold if the 1920 educational and preventive program of the allied organizations is to be successfully carried out. The activities of these organizations during the year to come must be increased a hundred fold if the appalling annual death toll of 150,000 lives is to be materially reduced. Authoritative figures place the number of active cases of tuberculosis in the United States to be about 1,000,000.

It is the purpose of the conference to obtain the closest possible cooperation in the fight on tuberculosis and to arrive at some centralized program of action which will not only be applicable to each state represented at the conference but will set up a precedent of joint sympathetic action by the state authorities and the recognized anti-tuberculosis association in each state.

ATHLETE T. B. VICTIM.

"Cy" Seymour, Noted Baseball Star, Succumbs After Bitter Battle With Tuberculosis.

The name of "Cy" Seymour, for many years a star on the New York National Baseball team, has been added to the list of truly great athletes who have taken part in their last contest. Seymour, "Cy," as he was familiarly known to hundreds of thousands of ardent baseball fans, succumbed to tuberculosis after a long and bitter fight.

The list of famous athletes whom tuberculosis has claimed is a long one. "Terry" McGovern, who swept through the lightweight division years ago, conquering all who dared stand before him, died last winter of the same disease. Those who remember the doughty lightweight champion in his prime, find it difficult to think of him as a wasted victim of tuberculosis. Such, however, was the case.

"Mike" Murphy, for many years trainer of the University of Pennsylvania track and field teams and regarded by experts on physical training the world over as the peer in that particular field, is another famous figure in the annals of sport who fell victim of the disease. It is many years since Murphy indulged in an athletic contest, but he could condition a man for the most gruelling athletic contest. Yet he could not fight off the ravages of tuberculosis germs.

The selection of these three names from a list all too long, brings out with startling clearness the fact that tuberculosis is no respector of persons or of classes. Even the physically fit carry the germs in their systems and when their powers of resistance are lowered, they, too, fall victims of the white plague.

The National Tuberculosis Association and its 1,000 allied organizations have been fighting this disease for years.

Where Can I Find Relief From Itching, Terrifying Eczema?

Question on Lips of Afflicted.

There is a harrassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source, which is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., which acts by cleansing the blood. Get a bottle to-day, and you will see results from the right treatment. HEADINGS IN DAILY PAPERS MISLEADING

COTTON GINNED SHOWS DECREASE OF OVER MILLION AND A HALF BALES INSTEAD OF INCREASE.

I have been very much surprised at the glaring headlines in our daily papers for thee last four days: "October Ginnings Show Big Increase"

The headlines of an article are supposed to give the central fact contained therein. That being the case, I am at a loss to understtand why such headlines should be used over the report of "Cotton Ginned," published November 8th, and I am still more surprised why such headlines should be used in the Advertiser of this date, the 15th of November, covering a statement of cotton consumed during October. Not one word is said in this statement, but deals with cotton consumed, cotton on hand, etc., showing there were 555,344 bales consumed October 1919, against 440,354 October 1918, or 114,990 bales more consumed during October, 1919, than during October 1918.

Now, as to cotton ginned: The report of cotton ginned November 8th, gives the total ginning for 1919 as 6,273,866 bales, while the ginning for the same period of 1918 was 7,800,000, or 1,526,134 bales less than ginned to November, 1919, than was ginned during same period in 1918. Then how do the headlines: "October Ginnings Show big Increase" fit the facts in the case?

The headlines are bearish and calculated to stampede the unsuspecting and unobservant, while the facts disclosed are very bullish, showing less cotton ginned and more cotton consumed during October, 1919, than during October, 1918.

Now, Mr. Editor, all we want is facts—give the truth both in headlines and in the information disclosed.

On September 1, 1919, I made an estimate of the Cotton Production of 1919, of 9,489,350 bales. Now, the cotton ginned as published November 8th was 6,273,866, therefore we will have to get 3,215,484 bales more from the crop to make 9,489,350 which is my estimate.

It is conceded that the report published November 8th of 6,273,866 bales ginned fully covers two-thirds of the crop. If that be true, then the crop will never reach my estimate.

There is nothing in the situation to alarm the holders of cotton. We are at least 7,000,000 bales short of the demand for spinable cotton. Prices are bound to go higher. Just hold—that is all—and join the Alabama Division, American Cotton Association.

R. M. MIXSON,
State Organizer.

AMERICAN COTTON ASSOCIATION HAD SMALL BEGINNING

NOW ITS VOICE IS HEARD WHEREVER MAN IS KNOWN, AND ITS INFLUENCE FELT WHEREVER CLOTHES ARE WORN.

This organization is the outgrowth of a series of meetings and conferences on the part of prominent farmers and business men of the South, who have given willingly and unselfishly of their time and money to make it possible.

It was preceded by the Cotton States Advisory Marketing Board, similarly organized, and which accomplished its purpose in restoring and upholding a reasonable price for cotton.

But, it was realized that the marketing board was inadequate to the permanent purpose of protecting the producer in his right to a fair profit above the cost of production.

To insure that right, permanently, it was found necessary for the producer himself to organize—to meet organization with organization.

For, the manufacturers of cotton and the distributors of cotton goods are organized, and it is their determined purpose "to get theirs."

"To get his"—ahd he never yet has gotten it—the producer must get together and be prepared to talk back—to name his price and see that it is paid.

There is no way to do it—no way to uphold farm prosperity in the South, and that means business prosperity as well—but to organize and—The American Cotton Association offers that opportunity.

DELIGHTED WITH WHAT DRECO DID

Suffered For Years With Stomach Trouble, Nervousness, Pains in Back and Limbs, Dizziness and Constipation. All Gone Now

"I have just finished taking a bottle of Dreco, and it has made me feel so much better and stronger that I can do all my own housework," said Mrs. M. Blair of Route 1, Huntsville, Ala.

"Before I began taking Dreco," she continued, "I was in a terribly run-down condition; couldn't eat anything, hardly, and didn't sleep much. My trouble started several years ago, and although I tried many different things, nothing prescribed for me seemed to do any good, and I was almost a physical wreck.

'After eating I would feel all bloated with sour gas, and my heart would beat so fast sometimes I would think it was going to jump out of my body. This made me very nervous and I was easy to get excited. I felt so bad that I couldn't take any interest in things. Nearly every day I would read in the newspapers about what Dreco had done for others, and many cases just fitted my symptoms exactly, so I talked the matter over with my husband, and we decided to give Dreco a trial. After a few days it began to brace me up, and I knew I had at last found the right thing my system needed.

"I am now so much better that I can eat most anything I want, and as much as I want, and do not feel any bad effects at all. My husband says I sleep like a log, and he can hardly wake me in the mornings. I never have a headache now and feel strong and well. I am delighted with what Dreco did for me."

When the liver, kidneys or bowels become inactive the system fails to throw off the poisons, and slowly, day by day, we are weakening our bodies till a breakdown comes. Sometimes it takes the form of the above case. Dreco causes the organs to carry off these toxins and waste matter and keep the system free of these poisons.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by

MAY RAISE PRICES

The crisis that is now upon newspapers in the matter of paper prices is growing alarming. In fact it begins to look like we shall soon face a time when we can't get paper at any price. It is now costing us over twice as much to print the Union-Banner every week as it did two years ago. In the face of such conditions it looks like the only thing we can do is raise the price of advertising and subscriptions. It is very probable that the first of next year we shall be forced to go up to $2.00 per year on subscripeions, and to 20c an inch for advertising. We have now on hand enough white paper to run us about six months. When this supply is exhausted we do not know where the next is coming from nor what price we will have to pay for it. But The Union-Banner is going right on. We feel that there are enough friends of the paper in the county who will pay two dollars a year for it if necessary, to keep the paper going. There is no such thing as giving up. The Union-Banner is going right ahead as long as white paper can be bought in the United States at any price. But you need not be surprised at a raise in our prices at any time now.

"THE LEAGUE IS DEAD"

On March 4, 1919, the Republican Publicity Association issued a statement in which it was asserted that "the British-Wilsonian league of nations is dead." The basis of that declaration was the resolution signed by thirty-nine Republican Senators of the new congress, and read to the Senate that day, to the effect that "the constitution of the league of nations in the form now proposed to the peace conference should not be accepted by the United States." The signers of that document constituting more than a third of the Senate, it was no spirit of idle prophesy that promoted the assertion that "the league is dead." Its truth has been established in the drastic reservations adopted by the Senate, which leave only a shell of the covenant that sought to rob America of her liberties.

Re[illegible] act of the thirty-nine Repub[illegible] was but the culmination of [illegible] awakening to the dangers which [illegible]eague of nations would bring upon the country. Ever since the president had incorporated the idea of a league in his Fourteen Points of January 8, 1918, discerning minds had been turned in that direction. The first note of public warning of what impended was sounded by Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington in a speech in the Senate on November 15th, by a conincidence almost exactly a year previous to the time the covenant was stripped of its fatal provisions by Poindexter and his Republican colleagues. In that speech the Senator voiced the conviction that if this country should become a member of the league, "the United States will have surrendered its birthright; it will have given up the spirit as well as the fact of sovereignty."

The impression created throughout the country by Mr. Poindexter's appeal to Americanism was immediate and profound. Citizens generally had been inclined to look upon a league of nations as some nebulous power that was to come and drive war from the earth. They began to realize that instead of preventing war for the United States the league would have the effect of drawing this country into every world quarrel, as well as substituting the dictation of a foreign tribunal for the independence of action that we had enjoyed so long.

On December 18 and March 1, Senator Knox; on February 21 Senator Borah; on February 26 Senator Cummins; on February 28 Senators Lodge Lenroot and Frelinghuysen; and on March 3 Senators Sherman and Spencer—all emphasized the warning delivered by Mr. Poindexter. On March 4 the wave of indignation against the league had crystallized into the signed statement of the thirty-nine Republican Senators referred to.

From that moment, until the final vote was taken on the treaty, the opposition of the Republicans of the Senate to any surrender of American sovereignty has been adamant. Arrayed against them in an effort to undermine the inherent patriotism of American has been every resource at the command of the administration. Through the League to Enforce Peace headed, be it said with shame, by a Republican ex-President, huge sums of money have been collected and expended in the most gigantic propaganda campaign ever conceived. But through the storm of misrepresentation and denunciation the Republicans of the Senate, and the principles that they were protecting, have emerged victorians. The people of the country have followed the struggle with absorbing attention; they have carefully noted to what party the champions of their rights belong; and at the elections next year will hasten to express their gratitude in a practical and decisive way.

HIGH SCHOOL SINGING

We have written so much about Uncle John Hays and his partners of old time singers in Chilton County that we, no doubt, have been accused of being partial to them; but we are not. However, we are not going to take back any of the things we have said about them. They are still all right.

Now, in order to show to our readers that we like modern music, as well as the old-time kind, we are going to try to tell you a few of our impressions of the singing at the County High School last Sunday. The occasion was a special session of the Chilton County Singing Convention, and the prominence of the singers on the program, together with the ardor of our people for betetr music, brought a great host of people to the High School to sing and be sung.

Let it be said here and now that it will be hard to find another county whose people so generally take to the futherance of the cause of sacred song as they do in Chilton. Likewise, not many counties can boast of a greater number of skillful and efficient leaders in music. The cause of this is natural, owing to the fact that for several years past we have had at different places in our county music schools taught by those famous singers such as Mr. J. D. Patton, Mr. H. M. Eagle and even Mr. Showalter, before whom all modern singers in the South bow, did at times past teach schools in our county.

We would not at all have you believe though that all our music teachers are imported. We have many of our own men and women, students of those other great teachers who occupy high seats in musical circles. They have also made valuable contributions to the cause by their noble and persistent efforts from time to time, in the teaching of schools and otherwise.

Now, back to the subject of the singing here last Sunday. We will say to begin with that we cannot hope here in this limited space to tell everything that everybody did to make the occasion the great success that it was on Sunday. The honors would be graciously divided among a large number of people. There were many of them and each participant did many things that we were proud of. But we will proceed as far as we can, and the things we do not mention will be known just the same, because everybody was there and possibly saw them better than did the writer.

We honestly believe that the most enjoyable feature of the program was the special numbers rendered by the Riley Brothers of Bessemer. Their quartetts are not to be excelled. We ought to be thankful to Mr. James Franklin for securing these gentlemen for this occasion. Mr. Franklin stated Sunday that he had heard them on some occasion previously, and that he could not be satisfied until his people here had also heard them. It is just the spirit like that of Mr. Franklin's that has made our County a singing success. When our singing leaders go out of the county and see or learn something good they never stop till they bring it home so we can all enjoy it. And when Mr. Franklin brought us the Riley Brothers he sure did something that pleased hundreds of people who heard them last Sunday. We doubt if there is in the State another four brothers who can equal them in singing, no not even in the South.

Prof. J. D. Patton was there, that universally beloved man among singers and lovers of music all over the south. It is useless for us to try to tell anything about him here. He is well known and highly popular among large numbers of intimate friends and former pupils in the county. In fact it is probable that a great portion of the successes in music that has come to Chilton County is the direct fruit of seeds sown by him. He has just closed a school at Liberty Hill. His class from that place was with him here Sunday and aside from their part in the regular program, rendered a special chorus that showed how systematically Prof. Patton can train a class.

We are sorry that Prof. H. M. Eagle could not attend the event here Sunday. Mr. Eagle is another well-known and popular singer who has done much good work in our county. Practically every leader in Chilton County has at one time or another come under the teaching of either Mr. Patton of Mr. Eagle, and in many instances both.

Prof. Merritt of Georgia captivated the audiance with his charming leadership. He is the Sam Beasley type of singers. When he sings he sings all over, and he gets nearly everybody in the house to singing with him too. Mr. Merritt is a new character in the singing business here. He has been a student of Prof. Patton at Liberty Hill. One would surely make no mistake to put this young man down on the list of coming song leaders of the South.

Mr. B. J. Clements of Tuscaloosa who has been here before, was present and contributed materially to the success of the occasion by his splendid leadership. Many of his old acquaintances were glad to see him here again.

Prof. H. C. Collins of Coosa County was present. He is one of the livest singers of the present day. His visits to this county are frequent and he is always received with a glad hand, both for his kindly disposition and his ability as a song leader.

Prof. Patton's daughter presided at the piano. Her skill and training was very evident throughout the entire program.

Judge Bradley, Alabama's State Treasurer, was there. As he always does, he was loud in his praise of musical success. He has a long record of persistent and active effort in the furtherance of the cause of sacred music in the western part of the State.

Besides those mentioned above, there were in attendance many prominent singers and leaders of Chilton County, who contributed valuable help in the rendition of the program. Among them we noticed: James Franklin, T. L. Robinson, W. G. Culp, Sheriff Gore, Zack Lowery, Johnnie Lowery, J. M. Smith, R. A. Smith, Lee Robinson, W. M. DeVaughn, L. T. Grant, Herbert Lowery, O. L. DeVaughn, W. O. Rich, Jesse Jones, Riley Robinson, Max Boswell, L. A. Ruffin, Tom Littlejohn.

The day was pronounced by everybody to be the most successful and really enjoyable of any singing ever held in our county.

We now look forward to the time—December 7th, when Mr. Conway, Mr. Hays, and the old time class of singers shall give us a program in Clanton. That too, will be worth hearing.

The guests were later carried into the dining room where a beautifully decorated table greeted their eyes. A tiny Xmas. tree burning red and white candles stood at each end of the table.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

The children of the colored school commemorated Armistice Day, with appropriate exercises and raised a neat little sum of money. This day ought to be as dear to all Americans as the Fourth of July, because it was in the months preceding this eventful day that Americans threw their money, food and men into the conflict, decided the issue by destroying autocracy and made the world safe for democracy.

We take this opportunity to remind our patrons and friends of the $1,000 Rally which comes off next Sunday, November 30th, at Friendship and Salem Churches, for the purpose of erecting our school. We are asking everybody to do his and her best.

We must educate and rid Alabama of the stain of illiteracy. On account of the inability of Drs. Prentice and Steinback to fill their places on the program, Dr. Mixon of Salem Church has postponed all engagements of the day at other places to preach for us. We are also asking our white friends to render us all the assistance possible.

The Union-Banner is a bye-word among the colored people. They are talking about the advertisements of our local merchants as well as their own news. Pastor Mixon on Sunday night advised the congregation to subscribe to the Union-Banner.

Sunday, November 23rd was a great day at the Salem Baptist Church. The services began with Sunday School at 9:30, A.M. The day's lesson was well taught by the teachers and ably reviewed by Pastor Mixon.

At 11:00, A.M. and 7:00, P.M., impressive sermons were preached by the pastor.

Our genial organist, Mrs. Carrie Bedsoe, and choir, rendered excellent music during these services.

Mrs. A. L. McCall, president of the missionary society of Salem Church, together with her co-laborers, Maggie Benjamin, Callie Lane, Rubie McCall, Carrie Bedsoe, Malinda Howard, Mattie B. Wilson, Sallie Gilchrist, Lela Woods, are doing excellent work.

Mrs. Lela Woods is conducting a Bible school, for the benefit of Bible readers. We would advise our people to take advantage of this opportunity in getting more spiritual food. The Bible class of the Friendship Church meets every Sunday evening, at 4:00 o'clock.

Mrs. A. M. Dickerson, president of Club No. 2, School Improvement Society, will serve dinner on Thanksgiving Day in front of Mrs. Rush's place. Price 25c per meal.

We are glad to see that prosperity has struck our little town to the extent that another strong bank is established here. Our people have decided to support liberally both institutions.

The son of Prof. and Mrs. Draper left a few days ago for school in Montgomery. We wish for the young man a successful career.

Mrs. Draper's brother from Kansas visited Clanton last week, and was very much delighted with the place. He reported a very good wheat crop in Kansas this year. I hope it will help to solve the flour problem. He also stated that the South was the best place for the colored man.

We regret very much to announce the death of Morris Lane. He was an excellent young man and a good church worker.

Mrs. Ola Gibbons and son, Coy, of Thorsby have just returned from Leola, Ark., where they have been visiting Mr. Ivan Gibbons.

Mr. Gibbons is moving from Leola to Longview, Texas, where he is going to take the job as manager for the Western Union. He has been working for the Rock Island R.R. Co., as agent and operator for 5 years. His many friends regret to see him leave.

ENJOYS HIS 3 MEALS A DAY

Mr. Wooten Thinks Much of ZIRON Because It Made Him His Old Self Again.

Sick people do not get much out of life. In order to enjoy your meals, to do your work well, you must be strong and healthy.

Pale, weak, nervous people frequently need iron to enrich their blood and to restore vitality to their system, and a good way to supply the iron is to follow the example of Mr. Clayton Wooten, of Scotland, Ga., who used Ziron Iron Tonic and has this to say about it:

"I have taken Ziron according to directions and I can truthfully say that it is a fine tonic. It has done me all the good. Since I began taking it, I have gained eight pounds in weight and enjoy eating three meals a day. I shall do all I can to recommend Ziron."

Try Ziron! Your druggist sells Ziron on a guarantee to refund your money if the first bottle fails to benefit. You cannot lose anything, but very likely will gain much, by getting a bottle of Ziron, today!

Each election held under the provisions hereof shall be ordered, held, canvassed and may be contested in the same manner as is or may be provided by the law applicable to the municipal corporations for elections to authorize the issuance of municipal bonds. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed at the Capitol in the City of Montgomery ono this 29th day of October, 1919. THOS. E. KILBY, Governor.

Are you ill? is often answered—"Oh, its only a cold," as if a cold was a matter of little consequence, but people are beginning to learn that a common cold is a matter not to be trifled with, that some of the most serious diseases start with a cold. As soon a the first indication of cold appear take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Remember that the sooner you get rid of your cold the less the danger, and this remedy will help you to throw it off.

CONSUMPTION CURABLE.

Forefathers Called It Will of God and Left Victim to Die—But It Is Not So Now.

Back in the old days when folks slept with their windows closed tightly, believing night air was dangerous, consumption was thought to be absolutely fatal. Our forefathers shook their heads solemnly, called it the will of God, and the unfortunate victim was left to his fate.

The National Tuberculosis Association and the 1000 State and local organizations affiliated with it are conducting a nation wide fight against tuberculosis. To finance the work throughout the coming year more than 650,000,000 Red Cross Seals will be sold during December.

Science knows a lot more about the disease now than it did several decades ago. There is no such morbid thought about the affliction today, for medical research has proved that tuberculosis is both preventable and curable.

The store of W. A. Kemp is getting to be about the finest thing in Clanton so far as up-to-date fixtures are able to make it. There have recently been some new and specially designed clothing and hat cabinets installed, the equal of which are not to be found in Clanton. In fact, many of the big city stores are far behind on these features. Other improvements are being made at this popular store from time to time. These new ideas in arrangement, together with the record of Mr. Kemp's store for service to the trade make his house one of the foremost in this territory.

THE UNION-BANNER

VOLUME VIII. CLANTON, CHILTON COUNTY, ALA., DEC. 4, 1919. NUMBER 36

REPUBLICANS ARE AGAINST ARMY PLAN

CONGRESS WILL NOT FORCE A HUGE STANDING ARMY ON THE COUNTRY.

Washington, Nov. 29—The Military Affairs Committee of the House, through a formal statement issued by Chairman Kahn, has made it plain that the Administration's demands for a standing army of 500,000 men will not be favored, and that the maximum strength to be authorized by the committee is 300,000 men and officers. Army reorganization legislation will not be reported this session, but the statement of Chairman Kahn outlines the probable policy which will finally be adopted. It says in part:

"To do our work thoroughly we will have to continue hearings for the present. But we feel that we will be better able to reach conclusions after we are fully informed upon the various matters embraced in the general scope of the Army Reorganization Bill. The committe has however, reached a practically unanimous conclusion as to the size of the regular army at this time. We feel that the legislation ought to contemplate a regular force of 250,000 combatant troops. With the necessary auxiliary forces in the supply and staff corps it will probably bring the total number of officers and men to about 300,000.

OPPOSITION TO THE LEAGUE IS STRONG IN OKLAHOMA.

Republican Success Attributed To A Wide Disapproval of Pact as Proposed by President.

Washington, Nov. 29—The newly elected Republican member of Congress from Oklahoma, Mr. J. W. Harreld, has taken his seat in the House as the Representative of the Fifth Congressional District of that state, a district which had previously been Democratic by 6,000 majority, and has brought to Washington some interesting and significant information as to the causes which brought about his election. The principal element of his success was his opposition to the League of Nations without reservations, but other questions arose in his campaign which have a distinct bearing on the great national campaign for President which will open next year.

"I attribute my election on the Republican ticket in a Democratic and Southern District to no less than four distinct causes," said Mr. Harreld today; "In the first place the majority of the voters in Oklahoma—Republican and Democratic alike—are opposed to the Wilson foreign policy as represented by the league of nations."

Sheriff J. L. Gore, Deputy Curlee, and Town Marshal Joe Gore went to Montgomery Wednesday to attend Federal Court.

FIFTH SUNDAY MEETING AT SHILOH CHURCH NOV. 29TH.

There were only three churches in the Chilton County Association represented on Saturday and one from the Unity.

At 11 a.m. two songs were sung and prayer by W. H. Wilson, after which the organization was perfected. T. J. Deason was elected Moderator and M. S. Deason, Secretary.

At 11:15 the regular order of business was taken up and the subject, "Problems in My Ministerial Work" was discussed and ably spoken to by the following: W. H. Connell, W. A. Goss, T. J. Deason, T. W. Billingsley, and W. H. Wilson.

12:00, Sermon by W. H. Connell, using for his text part of the fifth verse of the 17th chapter of Matthew: "This is My Beloved Son, Hear Him." This was a wonderful sermon. It would have been well for any assembly to have heard it.

1:00, Adjourned for dinner. There were plenty of provisions for this hour and some to spare.

2:15, Devotional services conducted by W. H. Wilson.

2:35, "How Can More Efficient Work be Done in Our Churches," by W. A. Goss, T .J. Deason and W. H. Connell.

3:40, We were adjourned until 10 A. M.. Sunday morning with prayer by W. H. Connell.

10 A. M. Sunday, devotional services conducted by J. R. Owen.

10:35, the fifth chapter of Matthew was recited by a little girl, Ruth Mahan. She held the congregation spell bound while she quoted this lengthy chapter from memory.

10:45, "The religious duty of a Teacher to His Students," was ably spoken to by Prof. J. L. Johnson.

11:30, Sermon by Rev. W. A. Goss. This was another wonderful sermon.

This brought us to the closing hour. We felt that we had spent one more glorious meeting for the cause of Christ. We hope that more people will attend these meetings in future as they are so uplifting and inspiring.

M. S. DEASON, Secretary.

THE PEOPLE WILL APPROVE THE RESERVATIONS TO TREATY

U. S. SENATE PROPOSES AMERICANIZATION OF TREATY TO PRESERVE OUR INDEPENDENCE.

Washington, Nov. 29—Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, on the last day of the Senate session, in a masterful speech, summed up the fourteen reservations which had the approval of a majority of the Senators. He analyzed each one of them and showed what each meant. He declared that when the people of this country understood the reservations they wouuld approve them fully.

In closing, after his analysis of the reservations, Senator Lenroot said:

"Those are the reservations that the President says nullify this treaty. Those are the reservations because of which, it is announced this afternoon by the Democratic leader, they propose to reject the treaty. What are these reservations? These reservations do nothing more nor less than to Americanize this treaty, so far as it affects us. These reservations do nothing more nor less than to preserve the liberty and independence of the United States of America.

"I shall be very sorry, indeed, if this issue must get into a political campaign. It ought not to. There ought not to be any partisan considerations whatever in a matter of this character; but if need be, that the Republican party must again assume the obligation to stand for Americanism, and the Democratic party chooses to stand upon this treaty and defeat it because we have Americanized it, we will welcome the issue.

"This treaty has not been read generally by the people of this country; but I say to you that everyone of these fourteen reservations will be read in every home in this land, and when they are read and when they are understood they will approve of this resolution exactlyy as it is proposed to-day."

In discussing the reservation to Article 10, Senator Lenroot said he would resign before he would vote to accept that article as the President wanted it accepted. He said on this article:

"We are unwilling to enter into such obligation; and I would resign my seat in the Senate, Mr. President, before I would vote to ratify this treaty with the obligaation imposed by Article 10 as the President of the United States asks us to accept it."

REPUBLICAN CAUSE IS STRENGTHENED

RECENT STATE ELECTIONS WILL HAVE GOOD EFFECT ON ELECTIONS COMING IN OTHER STATES.

Washington, Nov. 29—The recent state elections in Kentucky and Massachusetts, where notable victories were won, and in Maryland, where a Democratic majority was reduced almost to the point of defeat, have had a tremendous effect in strengthening the Republican cause in other states, according to Representative William Rodenberg, of Illinois, who has returned to the capital from his home.

"The great Republican victory in Kentucky, where the Republican ticket won out by a majority of 40,000 will be practically duplicated in Missouri in the Presidential election of next year," said Mr. Rodenburg to-day: "Missouri's presidential vote will show a Republican majority of at least 35,000, and the Republican congressional delegation from that state will be greatly increased.

"The recent special congressional election in Oklahoma, where a Republican was elected from a Democratic district on an anti-League of Nations platform, is one of the biggest things that has happned to the Republican party this year. The influence of this Republican victory will be felt all through the middle west, solidifying Republican sentiment, and a number of the Southern states, where the Republicans confidently expect to bring consternation to the Democratic leaders."

BOX SUPPER.

There will be a box supper at the Union Grove School Saturday night, Dec. 6. Everybody invited.

ACTION OF SENATE MARKS ISSUE IN THE NEXT BIG ELECTION

Fight on League of Nations is Bound to Come up Before the People at the Ballot Box.

Now that the final curtain has been rung down on the Peace Treaty in the Senate it becomes evident that the reservations that Americanized the document will be the leading issue before the people in the Presidential campaign next year. From the beginning of the debate on the league of nations those who were candid to admit what was apparent to every intelligent observer have said that the policy of Americanism as expressed in the covenant reservations was distinctly a Republican issue, while the effort to inflict internationalism upon this country had the backing of Democrats almost exclusively, with the President, the leader of the party, at the head of the scheme.

On March the 4th thirty-nine Republican Senators signed a round-robin serving notice on the President and the world of their unalterable determination to oppose the league of nations of the sort that Mr. Wilson was seeking to force upon the country. No Democrats signed that round robin, neither did that party promulgate a similar one of their own. On the contrary the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee publicly characterized the league covenant as "the greatest document of human liberty every prepared." In the four months of debate that followed the presentation of the treaty to the Senate, and in the speeches that preceded that date, it has been increasingly apparent to all except those who wilfully blinded themselves to the facts that the line of cleavage on the treaty more closely separated the two political parties than any question upon which they have been called to pass for many years. The fight for the treaty was led by a Democrat, receiving his orders from the White House, and supported exclusively by members of his own party in the Senate. The struggle for Americanism was directed by a Republican who had behind him every Senator of that party but one. But in the face of those facts the President insisted that this is not a party issue, and in that position was supported by certain Republicans, some even who essay to direct the party policies.

But now the sky is cleared, and every one who takes even a passing interest in national politics knows that the reservations to the league covenant will be one of the dominant issues of the next campaign. Senator Lodge, who led the fight for their adoption, has this to say: "I wish to carry these reservations into the campaign. I wish the American people to read and study them. They are not like the covenant of the league. They are simple. I do not see that there is one of them to which any American can object. I want the people to see them, understand them and think of them in every household and on every farm and in every shop and factory throughout the land. And then let them decide." Every Republican who has the best interest of his party at heart must endorse those sentiments.

It is hinted that Mr. Wilson will join the issue and call upon such of his followers who will remain subservient to his wishes to rally to his league's defense. But whether he cares to accept the Republican challenge or not the league will be in the fight, and every voter must record himelf upon it. There is not a doubt that the Republican Presidential candidate will be a strong reservationist and it is equally certain that the standard bearer of the Democrats will be a treaty-as-written candidate. Those who have kept an ear to the ground are convinced that the Republican vote throughout the country will be substantially in the proportion of 48 to 1 (The Senate Republican vote on the treaty) for the party's candidate, and to their vote will be added a tremendous democratic defection, all joining in a demand for unimpaired Americanism that will augur well for the future of the United States.

CHILTON COUNTY DOCTORS - MEETING ON TUESDAY

On Tuesday, Dec. 2, the Chilton County Medical Society met in regular session with the following doctors present: Dr. J. P. Hayes, Dr. V. J. Gragg, Dr. N. S. Johnson, Dr. A. Johnson, Dr. O. C. Mastin, Dr. C. S. Strock, Dr. Sterling Wood, Dr. L. E. Sorrell, Dr. T. J. Marcus. In addition to the regular program, the annual election of officers was held and the following was the result: Dr. V. J. Gragg, President, Dr. N. S. Johnson, Vice-President, Dr. T. J. Marcus, Secretary-Treasurer, Dr. Arthur Johnson, Member County Board of Health for a term of five years to succeed Dr. J. P. Hayes, whose term of office had expired. Dr. J. P. Hayes was elected Quarantine Officer for Chilton County. After an interesting and enthusiastic meeting a banquet was held at the Exchange Hotel.

After the banquet, which was enjoyed by all, a general discussion of the high cost of living and the increasing expenses incident to the practice of medicine was freely entered into by all present, and it was agreed by those present to make the fee for obstetrical cases a minimum of $25.

The next regular meeting of the Society is to be held in Clanton on the first Tuesday in January at ten o'clock, A. M.

HITCHCOCK SEES LIGHT

Washington, Nov. 29.—Even Senator Hitchcock has seen a light with respect to the treaty. Senator Hitchcock stood in the Senate for weeks and months, doing the bidding for the President, saying the treaty had to be accepted withont the crossing of a "t" or the dottnig of an "i".

Now, Senator Hitchcock is talking in different vein. He is speaking in favor of "compromise." He is quoted as saying "that concessions on both sides must be real and not nominal."

This is very different from the tone the White House has adopted up to date.

REPUBLICAN LEADER SAYS MORE GAINS

SEE INCREASING INROADS UPON HITHERTO SOLID SOUTH BY NOW DOMINANT PARTY.

Washington, Nov. 29—The chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee, Representative Fess, of Ohio, and the Vice-Chairman, Representative Wood, of Indiana, have been given out statements predicting further Republican inroad upon the hitherto solid south in the national elections of next year. Mr. Fess and Mr. Wood base their claims upon the evidence of growing Republican sentiment throughout the South which was furnished by recent special Congressional elections in Kentucky, Alabama and Oklahoma, and the probability of the election of a Republican to succeed Representative Webb, Democrat, of North Carolina, who has resigned.

"The opportunity to make Republicans in the South in a Presidential year never seemed more inviting than now," said Mr. Fess; "The solidarity of the South has actually been broken and the usual issues, based largely on prejudice, are assuming less importance. Indutrial development in the South has brought about a change of sentiment in favor of the Republican party."

Mr. Wood predicts a largely increased Republican membership in Congress from the South as a result of the next regular elections. He said to-day:

"The South is ready to break loose, politically, in many places. We are practically assured of additional Republican Congresmen from Oklahoma where we have recently elected our third member, in Kentucky, where we already have four Republican members, and in Missouri, where we did so well in the last regular elections. Next year, 1920, will be a big Republican year in all parts of the country, but we are particularly pleased at the early signs of increased strength in the South.

PRESIDENT RESPONSIBLE

Washington, Nov. 29.—"Had President Wilson displayed a willingness to Americanize the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations it would have been ratified months ago," declared Representative Fess, of Ohio, upon the adjournment of congress. "The unchanging attitude of the President, to demand acceptance of the League without the crossing of a "t" or the dotting of an "i" is responsible for the situation which now exists."

Mr. Fess believes that prospects for national success in 1920 are most satisfactory to the Republicans.

Advantages of a Bank Account However Small it May Be

It is well to pay bills promptly, but not to pay the same bill twice. Sometimes a bookkeeper, by mistake, sends out bills after they have been paid. If you pay by check, however, the canceled checks are returned to you and can be produced as receipts.

Checking accounts are, therefore, more than a convenience. They are an insurance against overpayment. Every man or woman who pay bills should do so with check. Your checking account will be welcomed at this Bank, where you are assured of absolute security and most courteous service. The Federal Banking Laws make every stockholder of this bank liable to depositors for twice the amount of stock owned.

THORSBY ITEMS

Thorsby Institute has the honor of being 100 per cent for the Red Cross. It certainly is fine to see all the students wearing the 1920 Red Crass button.

A recent visitor to Thorsby and the Institute was Sgt. Kenslar Farrell, a former student of T. I., who was enjoying a furlough after more than two years army service, most of which has been spent in France. Sgt. Farrell gave a most interesting talk to the students one morning in chapel. After a visit with friends and relatives in Birmingham and other points in Alabama, he returned to Camp Dix as he has re-enlisted for another year.

It is the custom in Thorsby each year to hold a union Thanksgiving service in one of the three churches. This year the service was held in the Congregational Church. Rev. Lowery of the Baptist Church preached a splendid sermon, using for a text Romans 12:1. Rev. Davis, who has just recently moved to Thorsby, read the scripture lesson, and the President's Proclamation was read by Rev. Butler. Special music was furnished by a choir composed of young people from the three churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pittman and two children of Clarendon, Va., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Horn for several weeks. Mrs. Pittman was formerly Miss Francis Horn.

Rev. and Mrs. James Davenport have a special cause for Thanksgiving this year. On Sunday before Thanksgiving Day the stork visited their home and left a fine ten-pound boy.

Mrs. Z. C. Forde of East Lake, a suburb of Chattanooga, Tenn., spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Miss Lockwood.

The Ladies Guild met on Friday of last week with Mrs. Sorenson.

Rev. W. Knighton Bloom, Sunday School Extension Secretary for the Congregational Church, gave a most entertaining and helpful address on Monday night, November 24th, at the Congregational Church. On Tuesday morning Dr. Bloom spoke in chapel. He is making a tour of the Southern Congregational Churches, speaking in the interest of Sunday School and other lines of Religious Education.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Goddard, who are visiting relatives and friends in Ohio, write that they are having a fine trip. They will probably be away for another month yet.

Mr. G. D. Edwards is selling out his stock of goods in Thorsby, and expects to open up a general merchandise store in Ensley about the first of the year.

Friends of Mr. Ruben Foss, and that means all the citizens of Thorsby and community, are glad to welcome him as cashier of the new Bank of Thorsby.

PEOPLES TELEPHONE MEETING.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders and patrons of the Peoples Telephone Company of Clanton at the County Court House on Monday, December 8th. The business of the meeting is to elect new officers and arrange for the management for the next year. We need to revise our service, therefore everybody is expected to come so that the best satisfaction may be attained for all.

THE SISTER'S FAITH—FORD WILL BRING THEM BACK.

The following appeared a few days ago in the "State Register" Springfield, Ill.:

"Many are the stories of Henry Ford and his popular automobile, but Hillsboro is relating what it calls the best of the season, and the facts in the case are true. It happened in one of the leading churches of the city that the pastor took for the text ofhis sermon "Better Church Attendance."

"The pastor held that the automobile has taken more people away from church than any other thing. He concluded with the exclamation: 'The Ford car has taken more people to hell than any other thing I can mention!' Whereupon an old lady in the congregation began to clap her hands and moan 'Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!'

"What's the matter sister?" asked the pastor.

"The Ford never went any place it could not make the round trip, and I am sure that all of those people in hell will get back if they went in a Ford."

Each election held under the provisions hereof shall be ordered, held, canvassed and may be contested in the same manner as is or may be provided by the law applicable to the municipal corporations for elections to authorize the issuance of municipal bonds. The ballots used at such election shall contain the words: "For..... excess rate of taxation for the year (or years) .....;" and "Against..... excess rate of taxation for the year (or years) .....". Nothing herein contained shall in any wise change or affect the rights of any holder of bonds of said municipal corporations heretofore issued. Elections to authorize the levy of such special tax may be held as often as ordered by the governing body of the municipality but when a proposition is submitted to the electors to levy a special tax for a specific purpose, and if such proposition is defeated no second election for the same purpose shall be held in one year thereafter.

NOTICE

To the friends of the old time music in Chilton County:

The Building Committee of the Sacred Harp Music Hall in Birmingham propose to raise $1,000.00 by January 1st, which will secure the lots for the building and leave a nice sum on hand for constructing the Hall. One half of that amount will be given in Jefferson County, leaving the other counties interested to give fifty dollars each. Let Chilton do her duty in full thus helping to erect an enduring monument to the music of our Fathers, to be used by our children and children's children for decades to come.

While we all admire beautiful modern music, yet we can't forget the music of Handel, Moozart, Mason, Hastings, White and Walker.

Contributions may be given to either of the following sub-committee: W. H. Conway, J. W. Hays, T. C. Jackson, J. H. Scott; or sent direct to Miss Elizabeth Jackson, Secretary Treasurer, 301 Bank St., Birmingham.

This is a worthy object, and should have the prompt and liberal aid of all the friends of the music of our Fathers and Mothers. Surely Chilton County will do her part.

HAD TERRIBLE SKIN DISEASE

The Girl Improves Rapidly When Given ZIRON Iron Tonic.

Many mothers try one remedy after another, for the sufferings of their little ones, without apparently being able to find the right one. If anything seems wrong with the blood, or stomach, or if the child's system is run-down and needs strengthening, you may benefit by the experience of Mrs. Westmoreland, Tenn., mother, Mrs. John F. Anglea, who writes:

"My little girl had a terrible skin disease and her stomach was in such a bad condition. Nothing helped her, so we finally decided to give her Ziron.

She improved so rapidly from the first bottle, so we have given her two more. She is much better."

Don't try other remedies first! Choose Ziron from the start. It has benefited many people suffering from poor blood, general weakness, loss of appetite and other symptoms which indicate lack of iron in the blood.

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION IN SESSION LAST FRIDAY.

The Chilton County Board of Education was in session here last Friday. They passed several motions and resolutions that are of vital interest to the teachers and school people of the county. The following are a few of the things acted upon:

By motion the Board requires that each school have a flue or flues built of brick laid flat by Jan. 1st, 1920.

By motion the Board agrees to leave the insurance of the school buildings to the discretion of the district trustees, and if they desire to have the buildings insured they must notify the County Board and the Board will have same insured, to be paid for out of the incidental fees of that district.

By motion the Board hereby allows Thanksgiving and Christmas days as holidays for the teachers of the county from now on, beginning with this school term.

By motion the Board requires that all schools close on December 20th until December 29th, but teachers will be paid for Christmas day only of that time.

By motion the Board agrees that no teacher who fails to attend the group conferences held monthly will be paid for that day, even though they may teach.

County Superintendent Foshee, in a letter to all the teacher of the county sent out this week, calls attention to the above action of the Board and urges that teachers especially familiarize themselves with these rulings.

The Board is working on a plan of consolidation of schools that will be a step forward on the march of educational progress in Chilton county. Announcement of this action will be made in a short time we hope.

Rev. E. C. Maye left Tuesday for Demopolis, where he will attend the Alabama Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church all this week.

Every week some new phonograph appears on the market

Any good workman can build a "Talking Machine"—

Only the Genius of An Edison Could Produce

THE NEW DIAMOND
AMBEROLA

The World's Greatest Phonograph Value

You need a phonograph in your home. Every home in the U. S. A. needs the cheering, soothing, refining influence of good music. But you want the best phonograph made—no other is good enough for your home, your family, your friends.

How can you tell which is the best? Easy—if you use common sense. Difficult—if you trust to the claims of numerous manufacturers.

Look for the man behind the phonograph—the brain that evolved it and perfected it. If you cannot discover any personality behind an instrument you may well doubt its perfection.

The brain of Thomas A. Edison, the greatest inventive genius in the world, is the birthplace of the Amberola! Edison has perfected every detail of this wonder phonograph until in every way it is superior to ordinary phonographs and "talking machines!"

The tone has been pronounced superior to that of other well-known phonographs by scores of phonograph experts after striking tests. The genuine Diamond Point Reproducer is permanent—no changing of needles. The wonderful Amberol Records, in shape and composition, are practically unbreakable and last for years and years!

All the world's best music is recorded on these Amberol Records, from popular songs and dance music to grand opera sung by the world's greatest artists. Every month new Amberol Records are issued with the latest hits and new recordings of famous artists.

Go, listen to other phonographs and "talking machines" if you will—then come here and listen to the wonderful Amberola. Above all remember that the name and fame of the greatest inventor of the age guarantee its superiority.

Last but not least, Edison has succeeded in making this remarkable phonograph to sell at prices considerably lower than inferior "talking machines."

3 Days' FREE Trial

We will place an Amberola in your home for a 3 Days' Trial which will not put you under the slightest obligation or expense. Come here, select an Amberola and a number of records and we'll send them to your home. At the end of 3 days if you do not want the Amberola, we'll call and take it away. If you do want it, we'll arrange terms of payment to suit you.

"Big High Lights in President Wilson's Message to Congress."—Democratic newspaper headline. Correct, brother; they were high lights all right. As his spouts usually are, they were so high that they shot away over the heads of the common every-day things that need the attention of a sober practical effective executive of this country.

We desire to call the attention of our people that now is the time to register and get your name on the voting list of the county, if you are not already on it. The appointments of the County Registrar are now being published in the paper. Look it up and see what days he will be in your Beat. Then call the attention of those who need to register and see that they go and perform that duty at the proper time without delay. Every man who wants to see better conditions of politics and government ought to take notice of those in his Beat who are not registered voters, and use his influence in getting them to qualify now.

The next year is going to be a live one so far as politics is concerned, and it is now time we began to look over our tackle to make sure that our lines are strong and ready to cast into the stream and help land our man and our issue, whoever and whatever that may turn out to be. It is of course true that when we cast out into the sea of politics we sometimes catch a "sucker." We could name lots of both men and measures that have been hauled ashore on the election day by our votes and turned out to be "suckers" after we examined them closely. But it is natural for us to want to vote for something, and we are of the kind that are always ready to take the chance and cast away. If we get stung we accept it cheerfully with the faithful vow that we will not do it again. Let everybody in Chilton County get busy now and see that all the boys register and pay their poll tax so that there will be enough votes cast next year to go around among all the candidates. It is going to take a good many to do that, and we want to see them all get a little encouragement.

H. A. Harris went to Montgomery Wednesday to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge of Alabama.

WHAT'S WRONG AT CAPITOL?

On September 23 the United Mine Workers of America, in convention at Cleveland, formulated their demands for a six-hour day and a five-day week, and served notice on the operators that unless the new schedules were granted there would be a general strike in bituminous fields on November the first. The convention adjourned, leaving the miners' officials powerless to negotiate terms with the owners, and able only to present the ultimatum adopted by their conovention. That ultimatum was impossible of acceptance, as it meant not only the raising of the price of coal, out of all reason, but also the curtailment of the supply to such an extent as to affect seriously all the industries of the country.

Everyody knew that the threatened strike could not be avoided. The officials of the government were aware of the fact and of the disaster and turmoil that woould be visited upon the railroads and industries in general. But nothing was done. The usual conferences were held, both sides to the controversey were urged to compromise their differences, and the President issued an appeal to the miners to continue at their work which, in its practical effect, was not worth the paper on which it was written. No affirmative action whatever was taken by the Government to prevent the calamity.

The strike came and for a month the country has suffered from its blighting effect. To date the executive department of the government has done nothing but talk and issue advice so far as taking steps to resume coal production is concerned, although certain measures have been adopted for conserving the supply on hand.

The Judicial department has issued an injunction against the use of the huge benefit fund of the miners, and ordering the officers of the mine workers to rescind the strike order. That court mandate has been compleid with, but with no effect on the production.

The situation resolves itseif into this: For two long months the administration has been confronted with the certainty of the actuality of a nation-wide coal strike with all its attendant evils. During all of that time not one effective step has been taken to aid the people. the maintenance of whose welfare furnishes the only reason for the existence of the government. The future holds no hope of a settlement so far as any affirmative action by the officials at Washington is concerned. Discussion follows discussion; the cabinet holds all-day meetings and adjourns in a wrangle with nothing accomplished; the personage in the white house clings tenaciously to the prerogatives of president, seemingly mentally incapable of sound judgment and utterly lacking in the physical stamina and nervous energy required to deal with the emergency; dear old Secretary of Labor, Wilson, himself Secretary of the United Mine Workers eight years, fusses about in a vain effort to bring together the opposing factions on a compromise and at the same time to convince the public that his interests are entirely neutral; and Dr .Garfield, the professorial theorist from Williams College, is hastily called in in the capacity of expert to show befuddled Washington the way out of the muddle. Garfield has evolved a plan that appears to have many of the elements of sanity, but nobody else in authority favors it. At best it is only advice as to wage scales, with no means for its enforcement even if adopted, and making no provision for the actual mining of coal. The government has failed to function. The people are now merely inconvenienced; soon they will be freezing and starving, and that means riots and more determined efforts than ever at the establishment of an archy. Unless the crowd of syncophants with whom the President has surrounded himself at Washington awake to their duty and perform it with resolution, the succeeding weeks will be a period of peril to these United States of America.

CUMMINGS POLITICAL BROADSIDE PROVES A "DUD."

Chairman Cummings of the Democratic National Committee has published an arraignment of the Republican Congress which he doubtless hopes will turn votes to his party in the next election. If deliberate misrepresentation of facts, gratuitous charges that amount to nothing less than slander, and cunningly phrased deceptions upon the public mind are to have that effect, then Cummings' diatribe will accomplish everything he wishes. But the American people as never before, are following the activities their national Congress and they are quite capable of placing a correct valuation upon Democratic statements intended to discredit the party in charge of our legislation.

"The people have paid a staggering penalty for the folly of electing a Republican Congress," cries Mr. Cummings. When the Democratic Congress adjourned last March it left unenacted seven great money measures. Within 38 days the Republicans had placed those laws on the statute books with a saving over the coresponding bills of the last fiscal year of about $940,000,000. Not only that, but the bills showed a reduction from the estimates submitted by the Wilson administration of more than $1,685,000,000. Had those estimates been complied with, every dollar of that huge sum would have been practicadlly wasted, for no just claim has been made that the Republican appropriations will not be sufficient for the period for which they are made. The 'penalty' the people paid last November was a saving to them of $16 for every man, woman and child in the United States.

"It is impossible to point to one single constructive measure which has been adopted," asserts the Democratic political leader. How about the return of the telegraphs and telephones to their owners; the woman suffrage amendment; vocational training legislation; additional pay for a hundred thousand postal employees; more stringent immigration laws; extension of food control act; and increase of certain war risk allowances? All of those have become laws in the present Congress, as well as many minor acts. The House has enacted many more bills, which the Senate found impossible to consider on account of the treaty, but which will receive prompt attention in the new session.

Mr. Cummings has the temerity of charging the Senate with completing "six months of ghastly ineptitude and political floundering." "The American flag," says he, "has been trailed in the dust by men who do not seem to understand what American honor requires." That sort of partisan appeal has received an answer from the people already in various special elections that have been held during the treaty debate in the Senate. The kind of Americanism that they demand has been unmistakeably shown to be that defended so courageously and successfully by the Republicans of the Senate—the kind that stands for our traditional policy of independent self-government, free from inteference by foreign powers intent on exploiting the United States for their own benefit. Republicans are glad to accept the issue that Mr. CumMings seeks to make of Americanism.

"The Senate has not yet been able to say 'yes' or 'no' to the treaty," Mr. Cummings reminds the country. The treaty failed of ratification, but who is to blame? Thirty-nine Democratic votes were cast against ratification. Had only twenty-three of those votes been registered for the treaty it would now be the law of the land, but those partisan Senators preferred to follow the orders of their political master in the White House, rather than the dictates of their own consciences. As a result the treaty is dead.

The next time Mr. Cummings sees fit to issue a political broadside, he should endeavor to make charges that can be supported by facts rather thanto submit to the people a list of allegations based only on his own personal statement.

Chamberlain's Tablets.

These tablets are intended especially for indigestion and constipation. They tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They act gently on the liver and bowels, thereby restornig the stomach and bowels to a haelthy natural condition. When you feel dull stupid and constipated give them a trial.

Jim Grant says that when you see a fellow come in and pay up eight or ten years of back dues on his poll tax you can just bet that he is getting in shape to vote against something. It is usually true too. I man will go further to vote against something he dislikes than he will to vote for something he favors. And we have many men in Chilton county who ought to take the notion to pay up their back poll taxes. There are many things going on in the land now that people are dissatisfied with and when those things come up again they will be mowed down right and left. The only way you can have a hand in the frolic is to show your poll tax receipt; it is your admission ticket. So don't fail to get it. Don't be one of those who get the idea that it is no use to vote anyhow. That is wrong. Such stuff as that is a sure sign that our country would go to the bow-wows good and proper in a short time if we didn't keep on the alert. This government of ours depends on the votes of the people for its sustenance. What we need is more voters and better voters. Get busy and pay your poll tax, so you can vote for the good things and vote against the bad things when the time comes.

DESPERATE EFFORT TO BREAK MARKET IS MADE BY BEARS

PROPOSITION TO REMOVE TWO MILLION BALES FROM MARKET SWEEPING COTTON BELT.

IMPORTANT.

Had it not been for the fact that the producers fully understand that the spinning world cannot be supplied with imaginary cotton, nor will paper cotton supply the wants of the spindles and furnish clothing for a naked world, otherwise the market would have crashed today on the ridiculous and farcical report issued by a private bureau showing an indicated yield of 10,900,000 bales. The bears made a desperate effort to break the market after this barrage had been discharged. Telegrams were received at headquarters from various sections of the cotton belt showing that spot cotton was not affected at all; also stating:

"We approve in the fullest terms the proposition to take two million bales of good grade cotton off of the market. Our State will put up its full quota, turn warehouse receipts over to the banks, accepting trust receipts in exchange not redeemable until June, July and August, 1920."

The proposition to remove two million bales from the market is sweeping the belt, and it is an absolute certainty.

Among the telegrams received is the following from John B. Cannon, Chairman Spartanburg County Branch of the American Cotton Association, who has made one of the most remarkable showings in the organization of the American Cotton Association in the entire belt. This unit of the A. C. A. has arranged warehouse facilities for 65,000 bales; arranged to finance all cotton raised in the county; arranged for government graders and staplers independent buyers; having raised funds for erecting a cotton factory of $500,000 capital, and now arranging to have every gin in the county equipped with the latest and best gin compression equipment:

"Sparanburg County stands solid today and will stand until the last in spite of the effort of speculators to bear the market down today based on the ginners' report. Spartanburg County cotton has advanced two cents and every point in the county is now paying forty cents and not being sold. Neither this county nor the South will forget you are the bridge that took them over. We believe that without the American Cotton Association cotton would have been selling for twenty cents a pound. Please let the world know that we are still willing to be led by you and are following you. We are solidly behind your movement to retire two million bales good grade cotton. Is key to situation. Will force prices to fair level based on supply and demand. We have retired one-third good grade cotton made in Spartanburg County until July, 1920."

One of the largest commercial papers of New York wired today informing President Wannamaker that their editor is making a special Southern trip for the purpose of writing up the work already accomplished by the American Cotton Association, its aims, objects and purposes, stating:

"Your campaign has attracted nation-wide attention and will result in making the South the most prosperous part of the entire nation. It has been the greatest campaign of publicity, and the greatest piece of constructive work ever put into effect in this nation. Its benefits will be reflected throughout this country."

J. Skottowe Wannamaker, President, American Cotton Association.

DR. YARBROUGH TELLS STATUS OF THE BAPTIST DRIVE.

Tuesday finds the headquarters of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign $1,100,000 short of Alabama's quota of Four million, according to Dr. W. F. Yarbrough, Alabama Director. Forty-nine of the 77 distr[illegible]sociations have reported, though these reports are only partial reports from the churches reporting, and many of the churches in these associations have not been heard from. 28 associations have as yet made no reports but they are small associations with small quotas.

"Only eight of the associations report more than their quotas raised, though complete reports will put many more over the top. Birmingham association covered itself with glory. With one of the largest quotas for any association in the south, $500,000, she has reported $750,000, and is still going.

"Georgia and Mississippi on either side of us, already have their quotas over-subscribed. Alabama has ample opportunity yet to save the day. Let every church, whether over the top or not, press the battle to the limit and report results promptly. To get proper credit all reports must reach us before midnight, Sunday, Dec. 7. Baptists of Alabama, come on! Our battle line must not break. Let the churches and individuals do their best and do it now!"

CRIPPLED SCHOOL CHILD SAVED BY RED CROSS SECRETARY

A strange lady stopped a group of children who were on their way to the country school. She had noticed them dragging a young boy along the rough road.

"You mustn't do that," she told them. "Why don't you let your little playmate walk?"

One of the boy's bright-eyed little captors spoke up:

"Aw, lady, can't ya see Willie's a cripple? He can't walk."

The lady did see, now. And she accompained the children home. It was a home of poverty, of wretched squalor. The mother of the crippled boy informed the visitor she had no money to buy crutches for her son who was a victim of infantile paralysis

That was three weeks ago. Today the boy is walking again, feebly and uncertainly, but successfully. The strange lady was a Red Cross Home Service secretary, and she sent the boy from the towa in Mississippi, where she found him, to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Memphis, where a successful operation was performed.

The Peace Program of the Red Cross provides for the continuation of such activities as this. The local Red Cross organization will conduct a drive November 2 to 11, for the purpose of enrolling members for service in [illegible].

SURGEONS agree that in cases of cuts, burns, bruises and wounds, the first treatment is most important. RED CROSS SERVING DISCHARGED SOLDIERS IN MANY WAYS.

"Say, Sam, did you ever get that Liberty bond you paid for?"

"No."

"Neither did I. I wonder when Uncle is coming through with it."

This conversation, or one like it, is taking place these days between hundreds of "pals" in the service, or just discharged from it. Various difficulties have been experienced by soldiers in getting the bonds for which they have paid.

To overcome this condition the American Red Cross has come to the rescue. All any soldier who wants his bond needs to do henceforth is to inform a representative of the Red Cross. Practically any contingency causing delay has been guarded against. The soldier must give the representative all the information he can and leave the rest to the association, which will take up the matter and see that prompt delivery is made through registered mail.

The method is this, in brief: The soldier assigns the delivery of his bond to the Red Cross representative, who obtains it from the bond section of the zone finance office and delivers it to the owner.

This is one of the many services of this great organization which is soon to conduct a third roll call to gain money and members to keep up its work permanently.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Weak Links in a Strong Chain

That's just what imitation parts are when they become a part of your Ford Car. They look strong enough, but the metal isn't there—the strong, durable Vanadium steel that goes into the Ford chassis and every Ford part. Ford parts are specially cast and heat-treated, each according to its own use. Some require a hard, flint-like wearing surface others need resilency, and some need just "toughness."

Ford metallurgists have been studyig these problems for sixteen years and know just how each unit should be made to endure a maximum of wear ad tear. They know that best results can be obtained only by the use of special formulas for different parts, and that honest Ford parts wear from thirty-five to one hundred per cent longer than counterfeits.

We carry complete assortments of genuine Ford parts for both passenger cars and trucks. And our garage is equipped to give careful and prompt Ford service—from minor adjustments to complete overhauls. Drive in, it's better to be safe than sorry. Come to the authoried Ford dealer for service.

"The 52 Biggest Problems of the Average Southern Farmer."

Every member of The Progressive Farmer staff has had actual farm experience—most of us are running southern farms now—and from our own experiences, and from the multitude of farmers' letters that come to us every year, we believe we have figured out a pretty nearly perfect list of these "fifty-two biggest problems" of the average Southern Farmer, and we are going to treat them in the next year's Progressive Farmer.

We are going to treat them, too, in order of timeliness, just as far as possible. For the aim of The Progressive Farmer, always, is to tell the subscriber just what he wants to know, just when he wants to know it, and in as few words as possible.

Here's the list of big problems we shall treat during the fall months, and the date on which each discussion will appear:

November 1—Financing the Farmer: (Personal and short term credit; Long-term Credit for Land Purchase; Avoiding "Time Prices"; Utilizing National Farm Loan Associations, etc.)
November 8—Systems of Farming—Affecting Soil Fertility, Money Profits, Prosperity and Permanence of Rural Life.
November 15—Arranging and Erecting Fences; Relative Value of Different Systems, Materials, etc.
November 22—How to Reduce Land Washing to a Minimum. (Terracing, Ditching, Filling Land with Humus, Proper Use of Steep Hillsides, etc.)
November 29—What Changes are Needed to Insure Better Health for Men, Women and Children on the Farm
December 6—Winter Care and Feeding of Horses, Mules, Cattle and Hogs.
December 13—Getting Rocks and Stumps off the Land.
December 20—How Farm Neighbors may Work Together for Greater Profits and Happiness.
December 27—Business Methods on the Farm (Inventories; Records; Accounts; Banking; Cost-Keeping; Advertising; System in Correspondence and Sales, etc.)

The above subjects are of vital importance to you, and alone are worth the price we ask, and remember The Progressive Farmer carries many other big featues not mentioned in the above list.

SEEKS PLAN TO AID THE WEAK

Mrs. Martin Albon Says There Should Be a Way to Tell All Who Suffer Ill Health of the Wonders of Sul-Ferro-Sol, the Great Body-Builder.

So elated was Mrs. Martin Albon of Dothan, Ala., over the results she derived from Sul-Ferro-Sol, she asks if there isn't some way to tell everybody whose health is bad of the wonders of this great remedy.

Mrs. Albon stated that she had suffered a general breakdown in health for a long time. She was just sick all over, and no remedy that she had previously tried seemed to benefit her at all.

She said further: "Before I had finished taking the first bottle of Sul-Ferro-Sol, my appetite had improved. I was getting back my color and was gaining in strength and weight. I now feel fine."

The symptoms of Mrs. Albon apply to thousands and many of these thousands are daily regaining their strength just as this lady did—through the use of Sul-Ferro-Sol.

Sul-Ferro-Sol is offered as a natural Iron tonic of marked efficiency.

At all drug stores everywhere. Liberal bottles for one dollar.

STEINER LEADS SEAL CAMPAIGN

DISTINGUISHED WAR VETERAN IS GENERAL CHAIRMAN FOR RED CROSS CHRISTMAS TOKEN DRIVE.

TO AID UNFORTUNATES

Anti-Tuberculosis Workers Request Affected Soldiers to Apply to Them for Help.

General R. E. Steiner.

Montgomery, Ala.—General Robert E. Steiner, state chairman for the Red Cross Christmas Seal sale in Alabama, has never headed a movement which failed, and his acceptance of leadership in the annual money-raising campaign against tuberculosis is regarded as a guaranty of compelte success for the drive. It is planned to raise $200,000 by sale of the seals in December.

General Steiner saw service overseas, and had an opportunity to observe at first hand the problem of tuberculosis in the army. He considers the work of the National Tuberculosis association and its 1,000 affiliated organizations as an activity of vast importance to the returned tubercular soldier.

"A request that every one of the 69,000 men who were rejected for military service by draft boards because of tuberculous affection get in touch with the nearest organization engaged in anti-tuberculosis work was sent out recently from the general headquarters of the National Tuberculosis Association," said General Steiner. "The object sought, it was said, is to bring about a co-operation of effort that would aid the affected men in their fight for recovery and to prevent the spread of the disease.

"Attention was called to reports from the Surgeon General's office that of the men of the United States called to the colors during the World War approximately 100,000 were found to be affected with tuberculosis. All the men rejected by draft boards and practically all of those rejected by camp surgeons were sent home, it was stated, and it is necessary for the conservation of the public health that they be kept track of and fully advised as to the mode of life and the treatment which will help them and protect their families.

"Follow-up systems are now being employed by the various agencies engaged in combating tuberculosis, but, according to officials of the National Tuberculosis Association, many men are hanging back and others cannot be located. It is to reach these two elements that the appeal is made for co-operation.

ASSOCIATED DOCTORS COMING TO CLANTON

WILL BE AT WILSON HOTEL ON SATURDAY, DEC. 13, FOR ONE DAY ONLY.

Marvelous Demonstration in Chronic Disease Cases by Their New System Treatment.—Offer Services Free of Charge.

Word has just been received that the Associated Doctors, specialists, licensed by the State of Alabama, and who have met with such phenomenal success throughout the entire southeast, will be in Clanton on Saturday, December 13th, for one day only to demonstrate their new system of treatment of chronic diseases.

This will be good news to those who find it convenient to visit the central laboratories in Birmingham, located in the Lyric Theatre Building, where the organization has southern headquarters. These regular reputable physicians believe that the combined skill of several trained specialists in chronic disease cases can accomplish more than one doctor alone—in other words, in unity there is strength.

They offer to treat all who can call on this visit absolutely free as this is their original method of getting their system of treatment before the public quicker, and no one, rich or poor, white or black, should neglect to take advantage of their very liberal offer —ABSOLUTELY FREE— (medicine excepted.) No cutting; no knife.

It makes no difference how many doctors you have consulted or how many patent medicines you have taken, you cannot afford to miss this opportunity of ascertaining your exact condition and be honestly advised. No one should require further evidence of the skill of these specialists than the following letter recently received from a well-known Baptist minister:

"I can't thank you enough, Doctor," said the Rev. R. L. Fletcher, well-known minister, as he entered the crowded reception rooms of the Associated Doctors and continued to say words of praise to all those assembled. "I began suffering from general break-down Nov. 28, last, and appeared to go all to pieces; my stomach, kidneys, heart, blood and nerves went back on me, and even though I consulted the best local doctors, they could give me no cure, and advised me to consult an expert specialist. As soon as I noticed your announcement and learned from so many people of your cures, I came to your office.

"I had indeed about lost hope, but to-day—even after taking your marvelous treatment for only this short period, I am a new man; eat well, and sleep well and feel like a man in my prime. I want to thank you and my dear wife also wants to thank you for she is so proud of my improvement. I want you to publish this statement so that others can benefit the same as I have done."

'Most gratefully yours,
(Signed) "R. L. FLETCHER."

Now that you know the truth, you have only yourself to blame if you continue to suffer from piles, kidney and bladder troubles, discharges, bed wetting, blood poison, skin eruptions, rheumatism, epilepy, uric acid poisoning, paralysis, nervous troubles and debility, neuralgia, stomach and liver troubles, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, pleurisy, tumors, indigestion, constipation, gall st ones, ovarian and female troubles, enlarged glands or any reflex condition of the nervous system, and those diseases about which most people dislike to consult the general practioner.

Bear in mind that this will likely be the last visit when the specialists extend their services free.

Hundreds have been restored to their perfect good health with rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes—so may you. The specialists are too well known throughout the state to require further mention.

Married women should be accompanied by their husbands and children by their parents.

Remember the hotel, day and date, one day only. Hours 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A RECORD TURNIP PATCH.

Was the moon right when Uncle Joe Popwell planted his turnip patch? He says he don't go by the signs of the moon, but we are inclined to be of the opinion that he "hit it right" whether he did it by accident or on purpose. Anyway when you have read this story you will admit that his was a very successful turnip patch.

On the 28th of August Uncle Joe says he planted a patch containing a little less than one-fourth of an acre. From that patch he has already sold $46.40 worth of turnips, and he estimates that there are now $50 worth on the ground.

He did not tell us this, but we judge that in addition to those he sold and those now in the patch, there must have been a goodly number of them consumed on his family table and a generous division of the crop among the close neighbors.

We say this is a good record for a turnip patch. Do you think the moon was right when he planted them,

FOUND RELIEF FROM CATARRH

Nose and Head Stopped Up Every Morning. Drippings From Back of Nose Got Stomach Irritated. Dreco, the Great Herbal Remedy, Gave Relief.

A famous doctor, writing about catarrh, says: "When the nose is stopped up, as by a cold in the head, or when the bad habit of mouth breathing is indulged in, the air we breathe is only partially warmed, moistened and otherwise prepared for contact with the deeper tissues; therefore, diseases of the throat, windpipe or lungs are very apt to develop."

"I have been a sufferer from catarrh for a long time," says Mrs. L. T. Bowen of 62 Eugene St., Montgomery, Ala. "There seemed to be a constant dripping into my throat from the back of my nose. Upon rising in the morning my head and nose would be all stopped up, and it would take some time to get them cleared. My breath most of the time was foul, and my breathing was heavy and difficult. I knew of the benefits people were receiving from taking Dreco, so bought a bottle. At the end of the first bottle I felt that my condition was much improved. On rising I was not nearly so much stopped up; my breath was sweeter and the dripping much less. I am continuing the treatment and feel that I will get a permanent cure, and do not hesitate to recommend Dreco to anyone suffering as I was."

Dreco acts directly on catarrhal conditions of the nose, head, throat and stomach, as it is quickly absorbed by the blood and circulated to the affected parts, where its tonic action is soon felt, giving prompt benefit, and if the use is continued, often effects permanent relief.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by UPCHURCH DRUG CO., Clanton.

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

Sunday, Nov. 30, will long be remembered by the colored population of Clanton. On that day the widely published rally for our $1,000 school came off. At the start we were confronted with a few obstacles. In the first place the heavy rains on Friday and Saturday, followed by a cold snap on Sunday, together with a rally at Morning Star Church, had much to do with our out-of-town visitors. Again the preacher for the 11 o'clock service, Rev. Mixson, was absent on account of illness. Just at the eleventh hour Rev. Burks, of Verbena, appeared on the scene and took care of the situation. He preached a very forcible sermon on the importance of education. He made it plain that a mental education without moral training is not sufficient. The Friendship and Salem choirs furnished us with music. The collection from the men who pledged $25 each and the public was taken up. The first to the table was A. L. Sewell, followed by J. A. Wood, West McCall, L. D. Buckner, W. A. Dickinson All the above paid $25 each.

At four o'clock the women of the School Improvement Society met at Salem church. Rev. Sanders, Missionary of the Chilton County Association, preached an excellent sermon. The two presidents of the School Improvement Society, Mrs. M. A. Dickinson and Mrs. J. A. McCall, did well. Their members and loyal friends responded to their appeal for help and put them over the top.

We cannot say too much in behalf of those women and their supporters. It would have been impossible for the trustees board to accomplish much if it were not for their aid and assistance in the work.

The services of the day were further continued by lectures at night. The writer, Prof. Draper, and Rev. Alexander lectured. Prof. Draper delivered a fine lecture on the importance of education and the necessity of building school houses, and better house in order to have better men and women. Rev. Alexander spoke along the same line.

At the night session Mr. Walter Benjamin paid his $25 of pledge money. Major Holmes, seeing the enthusiasm of the people, pledged $25 and paid $5 of it. I take this opportunity of thanking the public and also the noble women of Clanton for the sacrifice they have made. We have only made a small beginning toward our goal. It will take more rallying and work to complete what we have before us. Let us not stop where we are, for the work has just begun. The rally will be continued till the second Sunday in December, by which time the other pledgers and friends will enable us to make a round report.

A PLEA FOR THE BOY.

If you've dressed him up on Sunday in his prettiest little shirt, Expect that he will promptly find his way into the dirt.
Don't stand aghast and startled if he dares to climb a tree
Or wants to play in places where he never ought to be;
It's the nature of the youngster to run wild in search of joy.
Were he tame and neat and careful
then he wouldn't be a boy.
Don't imagine you can train him so he'll like to wash his ears
Or be a little angel when your company appears.
Don't fancy gentle mother when he goes to bed at night
That you'll never find the bruises that he's picked up in a fight.
And don't give way to sighing when his wilfull tricks annoy;
If he didn't like to battle then he wouldn't be a boy.
Don't view these different stages as the signs that he is bad,
To be all the time in mischief is the nature of the lad.
There is fun in getting dirty, and no real boy can see
Why clothes are so important—and
he's wiser there than we.
If he never got in trouble and was careful with each toy,
And was never wild and heedless, then he wouldn't be a boy.

Senate Recoiled From Tying up this Country

VOTE INDICATES MAJORITY SOUGHT TO PREVENT PARTICIPATION IN BROILS OF EUROPE.

Washington, Nov. 8.—There is food for thought in the fact that when the Senate voted for the unreserved acceptance of the peace treaty and covenant the vote stood 38 for acceptance and 53 against it.

In other words, as that vote indicates, only a little more than a third of the Senate are willing to stand for the treaty and covenant unmodified.

The rest of the Senate recoiled from the idea of tying the country up to an arrangement that clearly would enmesh the American people in the broils of Europe and would sacrifice the sovereignty of the United States on the altar of internationalism.

It is more and more plain, the longer the votes in the Senate are studied, that if the treaty and covenant unamended and unreserved, with the administration exerting tremendous pressure on Senators to support it, could not get more than 38 votes at the outside, then there are such objectionable features inhering in the document that the average American citizen will do well to examine into those features for himself.

He will do well to ask himself, for instance, whether he is ready to support as it stands Article X of the covenant under which beyond any question whatever American troops, seamen, ships and guns could be thrown into a European or Asiatic conflict without Congressional authority.

TAFT WOULD SELL AMERICANISM FOR A MESS OF POTTAGE.

Washington, Dec. 8.—The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement from its Washington headquarters:

"In its desperate attempt to deprive the people of an opportunity to pass judgment on the league reservations through popular vote, the League to Enforce Peace is practically holding out the inducement of office to Republicans if their political leaders will but abandon their plan to make the reservations an issue of the next campaign. Mr. Taft, the president of the Peace League, is out with a lengthy argument in which he uses the following language: 'Republican committeemen in all the states, in the effort to secure contributions and to arouse the energy of all Republicans, are meeting with unexpected rebuffs, because of a failure to dispose of the treaty and the league.' Taken together with the rest of his appeal that the treaty be disposed of and not held over until the judgment of the people can be expressed next November, that sentence is an assertion that if the Republicans insist on making the league reservations a campaign issue they can expect few contributions to their campaign funds, Mr. Taft plainly insinuates the converse: That if the Republicans will drop that issue money will flow into their party coffers in abundance.

"Never before has a man who called himself American had the temerity to suggest that patriotism was a commodity that could be bought and sold. But here is a man, once unfortunately the foremost citizen of the United States, who issues an open statement to the people generally and to his party colleagues in particular that if they but listen to his advice and abandon their fight for their country's continued independence their party coffers will be filled. The country has been surfeited in the past year with the acts of its President in carrying out his scheme of self-glorification at the expense of his country's sovereignty, but it has remained for our only ex-President to advocate the selling out of that sovereignty for a sordid money consideration. For pieces of gold he urges the defenders of the Nation's institutions to surrender their trust to an aggregation of vulture nations that seek the exploitation of the wealth and resources of the United States for their own aggrandizement.

"An insight into the hitherto unsuspected mental processes of Mr. Taft is permitted by his remarkable article. How long has the standard of ethics revealed by his arguments been one of the governing factors in his life? If he would have men in the Senate, charged with the duty of legislating for the best interests of their country, abandon their settled convictions for the lure of added contributions to a political treasure chest, does it not follow that he would adopt a similar course for himself? Should not his official acts while in the White House be reviewed in the light of this new revelation?

"What was it that induced Mr. Taft while President to urge trade relations with Canada that would have brought ruin to the farmers of the United States? His policy of Canadian reciprocity was strongly urged against by practically every other Republican in the country, but was persisted in and brought temporary political disaster to the party. Why was it that President Taft vetoed the bill giving statehood to Arizona and New Mexico because the people of the former chose to include the initiative and referendum in their constitution? Why did he also veto the bill proposing to apply a literarcy test to immigrants, since made a law through Republican votes? Why did he take other actions, repugnant to Republican thought at the time and inexplicable from the standpoint of his party associates? A possible answer is found in his most recent public letter, apparent to anybody who takes the trouble to read it."

TO ASK CONSIDERATION OF WATER POWER BILL

WITH MERCHANT MARINE QUESTION TO BE GIVEN CONSIDERATION AT AN EARLY DATE.

Washington, Nov. 8.—Chairman Jones, of the Senate Committee on Commerce will urge the consideration of water power legislation in the Senate immediately following the passage of the Cummins railroad measure, unless an understanding has been reached by that time concerning the future consideration of the Peace Treaty. The water power bill has already passed the House, and Senator Jones believes that it is of such great importance to the country that it should be acted upon by the Senate at an early date.

The Committee on Commerce is also prepared to give immediate consideration to the merchant marine question, and will commence public hearings in the near future. These two measures will be used as the basis of the committee's hearings.

BOY'S AND GIRL'S AGRICULTURAL CLUB WAS FAIR ACT

By L. N. Duncan, Superintendent of the Junior Extension Work.

The legislature of Alabama at its recent session took a very important and progressive step for the extension work in Alabama by passing a prize act which was introduced by Representative Long of Sumter. The main features of this law are as follows:

1. A County Board of Directors to have charge of all district and county boys' and girls' club fairs, is created and is composed of:

(1.) The Probate Judge or Chairman of the Board of Revenue.

(2.) The County Farm Demonstration Agent.

(3) The County Home Demonstration Agent.

(4.) The County Superintendent of Education.

2. The County Board of Directors divides the county into 10 Fair Districts based upon the school attendance of the previous year and the topography of the county. Each succeeding year the Districts must be declared in force as they are, or the county re-districted at the discretion of the Board, not later than the first Monday in July.

3. The County Board of Directors appoints a committee of three in each District to work up and look after the District Fair.

4. In order to have a District Fair $25 must be raised and a majority of the legal voters in the District must sign a petition requesting the County Board of Revenue to decare the law in force for the District. The $25, and the petition are presented to the Board of Revenue. The Board of Revenue then may declare the law in force for the District and appropriate an additional $25 for the District. This makes a total of $50 available for the District Fair. After a District has once raised the $25 and secured the signatures of a majority of the legal voters in the District to the petition, in the following years it will not be necessary to get another petition, but simply to raise the $25.

5. When a majority of the Districts qualify for holding District Fairs, then the Board of Revenue may declare the law in force for holding a County Fair for club boys and girls and appropriate $500 for such a Fair. When the County qualifies there is then available for the County $100 from the state.

6. The County Board of Directors must set all dates for the District and County Fairs for boys and girls. All District Fairs in a county must be held prior to the County Fairs for club boys and girls in the same county. Such County Fairs must be held not later than November 15th.

7. The $50 for a District Fair may be spent, according to the discretion of the County Board, for offering premiums or for other expenses in connection with the District Fair. The County and State funds may be used for offering premiums and paying other expenses of a County Boys' and Girls' Club Fair and for holding meetings or short courses of instructions for club boys and girls.

8. All boys and girls competing for premiums must be either members of the boys' and girls' clubs as organized under the supervision of the county farm and home demonstration agents or students in vocational classes under the Smith-Hughes Law. Boys and girls who make exhibits must along with such exhibits file reports of the work.

9. The Board of Directors must designate some reliable and responsible bank in the county to receive and disburse all funds for District and County Fairs for Boys' and Girls' clubs.

During the period of Mr. Wilson's incapacity, and with Tom Marshall forbidden to assume his Constitutionally-provided position, what shall we call Joe Tumulty? The Regent?

REPUBLICANS ELATED BY ELECTION PROSPECT

INDICATION POINT TO SUCCESS IN SPECIAL CONTESTS FOR CONGRESS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The special election to select a successor to Representative Webb, Democrat, resigned, in the ninth North Carolina district, will be held on December 16, and the Republican leaders of that state and in Washington are elated over the prospects for the election of a Republican from that district. The same issues and the same influences which brought Republican success recently in Kentucky and Oklahoma are uppermost in North Carolina, according to advices reaching the capital today, and in view of the fact that the Republicans have nominated a man of the highest type, in the person of John W. Morehead, the campaign is being waged enthusiastically.

At a recent Republican district convention held in Newton, N. C., the policy of the Republican party was clearly outlined, and met with instant approval throughout the district.

"The Republican party is not the party of sectionalism," said Chairman Klutz; "Neither is it the party of internationalism. It is solely the party of Americanism."

The convention adopted resolutions commending the United States Senate upon the stand it had taken concerning the League of Nations, and pledging the party to give labor a square deal and to be fair both to labor and capital.

MR. J. N. DENNIS WRITES LETTER ABOUT GROWING PECANS AND FRUIT.

It was a wise saying of Theodore Roosevelt's: "Half of wisdom consists in being wise in time."

The wise farmer who plans well before planting his 1920 crops will not increase his cotton acreage at the expense of food and food crops, even if cotton is selling around forty cents.

With the general unrest in the country and all organized labor clamoring for shorter hours and higher wages we may expect higher prices and shorter supplies of all manufactured articles as well as on all food and feed. Therefore it is just as necessary as ever that we produce every thing at home, that we will need, that we possibly can.

Now is a good time to put out a few purebred budded or grafted (paper-shell) pecan trees. The pecan is one of our finest shade and nut trees and should be found at every home in Chilton county. If they are well put out, fertilized and cared for they will begin bearing in from three to six years and will continue to bear for at least a lifetime.

Now is a good time to write the Alabama Experiment Station for varieties and kinds that will do best in our section and in the mean time get their advice as to other fruits. Then get in touch with some of the well established nurseries and buy your trees direct and not from a travelling agent. There is no reason why we should not have plenty of fruit if we are willing to study and follow the instruction of our Experience Station workers, but we cannot grow fruit without keeping the trees properly sprayed any better than we can grow Irish potatoes without fighting the potato bugs.

J. N. DENNIS.

McADOO'S ADVICE ASTONISHING

Washington, Dec. 8.—The Republican Publicity Association, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., today gave out the following statement from its Washington Headquarters:

"Mr. McAdoo has come to the relief of Secretary Wilson in his dilemma over the coal situation with some gratituious advice that is really astonishing. He endorses unreservedly the proposal to compromise the wage demands of the miners along the lines proposed by the Secretary of Labor, which would give them an increase of about thirty-one per cent. But Mr. McAdoo objects to permitting the operators to pass that added cost along to the consumer, alleging that their profits in the past two or three years have been inordinate, and that the increase in wages should be taken largely if not wholly out of those profits. Although he does not say so specifically, doubtless Mr. McAdoo has in mind the curbing of the coal profiteers through the anti-profiteering sections of the Lever Act.

"To determine whether the coal operators' profits have been exorbitant and whether they should be compelled by the criminal provisions of the Lever Act to lower them in proportion as the wages of the miners are increased, Mr. McAdoo recommends that reference be made to the income tax returns of the operators for the last fiscal year. He alleges that in 1917, the returns for which were filed in the spring of 1918 and are the last of which McAdoo has official knowledge as Secretary of the Treasury, the profits of the coal operators were 'shocking and indefensible.' He thinks it highly probable that similar conditions prevailed in 1918. 'I earnestly urge,' says he 'that the bituminous coal operators be not permitted to impose an additional charge for coal on the public until a careful examination has been made of their income tax returns filed with the Treasury Department for the years 1917 and 1918.'

"It is a provision of the Constitution itself—one that is recognized every day in our courts—that 'No person * * * shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself. Every person and corporation that filed income tax returns did so with the understanding that they were to be kept secret by the Treasury Department. Congress understood that the revenue law contained ample safeguards against violation of the confidences in those returns. Publication of statistics gathered from them is permitted under certain conditions, but nowhere in the revenue law or any other Federal statute can be found an intimation that the information contained in those returns is to form the basis of criminal action to enforce laws wholly unrelated to the collection of taxes. Such an idea is so manifestly contrary to the spirit and letter of the Constitution that noody was so foolhardy as to suggest it until our erstwhile Secretary of the Treasury hit upon the scheme as a novel and happy solution of the coal difficulty.

"It may be and probably is a fact that the coal operators made unconscionable profits during the war, and in that they were not different from practically every other form of industry, or from labor itself which try's emergency to strike and threaten strikes in an effort to increase its financial return. The question of profiteering is, from the Government viewpoint, something quite apart from the question of wages. The former can be controlled through the Lever Act, but there is no way provided for Federal interference in the latter other than in using the good offices of the Government in calling together the interested parties for a discussion of their differences. Mr. McAdoo's attempt to bring about an increased wage to the miners, and its absorption by the operators under compulsion from the Government, is so entirely repugnant to all proper Federal functions as not to be worthy of serious consideration."

Palmer's Failure Gives Cheer to M'Adoo Boom

ERSTWHILE "CROWN PRINCE OF ADMINISTRATION" SEES HIS STAR IN ASCENDANT.

Washington, Dec. 8.—William G. McAdoo's sudden reappearance upon the political stage through a letter over his signature, injecting himself into the coal shortage difficulties, has aroused a considerable amount of discussion in Washington, where every political development is now weighed with the greatest care in its relation to the forthcoming national campaign.

Until a few months ago, Mr. McAdoo had seemed to have the uncontested control of the Democratic presidential nomination in 1920. He was referred to variously as the "Crown Prince" and the "heir apparent" of the present administration. But with the appointment of A. Mitchell Palmer as Attorney General, and his immediate precipitation into the high-cost-of-living situation, many of those who had been restless under the McAdoo yoke turned hopeful eyes toward Mr. Palmer. It was generally conceded that if Mr. Palmer was successful in reducing the high cost of living, he would be in a position to get the Democratic nomination.

Though refusing to admit such a possibility, Mr. McAdoo and his supporters went temporarily into retirement to await developments. They observed silently, but with stoicism, the nation-wide attention which was given to Mr. Palmer's every move, and the tremendous powers which were conferred upon him by Congress, at his request, to meet the situation. But many weeks—months, even—have gone by since Mr. Palmer started on his crusade, and despite his own claims that prices have been reduced, the Department of Labor and the public, generally, have failed to notice the difference. Hence, the letter of Mr. McAdoo is taken by many as an indication that the McAdoo following has decided that Mr. has failed.

TAKES MONEY TO FIGHT MONEY

No one attempts to deny that a large sum of money was spent by the friends of Truman H. Newberry for his election to the United States senate from Michigan. It was the duty of the true friends of "America First" to spend any sums necessary to elect a man who would stand for the principles upon which this government was founded. Had those who were boosting Senator Newberry's election, while he stayed on the job as a Commander in the Navy, been spineless enough to let Ford money send a man to the Senate who would have been as putty in the hands of Mr. Wilson, Michigan might well have hung her head in shame.

MODERN WOODMEN CAMP ORGANIZED IN CLANTON LAST THURSDAY.

The Modern Woodmen of America held an unusually enthusiastic meeting last Thursday night at the Red Men Hall in Clanton, at which time the organization of the Clanton Camp was perfected and officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Mr. H. L. Hurst, the District Deputy for this District, is a live wire and has secured about one hundred new members for this camp. He has plans laid which will enlist hundreds of others in the near future. The members of the camp say they are going to push the entertainment feature of the order. At the meeting Thursday night a committee was appointed to arrange for the banquet on New Year's night. The members were divided into two teams to wage a campaign for new members, the losing side to entertain the winning side with the banquet on New Year's night.

From the comments of the citizens who were on the streets last Thursday night and heard the uproarious laughter coming from the lodge hall, and from remarks made by some who attended, we judge that Mr. Hurst undoubtedly gives the candidates their money's worth.

Mr. Hurst has moved his family to Clanton, and will make this his home in the future. Under his excellent leadership we predict a bright future and a large membership for this camp. The regular meetings will be held on Thursday night of each week.

HITCHCOCK IN BAD WITH RULER

Senator Hitchcock having been denied an audience with his ruler, gets peeved and declares: "I will not go to the White House until I am sent for." If that time should come he will approach the Throne as the moujik of a decade ago approached the Czar, doing a PAS SEUL on his prayer-bones. It is rumored, by the way, that Hitchcock is in bad standing with the Throne because of his mishandling of the Peace Treaty. Everyone knows that when Royalty makes a blunder there must be some courtier standing by to shoulder the Royal Goat. It is Hitchcock's turn and Kernel House right gladly shifts the burden. There is considerable gossip to the effect that Oscar Underwood is slated to succeed Hitchcock as leader of the internationalist forces in the Senate, notwithstanding the fact that Oscar became persona non grata some years ago by his opposition to Royal mandates. Royal Goatkeeper Joe Tumulty is said to have already taken Underwood's measure for a howdah, in case he carries the goat in the course of the coming year.

"THE MORNING AFTER."

The 38 Senators who voted to adopt the original British-Wilsonian league will have to do some tall explaining at the next election.

DRUGGIST'S ADVICE SAVES HIS LIFE

Ewing L. Davis Was Told That He Had Consumption. Had Spent A Fortune Seeking Health. Just Completely Run Down When Sul-Ferro-Sol Was Recommended by Druggist Friend.

"My health was all gone and my money had gone with it," said Mr. Ewing L. Davis of Albany Ala.

"I had suffered a complete breakdown," continued Mr. Davis, "I was told by my doctor that I had consumption and I changed climate. This seemed to hurt me instead of helping me and I thought that my time had come."

"Why don't you try a bottle of Sul-Ferro-Sol," said a druggist friend to me one day.

"On that day he saved my life. I began to get better right away, and now I feel just as good as I ever felt in my life."

REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING ACTIVITIES LOOMING UP IN CLANTON.

Just a little nosing around town these days will soon reveal the fact that Clanton is preparing right away to take up the building boom that was interrupted here a few years ago by the clouds of war. Some big real estate deals have been under consideration here of late, and one or two of them have already materialized into actualities. Others will no doubt follow in a short time.

And this activity that is coming back in Clanton real estate and business property is not alone. It is accompanied with its usual companion, the sound of the carpenter's hammer and the mason's trowel. There is going to be some new business buildings here within a couple of months.

Another item of general interest in the news of Clanton's business progress is the formation of a large wholesale grocery house here. The firm, Smith, Connell & Company, have already begun their wholesale business in the house formerly occupied by Smith Grocery Company. They will soon have new and more commodious quarters for the expansion of their wholesale trade. J. Wiley Smith, F. M. Connell and J. Lee Smith are the figures behind the new enterprise.

CLANTON POSTOFFICE TO MOVE TO NEW QUARTERS SOON.

We have been informed on reliable authority that the Clanton Postoffice will be removed to new quarters in the Gowan Building about the first of the year. The new location is the building on the corner of First Avenue and Seventh Street.

The building was seriously damaged by fire some time ago, but we are informed that it will be fixed up in modern condition to accommodate the needs of our postal officials. It is an ideal location for the postoffice, and the mve in that direction indicates that there are still alive in Clanton those influences that started to work here some years ago to pull the town in the direction of the Gowan addition.

PLETCHER NEWS.

A marriage of great interest to the many friends of the contracting parties was solemnized on November 26th, when Miss Ethel Hilda Klinner and Mr. Walter F. Broadhead were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. Ruddick, in the presence of many friends and relatives.

The bride is the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Klinner of Route 2, Maplesville. She wore a pretty coat suit of blue, with hat, shoes and gloves to harmonize.

Mr. Broadhead is the son of Mr. Les Broadhead, also of Maplesville, but at present, holds a responsible position with a well-known furniture company in Birmingham.

The attendants were Misses Ella Klinner, Minnie Broadhead, Lena Franklin and Messrs. Howard Gregg, Hermon Broadhead and Walter Murse. Miss Elsie Caldwell played the wedding march.

After the ceremony the couple left for Montgomery, Pensacola and other places of interest and will return to Birmingham to reside. We extend to them our heartiest congratulations and wish them a long and happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Adams and Miss Bertha Rainwater have just returned from a trip to Ramer and Pinelevel. They "flivvered" through the country and report a pleasant trip.

Mrs. Lillie Edwards and daughter, Glennie, left Saturday for Birmingham to visit Mrs. Tap Cooper, who is ill in the Birmingham infirmary.

TO COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS OF EDUCATION:

In view of the fact that all prospective teachers will have opportunity to qualify by taking the regular State examination this month, and for the further reason that the provisional cerificate was authorized merely to take care of emergencies, the State Department of Education is disposed to discontinue the issuance of provisional certificates except in the most extraordinary cases, on the 15th day of December.

It is patent that there has been a considerable lowering of standards in many counties already, and we deem it unwise and undesirable to continue the present liberal method of certificating people without examinations.

Please give this matter such publicity as will avoid embarrassment both to you and to this Department.

Yours very truly,
SPIGHT DOWELL,
Superintendent.

SAID EMMY TO FRIEND FRED:

Among the correspondence at Ellis Island was found a letter from Emmy Goldman to "My dear Friend Fred Howe" in which she said: "I hope that your fine spirit and your good taste will not be carried away by the cheap nationalism which is everywhere raising its sinister head in America today." Emma's hope seems to have been realzed. The appointee and friend of our internationalist president met the test of his anarchist lady friend.

And whereas, notice of such election together with the proposed amendment is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor:

Now Therefore, I, Thomas E. The spirit of the happy "Yule-tide" is in evidence now. Marriages are common over here. On last Sunday Wooley Nix and Miss Wells were married, Rev. Gentry tied the nuptial knot. On the previous Sunday Virgil Gothard and Miss Lovett, Rev. Gentry officiating. The same day in the M. E. church at Randolph, Mardis Smitherman and Miss Ethel Abercrombie, the ceremony was performed by the bride's brother, Rev. M. C. Abercrombie, of Elmore.

The rains of last week were extremely heavy—older people say they have never been equaled here only by the big rains of July about 1874.

Singing next Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock sharp, at Union Springs chapel—old books.

Had an old time candy breaking at N. G. Crumpton's Saturday night.

Mr. Eshleman of the I. B. S. association en route from Birmingham to Montgomery, stopped off here and delivered three lectures to appreciative audience, subjects were first: "Where Are the Dead?" second, "The times and Seasons," third, "Elijah and Elisha a Types and their Antitypes."

He is the most graceful speaker we ever heard. Among the noted visitors to hear the lectures were Misses Dora and Laura Armstrong of Randolph.

Rev. M. C. Crumpton of the Childersburg Bank recently visited his people here.

Recently had an old-time candy breaking at J. N. Cofer's.

The colored people's school house at Randolph was burned recently. Caught from a heater.

Mr. Lon Brown has moved into his new residence just south of Six-Mile Creek where he will erect a new saw mill.

In just a few short days will arrive the anniversary of the gladsome announcement by the Herald Angels to the Judean Shepherds, Good tidings of great joy to all. None excepted the most joyful message ever proclaimed—will in due time reach even earth's dead millions.

We wish for all the Banner force and all it readers the most joyous Christmas ever.

The "Ford Educational Weekly," a film put out by the Ford Motor Company has earned for that company the largest circulation of motion pictures in the world. Ford films are run in 5,238 theatres in the United States each week. They are also distributed throughout Canada, Europe, Asia, South America, Africa, Austria and many other islands.

The Ford pictures are viewed by more than ten millions of people in motion picture theater each week. But they are also in demand outside of the theater. Churches, colleges, the Y. M. C. A., public and private schools and even many of the country's largest penal institutions find Ford films particularly valuable because of their moral and educational value.

PORE OLD HENRY.

The Ford is my car.
I shall not want another.
It maketh me to lie down in wet places.
It spoileth my soul.
It leadeth me into deep waters.
It prepareth a breakdown in the presence of mine enemies.
Yet I run thru the valley, I am TOWED up a hill.
I fear great evil when it is with me.
It anointeth my face with oil.
Its tank runeth over.
Surely to goodness if this thing follows me all the days of my life I shall dwell in the house of the insane forever.

WILSON DISTORTS THE TARIFF FACTS

Washington, Dec. 17.—The Republican Publicity Association, through its president, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. today gave out the following statement from its Washington headquarters:

"Democratic persistency in ignoring or misrepresenting economic facts was illustrated in the message to Congress discussing foreign trade and the tariff question. Whether the message was written by the President or by members of his cabinet, or by Mr. Tumulty, it sets forth the principles of the Democratic party on the tariff question, and it is against a protective tariff. On that subject, the message says: 'Any measures taken to prevent imports will inevitably curtail exports, force curtailment of production, load the banking machinery of the country with credits to carry unsold products and produce industrial stagnation and unemployment.'

"That statement ignore facts set forth in the annual statistical abstract of the Deparment of Commerce which shows that during the 13 years prior to the outbreak of the war, the rest of the world bought from the United States more than it sold to the United States, the aggregate excess for the period being nearly seven billion dollars. The exports from the United States in 1900 exceeded the imports by $544,000,000, and they continued to exceed the imports every year, the excess in the year ending June 30, 1913, being $652,000,000. And all that period was under a protective tariff—the tariff which the Democratic party denounced.

"A further examination of figures of the Department of Commerce will show that the President's message stated the exact opposite of the truth. The fact is, and it is proven by the statistics of the Democratic administration, that measures encouraging imports will inevitably curtail exports. Now let us look at the evidence.

"The Democratic tariff law became effective Oct. 3, 1913, and was in operation 10 months before the war disarranged trade channels. During that period our imports increased $102,000,000 as compared with the similar period under the Republican law. According to the doctrine set forth in the Preident's message, our exports should have increased also, but the records show a decrease of $160,000,000. The Democratic theory that the more we buy abroad the more we will be able to sell abroad, is disproven by the statistics. In that ten months' period we learned at a cost of $262,000,000 that when we buy abroad we send good American dollars to build up industries of other countries, at the same time depleting our own financial resources, employing less labor and diminishing the activity of American capital.

"The theory that the way to win other markets is first to surrender our own, is in entire harmony with the general Wilsonian policy of surrender. He surrendered to some unknown power and for an unknown reason on the Panama Canal toll question. He surrendered to the foreign producer when he forced through the tariff law of 1913. He offered a surrender to Germany in 1915 when he declared America 'too proud to fight.' He surrendered to the Railroad Brotherhoods when the Adamson law pas passed in 1916, and he endeavored to surrender American traditions, the Monroe Doctrine, and, in fact, national independence, by negotiation of the league of nations treaty in 1919. It need surprise no one that the President proposes to promote American trade interests in the future by continuing the policy of trade surrender.

TO CARE FOR DESTITUTE IN WESTERN ASIA

In response to an urgent cable from Col. William N. Haskell, official representative of Near East Relief, a unit of women welfare workers, who served in France, will sail November 22nd for Tiflis to aid in the care of 800,000 refugees made destitute in Western Asia.

The party is in charge of Miss Mary Vail Andres of New York City, only woman who won the distinguished service medal for work in the field. All the members of the group are old friends, having been pioneers in the first canteens established at Toul, Chalons and Epernay.

MISS MARY VAIL ANDREES, Distinguished Service Heroine Who Now Goes to Near East.

After escaping the nightly air raids over those places, typhhus, now very prevalent in the Near East, holds no terrors for them. They will work particularly among the orphans now being cared for by the Near East Relief organiation in America.

Miss Andrees and the Misses Anderson of New Canaan, Conn., wear the Croix de Guerre. They were in the first group of seven Red Cross girls sent to France to open canteens. Every member of the unit worked under shell fire at the front.

The girls volunteered to go on the expedition when they heard that thousands of women and children are dying of starvation and that welfare worker on the ground are overwhelmed by the magnitude of the task confronting them.

Miss Margaret Milne, of Washington, was a member of the Hoover relief commission that carried food to Rumania last winter and Miss A. Sidney, an Englishwoman, was with the British relief commission in Serva for three years. Each member of the unit has an enviable war record. Though they are going to the Caucasus for the Near East Relief Committee, No. 1 Madison Avenue, they will work in Red Cross uniforms.

A recent cable from Col. Haskell stated that 800,000 Armenians will require assistance until next year's harvest. Over 120,000 orphans must be cared for. Sick and starving they have been wandering about in the desert and are daily being brought into large centers by relief workers. Buildings requiitioned for orphanages are filled to oveflowing.

Many of the men and women engaged in relief work were at the front. Reports state that they are putting into the work of minitering to the suffering and helpless of the Near East the same heroic spirit they displayed in France.

ANOTHER DEMOCRAT SCORES MR. WILSON

SENATOR ASHURST INDICTS ADMINISTRATION ON ITS "COWARDLY" ANTICS.

Washington, Dec. 15.—In some respects the bitterest arraignment of the administration for its conduct of the Mexican question which has been heard in Congress has been uttered by Senator Ashurst of Arizona, a democratic member.

Senator Ashurst's indictment is the more striking because ordinarily up to support whatever the administration asked him to support. In the case of Mexico, it is evident his patience is about exhausted.

He presented in the Senate are solution which in effect calls on the War Department to assemble on the border troops in sufficient number to protect the Americans along the border from the Mexican outlaws and marauders.

In discussing it, Senator Ashurst declared the Mexican question had been "miserably and shamefully mishandled." He declared the policy toward Mexico had been "weak, vacillating, negligent and cowardly" and that he would stand it no longer.

He said he believe the people of his own state were now in peril from border outlaws and that the policy of this government had encouraged the contending factions in Mexico to believe they could sacrifice American lives and get "slapped on the wrist" by way of punishment.

After explaining his resolution, Senator Ashurst said:

"Surely, I do not need to argue to the Senate of the United States that in a Republic such as ours an unlawful assault upon, or an unwarranted act of violence addressed toward, a citizen of the United States is an insult to the government."

HOME SERVICE BRANCH OF LOCAL RED CROSS

The Home Service Branch of the Chilton County Red Cross Chapter during the past six weeks has rendered service to some fifteen families in the county, in the way of tracing delayed allotments, insurance, applying for compensation, tracing lost baggage, and the thousand and one other bewilderment that beset the path of the ex-service man returning to civilian life. Civilian families are beginnng to learn too that the Red Cross is a friend to everybody. The local Home Service was the happy means of establishing communication between one Chilton County family and a son and brother who had not been heard from in some four or five years. Other small services have been rendered to civilian families too. In fact the scope of the work is increasing all the time and the local Home Service Branch is looking forward to a plendid year of service for 1920. Old friends are renewing acquaintance with the Red Cross and new ones are coming in every few days.

A WORD ABOUT WAR-RISK INSURANCE.

We may build monuments, or we may entertain lavihly—as tributes of respect to "Our Boys." But there is a national desire to manifest our appreciation in a perpetual manner. This is best accomplished by War Risk Insurance. It is the cheapest insurance in America. Only those who served in active duty are entitled to hold it. The operating cost is borne by taxation, not derived from premiums. It is your contribution to bravery. It is your duty to induce every deserving service man to grasp the opportunity offered by his Government and HOLD ON TO HIS INSURANCE.

CONGRESSMAN HEFLIN TALKS ON "SANDY" CLAUS AND CHRISTMAS.

"A few days ago, I saw a picture of a little boy in a newspaper and to me it was brim full of pathos. It was entitled "Dreaming of Christmas." A little country boy was lying on a bed asleep. A pleasing and happy expression was on his face. He was dreaming of "Sandy" Claus and Christmas. That little picture carried me back to the days of my childhood when Christmas was Christmas and "Sandy" Claus was abroad in the land. Then little boys and girls would think and talk and dream of Christmas. Our parents permitted us to pass through that joyous little circle of years, unhampered by the matter of fact things that now rob Christmas of the Pristine pleasures as we knew them in our childhood. The tendency now amongst too many parents is to make of the child a serious minded adult before the period of youthtime is ended, thus robbing children of the innocent joys of childhood. This is wrong. Paul had the right conception of it. You remember he said, 'When I was a child, I thought as a child and speak as a child, but when I became a man I put away childish things.' Youthtime is brief enough at best and people without imagination and fancy have no right to lessen its joys by throwing into that rosy period the things that belong to the after years. If parents could just realize at this season of the year especially, that thoughts and dreams of "Sandy" Claus and Wonderland bring joys to childhood that can come from no other source, they would not destroy these innocent pleasures by shutting up their hearts and homes to that white-whiskered old gift giver from the realm of plenty. Thousands of the joys of youthtime flower in the field of fancy and fruit in the orchards of the child's imagination. The taking of 'Sandy' Claus out of childhood and childhood out of the kingdom of "Sandy" Claus is a crime against the child. I can recall my youthful acquaintance with "Sandy" Claus and how pleasing it was to me! He played an important and happy part in my childhood and the memory of his joyous visitations is pleasing to me still. The coming of 'Sandy' Claus and the birthtime of Jesus were inseparably linked in my mind. Every thought associated with the coming of "Sandy" Claus was elevating and enobling. There was nothing about it that was harmful, but every thing about it was pleasing and helpful. For the children it afforded a reformation period at least once a year. 'You must be a good boy or girl or 'Sandy' Claus will not bring you anything Christmas,' we were told in every household, and little boys and girls approached Christmas time with improved conduct and in a pious frame of mind. The novelty of the thing was pleasing beyond expression. It developed the fancy, stimulated the imagination and strengthened the faith of the child, and these are essential to happy childhood and necessary to the well rounded and useful life of the man or woman. The man or woman who never knew 'Sandy' Claus has my profound sympathy. There is something missing from their childhood—joys that they never knew. Let the children at this glad season of the year romp and laugh and play and be happy for it won't be long till they, like Paul, will put away childish things. Let them think and dream of 'Sandy' Claus and on Christmas morning, wake up and find their little socks and stockings filled with sweet remembrance from childhoods dear old 'Sandy' Claus. I am the friend of 'Sandy' Claus and if I had my way about it, I would open to him on Christmas Eve night the socks and stocking of every little boy and girl in the country. My thoughts go back to my childhood home in dear old Alabama, when I used to hang up my little sock on Christmas Eve night and have visions and dreams of 'Sandy' Claus. The hope and expectation, the dream and realization of his coming filled me with a feeling of indescribable joy and when I awoke next morning just at the break of day and saw my little woolen sock filled full and bulging out with presents brought to me by 'Sandy' Clause, the cup of my joy ran over and I was supremely happy."

"The 52 Biggest Problems of the Average Southern Farmer."

Every member of The Progressive Farmer staff has had actual farm experience—most of us are running southern farms now—and from our own experiences, and from the multitude of farmers' letters that come to us every year, we believe we have figured out a pretty nearly perfect list of these "fifty-two biggest problems" of the average Southern Farmer, and we are going to treat them in the next year's Progressive Farmer.

We are going to treat them, too, in order of timeliness, just as far as possible. For the aim of The Progressive Farmer, always, is to tell the subscriber just what he wants to know, just when he wants to know it, and in as few words as possible.

Here's the list of big problems we shall treat during the fall months, and the date on which each discussion will appear:

November 1—Financing the Farmer: (Personal and short term credit; Long-term Credit for Land Purchase; Avoiding "Time Prices"; Utilizing National Farm Loan Associations, etc.)

November 8—Systems of Farming—Affecting Soil Fertility, Money Profits, Prosperity and Permanence of Rural Life.

November 15—Arranging and Erecting Fences; Relative Value of Different Systems, Materials, etc.

November 22—How to Reduce Land Washing to a Minimum. (Terracing, Ditching, Filling Land with Humus, Proper Use of Steep Hillsides, etc.)

November 29—What Changes are Needed to Insure Better Health for Men, Women and Children on the Farm

December 6—Winter Care and Feeding of Horses, Mules, Cattle and Hogs.

December 13—Getting Rocks and Stumps off the Land.

December 20—How Farm Neighbors may Work Together for Greater Profits and Happiness.

December 27—Business Methods on the Farm (Inventories; Records; Accounts; Banking; Cost-Keeping; Advertising; System in Correspondence and Sales, etc.)

The above subjects are of vital importance to you, and alone are worth the price we ask, and remember The Progressive Farmer carries many other big featues not mentioned in the above list.

ESTIMATES TOO HIGH.

Demand of Administration for Money Are Beyond Reasonable Wisdom.

Washington, Dec. 15.—"The estimates of the departments for appropriations of about $5,000,000,000 are away beyond what they should be," said Senator Kenyon, who is a member of the Senate appropriations committee.

"Such exorbitant estimates will not be granted. They will be cut and cut deeply. It is out of the question to impose such burdens on the public."

Prof. Hall and Miss Mary Cummings, teachers in the Marbury High School, were visitors to Clanton last Saturday.

Joint Resolution Introduced Which Officially Ends Rostilities.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Representative Tinkham, of Massachusetts, has introduced a joint resolution declaring the tate of war between the United States and Germany to be officially at an end. The Tinkham resolution is similar to the Lodge resolution pending before the Senate. Being a point resolution it would require the signature of the President.

Ever think that some day you might need credit?

Some people go along paying cash for groceries for years.

Then all of a sudden the time comes when they need credit—and they find it very hard to get, because they've always been classed as cash-customers.

That's why so many of our customers have charge accounts.

Not to put off payments indefinitely or to run up bills—but to establish their credit in the community.

In addition they find it mighty convenient not to be obliged to pay cash down for every little thing, to be afraid the delivery boy won't leave the things unless he gets his money.

Of course, charge accounts constitute only one of the many services we extend to our customers.

We feel it is our duty to study the market and test the food products as they are introduced.

That's how we choose RYZON—from a personal test! We found we used less, that we could mix muffins the night before and bake them the next day; in fact, we found RYZON to be economical and thoroughly dependable.

It costs 40c per pound, and, by the way, have you a RYZON Baking Book? This book contains the best recipes of 10,000 women—it costs 30c and is worth a great deal more.

SOME PRESIDENTS WOULD HAVE HUNG CARRANZA

DEMOCRATIC SENATOR THINKS WILSON'S COURSE FUTILE AND VERY HELPLESS.

Washington, Dec. 15.—"There have been administrations in this country which under conditions stated by the senators would long since have had Carranza and his associates hung as murderers."

This is the utterance of Senator Shields of Tennessee, leading democratic senator, who is one of the members on the democratic side to score the administration's futile and hapless course regarding Mexico.

Senator Shields spoke for the purpose of saying that he did not believe Senator Ashurst's resolution, looking simply to the protection of Americans on this side of the border, was adequate.

"We have had ample cause for war with Mexico for five years," said Senator Shields, "and the resolution ought to be one declaring war against Mexico. The safety of our people in the border states and the honor of our country demand it."

Furthermore, Senator Shields expressed his opinion of the administration's Mexican course in no uncertain terms.

"Our relations with Mexico," he said, "constitute the most discreditable and humiliating chapter of our foreign relations history."

He said that there should be some action, not alone to protect Americans on this side of the border but to protect the citizen of the Unied States within the borders of Mexico who are being murdered and robbed constantly.

"From statements made upon this floor by other senators," said Senator Shields, "hundreds of our citizens have been murdered, women have been outraged, and their property, worth millions of dollars, taken and destroyed, in the republic of Mexico, where they were invited and encouraged to go."

Many physicians believe that anyone who has a bad cold should be completely isolated to prevent other members of the family and associates from contracting the disease, as colds are about as catching as measles. One thing sure—the sooner one rids himself of a cold, the less danger,, and you will look a good while before you find a better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to aid you in curing a cold.

REPUBLICANS ENCOUAGED BY RECENT REPORTS

CONTINUOUS NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF COUNTRY LENDS BRILLIANT HUE TO SUCCESS.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The return to Washington of Republican members of Congress, who recently spent a short vacatior in their home states, and the arrival of prominent Republicans for the meeting of the Republican national committee have brought to the capital a veritable flood of political reports which are of the greatest encouragement to the Republican leads. It is confidently claimed by these men that the Republicans will be able to retain every Congressional seat gained from the Democrats in the last election, and that this number will be materially increased through the election of additional Republicans in such hitherto democratic states as Kentucky, Missouri and Oklahoma.

These reports reveal the facts that the ordinary people in all parts of the country are genuinely indignant at the administration because of the general mess into which the country's domestic and international affairs have been permitted to drift the last twelve months. The much-heralded campaign of the department of justice against the high cost of living is looked upon everywhere as a failure. The shortage of sugar is generally blamed upon the administration through its failure to purchase the Cuban crop. The coal shortage and the general labor disruption is believed to be a by-product of conflicting political ambitions between Attorney General Palmer and William G. McAdoo. And the plight of the Peace Treaty is laid squarely at the door of the President and his blind followers in the Senate, despite the efforts of the administration to shift the blame to those who urged its ratification with amendments.

Republicans who have recently been in touch with the voters of various sections of the country believe that the Democrats will be amazed and chagrined when they discover the true etxent of the resentment against the vast extravagances which were permitted during the war, and which have necessitated the continuance of high taxes. The general public is just now beginning to realize for the first time the mammoth proportions of the administration's waste and extravagance, and it is having an effect which is manifesting itself in many political ways.

Montgomery, Dec. 17—Every train removed from service as a result of fuel conservation orders will be placed back again the moment conditions are relieved. Practically every railroad in the state has been effected by the conservation orders.

CHEAP POLITICS.

The general public may not realize that the proceedings in the Truman H. Newberry case are, to say the least, unusual. The remarkable part of the whole affair is the fact that the case is brought by the Federal government. The rule heretofore has been for the contestants to fight the matter out and then for the Senate committee to base its findings in an investigation of its own. But in Senator Newberry's case the Senate investigation will wait until the case is decided in court.

Either a decided attempt has been made to conceal the fact that the same charge was made against Ford that was made against Newberry, or else that fact has been forgotten. Nevertheless such is the case and while the federal agents are working night and day against Newberry they have paid no attention whatever to the charges against Ford. The charge in both cases was expending more money than the federal statute permits.

The suggestion which naturally arises is this: a new form of political corruption where the party in power with the massive machinery of government at beck and call turns that power and wealth against an enemy and at the same time ignores all charges against a friend, although the friend is in the same boat. It will be remembered that Henry Ford's candidacy was announced at the request of President Wilson and everything within power was done by the administration to elect the Detroit manufacturer. While Ford had been an advocate of pacifism and while he talked against the war and while his son was exempted from service, Truman H. Newberry was serving his country in its hour of need and his two sons were in the thick of the fight.

The defeat of Ford was undoubtably a severe blow to Mr. Wilson and a great disappointment to his followers. It meant the control of the senate. In order apparently to wreak vengeance, a disappointed administration now attempts to use the Federal government to bring about the desired results. The people can demand justice and justice will be demanded. If one must be tried, let both contestants be tried.

Let us have the story of the Ford machine and the millions spent for his election. Let us have the story of the influence brought to bear from the White House and every other source of the Federal government. If there is to be a fight on the issue let it be fair and in the open.

To the Republicans of Chilton County, and the Fourth District:

Editor Union-Banner:

Clanton, Ala., Dec. 14th, 1919.

Please allow me space in your paper to say to the Republicans and Independent voters of Chilton County and the 4th congressional District that it is very important that they see that every Republican and Independent voter has registered on or before the 5th day of January, 1920, and also get them to pay up all Poll Tax due on or before the 1st day of February, 1920, as there will be one of the most important and hotest political campaign next year that has ever been waged in the history of this country. Of course this campaign will precede one of the most important elections that has ever been held in the United States. In this election there will be elected practically all of our most important officials from beat officers to President, and there is no question but what this great country of ours is confronted with the most perilous times in its history. Therefore it is more important than ever before that we elect the Republican ticket from beat officers to President. The Republican party will steer safely thru these perilous times, the grand old ship of state in order that this great Republic of ours may be saved and our freedom and liberties will be perpetuated. The prospects for a Republican victory in the year 1920 were never brighter in the history of the party. Not only in the North, East and West, but in the grand old Southland of ours. If there is any signs in the times there will be more Democrats defeated and Republicans elected in their places next year than had ever been in the history of the party. I want to say that there will be a full Republican ticket in the field next year so that every Republican in Alabama that is qualified can vote for his party. In conclusion, I want to appeal to every Republican and Independent voter in Chilton County and the 4th Congressional District to register if he has not already registered, before the 5th day of January, 1920, and also pay all poll tax due on or before the 1st day of February, 1920, as you will have to do both before you can qualify and vote in any elevtion to be held next year.

Yours truly,

W. H. GILLESPIE,

Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee of the Fourth Congressional District, of Alabama.

MAJOR McMORRIS NEW JUDGE NINTETEEN CIRCUIT.

Appointed Saturday by Gov. Kilby —Begins Duties at Oonce.

Major B. K. McMorris, one of Wetumpka's brilliant successful young lawyers, was oppointed judge of the new ninteeenth judicial circuit by Gov. Thos. E. Kilby on last Saturday. Gov. Gilby could not have made a wiser selection in a man to fill this important office. Major McMorris possesses ability, a dignified bearing and a mind so equitably adjusted as to rule most wisely on the bench. He is a man of strong moral character but of broad sympathies and is very popular throughout his town, country and State. Judge McMorris will qualify and assume his new duties at an early date.

By an act of the 1919 legislature the counties of Elmore, Autauga, and Chilton were taken from the Fifteenth circuit, presided over by Judges Leon McCord and William I. Martin and placed in the new ninteenth circuit. In a decision last week the Alabama supreme court upheld the constitutionality of the Lynne recircuiting bill, and the appointment follows this decision.

The new judge of the Ninteeenth circuit is not only a professional man of note, but also has had a wide experience in matters military. Judge McMorris early in his career graduated from U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis with the grade of ensign. During 11 years of service in the navy he rose to the rank of lieutenant which commission he held at the time of his resignation.

For a number of years he was engaged in the practice of his profession as a lawyer in his home town, Wetumpka, removing to Birmingham and later to Montgomery, just before the entrance of the United States into the World War. He was one of the first to offer his services and the benefits of his wide knowledge of military affairs, to his country and state. With the commission of major, he made his journey overseas with the First Alabama Cavalry, in which organization he served with distinction.

Upon receiving his discharge from the army, he again took up his practice in Wetumpka. Judge McMorris has been and is at the present time, one of the most earnest workers in the campaign to perfect a 100 per cent American Legion organization in Alabama. Throughout the state he has a wide circle of friends who are delighted at his appointment to a position of such honor, responsibility and trust.—Wetumpka Herald.

RAINS DAMAGED ROADS AND BRIDGES OF COUNTY.

Commissioner D. H. Gentry was in Clanton last Friday and stated to the Union-Banner that much damage had been done to the roads and bridges of the County by the recent heavy rains and swollen streams. Mr. Gentry said three bridges in his own district had been completely washed away and some others damaged. He expects a busy time in the next few weeks repairing the damage that has been done.

TO THE POLLS, TO BE SURE.

"Plunged in a gulf of dark despair," the morning organ challenges the senate of the United States to go to the country with its covenant reservaions as an issue. "It is the right of the American people to pass upon them—at the polls," it chortless. There already has been some "passing upon them—at the polls." And wherever the American people have passed they have tarried to swat. The hard facts of election returns and the verieties of history cannot be answered and set aside by frothy fiction. To assert that "the attempt of the league assassins to convince the people who are and have been overwhelmingly in favor of the peace treaty in the form in which it was moulded by all the nations at Paris that the president should accept the amendments which make the covenant a mockery and a sham will not get very far," becomes mere noisy eructation in the presence of what has happened whenever and wherever unreserved ratification of the league covenant has been in issue. Every popular expression given in the way that counts and that permits no gainsaying of the verdict has been against the league as the president has offered it and as he has stubbornly insisted it should be approved. "At the polls?" You can bet on it. That's the precise spot and place here and there over the country where circumstances have permitted it that the vote has been taken. Massachusetts did it over the whole state —Henry Cabot Lodge's state. A rock-ribbed democraic district in Oklahoma did it—with a vengeance. An Alabama district, where it is a capital crime not to vote the democratic ticket, came so near electing an anti-league republican that it gave the solid south convulsions. Take it to the polls for a try out? The place for it of all others—the only place and the place where Mr. Wilson with his un-American covenant will be hospitably welcomed by seventy-five per cent of the American electorate—with clubs in their hands and stout purpose in their hearts—Fort Wayne News.

Little Mary T. Owens, Weak, Sickly and Unable to Attend School for Past Two Winters Regains Normal Health. Mother Praises Sul-Ferro-Sol. Remarkable Case.

"Sul-Ferro-Sol certainly built my little girl right up. She was weak, puny and awfully pale. It gave her a good appetite and good color and now she is as well as any of the children she plays with. She is a good deal heavier than she was and is now just as strong as she can be."

The above is exactly what Mrs. Emma Owens said about Sul-Ferro-Sol. Her home is at Pine Bluff, Ark.

And there are many little girls and boys who need rebuilding just as little Mary Owens needed it. They need new blood in their little veins to give them more strength.

Nature answers this demand by supplying Sul-Ferro-Sol, the great blood-giving Iron tonic, and Sul-Ferro-Sol comes to you just as nature supplied it excepting that it is put into a bottle

Sul-Ferro-Sol is highly recommended as a natural Iron tonic for both adults and children. Full directions with each bottle.

MORE EVIDENCE OF GREAT RELIEF

Was Dizzy, Nervous, Back Was Lame, Stomach Full of Gas and Bowels Constipated. Gets Unusual Results.

Dreco does its curative work in a simple, straightforward way. It wastes little time getting all its energies to work, feeding the tired, worn-out nervous tract, filling the arteries with rich, new blood, and building up the body for its fight against disease. Read what Mr. T. B. Menefee of 114 South Cedar street, Mobile, Ala., says:

"For some time I have suffered with nervous pains in my back and limbs, especially the joints. It struck me first in the hips, then the knees got painful, then the shoulders and elbows. My back gave me a great deal of trouble, especially when I got up in the morning, and also when I would make a quick move or bend. I was also troubled with constipation, headaches, nervousness, so I did not sleep well, and my appetite was about all gone. I was attracted by the statements I read in the papers about what Dreco had done for so many other people, and decided to try it, with the result that by the time I had finished one-half of the first bottle my pains had left me and the stiffness was wearing away. I can now jump right out of bed without the slightest pain at all; can stoop about and climb stairs without any trouble. The constipation is entirely gone. I never have a headache, and my wife says I am about to eat her out of house and home, since my appetite has improved so.

"I feel perfectly well now, but my wife insists that I keep it up, so I am going to take another bottle just to 'make sure I'm well.'"

Statements like this from persons right here in our home town should do much to convince people of the true merits of Dreco. This remedy does not contain any mercury, potash or other harmful mineral, nor anything that affects the heart, but is composed of the juices of many different roots and herbs.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by

PRESIDENT FAILS TO KEEP IN TOUCH

REFUSAL TO EXPRESS OPINION ON MEXICAN SITUATION IS SURPRISE TO MANY.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Following the visit of Senators Fall and Hitchcock to the White House to ascertain the President's views on the Mexican situation, in connection with the Fall resolution providing for the severance of diplomatic relations with Mexico, Senator Fall announce that the President had neither expressed an opinion on this important matter, nor had indicated that he would do so later. The senator said that he had explained fully to the President the information on Mexican affairs which he had presented to the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate in support of his resolution. The President, he said, had listened attentively, but had had nothing to say in reply, except to request that Senator Fall furnish him with a copy of the report on Mexican affairs which he is now preparing.

Senator Fall was asked, following the conference, whether the President appeared to be fully informed on the Mexican question. The senator repeated that the President had not expressed himself in any way, which would indicate that the statement of Secretary Lansing before the Foreign Relation Committee, that the situation had not been brought to the President's attention, was correct.

"Do you believe, after seeing the President, that he is mentally capable of handling the present situation?' the senator was asked.

"He is absolutely capable, mentally," the senator replied. He added that the President had received the committee in his bedroom, where he was confined to his bed. Senator Hitchcock added that the President was not propped up in bed, as on the occasion of his last visit to him, but was lying at full length.

In the course of the conference, Secretary Lansing conveyed the news that Consul Jenkins, who has been confined in a Mexican jail had been released. Although this action has cleared up a case which has given the United States government a great deal of trouble, it has no bearing upon the Fall resolution, which is based upon a long succession of crimes against American citizens in Mexico, any one of which is considered to be more flagrant than the Jenkins case.

The failure of the President to make any comment upon the circumstances resulting in the Fall resolution, and the consequent conclusion that he is not sufficiently informed upon the matter to give it his personal attention, leave the entire matter again in the hands of the Department of State and the Committee on Foreign Relations, which, in the past week, have been working in harmony upon this serious situation.

LABOR UNIONS FAIL TO INTEREST FARMER

The hope of labor union leaders that they would be able to enlist the aid of organized farmers was doubtless due to the fact that the argicultural producers have been endeavoring for many years to better their condition through the adoption of the policy of "collective bargaining." The labor union leaders failed, however, to note one vital difference between the policy adopted by themselves and that pursued by organized farmers. The farmers have endeavored to utilize collective bargaining in a thoroughly domocratic manner. The labor union leaders, on the other hand, have endeavored to transform collective bargaining into collective dictation in a manner that is autocratic.

Fruit producers, grain producers, and cattle producers have endeavored to secure better prices for their products by pooling their output and bargaining with buyers for the sale of the total. They have never, however, forbidden or endeavored to forbid any other farmer from selling his product anywhere, at any time, at any price. The effort of the organized farmers has been entirely legitimate, conducted for a proper end and by proper means.

With collective bargaining on the part of labor unions there is no material fault to be found so long as it is bargaining in fact. The flaw in the labor union procedure has been however, that the union not only proposes to sell its own labor at prices which it may fix by collective bargaining or dictation, but it proposes to deny to any other man the right to sell his labor at any other price. It denies the fundamental principle of individual liberty. It endervors to enforce the rule that no man shall work unless he first subscribes to the contracts of the labor union and renders himself subject to the mandates of the walking delegate.

This policy the farmer has never adopted and never will adopt. Such a policy is contrary to the principles of the American government, and, though it may succeed temporarily, it must fail eventually because antagonistic to the public welfare. It is quite possible that a group of agriculture producers could organize its particular branch of agriculture so extensively and adopt methods so severe as to practically dictate the price of its output. Organized dairyman, for instance, might for a time intimidate non-union dairyman by overturning their milk wagons, shooting their drivers, poisoning their heards, and bombing their families, but such methods would not long succeed. Nor is there any danger that such methods will be adopted. Agricultural producers are owners of property; they are heads of families; all their interests are aligned with law and order, and with full recognition of the rights of others.

Because the labor union leaders have adopted methods which can not possibly be approved by organized farmers, the labor union invitation to the farmers to co-operate with them has met a decisive and final rebuff.

REPUBLICANS MAP OUT PLANS FOR THE COMING CAMPAIGN

PARTY'S NATIONAL LEADERS WERE PRESENT TO GIVE COUNSEL REGARDING ORGANIZATION AND POLICIES.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Plans for the 1920 campaign were discussed at a meeting here today of the National Association of Republican State Chairmen, at which many of the party's national leaders were present to give counsel regarding organization and policies.

No formal action was taken, but many problems common to all of the states were threshed over and plans were made to maintain throughout the campaign a well organized connection between the various state organizations and the national committee.

The meeting, which concluded the series of conferences which had brought several hundred republican leads here, was held while preliminary arrangements were in progress for the 1920 national convention, which the national committee voted yesterday to hold in Chicago, June 3. The formal call for the convention was issued and those in charge of arrangements started the big task of allotting tickets and providing facilities.

One decision calculated to further close relations between the state and national organization contemplates the reservation of places in the convention hall for all of the state chairmen, for the heads of the women's division in each state and for two representatives, a man and a woman, for every state committee on ways and means. The formal call sent out by Chairman Hay lays down the new apportionment of state representation as announced yesterday and provides that all delegates and alternates must be chosen "not earlier than 30 days after the date of this call and not later than 30 days before the date of the meeting of such republican national convention unless otherwise provided by the laws of the state in which the election occurs."

A. T. Hert of Kentucky, head of the arrangements committee, said they will probably meet in Chicago early in January to consider details of its work. He predicted that the convention would be the largest ever assembled by any party.

The partisans of various presidential possibilities were active among the asembled leaders until the last of them had left for their homes late tonight. Each of the managers in charge of these pre-convention campaigns wound up his canvass here with a claim that his candidate had gained by the jockeying of the last few days.

All the Illinois republicans in Congress, at a meeting tonight, joined in a statement presenting and indorsing Governor Lowden for the presidential nomination.

ILLINOIS IS AGAINST TREATY AS IT STANDS.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Representative W. H. Hinebaugh of Ottawa, Illinois, who was in Washington today, said the sentiment in Illinois was overwhelmingly against the peace treaty and league covenant in its present form.

"It is not easy to find people in my part of the country who favor the treaty without strong reservations," said Judge Hinebaugh. "I believe an increasing number would like to see the entire treaty pigeon-holed and a resolution passed, such as proposed by Senator Lodge, declaring peace with Germany.

"The people of this country are realizing more and more that instead of diverting our attention to world affairs, we ought to be giving our thought and attention to our plain and serious domestic problems."

When in Congress, Judge Hinebaugh was chairman of the congressional committee of the progressive party. He strongly favored the election of a republican president and the ousting from political power of the present administration.

LITTLE THINGS.

It is not the gift of a Croesus nor the courtesy of kings,
Nor the favor of a Caesar,
That gives a poor heart wings,
But a landscape, warm and feeling
Which peace to another brings.

It is not the gift, but the spirit
In which the gift is given,
Which plants the tree, whose branches
Lift arms of hope to heaven;
'Tis the cup of water, held there
To the lips that cannot ask
And the eyes that speak the "thank you,"
Which glorifies your task.

'Tis the homely little duty,
Performed with cheerful grace,
Which sometimes helps a brother
To reach a higher place.
'Tis grand to do the great things,
Yes noblest, and best,
Is the chance to help another—
For that gives the peace and rest.

THORSBY ITEMS

Thorsby Institute will close on Friday, December 10th, for the Christmas holidays. Most of the boarding students are expecting to leave for their homes, or a visit with relatives, on either Friday or Saturday. School will reopen on January 6th. The second semester will begin February 2nd.

We regret to note the death of Mr. Morris Robinson, father of Mrs. A. K. Horn, who passed away early Thursday morning. Mr. Robinson had been in feeble health for some time, and although his going was sudden and a shock to his family and friends, yet it was not unexpected. We extend to the family our sincere sympathy in their sorrow.

Miss May Stoddard was in Birmingham Thursday and Friday of last week attending a meeting of the Inter-Church World Movement. The conference was held in the auditorium of the First Presbyterian Church. Dr. Laird, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Baltimore, was the presiding officer.

Revs. Chas. T. Rogers and E. W. Butler attended a Congregational Council at Ashland last Saturday.

The Baptist Sunday School is planning a "white" Christmas this year, the program to be given next Sunday night. Mrs. Piper has charge of the program, which promises to be a good one. The public is invited.

Regular preaching services at the Baptist Church on next Sunday morning and evening.

Agnes and Sumner Gerald are expected home Saturday of this week to spend the Christmas holidays with some folks. They are both students at Piedmont College, Demorest, Ga., this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton are expecting Mrs. Norton's sister, Miss Lenore Goodwin and her little niece, Lenore, to be their guests during the holidays.

Mises Margaret Rutherford and Mabel Craig will spend the Christmas vacation visiting various points of interest on the east coast of Florida. Miss Jenkins will spend her vacation with her parents in Demorest, Ga., and Miss Stoddard will probably be with home folks in Iowa for the holidays.

Mrs. Piper was called to Birmingham recently on account of the death of her sister. While there she was taken sick and is now in a hospital there. Her son, Mr. Ed Piper, spent a day or so with her this week. It is hoped that she will soon recover and be able to be home again.

Death of Mr. Robinson.

Morris B. Robinson died very suddenly at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. K. Horn, of Thorsby, Thursday morning, December 11th. Mr. Robinson was born in DeKalb County, Indiana, October 9th, 1838, and at the time of his death was 81 years, two months and two days old. He had spent the greater part of his life in his native state, but after the death of his wife on July 8th, 1911, he came to Thorsby to make his home with his dauyhter, Mrs. Horn.

Mr. Robinson had lived a devoted Christian life for many years and died in full faith and truth in the promises of his precious Saviour. Reading his Bible was a great source of comfort and consolation to him in his declining years.

The funeral services were conducted at the home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. James Davenport. Interment in the city cemetery.

Mr. Robinson leaves a daughter, one son, four grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren to mourn his loss, but their loss is his eternal gain.

The year is fast coming to a close and the first of January 1920 ought to be a great day among colored people, for it marks the 57th anniversity of our emancipation. The progress of the race within that time has been phenomenal.

It has produced many men and women of distinction who are honorably filling their places all over the country. But we must remember that we owe our advancement mainly to the good white people of the North and South as evidenced by such institutions of learning as Howard, Washington, Hampton, Va., Tuskegee, Tuskegee, State Normal of Montgomery and Huntsville—institutions fostered and maintained mostly by white philanthropists of the north and state Boards of the South.

Although we have made great advancements, yet there is much for us to accomplish. We are only a few rounds from the bottom of the ladder. This should not discourage us. A race cannot be made in 57 years.

The civilization of the great Anglo-Saxon race antedates 500 or 600 years before its landing on the New England coast, yet it finds that it has much to do yet, because as the ages roll by, new and peculiar contributions are added to civilization for them to decipher. We are almost in the midst of the Xmas season. Our local merchants and drug stores have a large stock of goods to accommodate the trade. In my first write-up I said we ought to patronize home enterprise, because we live here and our friends are here. That was well demonstrated last week in my canvass among the white people for funds for our school. Every business man as can be seen from the lists published willingly helped us.

Things are as a general rule cheaper in smaller towns than in large cities, because the cost of doing business is less.

PROCLAMATION

Executive Department.

Whereas the Legislature of Alabama at its regular session in the year 1919 has ordered a special election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed Amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held at a date to be fixed by the Governor not less than three months from and after the final adjournment of said regular session:

And Whereas notice of such election together with the proposed Amendment is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor:

Now, therefore, I, Thomas E. Kilby, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that the election to be held, as ordered by the Legislature in said regular session, at a date to be fixed by the Governor after the expiration of three months from the final adjournment of said regular session of the Legislature at which said Amendment was proposed and said election ordered, will be held on to-wit, Monday, December 29th, 1919, for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama in the manner, form and places required by law upon the following Amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, to-wit:

Sec. 194¾. (A) The payment of the poll tax mentioned in the Constitution of Alabama shall not be required of any person who served in the military or naval service of the United States for a period of not less than four months between January 1, 1917, and November 11, 1918, and who has been or who may be honorably discharged from said service and who was a qualified elector, except as to payment of poll taxes, at the time he entered said service, or who has since become such qualified elector, except as to payment of poll taxes. Any such person is exempted from the payment of all poll taxes until September 30, 1923. (B) Certificates of exemption from payment of such poll taxes shall be issued to persons entitled thereto under regulations prescribed by the Governor.

DR. SEALE HARRIS TELLS OF WORK OF NEAR EAST RELIEF

In accepting the chairmanship for Alabama of the Near East Relief, the organization formed under the name of the American Committee for Armenian-Syrian Relief, for the purpose of helping the victims of Turkish cruelty in Western Asia, Dr. Seale Harris, editor of the Southern Medical Journal and former Lieutenant-Colonel of the American Expeditionary Forces made the following statement:

"In accepting the state chairmanship of the Near East Relief, I feel that I am offered an opportunity to be of service to a people whose claim is unquestioned and whose need is unsurpassed—the starving millions of Armenia and the Near East, including a quarter of a million orphan children who have absolutely no means of support and no one to whom they can look for help except to the people of America, who have always been their friends and helpers.

"While in Paris I was closely associated with Dr. E. B. Watson, Dean of Roberts College, in Constantinople and I learned to know quite well several members of the National Committee from Armenia, who came to Paris to see President Wilson, to urge that the United States become the mandatory power to the peoples who live in Aremnia and Turkey. I heard from these men, who have spent years, some of them their entire lives, in Turkey and Armenia, of such dreadful tales of suffering and death of the only Christian people in the Near East, that I determined on my return to America, to help get the facts before the people of the United States regarding the cruelties which the Armenians and Syrians have suffered at the hands of the Turks, and of the starvation that those who are not already dead are now facing.

"The Near East Relief, formerly known as the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief, has been and is still carrying on a wonderfully efficient work, relieving distress, feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, caring for the widow and orphan, conducting hospitals, rescuing Christian girls from the harems of the Turks, Kurds and Tartars, the field of their activities is so broad as to defy description and is known the world over for its effectiveness.

"The Committee was formed because during the war the American Red Cross was not allowed in Turkish territory—and all this country was in the hands of the Turks. The Red Cross, however, has helped from the very first and we feel will continue to do so by the administration of the work and the spending of the funds is in the hands of the Near East Relief. The Red Cross is releasing a number of specially trained nurses for the work and they are taking up their tasks in the eight hospitals now being conducted in Armenia and Syria by the Near East Relief.

"The national chairman of the Near East Relief, Dr. James L. Barton, just returned from a tour of inspection of the work and the stories of suffering that he brings back are fairly staggering—it is hard for our American people to realize that such suffering can exist in the world today. That children are living like dogs on scraps and offal that mothers drown their babies because the parched breasts will not furnish nourishment—that men, women and children eat grass like Nebuchadnezzar of old that nakedness is a reproach in a land that has known so much of it for the past five years—these things are past by the happy, prosperous Americans who have every necessity and many luxuries.

"But these things exist today in the Near East and will continue to exist until these people have the opportunity of repatriating themselves and planting and harvesting a crop that they may be able to feed themselves. But eight hundred thousand people in Armenia alone are refugees from home. They are being repatriated as rapidly as possible but in many cases to send a family back to the town where they formerly lived to live simply means to condemn them to sure death, as unless there is a supply depot of the Near East Relief at that point, they will have no means of supply during the winter which is now on them—for the large towns are wrecks, devastated by war in many cases. Where there is no assurance that the refugees can be taken care of or can take care of themselves when they arrive at some place they are sent there with a supply of food that will last them until they can get supplies of their own.

"One marvelous feature of the work is that these refugees much prefer being given the opportunity of earning their support to being objects of charity. They are a thrifty people and have never been beggars. For that reason, the Near East Relief is opening many rug factories, looms for the making of clothes and other small industries that will occupy the hands of these people and that will help to re-establish normal conditions once more.

ALABAMA RAPIDLY MOVING TOWARDS REPUBLICAN GOAL

CONSTANT TREND IN DIRECTION OF PARTY OF AMERICANISM HAS RECEIVED IMPETUS

Young Men Join Republicans

Broadening of Views and the Clear Political Perceptions Hasten Day of Full Control.

Washington, Dec. 23—The constant trend of the state or Alabama to the Republican party has received a tremendous impetus during the past year according to Pope M. Long, Republican State Chairman, who attended the meeting of the Association of State Chairmen in Washington.

"We now have twenty Republican counties in Alabama," said Mr. Long, "and although this is not enough to control the state, we are making very rapid strides toward the day when Alabama will have the same opportunity to select its public men from contending Reublican and Democratic tickets that is now enjoyed by the northern states. A large majority of our young men who were Democrats when they went away to war have come back to Alabama to join the Republican party. They are all from Democratic families, but they have seen a lot of the outside world, their views have broadened, and they have had a political awakening.

"We have no doubt that we actually carried the seventh Congaressional district in the recent special election. We carried five out of the seven counties in the district, but in two other counties we were not sufficiently represented, and the Democrats managed to count enough votes to offset our majority in five counties. However, this special election had a splendid effect in revealing the greater strength of the Republican party in Alabama, and the fight goes on energetically and enthusiastically."

ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS APPROVE TREATY STAND

Rank and File of Party in that State Stand Solidly Behind Senate Action.

Washington, Dec. 24—Mayor Walter H. Wood, of Cairo, Illinois, who has been in Washington mingling with the Republican politicians and also attending the waterways meeting, says the Republicans of southern Illinois are solidly for the stand taken by the Republicans in the Senate on the peace treaty.

Mayor Wood is a well-known Republican leader in his state who has his ear to the ground and knows what the rank and file of the people are thinking and talking.

GREATEST CONVENTION IN THE HISTORY OF PARTY

Republican Conclave at Chicago in June So Considered by Some Prominent Participants.

Washington, December 23.—The greatest political convention ever held in this country—that is a fact assured with respect to the republican convention at Chicago the 8th of June.

While it has long been plain that the convention would be one of exceptional magnitude it has become more than ever that this will be the case since the national committee at its recent meeting at Washington, where the time and place were fixed, discussed in a general way the plans for it.

With the announcement of the time and place, demands for seating have already begun to flow in to the convention committee, headed by National Committeeman A. T. Hert, of Kentucky.

Not only is there nation-wide interest stirred among republicans but the fact the women are to have so prominent a part in the campaign this year will tend to bring about a large attendance of women at the Chicago Convention.

National Chairman Hays said there was no doubt the forthcoming convention would be the greatest one ever held in this country.

Mr. Hert expressed the same opinion. Mr. Hert said that he had never before in his political life had such a great early demand for convention tickets.

The Convention committee will be called together soon by Mr. Hert and it will begin active planning for the convention. The standing committee of newspaper correspondents at the Capitol will have a representative at the convention to make known the wants of the press.

MT. CREEK GRAPHITE MILL BURNED TUESDAY MORNING

Mr. R. L. Clark of Mt. Creek, was in Clanton Tuesday. The mill in connection with nearby graphite mines has been in operation at Mt. Creek for several years. The destruction was complete, and is the second time the plant has burned.

ADMINISTRATION IS UNABLE TO BLAME THE SENATE ACTION

ABORTIVE ATTEMPT THROUGH ATTORNEY GENERAL TO DUCK SUGAR RESPONSIBILITY

Design Balked By Tinkham

Congressman Say Statements Made By Cabinet Officer are Very Misleading.

Washington, Dec. 23—The attempt of the Administration, through the Attorney General, to shift the public blame for the present shortage of sugar from the shoulders of the President into the Senate and House has been promptly balked by Representative Tinkham, of Massachusetts, in a speech before the House on this important topic.

The Attorney General, in a recent statement, lamented the fact that the administration would lose all control over the sugar situation after January 1 through the dissolution of the Sugar Equalization Board, and sought to create the impression that Congress not having provided for its cintinuance beyond that date was responsible for the present shortage of sugar and cinsequent high prices. In reply to this statement, Mr. Tinkham stated emphatically that it has been within the power of the President for many months to assure the country an adequate supply of sugar by purchasing the Cuban crop, and that his failure to do so, although repeatedly urged to act in the matter, was the sole reason for the present depletion of the country's sugar supply, and for the increased scarcity which it must face for many months.

"The statement of the Attorney General is not only misleading, but false—false because the Sugar Equalization Board had the right with the assent of the President to purchase, and misleading because the country would draw from his statement the conclusion that Congress was responsible for the situation that exists and not the president.

"Had the President done as requested in the two communications received by him from the equalization board, then the price of ugar would have been stabilized and largely controlled in price, as the price of the Cuban crop sets the basic price for all sugar in the United States. There was all the law and facilities necessary to do this thing.

"I want now to draw statistically a few conclusion which result from the President not doing as requested by the Sugar Equalization Board. When the first letter was sent to the President, the average price of Cuban sugar was 6½ cents per pound.

"The price of the same sugar now is about 8½ cents per pound, and is constantly rising. The American consumption of sugar is about 4,000,000 tons per annum, and the difference of 2 cents per pound amounts to $180,000,000, which must be paid by the American people over what might have been paid. As the price of Cuban sugar will undoubtedly increase from 8½ to 10½ or 12½ cents per pound, there will be an additional cost to the American people over what that cost might have been, if the advice of the Equaliation Board had been followed by the President, of $360,000,000 or $540,000,000 for the next year."

1920 NATIONAL CENSUS TO BE PUT TO FINISH

The Fourteen Decennial Census, to which President Wilson has called the attention of the Nation in his Proclamation made public today, is to be the biggest, best and most complete census of the United States ever taken if the plans of the Census Bureau do not go awry.

Director of the Census Sam I Rogers has announced that everything is in readiness to begin the canvassing campaign that during the month of January, 1920, will cover every mansion, every cottage and every hut in the country. An army of 87,000 enumerators, under the direction of 372 census supervisors, will be engaged in making the count. Every person in the land will be enumerated and the names, ages, birthplaces, and occupations of all of Uncle Sam's neices and nephew will be set down and forwarded to Washington.

Many other questions concerning home tenure, citizenship, martial status, literacy, sex, color and race are contained in the population schedule which the enumerators will fill out from the answers given them.

Farmers also will be asked the questions contained in the agriculture schedule relating to their farms. These questions cover farm tenure, farm products, values of farm lands, builders, implements and improvements, field crops, garden products, farm expenses, live-stock, poultry, bees, dairy products, improved and unimproved land, farm drainage and irrigation—in fact, all phases of the farming industry are covered.

Even the family Ford will be counted, as in fact, will all automobiles and tractors on farms. Questions as to telephones and electric-light, gas and water plant also are included in the group of inquiries which fall under the general heading of "farm facilities," the purpose of the government in collecting information of this character being to show the modern improvements installed on farms during the past decade. Information Confidential.

The Census Bureau desires to emphasize the fact that the information gathered in the Census is for general statistical purposes only and that such information cannot be used as a basis for taxation. Nor can such information be used to harm any person in any way. This is pointed out in the President's Proclamation.

As a matter of fact, the identity of individuals is lost as soon as the filled-out schedules are received at Washington. For upon reaching there the information is transferred from the sheets to cards. This is done by machinery and names are discarded entirely. Moreover, every person connected with the taking of the Census is prohibited by Federal law from divulging any information given them in the performance of their duties.

The Bureau of the Census has always had the willing co-operation of the public in the past and confidently looks forward to that same spirit of co-operation for the Census of 1920.

CONVENTION TO BE MOST NOTABLE IN HISTORY OF PARTY

PRELIMINARY PLANS FOR NEXT REPUBLICAN MEETING MADE ON A VERY LARGE SCALE

All Pary Workers Welcome

Seats will be Provided for Everyone Who will be Responsible for The Spirited Campaign.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Preliminary plans for the Republican national convention at Chicago on June 8 - 26 outlined by Chairman Will Hays at the recent meeting of the Republican National Committee in this city, indicate that this will be one of the most notable conventions ever held in the history of the party. Certainly it will be the largest, in the number of party workers entitled to official seat in the convention, for although the number of delegates has been slightly reduced, Chairman Haye has suggested, and the suggestion has been enthusiastically endorsed, that seats of honor shall be providede in the convention for those party workers in each state who will be officially responsible for the spirited campaign which will follow the selection of a party condidate at Chicago.

The list will include the state chairman of each state, the head of the womens division of the Republican party in each state, and the chairmen of the women's branch of the ways and means committees. Mr. Hays believes that these party workers should be given every recognition at Chicago, and that they will thus be better prepared to take up the work of the campaign. The Chairman announced that although the auditorium at Chicago, in which the convention will be held, had been enlarged, it was his purpose to have just as many of the leading party workers in attendance as he could crowd into the floor, and that he believed the convention would be a record-braker for attendance and enthusiasm.

NEED LOSE NO SLEEP OVER EUROPE'S STAND

Senator Brandegee Believes What all the Nations want is Chance to Accept Reservations.

Washington, Dec. 23.—According to Senator Brandegee of Connecticut none need lose a moment's sleep over the question of the European nations not accepting the League of Nations with the reservations proposed by the Republicans. Senator Brandegee believe that Europe will accept the Americanized pact if given the chance to do it.

However, this special election had a splendid effect in revealing the greater strength of the Republican party in Alabama, and the fight goes on energetically and enthusiastically."

ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS APPROVE TREATY STAND

Rank and File of Party in that State Stand Solidly Behind Senate Action.

Washington, Dec. 24—Mayor Walter H. Wood, of Cairo, Illinois, who has been in Washington mingling with the Republican politicians and also attending the waterways meeting, says the Republicans of southern Illinois are solidly for the stand taken by the Republicans in the Senate on the peace treaty.

Mayor Wood is a well-known Republican leader in his state who has his ear to the ground and knows what the rank and file of the people are thinking and talking.

GREATEST CONVENTION IN THE HISTORY OF PARTY

Republican Conclave at Chicago in June So Considered by Some Prominent Participants.

Washington, December 23.—The greatest political convention ever held in this country—that is a fact assured with respect to the republican convention at Chicago the 8th of June.

While it has long been plain that the convention would be one of exceptional magnitude it has become more than ever that this will be the case since the national committee at its recent meeting at Washington, where the time and place were fixed, discussed in a general way the plans for it.

With the announcement of the time and place, demands for seating have already begun to flow in to the convention committee, headed by National Committeeman A. T. Hert, of Kentucky.

Not only is there nation-wide interest stirred among republicans but the fact the women are to have so prominent a part in the campaign this year will tend to bring about a large attendance of women at the Chicago Convention.

National Chairman Hays said there was no doubt the forthcoming convention would be the greatest one ever held in this country.

Mr. Hert expressed the same opinion. Mr. Hert said that he had never before in his political life had such a great early demand for convention tickets.

The Convention committee will be called together soon by Mr. Hert and it will begin active planning for the convention. The standing committee of newspaper correspondents at the Capitol will have a representative at the convention to make known the wants of the press.

ADMINISTRATION IS UNABLE TO BLAME THE SENATE ACTION

Design Balked By Tinkham

Congressman Say Statements Made By Cabinet Officer are Very Misleading.

Washington, Dec. 23—The attempt of the Administration, through the Attorney General, to shift the public blame for the present shortage of sugar from the shoulders of the President into the Senate and House has been promptly balked by Representative Tinkham, of Massachusetts, in a speech before the House on this important topic.

The Attorney General, in a recent statement, lamented the fact that the administration would lose all control over the sugar situation after January 1 through the dissolution of the Sugar Equalization Board, and sought to create the impression that Congress not having provided for its cintinuance beyond that date was responsible for the present shortage of sugar and cinsequent high prices. In reply to this statement, Mr. Tinkham stated emphatically that it has been within the power of the President for many months to assure the country an adequate supply of sugar by purchasing the Cuban crop, and that his failure to do so, although repeatedly urged to act in the matter, was the sole reason for the present depletion of the country's sugar supply, and for the increased scarcity which it must face for many months.

"The statement of the Attorney General is not only misleading, but false—false because the Sugar Equalization Board had the right with the assent of the President to purchase, and misleading because the country would draw from his statement the conclusion that Congress was responsible for the situation that exists and not the president.

"Had the President done as requested in the two communications received by him from the equalization board, then the price of ugar would have been stabilized and largely controlled in price, as the price of the Cuban crop sets the basic price for all sugar in the United States. There was all the law and facilities necessary to do this thing.

"I want now to draw statistically a few conclusion which result from the President not doing as requested by the Sugar Equalization Board. When the first letter was sent to the President, the average price of Cuban sugar was 6½ cents per pound.

"The price of the same sugar now is about 8½ cents per pound, and is constantly rising. The American consumption of sugar is about 4,000,000 tons per annum, and the difference of 2 cents per pound amounts to $180,000,000, which must be paid by the American people over what might have been paid. As the price of Cuban sugar will undoubtedly increase from 8½ to 10½ or 12½ cents per pound, there will be an additional cost to the American people over what that cost might have been, if the advice of the Equaliation Board had been followed by the President, of $360,000,000 or $540,000,000 for the next year."

1920 NATIONAL CENSUS TO BE PUT TO FINISH

The Fourteen Decennial Census, to which President Wilson has called the attention of the Nation in his Proclamation made public today, is to be the biggest, best and most complete census of the United States ever taken if the plans of the Census Bureau do not go awry.

Director of the Census Sam L Rogers has announced that everything is in readiness to begin the canvassing campaign that during the month of January, 1920, will cover every mansion, every cottage and every hut in the country. An army of 87,000 enumerators, under the direction of 372 census supervisors, will be engaged in making the count. Every person in the land will be enumerated and the names, ages birthplaces, and occupations of all of Uncle Sam's neices and nephew will be set down and forwarded to Washington.

Many other questions concerning home tenure, citizenship, martial status, literacy, sex, color and race are contained in the population schedule which the enumerators will fill out from the answers given them.

Farmers also will be asked the questions contained in the agriculture schedule relating to their farms. These questions cover farm tenure, farm products, values of farm lands builders, implements and improvements, field crops, garden products, farm expenses, live-stock, poultry, bees, dairy products, improved and unimproved land, farm drainage and irrigation—in fact, all phases of the farming industry are covered.

Even the family Ford will be counted, as in fact, will all automobiles and tractors on farms. Questions as to telephones and electric-light, gas and water plant also are included in the group of inquiries which fall under the general heading of "farm facilities," the purpose of the government in collecting information of this character being to show the modern improvements installed on farms during the past decade. Information Confidential.

The Census Bureau desires to emphasize the fact that the information gathered in the Census is for general statistical purposes only and that such information cannot be used as a basis for taxation. Nor can such information be used to harm any person in any way. This is pointed out in the President's Proclamation.

As a matter of fact, the identity of individuals is lost as soon as the filled-out schedules are received at Washington. For upon reaching there the information is transferred from the sheets to cards. This is done by machinery and names are discarded entirely. Moreover, every person connected with the taking of the Census is prohibited by Federal law from divulging any information given them in the performance of their duties.

The Bureau of the Census has always had the willing co-operation of the public in the past and confidently looks forward to that same spirit of co-operation for the Census of 1920.

CONVENTION TO BE MOST NOTABLE IN HISTORY OF PARTY

All Pary Workers Welcome

Seats will be Provided for Everyone Who will be Responsible for The Spirited Campaign.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Preliminary plans for the Republican national convention at Chicago on June 8 as outlined by Chairman Will Hays at the recent meeting of the Republican National Committee in this city, indicate that this will be one of the most notable conventions ever held in the history of the party. Certainly it will be the largest, in the number of party workers entitled to official seat in the convention, for although the number of delegates has been slightly reduced, Chairman Haye has suggested, and the suggestion has been enthusiastically endorsed, that seats of honor shall be providede in the convention for those party workers in each state who will be officially responsible for the spirited campaign which will follow the selection of a party condidate at Chicago.

The list will include the state chairman of each state, the head of the womens division of the Republican party in each state, and the chairmen of the women's branch of the ways and means committees. Mr. Hays believes that these party workers should be given every recognition at Chicago, and that they will thus be better prepared to take up the work of the campaign. The Chairman announced that although the auditorium at Chicago, in which the convention will be held, had been enlarged, it was his purpose to have just as many of the leading party workers in attendance as he could crowd into the floor, and that he believed the convention would be a record-braker for attendance and enthusiasm.

Washington, Dec. 23.—According to Senator Brandegee of Connecticut none need lose a moment's sleep over the question of the European nations not accepting the League of Nations with the reservations proposed by the Republicans. Famous Women Adopt Armenian Waifs

ADOPTED ARMENIAN WAIFS

There are at least three happy little Armenians in this holiday season among the more than a quarter of a million pittiable little waifs who are innocent victims of Turkish barbarity. These three have found fairy godmothers in these famous American women, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President; Mrs. Oliver Harriman and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt. It is hoped that thousands of other American women will follow these distinguished leaders and signalize the glad holiday season in America by making happy in the same way thousands of other little orphans in the far-off stricken land where they now are being cared for by Near East Relief, 1 Madison Avenue, N. Y.

NOT SICK AND NOT WELL

In The Peculiar Situation Described, ZIRON Iron Tonic Is Found Helpful.

It often happens that the organs of your body do not function properly, for some reason or other. There is nothing really wrong, and you are not sick. But certainly you are not well, either.

If you are in such a condition, read what Mr. Wm. M. Bass, Rt. 1, Crossville Ala., did, and try Ziron Iron Tonic, as he did. Mr. Bass says:

"I am nearly always pretty well and strong and do not need much medicine excepting for headaches. But, recently, when I had not been feeling very well for a while, I knew I needed some sort of medicine to make me all right.

I took Ziron and it made me strong and well again."

Ziron puts iron into the blood, and, by doing this, may prevent a serious attack of illness, which you are liable to "catch" at any time if your system is weakened or your condition below par.

Ziron has well proven its value as a tonic. Try it when you feel the least bit out of sorts, not quite as good as usual tired and weary.

Your druggist sells Ziron on a money-back guarantee. ZN 10

ALLENBY STOPS GRAFT OF TURK

Persecution of Armenians and Confiscation of Property Prevented by English Officer.

The most arbitrary city boss in the world, it seems safe to say, as well as the most unscrupulous politician of modern times, has turned up in Aintab, Armenia, to judge from an official report recently made by Major Stephen Trowbridge, under Gen. Edmund H. H. Allenby's orders.

He is a Turk named Besim Bey. Until the Near East Relief agents stopped him, he practiced upon the terrified Armenians such forms of super-graft as might well make every other corrupt politician in the world green with envy, and such cruelties as make all other heartless rulers, from Nero down, seem sweet and gentle characters. His office was that of Municipal Chief Accountant of Aintab; but, as all dishonest office-holders know, it isn't the job that matters, but the sugar-plums that go with it. Besim Bey plucked sugar-plums with both hands, night and day.

Even inspired city bosses have their day. Besim Bey's came when the Near East Relief agents found that no thorough Armenian relief work could be done in that city while such conditions of terrorization existed. General MacAndrew ordered the arrest and removal of the six worst Turks in the ring that ruled the city, and Besim Bey qualified, as usual, for first place.

THOUGHT MY LIVER WAS ON STRIKE

Head Was Giddy; Spots Danced Before My Eyes; Breath Foul; Was Tired and Drowsy. Dreco Wiped It Out.

"I have suffered for quite a while with sluggish liver; at times I would get so dizzy I would have to stop and sit down; spots would dance before my eyes; I had headaches and a bad taste in my mouth; my appetite became poor, and my food did not digest nor give me strength; my stomach was often sour, while gas and bloating caused me much uneasiness. The pains often extended around to my back and limbs so that it was an effort to keep on with my work," says Mr. W. T. Burton of 1001 Lambert Ave., Mobile, Ala.

"There was so much talk about and praise being given Decro I decided to try it. The first bottle proved to me it was a good medicine, as it soothed my stomach and relieved the gas-forming. I continued the treatment, and never have a dizzy spell nor see the spots before my eyes; my bowels act regular; my appetite is fine, and the food digests and gives me strength. I don't have any more pains in my back or limbs, and haven't had a headache in a long time. Dreco is a good medicine, and I gladly add my words of praise for it."

Dreco acts on the liver in a smooth, gentle manner, gradually working off the excess bile day by day. It is neither strong nor harsh, and does not excite the muscles of the bowels, as strong cathartics do. It tones up the digestive organs and relieves gas on the stomach; puts an end to constipation; increases the appetite; gives strength to weak kidneys; restores tired nerves, and induces sound sleep. Dreco is a great blood purifier and system cleanser.

Dreco is sold by all druggists and is highly recommended in this city by

LAST NIGHT OF THE YEAR IS GOING TO BE BIG ONE.

Clanton is going to "ring out the old year and ring in the new," with a celebrity never before equaled in these woods. There are lots of things to be done on the last night in December here, and the most of the program will center around the big banquet that is going to be pulled off by the Clanton Camp of the Modern Woodmen of America.

Mr. H. L. Hurst, the local District Deputy, is planning the program and everything points to a decidedly successful occasion. There will be a banquet at the Exchange Hotel for the members of the local camp. Besides the feast of good things to eat there will likewise be a feast for the ears of the banqueters. The Clanton Boy Scouts Band is going to furnish music for the occasion.

After the banquet the attraction will be an address on Fraternity at the court house. Judge Bill Brandon will be the speaker and there is no use to to say any more on this subject. Everybody in Alabama knows "Plain Old Bill" and his reputation as a forceful an entertaining speaker is common knowledge in every home in the State. We know everybody in Clanton will be on hand to hear Judge Brandon.

After the speaking the Modern Woodmen will take charge of The Ideal Theatre, where pictures of the "TB" Sanitorium will be shown. This is an institution owned and maintained by the order in Colorado for treatment of tuberculosis victims, who are members of the Modern Woodmen. It will be inteserting to see scenes of the place on the screen.

After the picture show is over, we don't know what will happen. But there will be something going on till after midnight. You are sure not to sleep any before late hours if you are in Clanton.

LET HENRY TELL IT.

The Republican Congressional majority is entitled to one distinction, thinks the Birmingham Ledger—it accomplished less in six months than any other ever attempted not to do.—Coosa River News.

It is not a matter of what it did do, it is what it didn't do that ought to win the praise of every patriot in America. It didn't ratify the league of nations and the next time you hear from it the league of nations will not be adopted. The Republican majority won a cool million votes in the United States because it held the feet of the league advocates to the fire. You hillbillies who play at editing a newspaper ought to get yourself a good newspaper outside of your hide-know what caused the slump, likewise bound democratic papers and post yourself on what the people think. Bet a doughnut against a steamboat that the editor of the Coosa River News has not seen a paper outside of the hidebound variety in two years. He don't know anything in a political way that is going on except when the vote was counted in Kentucky and the republicans rolled up a majority of near fifty thousand—and Kentucky is Democratic too. He don't even know what coused the slump, likewise Massachusetts; ditto our own Seventh Alabama district; also Oklahoma and everywhere else where the league was an issue.—Cillinsville Courier.

THANK YOU, WILLIAM.

The publishers of The Union-Banner are grateful to Mr. W. H. Sartor, Manager of Elmore's, for the interest he takes in our paper and the progress of Clanton in every way. Last week Mr. Sartor thought our Christmas edition was a credit to our town and county, and he sent several copies away to his friends. He received a very commendatory reply from the Goodall Brown Dry Goods Co., of Birmingham in which they congratulate Mr. Sartor for his Christmas advertisement, and also the publishers of the paper for the achievement produced. We wish to thank Mr. Sartor for his interest in the paper, and the kind words he is always ready to put in for the progress of Clanton.

WILSON'S ADVICE RECORD.

We should like to have Democratic editors make a list of instances in which President Wilson has proven to be a wise adviser or leader of the American people. We challenge them to name one instance in which time has proven the wisdom of the President's advice. We will go further than that and issue the challenge not merely to Democratic editors but to Democrats in general. And, just to refresh their memories, we will cite a few instances of important subjects upon which the President has advised the American people.

He advised and secured repeal of the law which gave free tolls to the American coast-wise shipping thru the Panama Canal—thus discouraging American shipping by water.

He advised and secured the enactment of a tariff-for-revenue-only law which opened our markets to foreign producers, closed mills and threw millions of men out of work, before the war created abnormal industrial activity.

During the early years of the war, and until public opinion would bear it no longer, he advised against preparedness, declaring that advocates of preparedness were "nervous and excited."

After the sinking of the Lusitania he declared that America was "too proud to fight."

He advied and secured the enactment of the infamous Adamson law, which was the beginning of our industrial troubles.

He advised against a literary test in the immigration laws, and vetoed a bill establishing such a test.

He advised executive clemency for Mooney, lest the enforcement of the law displease the bolshevists of Russia.

He advised clemency for Hillstrom the convicted I. W. W. murderer in Utah and expressed regret that he was unable to persuade the governor to grant his request.

He advised interweaving the league of nation covenant in the peace treaty thus delaying peace and creating international ill-feeling.

He advised departure from Washington's policy of non-interference in European affairs.

He advised that the United States join in a league of nations in which Great Britain would have six votes to our one.

He advised making the Monroe doctrine subject to interpretation by a league of nations council or assembly.

He advised what he called making the "supreme sacrifice" of American nationalism to the league of nations.

He advised the subordination of American industry to an international labor conference provided for by the treaty of peace.

In which of these instances will our Democratic neighbors undertake to defend the Wilson administration through the campaign of 1920? We respectfully submit the above to the Democratic newspapers of Alabama, all the way from the large mouthed variety like the Birmingham News, on down to the hide-bound weeklies like the Opp Messenger and the Ensley Enterprise.

After Senator Irvine L. Lenroot had answered charges made by Senator Underwood against the Republican Congress, in a recent tilt upon the floor of the Senate, Mr. Underwood said: "I wish to assure the Senator from Wisconsin with whom I have been associated for many years that my intelligence runs along a different line to his on that subject." Mr. Lenroot answered: "Well mine does not run in a groove made for me by the President of the United States" wherein Senator Lenroot told the whole story of the majority of the Democratic Senators who have been and still are, nothing but puppets for the administration head now sitting in the White House.

Emmett McKee, a member of the Alabama National Guard, is here for Christmas.

You are the only one who can attend to your home

And your home, your family, is your duty.

You should not, therefore, do things outside your home which someone else can do better and cheaper than you can yourself.

We are thinking especially of excessive grocery "shopping" and carrying home a heavy basket.

There's no need for you to rob your home of your attention by doing these things, because at our store we do them for you.

We do your grocery shopping by carrying only the best products and selling them to you at fair honest proces. And we send them home for you because we believe we can perform this service cheaper and better, and certainly more satisfactory than you can do it for yourself.

We are service grocers. We believe than beinggrocers means something more than just having things for sale. Part of your service consists in telling you about the good things we have discovered in our "Shopping for you."

For example, there's RYZON Baking Powder.

We recommend RYZON because it is the scientific product of a great chemical organization; because after testing it in our own homes we find it to be truly economical and thoroughly efficient. It is 40c per pound—and if you haven't a RYZON Baking Book ask about it at once.

AUTUMN.

Home seasons of magicians who aspire
To tell great nature's victory of days
In royal grandeur! Lo the flaming fire,
The arching sky with triumph all ablaze!
And in the trees the wind sung hymns of praise!
Each frost-kissed leaf a noble ensign waves.
In gorgeous colors 'neath the gleam and glow.
An irridescent limpid ocean leaves
Its quiet shore in calm tranquil flow
Speaks no foreboding of the coming snow.
The murmuring echoes of sweet symphonies
Enthrall the ear. The lovers of bygone hours
Waft incense rare of hallowed memories
And in the silences of forest bowers
Lurks benedictions from the summer's flowers.
Lo, Autumn came with glories manifold
To tell the garnered treasures of the year!
Unnumbered blessings rest within her hold,
And in her heart the promise sacred, dear—
A goodly harvesting of love andcheer!

Many physicians believe that anyone who has a bad cold should be completely isolated to prevent other members of the family and associates from contracting the disease, as colds are about as catching as measles. One thing sure—the sooner one rids himself of a cold, the less danger,, and you will look a good while before you find a better medicine than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to aid you in curing a cold.

MORGENTHAU PLEADS FOR A HELPING HAND IN THE NEAR EAST.

Former Ambassador to Turkey Says America Should Not Let Armenian Allies Starve.

By HENRY MORGENTHAU,

Former Ambassador to Turkey and Leader in Near East Relief.

If they were good enough to fight and die for us when we needed their help so sorely, they are good enough now to share some meager little crumbs from our plenty when they have nothing, when hundreds of thousands of them are homeless, unclad, foodless and threatened with extermination by their enemies and our own.

Not far from a million Christians have been murdered by their Turkish oppressors. Hungry, terror stricken hundreds of thousands of refugees now look to the United States for succor.

Have Trust in America.

We cannot refuse. Next to their faith in God is their trust in the disinterested good will and generosity of the American people. They look to us as the human agency to extricate them from the frightful situation in which they have been left as a consequence of the war.

If we should fail to aid them, starvation and the winter's cold would go far to completing the work done by the unspeakable Turk.

I have not seen with my own eyes the misery in which the Armenians now exist. I have been spared that. But the reports which have been brought in by agents of the Near East Relief and by representatives of the Peace Conference paint a picture of wretchedness inconceivable to those who have not a first hand impression of the savagery of the Mussulman.

Exiled From Homes.

Since the beginning of the war the Turkish Armenians have been largely refugees from their homes. A simple agricultural people, they have been exiles from their farms, deprived of all opportunity to support themselves. Year by year their sufferings have increased. Now, a year after fighting has ceased, they are still living the life of nomads, able to continue to keep alive only by virtue of American philanthropy.

These homeless people—"filthy infidels" to the Turk—were good enough to exert their poor might in our behalf while the war was still in the balance. Massacres of a half century had not so broken their spirit that they dared not fight for right and for democracy when justice was the issue. We accepted their aid then. Surely we shall not pass them by without compassion now.

The day has passed when any self respecting man dares permit absorption in his own personal affairs to exclude consideration of his neighbor's well being. No honorable man can knowingly allow his neighbor to hunger or to go unclothed. The Christian peoples of the Near East are our neighbors. The money needed to relieve them can be spared without causing any man, woman or child in the United States to suffer.

Must Not Rest on Past.

In other years of our own free will we sent missionaries to Turkey. Our schools and colleges and hospitals have played a wonderful role in humanizing that dark spot in the world. Our ideas, our educational resources, our material equipment, have been leaven in the Near East. Because we have done well in times past we have this great opportunity for the present.

The Armenians have been treated as perhaps no people in history have been treated because they are the spiritual brothers of western races.

Will America help them? There can be but one answer. Their necessity is dire, but our power is great. We are wealthy. We are a member of the family of nations. Our brothers call us. Food, clothes, money, are immediately wanted. If ever unmerited suffering called for succor the plight of the Armenians should be heeded now. A few months more and it may be relief will be too late for those myriads whom only we can save. We shall not fail them.

The said lands will be sold at public auction on the 22nd day of January. 1920, between the hours of eleven o'clock a.m., and four o'clock p.m., in front of the courthouse door in Clanton, Alabama, the said property being described as follows:

87,251 FORDS BUILT IN OCTOBER

Detroit Plant Sets New Record for Production.

October was a record-breaking month in the Ford Motor Company's home shops in Detroit. Production records showed a total of 87,251 cars assembled during the month. The previous record was 83,706 cars for May, 1917; whereas the total cars produced in October, 1918, was only 9,414.

These figures are especially significant because they so clearly indicate the success that has attended the Ford Company's remarkable transition from the manufacture of war material to those of peace times. Just as soon as the Armistice was signed and cancellation of government contracts was received, The Ford Motor Company without decreasing the number of employees bent toward the re-establishmbent of its pre-war concentrated production, and the 75,000 car increase of October, 1919, over that of October, 1918 tells its own story.

There are now employed in the Ford shops in Detroit approximately 70,000 men, 55,000 of which are working in the main plant in Highland Park.

The railways of the United States are more than one-third, nearly one-half, of all the railways of the world. They carry a yearly traffic so much greater than that of any other country that there is really no basis for comparison. Indeed, the traffic of any two nations may be combined, and still it does not approach the commerce of America borne upon American railways.

—United States Senator Cummins.

Ask Any Doughboy Who Was "Over There" and he will tell you that American railroads are the best in the world.

He saw the foreign roads — in England and France, the best in Europe — and in other Continental countries — and he knows.

The part railroads have played in the development of the United States is beyond measure.

American railroads have achieved high standards of public service by far-sighted and courageous investment of capital, and by the constant striving of managers and men for rewards for work well done.

We have the best railroads in the world — we must continue to have the best.

But they must grow.

To the $20,000,000,000 now invested in our railroads, there will have to be added in the next few years, to keep pace with the nation's business, billions more for additional tracks, stations and terminals, cars and engines, electric power houses and trains, automatic signals, safety devices, the elimination of grade crossings — and for reconstruction and engineering economies that will reduce the cost of transportation.

To attract to the railroads in the future the investment funds of many thrifty citizens, the directing genius of the most capable builders and managers, and the skill and loyalty of the best workmen — in competition with other industries bidding for capital, managers and men — the railroad industry must hold out fair rewards to capital, to managers and to the men.

American railroads will continue to set world standards and adequately serve the Nation's needs if they continue to be built and operated on the American principle of rewards for work well done.

"The 52 Biggest Problems of the Average Southern Farmer."

Every member of The Progressive Farmer staff has had actual farm experience—most of us are running southern farms now—and from our own experiences, and from the multitude of farmers' letters that come to us every year, we believe we have figured out a pretty nearly perfect list of these "fifty-two biggest problems" of the average Southern Farmer, and we are going to treat them in the next year's Progressive Farmer.

We are going to treat them, too, in order of timeliness, just as far as possible. For the aim of The Progressive Farmer, always, is to tell the subscriber just what he wants to know, just when he wants to know it, and in as few words as possible.

Here's the list of big problems we shall treat during the fall months, and the date on which each discussion will appear:

November 1—Financing the Farmer: (Personal and short term credit; Long-term Credit for Land Purchase; Avoiding "Time Prices"; Utilizing National Farm Loan Associations, etc.)

November 8—Systems of Farming—Affecting Soil Fertility, Money Profits, Prosperity and Permanence of Rural Life.

November 15—Arranging and Erecting Fences; Relative Value of Different Systems, Materials, etc.

November 22—How to Reduce Land Washing to a Minimum. (Terracing, Ditching, Filling Land with Humus, Proper Use of Steep Hillsides, etc.)

November 29—What Changes are Needed to Insure Better Health for Men, Women and Children on the Farm

December 6—Winter Care and Feeding of Horses, Mules, Cattle and Hogs.

December 13—Getting Rocks and Stumps off the Land.

December 20—How Farm Neighbors may Work Together for Greater Profits and Happiness.

December 27—Business Methods on the Farm (Inventories; Records; Accounts; Banking; Cost-Keeping; Advertising; System in Correspondence and Sales, etc.)

The above subjects are of vital importance to you, and alone are worth the price we ask, and remember The Progressive Farmer carries many other big featues not mentioned in the above list.

What Negroes Are Doing in Clanton

(By Robert Colley, Principal of Clanton Colored School.)

Last Sunday, though somewhat cool, was a fine day for church goers.

The writer attended Sunday School at Salem Church and preaching service at Friendship Church. We had quite a large attendance in Sunday School at Salem. The lesson was well taught, and during the review many points of interest were brought out by Bro. Benjamin and Bro. J. A. Wood. At Friendship Rev. Steinback, the pastor, was at the helm. He preached a forcible and inspiring sermon.

Among the many things he said was to call the attention of the audience to the fact that from our geographical location we are blessed for not being in the flood regions of last week. He depicted in a vivid way the sufferings of the people, and the necssity of everybody helping them. After the services Prof. Draper in his usual way raised a good collection.

The contract for the building of our school was let a few days ago to Messrs Varner and Hayes. The progress so far is slow, on account of the unfavorable condition of the weather. As the weather becomes favorable, we are looking forward to an early completion of the building. To facilitate the building of the school we have organized the school children into four clubs for the object of raising money for the purpose.

Our school was closed on December 20th for a nine days vacation.

At the close of our examination on the 19th 40 pupils were promoted to higher grades.

The colored people, judging from the way they are making purchases, are looking forward to a big Xmas.

Buth churches will have Christmas Trees, and fitting exercises on the occasion.

Several of our school boys and girls who have been at different points have arrived to spend the holidays with parents and friends. We wish for them an enjoyable time. We are planning to have an Emancipation Celebration on January 1st next. Services will be held at Salem Church both in the day and night. We are expecting to have some noted speakers both white and colored, to address us on the occasion.

"TIN COW" FOR FRENCH BABIES.

Washington.—Over in the Aisne, Somme and Ardennes districts of France, there are thousands and thousans of babies who will grow up in the belief that milk grows in little tin cans for in those districts the babies go out to lunch daily with their mothers, and are fed by the big "tin cow," which the Red Cross maintains there. It is virtually impossible to obtain fresh milk there, for this area withstood two invasions and two retreats by the Germans, and there are no cows because there is practically no grazing for them.

In this emergency the Red Cross not only promptly shipped in three carloads of condensed milk, but agreed to furnish an adequate supply of condensed milk for these districts during the next six months. With Laon and St. Quentin as the distributing centres, local French committees supply from twenty to thirty ruined villages, each with more than its share of undernourished infants. The mothers bring their babies to a milk station, where they are daily fed, weighed and given medical attention if required.

The large sum of $126,889.10 has been spent by the Red Cross in helping the families of service men in Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana. This help has been extended through the Home Service Stations of the local chapters. In this division 155,160 families have been aided. For the different states, the figures are as follows: Alabama, 56,354 families, $37,664.25; Louisiana, 63,164 families, $69,451.24; and Mississippi 35,642 families, $19,773.52.

During the past two years, Red Cross Canteens in all of the principal cities have supplied food to all men aboard troop trains. The following figures which are for the New Orleans Canteen only, show the extent of the work done: 28,815 meals were served at the Canteen; 37,644 meales were served at railroad stations, and 1,446 special meals were prepared for sick and wounded men, the total being 67,905 meals.

The First Aid Department of the Gulf Division American Red Cross has had a very active summer. Over 3,500 people studied first aid in classes conducted throughout the states of Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi. About 6,000 teachers received first aid instruction in Summer Normals and this instruction will be passed on to the students of over 800 High Schools in the Division.
